Dear not the FBI. At the booth there was one girl who walked past me eating cookies from a ziplock staring at the white mailing label then eating more cookies. Eventually she walked over and spoke to me and I could see the zombie in her eyes but it was her strange behavior that caught my attention. Sandra from Cycorp at cookies in a very similar fashion. Soon after that the place was flooded with A&M shirt wearing people so I think she was a student and that was her university. We know they target foster children because they often have no one. No parachute. They lose a job or get in trouble for speeding they have no one to loan them money or a couch to crash on. Its very easy to make them feel desperate and like they have no choice but to turn to crime or starve this is how you end up with an unsafe country. This is why I strongly believe the government should step in and offer a safety net for those in need. But they also target college students and other young people. If you have been raised in a strict home where you just followed your parents directions and never made decisions for yourself never decide for yourself what is right and what is wrong you are vulnerable. They can push you around just with an authoritative voice in your head. Rebelling against authority and strictures is often how you learn to appreciate them and understand the need for them it's just part of growing up but it can be isolating if your parents were very strict the kid ends up feeling orphaned when they strike out on their own. It really needs to be stressed to the youth that it is around 25 that your brain quits developing so substances that can harm brain development should be avoided or only in moderation. That way they can make informed choices when they decide to rebel. Yes I'm talking drugs alcohol but also unintentional exposure to poisons and pollution. Redemption is there for those that face the darkness in themselves and try to atone for it. My problem with Kavanaugh is yes I believe the women but consider this you have a man unwilling to admit to the sins in his past. Unwilling to face the darkness in himself how is he supposed to help our country face its dark past and heal itself. The man has made it very obvious he is extremely vulnerable to blackmail so the Russians probably have some video of him from a party. Anyway I think the cars now have antennas on them often hidden in an aftermarket roof rack and a ladder sometimes strapped to the top. I think many of the cars are missing their catalytic converter. I think whatever they are using is petroleum based and so it bonds and sticks better to gasoline and petroleum based detergents. If the car exhaust smells like laundry detergent you should be worried. They often use the airplane developed dry scent matching so they will match what scents you are wearing. So use light scents and when they try to cover up their paint thinner smelling poisons its more obvious. Love you guys you are all so brave.

Re: Kavanaugh Investigation: I'm asking a simple question that nobody has asked yet. There are very substantial issues that arise from it. "Where did Bret Kavanaugh go to grammar school?" "Did he play football there?" I attended an all-boys Catholic grammar school, and we started full-contact football in the 5th Grade! If Mr. Kavanaugh did as well, that at least doubles the number of concussions he may have received. Given the high level of athletic achievement Mr. Kavanaugh is proud of, and the additional Summer football camps he attended, it is reasonable to suspect that his "disjointed testimony" might have been the result of brain damage relating to repeated concussions. He might, in fact, Not Remember the incidents at issue at those hearings! Alcohol might have been a contributing factor, but "Early-Onset Dementia" cannot be ruled out! Please ask Mr. Kavanaugh if he will submit to a series of brain scans. (It takes more than one - CT, MRI, PET, and possibly an EEG.) Given his bizarre performance at the hearing, I would not and could not support his elevation to the Supreme Court without having the health of his brain examined. (A polygraph examination wouldn't hurt, but we know that's not going to happen.) Thanks for your time and attention.

[redacted] date of birth [redacted] address [redacted] home telephone number [redacted] called the FBI Public Access Line (PAL) Unit to report information pertaining to Nominee Judge Brett Kavanaugh in [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] provided the following information: b6 b7C

Information pertaining to Nominee Judge Brett Kavanaugh - According to [redacted] you are dealing with a 15 year old girl who attends a party, and has a beer. Then she goes upstairs to the bathroom with a full bladder, at the top of the stairs she is pushed into a bedroom by two guys, but could not see who it was because there were no lights on. The girl said she was pushed down on the bed by Brett Kavanaugh, and then he got on top of her. b6 b7C

[redacted] believes the best thing she could have done was void her bladder or open her bowels to get out of the situation. Kavanaugh would have had his hands between her legs and if she had voided her b6 b7C bladder or opened her bowels he would have stopped due to the smell and not wanting to get it on his hands. [redacted] thinks that is what should have happened and wonders why it did not.

b6
b7C

[redacted] believes the door had to be closed so they would not be seen, and according to the girls testimony she knew who grabbed her. While on the bed with Kavanaugh' s hand over her mouth, she looked at Martin Judge, and pleaded with her eyes for his help. He, (Martin Judge), then looked down and laughed.

How could she see anyone in the room and tell who it was if the lights were not on. [redacted] wanted to point out the flaws in her story.

Re: Justice Brett Kavanaugh Request Good mornng. I'm requesting that the FBI consider the following in their investigation into Brett Kavanaugh. Mr. Kavanaugh swore under oath that his daily calendar (which he faithfully maintained for 38 years) proves his innocence. Order him to produce EVERY calendar page for those 38 years to confirm they actually exist. Compare the handwriting then and now. I imagine it would be extremely difficult to manufacture 14,000 calendar entries on short notice. If possible, use forensics to confirm that the paper and ink used are from that era versus recently written. He claims he

b7C

b6

followed his father's example for keeping daily calendars. If so, ask his father to prove he also maintained calendars as his son states. If anything, this will substantiate the truth of that sworn statement. The assault of Dr. Ford allegedly occurred when she was a 15-year-old minor and Mr. Kavanaugh was 17. Yet Mr. Kavanaugh incorrectly asserted in testimony that he was of "legal drinking age" while consuming beer at the time. So which was it? Was he a minor illegally consuming alcohol at the time, or was he an 18-year-old adult man who is accused of sexually assaulting a minor child? Lastly, if I were Mark Judge, the witness to the alleged attack, I would want immunity. This would encourage him to truthfully state what really happened that night without fear of self-incrimination. Oh, and I would also want witness protection both before and after speaking with the FBI. About me: [redacted]

This is not a tip on terrorism. I could not find any other site that I could send an email to the FBI. As a retail investigator for over thirty years I found several discrepancies in Dr. Christy Brassly Ford' s statement, during the Brent Kavanaugh hearing. Some of these statements did not make sense and I feel that they need to be looked at and scrutinize a little closer. I'm pretty sure that the FBI has already gone over her statement, video statement and seen these discrepancies. In case you haven't, here are my observations. When Senator Leayh ask Dr. Ford what was her strongest memory she had. Dr.

Ford states, " It was the laughter, I was under one of them, while the two laughed." Either this was the slip of the tongue or she is referring to a separate incident. Why didn't she just say, while I was under Kavanaugh.??????????? When Dr. Ford talks about the radio and it being turned up. More than likely all the teens were probably downstairs talking. Who would have had a radio playing in this room she went into it? She then goes upstairs to go to the bathroom and is pushed into a room.. If the boys were extremely drunk as she states, they would not have thought of turning on the radio in the first place, unless they pre planned on doing this. Then they would have had to be sober. How she read her statement of the incident. This statement was well written. A victim would not need to read a statement. She would tell you how it happen and not rely on a piece of paper. In the letter she read to the committee, "the boys ping pong down the staircase" In the letter she sent to Feinstein, "they both loudly stumbled down the stairs case" Creative writing by someone. The constant smiling. You would think she was at a job interview or talking to a bunch of friends at a local gathering. Whose house was it. It didn't belong to her, it didn't belong to Kavanaugh, was it Marks's house, Lelands' or PJ Smiths. Nobody would have given up their house for a bunch of kids to party at. This could have easily been investigated. But now she adds that there might have been other people at the house. Which makes it difficult to determine whose house was it and where this incident took place. Why does she make reference to Mark Judge twice? She says she made eye contact with Mark while Brent was on top of her. Hoping that he would help her. Then there is the grocery incident. Is it possible that it was Mark that was the one on top of her and Brent was a bystander and did not help her. Was PJ Smith in the room and was also a bystander? She did use the word bystander when she was referring to PJ Smith, but later changed it. Why? I pretty sure that there is a lot more that I didn't catch or is to obvious too write about. . I hope I have been helpful. Regards,

Brett Kavanaugh participated in drafting the rules for the GWB admin that he said he had nothing to do when asked by Senator Durbin back in 2006. Kavanaugh lied to the Judiciary Committee when being considered for the District Court of Appeals (DCA). He was involved in setting the policies for the treatment of enemy combatants. June 25, 2007 WPO published a report that Brett Kavanaugh was involved in the crucial meeting (circa 2002) involving a conversation about detainees at Guantanamo. He told Senators during his confirmation hearings that he was not involving in the questions about the rules governing detention of combatants. "I do not have involvement with…" You can tell by his stuttering when answering that question that he was obviously lying through his teeth. We can't trust a lying federal judge to be a good Supreme Court (SC) judge. Dianne, you must stand up to Grassley to release the WH tenure papers of Kavanaugh during his time at the WH. The American people should be able to see for themselves what a lying federal judge Kavanaugh is. He was involved! He lied when it was politically expedient. If it had been known at the time that he actually attended that 2002 meeting, Kavanaugh would not have been in the DCA for the last dozen years plus. He should be castigated now! Not given a seat on the highest court of the land as a reward for lying to the American people. This is an injustice of the first kind. Benczkowski, made head of the Criminal Justice Division, a Russian and PT supporter, appears to do anything for the PT/GOP/ and Russian causes -cleared the Russian Alfa Bank in private practice and was allowed back into the DOJ. He allegedly has hidden and prevented information to reach prosecutors that would help the SC investigation in the Russia probe. AG Gonzales refused to answer Senator Leahy and did not respond to Leahy's referral to investigate whether Kavanaugh lied to Congress. The Justice Department guy who cleared Kavanaugh was Brian Benczkowski. Why am I not surprised? Brian signed the DOJ letter in response to Leahy's referral clearing Kavanaugh any further investigation. Of course, we now know that the letter that Gonzales wrote on waterboarding was informed by Kavanaugh. That's why you will not get all the Kavanaugh documents that the Dems in the Senate have requested. That's why you get Susan Rice at the hearing speaking for Kavanaugh - she was also involved on the coverup about Guantanamo and waterboarding. The whole GWB WH will fight to continue the coverup! Benczkowski has to be there to protect Kavanaugh and himself and the GWB WH from the lying to the American people. This is a huge coverup of extraordinary proportions! What are you going to do about it? Are you in on it too?

Ford-Kavanaugh: Is it possible that Dr. Ford had a traumatic dream event as a teenager? She doesn't remember where it was, how she got there, how she got home. She doesn't know who pushed her into the room. She doesn't claim there was a rape. People usually awaken before bodily harm. It's self-preservation. People usually remember traumatic parts of a dream but not the specifics. Dreams can be very believable and stay with us as truth for a lifetime.

I don't have any tips, just thoughts on the Kavanaugh case. [redacted] It was not at a beer party, [redacted] I have no clue who the sales guy was, but I do remember every detail of that encounter. As much as I was naive. b6 b7C

Give him a break. It's not like we can prove he had a steak since his college days.... like Bill Clinton did... and when got off the hook, for being inappropriate while in office! Thanks four listening.

Hello, First off, I would like to thank you all for your service to our country. I have followed the senate confirmation hearings for judge Kavanaugh. Right around the time, it was announced an FBI investigation would be initiated, I noticed friend suggestions start popping up on my Facebook with thumbnails on their profile pictures; typically, of judge Kavanaugh, Senator Graham, and President Trump. What struck me as odd is the account's I noticed were obviously fake. I only viewed a few. Out of the one's I did, one had a Georgia (former Soviet Republic) flag on the page along with one of the prior mentioned thumbnails. The English on the page was broken, it was obvious the person was not a native English speaker. I reported the page as "fake name" to Facebook. I noticed another about 30 minutes ago with Senator Graham's thumbnail on a Facebook profile. The name on the profile was obviously fake. I reported that as well. I didn't think to take notes or anything on the names of the profiles. I thought I saw a profile a couple nights ago with a word in the profile or in the name containing the word "sock puppet". I thought to myself, I have heard this term before. I thought it was a term for a fake account. The account's I have seen appear to have one thing in common. They don't have a diverse opinion. They popped up at a very specific time and have one message. It recalled the interference in the 2016 elections. It's not my job to draw conclusions. I just wanted to make the government aware because I love my country. Hope I could be of some help. God Bless. [redacted]

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3KMfETp5w3w This is a link to a show where they discuss the Kavanaugh hearing in front of the Senate Judiciary Committee. I am wondering, does anyone care that Kavanaugh was not honest with the committee. Is it a crime to lie before the Senate Judiciary Committee? If so, then this must be investigated and prosecuted. Also, Mark Judge's book, "Wasted: Tales of a Gen-X Drunk", would seem to refute his statement that he never blacked out, and that he went to sleep in his bed after drinking. His friend writes of Bart O'Kavanaugh passing out in a car, during beach week.

Unless his bed was in that car, this would be another falsehood told by Kavanaugh to the Committee. The Devil's Triangle, Boofing, and Renate Alumnius descriptions told by Kavanuagh were all falsehoods. Regardless of any claims of assault, or impropriety, I am sure it is a Federal crime to lie to the Committee. Thank you for your time,

When Dr. Ford testified to the Senate she stated she and her mother went to the grocery store about 6 weeks after the incident and as a teenager entered a different door then her mom "because as a teenager .....". She stated she ran into Mark Judge who worked there and tried to talk with him and she couldn't understand why he didn't want to talk to her. That to me is a big statement because, if the sexual assault happened like she said and their laughter is pierced in her mind, she would have ran to her mom (probably not being a brat teenager) or out of the store. No victim is going to try to be friendly with a person that has just nearly raped her as she has stated. Look closely in her past to see if she is one of the people who like to be a drama victim. Some people lie in detail about things that never happened in the manner of which she spoke. I have [redacted] and by the time they are her age they are not embarrassed to walk into a store with their parents.

The Daily Post, a Palo Alto newspaper in an effort to document Christine Ford's accusations against Judge Kavanaugh reviewed county records and discovered a remodeling permit for her home which the reporter said documented the front door story in her public testimony. However, the permit was dated 2008 and renters have received mail at this address since the remodeling and well prior to 2012. Her public testimony was her insistence of a seconds front door was for her security due the an assault which occurred 36 years ago and this insistence caused a rift with her husband which was noted in her therapist records in 2012 during couples canceling. If in fact the second front door was actually for renters to have their own entrance, it seems to me that this could indicate false testimony by Ms. Ford. Since I have seen almost no coverage of these facts in the MSN, as a concerned citizen I am making a formal request that Ms. Ford be questioned to determine if my information is indeed true. FYI, rent in this area could be as much as $60,000 a year. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

this is something i been thinking about the recent hearing of brett kanavaugh and dr. christine ford testimony. i also want to apologize about my grammar and my poor english. dr. ford in her testimony she said she host "google interns at her house". i got her address from the Palo alto building permit and it shows she did do renovation at her house, she added a room and bath also some kitchen work.

[redacted] b6 b7C

google maps clearly shows how the house has changed from 2007 to

b6
b7C

b6

recent and u can see some of the renovations to her house including the two front door. this might sound crazy but i think she was a illegal landlord "hosting" or renting out her front house to "google interns" in 2011 u can see in google maps she added a brush hedge trying to hide the "2nd door". it would be a good question to the FBI to interview her neighbors and asked them if they have see other people living in her house or check postal service record of how many other people mail were delivered to. i think she knew the city were cracking down on illegal landlord so to justify having a second door in her house she went to seek therapy and created the story about 4 people raping her. innocent people should not be accused and their life destroy over political reasons. goodspeed

I am [redacted] I believe the key to the Ford-Kavanaugh case, assuming her story of being at a party is true,is her allegation that she had only one drink. If she could not remember when the party was, where it was, how she got there, how she got home, etc, then it is extremely unlikely that she could remember the number of drinks that she had. Then why didn't she simply say that she could not remember? Because saying that she could not remember could imply that she was too drunk to remember and saying that she had two or more drinks could imply that she was drunk or at a stage where she had so b6 b7C much to drink that she could have been a willing participant in the alleged incident, esp. since she was only 15 yr old and was not used to the effects of alcohol. In fact, she was likely drunk or she would have told the truth, namely, she could not remember how many drinks she had 36 yr ago. Saying she had only one makes her look better than saying she cannot remember, which, as I have said would make it look like she was too drunk to remember while the truth had to be that she can't remember. Also, the proverbial story by a drunk driver when pulled over by a police officer is that he only had one drink. Why then did she name Judge Kavanaugh? This requires some speculation but it is realistic. Because of two reasons. First, it allowed her to get out what had been bothering her for years and may very well have been the suggestion of her psychiatrist or counselor as a way to deal with the memory. Second, she could kill two birds with one stone by supporting her liberal causes, one of which could have been to thwart our country from having a judge who could help overturn Roe v. Wade. To confirm this theory, an agent would have to investigate all of her liberal causes and activities about the time she came forward. One other thing. Being drunk would be consistent with her lack of memory about everything, why she didn't say good by to her best friend when she left the house, etc.

The discredited psychotherapy method of RECOVERED MEMORIES may explain the Blasey Ford / Kavanaugh case. The "RECOVERED MEMORIES" method of psychotherapy is highly controversial and many evidence-based academic psychologists have rejected this method because scientific studies have shown that RECOVERED MEMORIES are very often confabulations with little or no factual truth basis. This method involves the therapist coaxing the adult client (through suggestion, prompting, and/or hypnosis) in order to elicit a RECOVERED MEMORY of a traumatic event (usually a sexual trauma) which supposedly transpired many years ago during the client's childhood or adolescence. See review article from 2006 coauthored by Professor Elizabeth Loftus who is the world's leading academic authority on this topic. https://webfiles.uci.edu /eloftus/LoftusDavisAnnualReview06.pdf I suspect that an awareness of the phenomenon of psychotherapy-elicited RECOVERED MEMORIES is key to understanding the basis of Christine Blasey Ford's allegation of a sexual assault by Brett Kavanaugh in 1982 when they were teenagers. According to Blasey Ford, her first disclosure (to persons other than her husband) of the existence of this sexual trauma event occurred 30 years later during sessions with her therapist in 2012. If Christine Blasey Ford's memory of the teenage bedroom sexual assault was a therapist-elicited RECOVERED MEMORY, then this might explain how Blasey Ford could now firmly believe that she remembers a sexual assault—which in reality may not have actually occurred, or perhaps did not occur in the specific manner in which she now thinks she remembers. If the FBI is to truly uncover the real basis of the Blasey Ford/Kavanaugh case, then I think it is imperative for an expert in the topic of psychotherapy-elicited RECOVERED MEMORIES to carefully examine the records of the therapist who treated Blasey Ford to determine if the practice of psychotherapy-elicited RECOVERED MEMORY may have occurred in regard to the development of Blasey Ford's memory of the teenage party bedroom assault. The best expert in this regard is probably Dr. Elizabeth Loftus, Professor of Psychology at University of California, Irvine. Please recommend that the FBI subpoena the records of Blasey Ford's therapist and have them examined by Dr. Loftus and/or other experts on the topic of psychotherapy-elicited RECOVERED MEMORIES. Information regarding Professor Loftus: Elizabeth F. Loftus, University of California, Irvine Distinguished Professor, Department of Psychology and Social Behavior, Department of Criminology, Law, and Society, Department of Cognitive Sciences https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Elizabeth_Loftus [redacted] One of my side interests is trying to better understand human nature in regard to social psychology, cognitive psychology, and behavioral genetics.

One, a woman, juror refused to convict on 10 of 18 counts against Manafort. Is this one juror one of the juror's that Manafort tried to flip in his favor? Manafort prior to the trial was trying to influence the jury pool. Is this one-woman juror getting paid by Manafort or other in favor of Manafort to vote against any prosecution? Is this the reason Manafort's attorneys didn't prepare a defense? They thought that one juror would hang the jury because they were convinced the jury would succeed? Does Manafort know that PT will pardon him and he trusts PT will be in office to pardon him when he needs the pardon? Is this the reason Manafort's attorneys didn't prepare a defense? PT has framed the Manafort conviction unfair. PT says Manafort is a good man. PT used "unfair" with convicted felons he has pardoned in the past. PT and Giuliani are signaling Manafort that PT will pardon Manafort - essentially urging Manafort to hold-out and PT will pardon him after the Mueller report is filed with Congress and made public. PT and Giuliani think that PT can fire AG Sessions after the Mueller report is released, Kavanagh has been seated, and the election has occurred. Also, they think they can also safely pardon Manafort in exchange for not flipping. PT obviously knows that Manafort knows too much for PT to remain in the WH and so do his GOP leadership in Congress. Graham made it appear like he's swung to the PT side on firing the AG. But, at the same time he urges AG Sessions to object publicly, and strongly against PT. Graham is coordinating the theatrics with both PT and Sessions for public consumption. This will never be made public, but they can't help showing their hand to those with the wisdom to discern their activities as proof of their conspiracy with the purpose to deceive the public and "the enemy of the people." The arrogance and cunning of these three individuals is hard to distinguish and attributed to any one of them.

Happy Birthday. I've always had the highest respect for the FBI. Please check the printing technology of the Kavanaugh calendars to make sure they were appropriate for the time they were supposedly written. Hi. I just want to pass on some info. (See something, Say something). I was reading the comments section of an article about the breaking news that the Democrats were referring a matter to Federal Investigators (probably, you??) regarding Judge Kavanaugh and how his confirmation vote is now delayed. In this comment section there was a scary comment that made me think of what happened to Republican Whip Steve Scalise on the baseball field about a year ago. I'm not sure if the person making the comment was serious, but this is what he said: [redacted] AGAIN, this comment is from a person named [redacted] and the link to the article where you can find his comment is here: https://www.buzzfeednews.com/article/lissandravilla/senate-democrats-have-sent-a-secret-letter-about-brett He also has a Facebook page: [redacted] I am NOT saying he is going to do anything. I don't know anything about this person. I was just reading the comments section of an article and this person's comment really took me back because it seemed violent and we have already had someone do something ridiculously stupid, evil and dastardly to Rep. Scalise, and we even just heard of a CA congressional candidate almost stabbed by a switchblade. So...I don't know what you do with this info, but I want to give it to you just in case. We know you have so much going on and don't need reckless or irrational tips, but I would rather tell you and be on the safe side than not say anything. Anyways, thanks for what you do. And, for MAGA!!!!

The Purple App used by cyber-terrorists in hacking U.S. Elections on 11/09/16 and Worldwide Elections

_____ Dear Sir, soon after Trump's inauguration as U.S. President on 01/20/17; two weeks later Trump/Trump Jr. had a High Tech Companies (Apple, Verizon etc) Leaders Summit at the White House, Trump and some of the CEOs were wearing purple ties. Purple App was used by cyber-terrorists (Russia, ISIS terrorists in Syria, White Spies and Affiliates in U.S., some Evangelical Christians in U.S. and Worldwide who were hoping to be paid by ISIS or Trump Campaign Organization) in hackiing U.S. Elections for Trump to win over Hon. Clinton on 11/08/16. Let Authorities investigate and bring to light; which American High Tech

Companies were involved in creating the purple App in collaboration with ISIS in Syria-Russia collusion-friendship (chats, photos, Albums, Videos in Facebook). Cognitively, that High Tech Companies Summit at the White House organized by Trump or Trump Jr.; Trump was thanking those High Tech Companies who created the purple App for ISIS and Russia; as the purple App made him get into the Oval Office and that also should mean Trump had knowledge of the purple App which was used by cyber-terrorists in Hacking U.S. Elections on 11/08/16 and other Worldwide Elections; in which the late ISIS terrorist Leader Latiffi Ashada had MOTIVE to get Countries whose Leaders had won by using the purple App in Elections hackings Worldwide to vote for ISIS State at the United Nations and ISIS State in Syria to become a legitimate Country. Other collaborators in creating the purple App in ISIS State in Syria were Spies (Whites) ex-Apple, ex-IBM, ex-Verizon employees who were spying on me here in Los Angeles with Satellites electronic devices installed with computer chips spy-ware. Some of them left Los Angeles joined ISIS State in Syria in 2011, they also got my Facebook email contact which ISIS terrorist-members:Syrians, Iraqis, Iranians, Pakistanis, Turkeians, Filipinos, Russians, Indians, Vietnamese, British, Americans, Canadians, French, Kenyans, Tanzanians, Nigerians, Ghanians, Moroccans, Egyptians,S. Africans, S. Sudanese, Ethiopians, Somalians, Koreans, Chinese, Malaysians, Bangladeshians etc; they have been sending numerous weird; some criminal photos, chats, Albums and Videos into my Facebook website daily since 2012 and I have been notifying FBI Washington. Again let Authorities investigate which American High Tech Companies were involved in creating Election hacking App; the purple App. I just watched Yahoo News "Kavanaugh and Ford Senate hearing", Kavanaugh wearing purple tie at that hearing and other hearings in the past.(to be continued next page)

Today Senator Corey Booker, not only violated Senate rules, but also violated a Federal Law, The Espionage Act, by knowingly revealing "Confidentially" classified emails of Judge Kavanaugh's work during his time at the Whitehouse during the Bush Administration. The open question I have is does the FBI take this statute seriously when it is a Democrat who commits this crime, since Hillary Clinton's case was obviously whitewashed and swept under the rug.

Is there a reference to the city the high school was in where Brett Kavanaugh allegedly sexually assaulted this anonymous female? Police records may have evidence of arrests or interviews of the young Brett, if recorded. I believe the school would be less hesitant to come forward with information regarding Brett's alleged assault if reported. Counselors are typically tied to the family of the students and Brett would have been looked at favorably. What they consider minor misdemeanors would not be reported or talked about. Especially if the assault did come up for discussion, it would have been his word against hers. The Catholic Church is known for covering up all kinds of sexual improprieties no matter how serious. According to Kavanaugh's resume he went to Georgetown High a Catholic Jesuit boarding school. About the only other possible corroboration of the young woman's alleged sexual assault by a young Brett Kavanaugh is from a friend or friends she may have told about the assault at the time it happened. Eshoo is [redacted] The referral of the anonymous letter is definitely appropriate. No action should be taken on confirming Kavanaugh until the FBI and DOJ have had a chance to come back with their findings on this alleged sexual assault. My heartfelt appreciation goes out to this brave soul who wrote the letter against the nomination of Brett Kavanaugh to SCOTUS. She obviously thought that the assault rose to the level of morality and character that should be considered before the Senate votes to confirm Brett Kavanaugh for life on the SCOTUS.

Special Counsel Mueller, If possible,please follow the money within the Supreme Court - subpoena their tax returns - how in the world they could come up with such a fascist presidential election impact measure as Citizen's United must have come at a lucrative price indeed. Connect the dots... they are outstanding. Whether it is the presidency or the judicial branch or congress - the plague of slush funds and foreign pay to play needs to be eradicated for the good of this country and our precious fought for/died for Constitution and Bill of Rights and Declaration of Independence. Look into Supreme Court candidate Kavanugh's current finances as well. Pence probably perjured himself concerning knowledge about Flynn - he beat out Chris Christie because he supported Flynn - with the president and vice-president mired in treason... not to mention many of the Republican senators and congressmen including Ryan who have been actively obstructing thereby frustrating the will of the people and spirit and intent of Article 1 Section 9 Line 8 of the US Constitution - "No nobility shall be conferred... - emoluments directive starts out with that direct assertion of Constitutional principle... Therefore the next president might very well be come from a newly democratic or progressive Speaker of the House. As long as we have order based on true justice, as long as we have real patriots sworn to uphold the spine of our country - Our Declaration of Independence, Bill of Rights and Constitution, the United States should become stronger and more resilient and wise. Another option in a transition of power if it needs to happen suddenly and quickly would be to have Bernie Sanders and Republican Kasich act as interim president and vice-president until things settle down more. Will our 2018 elections be sound? They obviously weren't sound in the 2016 elections. Finally, I want to thank-you so much for your service and for being so very smart and methodical. Frankly, I fear our Supreme Court is corrupt as well as our senate and house and executive branch. Jefferson said we should have a revolution every 20 years. That hasn't happened. Old lies have grown fat into deadly cancers. The wise thing is for the facts to come out and to see how all the details converge like jigsaw pieces into the big picture. It has fallen upon your shoulders to see through this early cycle and test of an infant country still trying to realize the radical assertions of our enlightened Founding Fathers. We will realize and make into reality which for far too long was held as impossible. But this is a key time in history. Too many died to have our country sink into despotism or become mired into tribal clan rhetoric. The Constitution, Bill of Rights & Declaration of Independence = spine of this country - capable of making a dialectical synthesis of capitalism & socialism - they Could you guys please check out the Kavanaugh ordeal. Two men coming forward to take the blame for the allegations with nothing to gain are a huge red flag. I've also been skimming the facebook comments and there seems to be a lot of questionable profiles either blaming Democrats, repeatedly casting doubt, or dismissing the entire case. This is only a theory, but it more likely for the two men bribed or blackmailed. It'll barely validate Kavanaugh 'choir boy' and 'virgin' high school/college years just enough to switch up a couple of swing votes, while pushing and trivializing the entire story down to a few commonplace persons. I wouldn't be surprised if Trump made a private deal without Kavanaugh's knowledge while telling Kavanaugh to picture himself as a saint. It's farfetched, but it'll explain --- -the smokescreen made by public comments on social media, -gives him more power and influence over the 'obstructionist' democrats, -his 'i can be convinced' reaction, which is out of character (would expect a consistent 'kavanaugh is a victim' reponse) -a couple of 'throw-a-way characters' to trade for an agreeable supreme court nominee I not usually vocal, but there seems to be an obvious and massive concerted effort to influence the population. I'm in a deep blue state, Hawaii, and the social media comments made on local news station pages that I find don't line up with that. The comments profiles seem lacking in detail and aren't even from Hawaii. Well, even if this message will just be dismissed as conspiracy nonsense, I hope you guys are doing your best. Welfare of the country over politics and stuff like that.

Please investigate Judge Kavanaugh. I feel like this is the tip of the iceburg for what he's done in the past, even if it was a long time ago. Are there any repurcussions if he lied under oath? THIS IS PROVABLE! Please do your job. A Supreme Court Justice MUST be morally sound. At the very least.

On the Kavanaugh probe: This form character limit is not sufficiently long to fully describe the series of events in San Francisco that i experienced over the time period i was working [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] Over the time period i worked there i read rumors that psychology research was being funded into methodologies to 'alter belief permanence' in people. The issue being that the rumors were phrased in such a way that they were searching for scalable methodologies that would be agnostic to the truth of the belief that was being altered. Therefore the rumor was in fact a suggestion that psychology research was being funded to investigate automated methodologies into deluding human test subjects, but by a different phrasing. I have alerted the cia of two paired instances in which a social interaction with self identified (but not certain) agents of Google, appeared to potentially be related to this psychology research. And it was directly involving belief permanence related to Trump accusers, and to the #metoo movements, and the belief permanence to be altered was from the opinion that the accused were innocent to the pro silicon valley stance was correct. I alerted the cia because the kavanaugh accuser claimed to be living in palo alto, i heard had a psychology degree, her body language did not match her words and timber of her voice, google and facebook tech branches are very close by, and one would suspect that if she were being coached by tech companies they would want her close by to her campus to limit the likelihood of the communications of their coaching being intercepted. Feel free to ask the CIA for a copy of my account of the two paired events. Also consider how machine learning truth sets are developed, and whether there could be a branch of palo alto companies conspiring to use misinformation to see what distortions they can and cannot get past congress, to be added to a set of potential lobbying techniques, to profit from arbitrage of algorithmic vs human truth vs fiction identification. BRETT KAVANAUGH'S VERY SUSPICIOUS CALENDAR. - How many boys in high school keep daily calendars? None that I ever knew. How many still have them - in pristine condition - 30, 40 years later? Damn few, if any. If I was FBI I'd want a look at that calendar. Is it really 40 years old? Is is a recent forgery? Does the handwriting match HS samples? Does it match current samples? Is it forged? Is the paper 40 years old? Is the ink 40 years old? Does the wear look old, or forged, does it look too good, or too worn? Why and how did he keep it? Did he keep daily calendars for all his HS, college, law school, years, or did he just "happen" to keep this one? Kav, lawyer, judge, knows damn well this calendar is just a dog and pony show, he knows damn well it doesn't "prove" a damn thing, he sure as hell isn't gonna write an entry (then or now) that says "Tried to rape the Blasey girl, couldn't, she had a one piece on, damn. Better luck next time." He isn't going to document everything he did, everything that happened, everybody he did it with, it's a highly selective self serving document. And he knows it isn't admissible evidence at trial, irrelevant, zero probative value, so, it's perjury - IT'S PERJURY - he's holding up the calendar to say something it cannot say, to mean something it cannot mean - "It doesn't say anything about Christine Blasey so I could not have sexually assaulted her," 100% bullshit. If I was FBI I'd get every calendar he kept, and has, from HS, college, law school, have the ink analyzed, have the paper analyzed, have the handwriting analyze, something about the way he "just happened" to have this most convenient calendar form 40 years ago smells like rotting fish, I'd give my left hand to have the chance to cross examine this guy at trial about this calendar, that would be fun! Fun! Fun! - I know, lawyers can have a very perverted concept of fun, but blowing up a lying witness is a lotta fun. And that calendar is a lie - that calendar is perjury - THAT CALENDAR IS PERJURY - that calendar was used for one reason - to try to bamboozle the masses who don't think like Sherlock Holmes that Kav cannot have done anything to Blasey because . . . it's not in his calendar?

October 1, 2018 Interview Judge Kavanaugh while he is drunk because memories formed when a person is drunk are seldom recalled when he is sober. But if that individual is in the same chemical state, i.e., drunk, when he is interviewed, then he can recall the repressed memory -- even decades later. You can convince Kavanaugh to be interviewed while drunk because recalling a repressed memory will have far less bad consequences than the Senate deciding he has lied to them. Lying to the Senate is against the law and will cause his nomination to the Supreme Court to be rejected. Record the interview with the drunk Kavanaugh and replay it to him when he is sober. Sober Kavanaugh should apologize to Professor Ford and the Senate Committee. This will help form closure for Ford and for others. The apology will help lessen the divide in the U.S. There is a great deal of science behind repressed memories. See the references below. Google search for: 1) State-dependent memory" and 2) "Repressed memory". Both are Wikipedia reviews of articles in Medical Journals. Sincerely, b6 b7C

Mueller from the FBI has given tips for you to proceed in this weeks investigation in the Doctor Ford/Judge Kavanaugh case. The American people have tips as well. On social media there are questions on both sides. I would like to share with you those questions, and the ones we the American people hope you ask. Both sides need evidence, and more importantly Dr. Ford does. When she spoke on Friday there were many inconsitincies. I want to say I don't no either Doctor Ford or Judge Kavanaugh. She said she didn't like to fly, when infact she has flown on lavish trips and for work. She didn't remember many important details, but, remembered her so called abuser. People don't remember this gathering - that has been noted on social media. Why not look over her yearbook as well. Apparently, I've read, [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] She apparently, I've read, is involved with the education of students in the CIA. This is on social media everywhere, you can google the many links. Is it true - someone should find out. Why she didn't testify sooner to many is A WELL PLANNED diversion, and one in the minds of many to bring Judge Kavanaugh down, and the Republican party. She read from notes looking down much - and Judge Kavanaugh looked into the faces and said he was not guilty. People he has known for years (reported by media) say he isn't guilty. Perhaps, this man you are going to review will say he drank too many beers - we need more than that to be convinced he is guilty. I don't think he is, and maybe she was abused by SOMEONE! I DO FEEL THIS IS ALL A SET UP - AND I HOPE YOU HELP DETERMINE WHO IS INVOLVED WITH A this PLAN ALONG. They said there should have been an FBI investigation all along - it could have happened earlier. They could have and should have taken the opportunity for a public statement earlier. Thank you for you service.

"I am curious. What were Kavanaugh's SAT Scores to get into Yale? It is quite probable that the prep schools attended are doing Grade Inflation. Just like for Kerry, Bush, Cheney, Gore, Cuomo, and Cooper, etc. As well as Anderson Cooper and Chris Cuomo. Also George W. Bush and Dick Cheney. I don't think any of the above are very intelligent. I don't think they got into Yale for the right reasons. This is a real problem. Major disaster. This needs to be investigated by Mueller. Kavanaugh called his university ranked #1 in the country, but I don't believe that can be considered true. There is significant grade inflation when you attend private universities like Dalton School or Georgetown Prep. And it is very probably, considering the total incompetence of people like Bush and Cheney, even Kerry, that Kavanaugh, along with Cooper and Cuomo, are recipients of major GRADE INFLATION. The Ivy League is a Total Scam. Just see what Jeffrey Skilling, Harvard MBA, did at Enron. Did George W. Bush tell him to do that?"

Question. Why, for 2 years, haven't Mich McConnell and Paul Ryan done anything substantially, after hearing All the intelligence agencies say Russia interfered With our election in 2016, protect our cyber security, our voters registration system and our voting process? It's been 2years and nothing. The republicans even denied and wouldn't even put the Bill to the floor, to fund cyber security for the states. I believe they did something like this twice. I believe, Mitch McConnell and Paul Ryan and some other congress leaders to "Just sit back and do nothing", because they know, through intelligence the Russians never left and they know they will help to turn the midterms to the Republicans. The Russians have had 2years to prepare to Hack All our voting procedures, without any resistance. I think there's enough "probable cause" to investigate a conspiracy into Mutch McConnell and Paul and others, Nunes, Jordan, McCarthy to name a few, for not living up to the oath they took, and conspiracy to get Russian help to get total my Full Control of Congress in both chambers and help Donald Trump become the authoritarian president he wants so badly to be. The republicans WILL push Kavanaugh through confirmation and into the Supreme Court, and Donald Trumps lawyer's will introduce Proceedings that , like Trump has been pushing, that the investigation Mr. Miller is proceeding with against Trump and his administration is illegal. That will be Fast Tracked to the Supreme Court before the new congress has been seated, and will be decided by the 'swing" voter of Kavanaugh ass illegal. The Congress will vote to accept the Supreme Courts decision and STOP the Mueller investigation and probably seize the evidence against Trump. I know this is just coming from me. And I know you know this is just another conspiracy, but the facts I have written don't add up any other way. This is the BEST time in history, with Trump and Putin the republicans can take total control of everything that they want to and Democratic's will never be able to stop them. Our Democracy will no longer be. And Trump will take over as a authoritarian president just like Putin. People think this can't happen because of our checks and balances, but if the conditions are right and people want power without interference, yes it can. Our Democracy is more fragile than people think especially if they aren't Patriots to our Democracy. Thank you for hearing me, I Hope you'll look into this before it's to late to stop. [redacted]

No gurls. Kauvangh is some kind of Portugese Indian that thinks he can do no wrong without benefit of American training he may have taken grades and transcripts over and put a man out of his house and work. The North Carolina state lines were moved without anybody knowing how depriving Maryland of Iron Mountain which it always has had. He is some kind of Bruiserandheis too demanding and wants to play everything up and out quickly so nobody finds out he is a scab of unusual origins. He and Ruth Ginsberg are survivors of govt overthrow in India after some kidswere caught up in a sedition or charaeas I know it and they were playing around with weegee boards and had a lot ofother problems going on. Something they did killed the Thyroid of forefathers. They have been playing this out, one time Ruth is alive and the next time she is awaiting Kavanaugh for some kind of special rite or religious last rites. I do not know the conditions or the reasons why but there has been so much of the sorcery that it has to mean that there are many dead requiring burial that did not get one. I think Kavanghau has a record caught at an airport with something peculiar in his bags and also he was traveling with drugs in other bags with another person. The other person I think is at large. The phoney judge steals important papers of paper conessuiers- I would have no idea what would have been on them, maybe a governments constitution so he is pretty bad man, plus the other bag had a brick of some drug unknown to me senses because I wont go near it. What do you expect from govts that made off with their family by calling them slaves. The more slaves there were the easier it was for them to survive, now how about that for a reason behind slavery - people on the run... Quantico may know him, but then suppose the records on Ruth and Kavanaugh were destroyed in 9/11. Maybe somebody made a deal and wiped everything like a burglar?

Assuming viability of both...

Re: 77N-HQ-[redacted]-SubPal, 10/02/2018

doesn't mean the government assumes an abortion....just take pace and close it down and give the pace workers and double mastectomy and a hysterectomy and have them find employment that is viable for their brain. Genocide is the next word that must be defined here. How about these retarded presenting these arguments are playing....false cognate citizenship, stoke, coy, stooge and dreadlocks...besides poofs.

It is quite probable that the prep schools attended are doing Grade Inflation. Just like for Kerry, Bush, Cheney, Gore, Cuomo, and Cooper, etc. As well as Anderson Cooper and Chris Cuomo. Also George W. Bush and Dick Cheney. I don't think any of the above are very intelligent. I don't think they got into Yale for the right reasons. This is a real problem. Major disaster. This needs to be investigated by Mueller. Kavanaugh called his university ranked #1 in the country, but I don't believe that can be considered true. There is significant grade inflation when you attend private universities like Dalton School or Georgetown Prep. And it is very probable, considering the total incompetence of people like Bush and Cheney, even Kerry, that Kavanaugh, along with Cooper and Cuomo, are recipients of major GRADE INFLATION. The Ivy League is a Total Scam."

This is an inquiry. As a citizen of the US, do I have the right to request that you fully investigate the charges against Bret Kavanaugh since those in charge refuse to do so? There are too many questions about this man's character to put him on the Supreme Court FOR LIFE without making sure whether these charges are supported by facts or not. If it is possible, I am requesting that you do this. Thank you.

Nogurls. The Kavanaghu I saw on tv in a highly televised coverage in NYC had hundreds and hundreds of police cars involved when he went to court they were threatening the life of everybody up in that courtroom. This dude was from the expired USSR or some other government bordering on India, Chian and Russia. He is bad for everybody I remember the tv screen had nothing but a sea of Blue uniforms and so many police cars they filled the screen the Press said it was the "Sea of Blue." The judge complained about his mouthing off and he was threatening violence in the court room he had some papers and some drugs a lot of drugs by weight. They caught him in the midst of something big and the case waslikesix months or six weeks the guys had like150lbs of chains and irons on him everywhere. That ude I cant believe he is before the Committee for Supreme Court Judge. Then those other professors were correct, this is not about politics its about violence against govt. something must short curicuited everywhere, I saw a NEwsman I scanned for anybody saying anything they could hear promoting violence just one spare word is all it took, but I asked him notto deviate from prosectors statements, and it seemed okay. We need ot follow up because Kauavnghau had a congressman pleading for his being freed and he was making too much noise and got out of his chair moving around and stuff, so we need to find thesecases with Kauvanghau to figure how he got into a judgeship? This is employment aw and criminally insane activity.

Seems interesting to see interview of Kavanaugh about when he drank. As a young journalist we would often tease one another about drinking too much, even though most of the jesters were socially drinking and on best behavior because we were at work gatherings of a sort. Accusing people of being alcoholism is the oldest trick in the book and some rising journalists and politicians like to start early in their career getting together lists of people they coukd control later at bars nationwide. Some people keep re odds of the strangest things, but some people live to smear, wasting their college education not on evaluation of actual fact but on claiming they are in the know about things lije drinking. I am a bit tired, but it seems many are saying the same thing, that some just smear, that they are not good writers nor good politicians and they assemble smear rather than fact. Alcoholism is a gross waste of one's life, but being seen at alcohol events, week or weekend, does not make one an alcoholic. Just found the comments about him being an alcoholic a bit off, especially with recreational drinking having been such a part of our culture for the young in the 80s and 90s.

this is regarding the ford/kavanaugh investigation. I was able to watch both Dr Ford and judge Kavanugh during thier opening statements. Both very compelling. Something that came to mind.. so strongly .. while watching Dr Ford was an episode from the Jay Asher series "13 reasons". DR Fords account.. in my opinion was almost identical to what one of the young girls experienced (party.. going up stairs.. drunk.. one assaulting and one watching..etc etc)I have not had time to re-watch but it was only a 2 season series and this episode involved the young black girl. Many episodes had similarities. Young man..Clay.. his mom was lawyer..affluent kids and the sports jocks.. then the courtroom trials. Similarities are almost eerie. I am not sure why I cant get this off my mind,but Dr ford would more than likely have watched this series as her background is in psychology, and issues faced by today's youth were depicted in a very poignant way. I do not want my name on any media, but thought if someone working with this horrible situation for both Dr Ford and Judge Kavanaugh were to see this ,it may shed some light on all of this in some way. I only know my instincts are usually good and i cant get this out of my mind. My civic duty??? .

What they are attempting to do is line up a bunch of cases against teachers and upper class people whom they perceive might be powerful or learned to pretend they are doing disability by doing a Kavanaugh buts bunched trial and using african americans whom are not that....they are both bleached and have identity issues and disorders and are disorganized mentally challenged and have processing issues. Thank you for your time and attention. This is not an instance of someone being foolish or a smart-ass. I would like to know why the accusations against Judge Brett Kavanaugh have not been investigated by the FBI, and I would like to know what it takes for that to happen. Can a citizen who has nothing to do with the case, aside from being a concerned citizen of the United States as well as [redacted] [redacted] ask the FBI to investigate? b6 b7C

[redacted] A website [redacted] queerty. b6 b7C
com had the following on their site 9-29-18:Trump Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh testified before the Senate Judiciary committee in what will likely go down in history as the most bizarre and incendiary judicial interview process in history. Amid all the talk about Kavanaugh's attacks, Lindsay Graham's outbursts and Dr. Christine Blasey Ford's accusations of assault, one detail has gone mostly overlooked: Kavanaugh probably lied about his high school games. And someone in Congress is trying to cover it up. During his testimony, Judge Kavanaugh claimed to have engaged in a game called "Devil's Triangle" while in high school. He further asserted that the game bore a semblance to the popular drinking game Quarters, in which participants try to fling quarters into a glass. Kavanaugh even submitted a calendar from the period with entries that supposedly confirmed the dates on which he and friends had played. The problem? Devil's Triangle isn't a drinking game. Rather, it's a euphemism for a sexual threesome involving two men and one woman-exactly the situation Dr. Blasey Ford asserts Kavanaugh and his friend Mark Judge tried to create when they assaulted her. Furthermore, several outlets, including Queerty, have conducted extensive internet searches for records of a drinking game of that name. Thus far, nobody has turned up a reference to Devil's Triangle drinking game until yesterday…when the Wikipedia entry for "Devil's Triangle" mysteriously changed during Kavanaugh's testimony. The actual editor-as well as his or her motives-has yet to be identified. Wikipedia has also discovered a number of other edits to articles made during or following Kavanaugh's testimony changed to reflect the nominee's answers. Reports have also called into question the accuracy of Kavanaugh's statements regarding "boofing" (a popular term for anal sex, which the judge said referred to flatulence) and "Renate Alumnius." Kavanaugh claims the latter refers to a date with a woman named Renate Schroeder, now Renate Schroeder-Dolphin. At least 14 of Kavanaugh's classmates have references to Renate Alumnius in their yearbooks. Two of Kavanaugh's classmates says the entry refers to having sex with Schroeder-Dolphin. Schroeder-Dolphin herself had endorsed Kavanaugh's appointment until learning of the entry. She's since withdrawn her support for him.

While on Facebook, I came across a friend's political post regarding the recent Kavanaugh hearings, who stated: "If you didn't get to watch or listen to the hearing today you missed out on one of the biggest public scandals happening since OJ Simpson trail. Both sides made incredibly compelling testimonies and now we are left with either a federal judge with the upmost highest character credibility being guilty of sexual assault and lying under oath and before a federal committee or a woman who is falsely accusing him and a part of a political conspiracy to stop or delay the seating of a conservative judge into the Supreme Court. Very high stakes here." This post was followed up by two individuals - [redacted] However, a bit more b6 b7C b7E disturbing was that [redacted]

"laughed" at the remark (i.e., through clicking the "haha" button on Facebook). Given the recent death threats we heard today from both Judge Kavanaugh and Dr. Ford, I don't believe any individual should be discussing putting Dr. Ford to death; and I especially don't think any [redacted] should be so flippant about public death threats when they should be upholders of the law. I have screenshots of the exchange and can provide them, if needed. I'm not sure if this is appropriate to report, but I figured it's better to be safe than sorry.
