in Cambridge. Collier suffered multiple gunshot wounds and was pronounced dead after arrival at Massachusetts General Hospital. Suspects in the shooting have been identified as Dzhokhar Tsarnaev and Tamerlan Tsarnaev (deceased). Officer Collier, age 26, was hired by the MIT Police Department in January 2012. Prior to joining the MIT Police Department, Collier worked at the Somerville Massachusetts Police Department as a civilian employee.

Minutes after this incident, a black Mercedes was car jacked from Kendall Square in Cambridge, MA, and a chase ensued with police. The following morning at approximately 12:45 a.m., the chase led officers to a residential neighborhood at Dexter Street and Laurel Street where a shootout occurred between officers and the two subjects. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Patrolman, Massachusetts Bay Transit Authority (MBTA), Boston, Massachusetts, was wounded during the shootout. Officer [REDACTED] was taken to Mount Auburn Hospital, Cambridge, MA and is in critical but stable condition.
