"HOW THE GODS WORK" - Part II

Wednesday - April 8, 1964 - 8:00 p. m.

In the second half of this two-part lecture, you will actually hear a tape of one of the formerly classified SPECIAL POWER MANIPULATIONS and will know first-hand "HOW THE GODS WORK" to save millions of lives and untold suffering on Earth and to prepare the Mother Earth for Her long overdue Initiation. With the information gleaned from Part I of this lecture, you will be able yourself to understand the cryptic orders of the Cosmic Masters as They successfully direct a strategic power manipulation in spite of interference by the black magicians.

"A COSMIC MESSAGE OF A DIVINE OPPORTUNITY"

Transmission from Mars Sector 6, received February 26, 1964

Saturday - April 11, 1964 - 8:00 p. m.

Mars Sector 6, just a few weeks ago on February 26th, delivered this wonderful message of Divine opportunity to earthman. In it, He explicitly reveals how you can guarantee to crown this year of Divine opportunity "with a golden crown of great success." The greatest opportunities ever given to earth men in countless centuries are laid at your feet NOW. Study this Transmission of great hope very carefully so you may help those searching and suffering in darkness, so you can prepare yourselves to help this world through its present crisis, and thereby earn the right to enter the brilliant dawn of the New Age.

"OPERATION BLUEWATER"

Lecture tape by Dr. George King

Beautiful color slide show to illustrate the lecture.

Saturday, April 18, 1964 - 8:00 p. m.

Operation Bluewater, like Operation Starlight, is a mission given to The Aetherius Society which is absolutely unique to this Earth. As you know, it must be performed at sea and will benefit the whole world. Dr. King in his lecture explains some of the difficult problems which had to be solved and the unique radionic apparatus which had to be invented and built before this mission could be undertaken.

The slide show in beautiful color is a report of Operation Bluewater. It includes pictures taken at sea during the actual performance of Phase II of Operation Bluewater and shows some of the meticulous preparations which had to be made before this extremely intricate and dangerous mission could be performed. This lecture contains information you cannot get anywhere else--for it is about an operation performed for the first time in the annals of the world's history!

This is the opportunity of a lifetime to really learn about the PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF METAPHYSICS and to have some understanding of HOW THE GODS OR COSMIC MASTERS WORK on behalf of all mankind during these last days. Drawings; graphs and a tape of a special Power Transmission will be used to illustrate metaphysical feats absolutely unique in the history of man.

For the last 8 years, Space Intelligences, under the brilliant leadership of that Great Cosmic Master - Mars Sector 6 - have delivered numerous Special Transmissions to Earth which were classified as Cosmic Power Manipulations. Civilization was saved from total collapse on several occasions from the tremendously powerful Spiritual Energies radiated during these Transmissions.

Now the right Cosmic moment has arrived to share with the public some of the amazing metaphysical information contained within these Special Transmissions which are veritable storehouses of highly advanced astro-metaphysics.

EARTH WARNED OF DISEASE WAVE!

At 8 pm. on September 7, 1963 at the Headquarters of The Aetherius Society, the Cosmic Master Aetherius delivered a vitally important Transmission through Doctor George King, who gained telepathic rapport through the deep Yogic trance of Samadhi. The Master Aetherius gave several definite prophecies regarding meteorological and other world events, which will effect everyone during the coming months. All readers should take the most careful note of and be prepared for the consequences of these forwarnings which were issued by this Cosmic Being obviously out of compassion for the world.

All readers should note that Aetherius gave some very definite, straight to the point instructions as to what everyone SHOULD do in order to offset these otherwise calamitous conditions. He even went as far as stating, quite plainly so that everyone could understand, that the rest of our present and future lives will depend directly upon the action we will take in answer to this Transmission.

For years now, The Aetherius Society has pleaded with people to sit up and take notice of the vital Transmissions coming from other more highly evolved Planets. Despite the fact that a few loyal workers have given their whole lives - despite the fact that I, personally, have broadcast in different countries throughout the world to millions of people - despite the fact that thousands of magazines, newspapers and free pamphlets have all, at one time or another, carried articles on the true Space warning to Earth as given through The Aetherius Society - only a tiny handful of people have proved themselves to be humanitarian enough to really take notice and ACT!

This Transmission delivers an ultimatum! We are told quite plainly that a wave of disease will kill thousands of people all over the world, unless WE ACT TOGETHER TO STOP IT! We are told in plain language, WHAT WE ALL MUST DO TO STOP 95 PERCENT OF THIS MURDEROUS HORROR!

WE ARE ALL CHARGED WITH THE RESPONSIBILITY of coming together at LEAST 7 TIMES PER WEEK BETWEEN NOVEMBER 1ST AND DECEMBER 26TH, 1963 in order to save thousands of lives throughout the Earth.

It is my carefully considered opinion that if we fail in this Holy Mission of mercy, then we deserve to be classed as criminals!

As President of The Aetherius Society, I state now quite categorically, that I will not leave one stone unturned to stop this terrible plague from choking out thousands of lives upon Earth. I shall look for the complete and absolute cooperation from every Member and sympathizer of The Aetherius Society, especially from every Member and sympathizer of The Aetherius Society, since you are all CHARGED BY AETHERIUS HIMSELF to attend at least 7 MEETINGS PER WEEK OUTSIDE OF YOUR OWN HOME in order to GUARANTEE that the Absorption Factor is AT LEAST 6.75 UNITS.

It should be obvious to every right thinking person who reads this that a Master of the undoubted status of Aetherius would not give to any organization a Mission of this vital importance and obvious enormity, unless He knew beyond any doubt that the people in that organization were equal to the task. Aetherius stated in this Transmission quite categorically that there are enough Members, sympathizers and friends connected with The Aetherius Society to guarantee to perform this Holy and Sacred Mission with success. It is with these words still ringing through my brain that I make the following appeal to every Member, sympathizer, friend and reader of this leaflet:

I appeal to all of you to regard this matter in the most serious possible light. I appeal to all of you to let me guide you into what could be the most prominent Spiritual victory in the whole of your present life.

I strongly urge all of you who live anywhere in the vicinity of either a Headquarters or Branch of The Aetherius Society to come to every Service and specialized class run by that Headquarters or Branch, during this important period in the history of the world.

I appeal to those who do not live close enough to a Headquarters or a Branch to arrange meetings in their own homes, so that you can practise The Twelve Blessings for at least one hour per day, for 7 days a week.

I realize that to attend a Divine Service 7 times per week will, at the latter part of this Spiritual Push, affect your Christmas celebration. I would remind you all that to be asked to give up only one Christmas in your life for such an important reason as sending out Power and Healing in order to affect the Karma of the world, when there are thousands of lives in the balance, cannot be counted as even a small, never mind a large, sacrifice on anybody's part.

I feel sure that, if all of you who read this leaflet answer these appeals to the best of your ability, we can, together, send out so much Power that we will be able to check 95 percent of this coming disease wave and thereby save thousands of lives and scores of thousands of people from being affected by this radio-active disease and thereby weakened for life afterwards. I feel, as do many people who actually heard this Transmission, that here we are all given a wonderful and truly Divine opportunity to be of Service to God, to the Cosmic Masters, to the world and to ourselves.

This is our problem. We must solve it. Together as a band of Light workers we can and, if we are determined enough, WILL bring about a magnificent victory for the forces of good.

Those who doubt this can stand aside.

Those who do not wish to cooperate with this wonderful scheme, those who do not have the courage to stand up now and be counted as ACTIVE META - PHYSICAL WORKERS can also stand aside.

I feel sure that the finest among you will come forward with your hearts filled with a burning Spiritual ambition to see this Mission through to its successful end. I feel sure that the finest who come forward in answer to this desperate call WILL in the months of November and December, blaze such a Spiritual Fire across the world that SUCCESS WILL BE ASSURED. I feel sure that you FEW WILL, by such action as this, inscribe your names in unerasable letters of mystic fire in the Akashic Scrolls of honour.

Then you will sing a glorious praise of everlasting thankfulness and heartfelt gratitude to God for being one of the Glorious Few who had the courage to dedicate yourself into this Sacred Mission for the benefit of humanity.

May God guide your choice and fortify your determination.

The Reverend Doctor George King
Founder and President of The Aetherius Society.

THE MASTER AETHERIUS:

"Good evening. At this time, I should like to speak of several things of great importance to the world as a whole.

"Those of you who are familiar with the Truth know that the Cosmic Plan for the Initiation of Terra is under way. This Plan is all embracing in as much as it includes the further development and Evolution of Terra as an Entity. In fact, this latter reason is the motivating factor behind the Cosmic Plan, which is specifically designed to cause, not only a rise in common consciousness of those left upon Terra after the Initiation, but also a movement in the Evolution of the Planet Itself.

"Because of its great importance, the Cosmic Plan has, of necessity, certain very definite stages. The preliminary stages are now over and you now enter the more difficult stages in the overall scheme.

"The coming months will prove to be difficult ones for you all. The materialist will experience upheavals. The racial question in America and other parts of the world will oftentimes be brought to the fore by action which, to say the least, will be foolish. (Note 1.)

"You are due for some very unusual weather conditions throughout Terra. It will change quickly from what you would call summer conditions to semi-winter conditions. (Note 2.) There will be great floods and also drought. The next winter time will be unusual and severe for some parts of Terra. In the Southern Hemisphere strange and unexplainable cloud formations will appear. Certain parts of the Northern Hemisphere are due for higher temperatures than before. The so-called northern temperate zones of Terra are due for unprecedented cold snaps. Earthquakes will increase in all parts of Terra, even in areas which are not considered to be earthquake zones, namely the polar regions. These parts too will show a marked increase in the numbers of and the violence of - earthquakes. Earth tremors will create difficult seas around various coastlines, especially the coastline in the Southern California regions. I specially mention this because, as you know, the major part of Operation Bluewater has been accomplished successfully in these waters, by willing helpers in The Aetherius Society. (Note 3.)

"Indeed, air crashes will continue to be apparently just as mysterious and as violent as before. Even though you have, at the moment, declared to one another send out as much Power, as much Healing, to give as much Service as possible. AT LEAST SEVEN TIMES PER WEEK FOR AT LEAST 30 MINUTES EACH TIME. Attending two or three meetings of your choice per week will not amount to much in the final Karmic count. This is NOT SERVICE. I guarantee this to you despite the popular sales talk you have been given from other sources who favor their own financial conditions far more than TRUTH!

" If you are advanced enough to project from the physical body, go into a state of evolved Samadhi and read the Akashic Records for yourself, you will discover beyond all doubt, that what I say is true.

" You know, disease is now being unconsciously germinated in the eastern part of Terra. These disease waves will spread from the eastern part of Terra right throughout the western, southern and northern parts. This disease will be very difficult to combat for it is a mutation which has become extremely hardened because it has taken into itself a great deal of strontium 90. This disease will be fatal in some, but not all cases, but even those cases which are not fatal will suffer great weakness afterwards.

" Do you want to see this happen? If the Absorption Factor of this present Magnetization Period goes down, this disease will come. If the ABSORPTION FACTOR of the next Magnetization Period is not at LEAST 6.75 UNITS THIS DISEASE CANNOT BE STOPPED. (Note 9.) Knowledge is sometimes good, but if it is the truthful knowledge, it is sometimes worse than the most throbbing headache, because it adds to the responsibility of the listener. Do you realize that there are enough lifestreams connected with The Aetherius Society alone, never mind the other Spiritual organizations, to guarantee that the ABSORPTION FACTOR for the next Spiritual Push will be a minimum of 6.75 UNITS. They could change the Karma of the world to such an extent that this disease I speak of, would be diminished to only 5% of what it will be if this ABSORPTION FACTOR does not reach that 6.75 MINIMUM!

" The Aetherius Society alone, without any other outside help can, by working at top pressure during the next Magnetization Period of Terra, SAVE SCORES OF THOUSANDS OF LIVES ; as well as scores of thousands of weakened individuals, by sending out sufficient Power to change the Karma of Terra which would allow certain intervention on this behalf. Of all the calamities I spoke of, this disease is possibly due to be the worst, unless you are absurd enough to allow a war to break out upon the surface of your already troubled earth.

" So now where do you stand? You stand charged, my friends, CHARGED if you are men enough to accept the charge, with the responsibility for working in ways which will be most effective in combatting the wave of disease, by changing the Karma of Terra, as well as changing your own Karma!

" I will repeat. Coming to what you call a Divine Service and two Prayer groups per week, IS NOT ENOUGH and it will NOT DO. Those of you in The Aetherius Society should be so fired with Spiritual ambition, which is the only allowable ambition on Earth, that you beg to come in through the door, never mind have to be coaxed. In fact, if you do have to be coaxed, you may as well stay outside! Speaking for Higher Authority, if you call it that, we would rather manage with a few choice volunteers than with many pressed people.

" We have got past the stage of hypocritical nicety. Thank God we never entered the stage of half truth. We are now laying cards upon your table in the plainest, most concise, most definite manner we know how. It is still up to you by use of your so-called freewill, to either accept this challenge or reject it.

" It is your world and not ours.

" It is your Karma and not ours.

" It is your responsibility and not ours.

" It is your opportunity and not ours!"

Transmission delivered on September 7th, 1963.

that you wish to stop certain atomic experimentation, nevertheless the radio-activity already released into your atmosphere and ionization belts will still cause grave air crashes which will be of a swift and violent nature. (Note 4.) In the coming months, winds of unexperienced violence will suddenly be felt.

" These calamitous meteorological conditions will be as a direct reaction to the energy YOU have sent to the Devic Kingdom through your utter disobedience of the all pervasive Laws of Good.

" As I warned you previously, you are also walking very near the shadow of a violent war upon the surface of your already troubled world. (Note 5.)

" These conditions are, to say the least, troublesome and should cause all of you who have a heart made of flesh and blood and not stone, to look to your laurels. Can you do anything to help your world in this coming very difficult time?

" Surely not one of you who is adult enough to think can say that he does not know this affirmative answer. You have been given every conceivable opportunity to put right conditions upon the surface of your world. You have been given every conceivable chance to so quicken your own vibrations that you will not be unduly affected by the overall pattern of terrestrial quickening. You have been given every imaginable opportunity to be of OUTSTANDING Service to your less enlightened brothers. If you have not taken advantage of this DIVINE opportunity then you will have to answer to your own Karma for missing such an opportunity. (Note 6.)

" More than ever before is it vitally necessary that people of humanitarian belief should come together to work as a team of Spiritual builders so that the violent expression of warped mind substance, sent by the majority to the Devic Kingdom, may not be completely catastrophic. (Note 7.)

" There is no excuse for ignorance of the Law. There is no excuse for not moving into concerted action, especially for those who have been warned by Higher Authority of the coming conditions. If you disregard this, then YOU will have to bear the Karma for this selfish disregard in either the present or the next life. If anything could be guaranteed upon the surface of Terra, it is that!

" If you regard this challenge like grown, fully developed adults, who really believe in Spiritual action, if you take every available opportunity to send out Power and Love and render Service, this too will be noted in your Karma and very bright indeed will be your future life!

" Terra, you are now being weighed in the Karmic scales, it is up to YOU to either accept this challenge or ignore it. You must bear the consequences either for acceptance or for ignoring this Divine chance to do some great good for all men.

" More than ever before is it vitally necessary for all people of good heart to come physically together as a band of Light bearers, into your places of true Metaphysical worship. There to act together as frequently as possible. You know, you will NOT save your own Karmic pattern or the world by coming together two times per week and saying a couple of prayers those two times. This is not good enough! If you are now to forge for yourself a very positive Karmic pattern, you must act far more often than that. Twice a week is NOT GOOD ENOUGH for any of you. It will NOT DO. You will fail if this is the best you can do, in this life and the next. Those are no idle words, neither is that a guess, but a definite Metaphysical statement of God forged Truth!

" If you are to take full advantage of the unprecedented opportunities now being given to you on a golden platter - nay, laid at your lackadaisical feet, you must be prepared to WORK for the very minimum of SEVEN TIMES PER SEVEN DAYS. There must not be one day pass that you do not spend at least 30 MINUTES TO ONE HOUR IN PRAYER, IN SERVICE FOR THE WORLD AS A WHOLE. If you want to take advantage of this unprecedented opportunity which is now being offered to you to advance many lives in one, you will go out eagerly seeking for tasks to perform. You will not need to be asked, you will beg for them. You will not need to be approached and coaxed into coming to your place of worship, but stand at the door, sometimes before it be opened, pleading to come in. Yes! Or join the unthinking masses, whichever you so choose.

" If you want to be of assistance to your own Karmic pattern and also shine as a bright Light, be one of those FEW who help to soften the blow of the great change upon Terra; you will pray together, AWAY FROM YOUR OWN HOMES as never you have prayed together before. (Note 8.) You will forget petty personalities. You will regard yourselves as active workers for good, striving your utmost to " You have been told in your Bible that there will be 144,000 saved. This number is symbolic. What you have not been told is why a symbolic number will be saved. One reason why is the Operation you should be dedicated into. I announce now that the next Magnetization Period will be as a great and mightily important Spiritual Operation for The Aetherius Society, as well as other Spiritual groups, but more important than these, The Aetherius Society, because of its true approach and because of its obvious sincerity and even more important than this, the great knowledge of its organizer.

"THIS MISSION WILL BE REFERRED TO AS: OPERATION WORLD HEALING.

"If any of you can turn away from this, then leave those who are dedicated enough not to go to success. Remember this World Healing you can give. There are enough of you to give it successfully. If you do not do it, you are not hurting the Masters; you are not hurting any organization, but you are helping, surely helping, to further imprison your own soul. Remember, and never forget this, that every time during the next Magnetization Period you slack, another is doing your work for you. Every time you stay away from a Divine Service, another will be asked to work much harder to make up for your absenteeism. Every time you listen to your basic selves, which delight in bringing luxury before you, another has rejected it and is working for you.

" And, remember to-night and every night as you sleep that, if the Absorption Factor is not at least 6.75 Units next time, you will have been instrumental in indirectly murdering thousands of defenseless children. Sleep on that.

"Join together as brothers, forget foolishness, be as adults and stand boldly on your two feet and demand mighty Power and it will flow through you as true as The Absolute made all things. Let this Power flow unrestricted. Come to at least 7 Divine Services here, at The Aetherius Society, per week and allow the Power to flow and then walk tall among the masses, in humility, but in Spiritual Light.

"ONLY THOSE WHO HELP SHOULD EVER LIFT THEIR EYES TO GOD AGAIN. FOR IF YOU REJECT THIS AND YOU DO LIFT YOUR EYES, YOU DO THIS AS HYPOCRITES.

" Do not forget you have a great Mission to perform. If you cooperate next time as you have done during these last 3 Special Power Transmissions, you will most certainly succeed. You will most certainly help to advance your soul from the prison of ignorance.

"Satellite No. 3 divorce Terrestrial Orbit. All Transmissions now discontinued."

Transmission delivered on September 21, 1963.

OPERATION WORLD HEALING

The following powerful Transmission was delivered during the last Special Power Manipulation on September 21st, at 4 pm. to end the 3rd Magnetization Period for 1963. All readers should note that even with all the work put in by loyal cooperators throughout the world, together with five Special Power Manipulations in which the Great White Brotherhood and the Three Adepts cooperated, the Absorption Factor was only 6.5 Units.

THE ABSOLUTE MINIMUM DANGER LEVEL FOR THE NEXT HOLY PERIOD -November 1st to December 26th - MUST BE 6.75 UNITS. In order to attain this everybody will have to give of their very best.

Every meeting you miss will mean that somebody will have to work twice as hard to make up for the Power you failed to send out. This is the truth and should be considered as the top priority of all Members, sympathizers and readers of this Newsletter.

This ranks as one of the greatest Spiritual appeals ever given to humanity since its inception on Earth.

TREAT IT AS SUCH!

MARS SECTOR 6

" This is Mars Sector 6 reporting from Satellite No. 3.

" The Absorption Factor when Satellite No. 3 vacates Terrestrial Orbit will be 6.5 Units.

" You have to realize an Absorption Factor of .25 Units above this at the end of the next Magnetization Period. This will mean close cooperation together. The next Magnetization Period is for all of you a period of great trial and superb opportunity. In fact, never has anyone of you had such an opportunity to really demonstrate your belief in the Laws which are God, as the opportunity given during the next Magnetization Period of Terra. Never before, in any one of your lives, have you been able to do so much through the expenditure of so little, as you will be able to do in that period. Now is the time to act as grown adults.

" Now is the time to drop your petty squabbles, your childish quarrels and join together AS TRULY DEDICATED SPIRITUAL WORKERS, fired with the ambition of such a mighty cause as that which has been given to you.

" It is out of compassion that the Great Ones have given you all such an opportunity. If you fail, you do not fail your Society; you do not fail any organization, you fail your own souls. IF YOU WISH TO DO THIS, THEN PLEASE GO THE WHOLE WAY AND STRIKE YOUR NAME FOREVER FROM THE RECORDS OF TRULY SPIRITUAL NAMES.

" The very essence of life in these days is action for the world as a whole. No other action approaches this in merit. You can try to develop your tiny self all you wish, with whatever elaborate excuse you wish, you do not deserve to bear the shoes of one who has dedicated himself in action, in Service, in Love for the world as a whole! This is no idle statement. It is not said to you in order to appear purely dramatic. It is the Truth!

" Some of you may labor under the erroneous belief that all men are at present equal. You are fools. The man who stands above all others, is the man who has dedicated his life for the Enlightenment of humanity. The only way to be equal to such a man is to demonstrate a similar dedication. Such a man towers above the common masses as would a great giant tower above the pigmees. Such a man has a great Light around him. Such a man is revered by the Gods.

" It is the time to forget pettiness, smallness and childish squabbles. It is the time, now, to gear for action. Come together, formulate plans for these coming few weeks, gear yourselves up, strive for perfection, strive for simplicity in your own life. Cut yourself off, if necessary, from friends and relatives now, so that, when Satellite No. 3 comes back into orbit of Terra, you are as a free Spirit able to go undisturbed ABOUT YOUR FATHER'S BUSINESS.

" These are instructions. Treat them as requests, if you wish. Ignore them, and you are ignoring the crying of your own soul for Freedom. Ignore this and you are, by God you are, forming a sure prison for yourselves upon the Planet, which will bear these not ready for the millenium of Terra.

fusion which involves. We go out of our way to spread the true Light of The Masters and teach discrimination, so that our Members may protect themselves from the mass of astral confusion being spread by the unenlightened.

Numerous other activities are organized by The Aetherius Society. One of the most important of these are the special Pilgrimages which are arranged, to go to the Holy Mountains, charged by the Space People through George King as an instrument, to form New Age Power Centres. From these Holy Mountains, in Great Britain, America, Australia, New Zealand, Switzerland and France, dynamic Power is radiated to all Spiritually minded people upon Earth.

Power Circles are organized during a Spiritual Push, when the giant Spacecraft, Satellite No. 3, is brought into orbit of this Earth by that great Cosmic Master, Mars Sector 6. During this potent time, all Spiritual activities are enhanced 3,000 times! Members who attend these Power Circles, send out the Spiritual radiations from Satellite No. 3 to help all peoples upon the Earth. These Power Circles are organized by Branches as well as the Headquarters in London and Los Angeles. (Read Cosmic Voice, Volume No. 1, pages 57-70 and Issue No. 14, pages 9-17 for description of the inside of this magnificent Martian Spacecraft.)

Spiritual Healing is offered free at both Headquarters to all who are in need of it. Help, advice, guidance and instruction is given by willing workers whose ambition it is to help mankind.

From the time since the Command was given in May 1954, The Aetherius Society has grown into one of the most active, non-political, non-sectarian, metaphysical and religious organization of its kind in the World. Its Members are proud to belong to a Society which has been given the opportunity of doing so much practical good throughout the Earth.

Of all the Members who work unceasingly for mankind, through The Aetherius Society, not one receives a salary from the Society--not even those who have given up well paid, pensionable positions to devote all their time in the Service of The Cosmic Masters.

It is because of people of such calibre as these, that The Aetherius Society will continue to grow, for this Society has been built on firm, rock-steady foundations, which are designed to weather any storm.

We have no illusions of grandeur, neither do we harbour the pipe-dreams of power seeking materialists, who believe, that a massive facade on the outside is of greater importance than the quality of the teachings which are offered on the inside. The Lord Jesus did not need a tall cathedral spire above His Head when He spoke, neither did the Lord Buddha need the golden inlaid trappings of a massive temple in order to propound His deep Wisdom. The Aetherius Society takes its major directives from the Cosmic Masters Themselves and throws the whole of its resources and energies into carrying out these highly practical Spiritual assignments.

Indeed, we are a band of willing and joyful people, who consider it an honour to work for humanity in the Service of the great Beings, Who live on other, more evolved Planets.

Our slogan was given to The Society by Mars Sector 6, in one of THE NINE FREEDOMS and we consider that no better or more valuable advice has ever been given to suffering mankind.

States the great Cosmic Adept, Mars Sector 6: "SERVICE IS THE JEWEL IN THE ROCK OF ATTAINMENT."

We invite you to join us and work with us, so that you may be one of these.

With God's Blessings,

THE MAIN WORK OF THE SOCIETY

The Aetherius Society is constituted according to Law and is run by a Board specially chosen for their skill and ability in many different fields of endeavour.

Since the beginning in London, in that small apartment in May 1954, The Aetherius Society has now grown into the largest Metaphysical Society of its kind now on Earth. Branches are operating in England, Holland, America, South Africa, Rhodesia, Canada, Australia and Japan.

It can be seen, that the major function of The Aetherius Society is to propagate the vital information given to mankind in the highly specialized Transmissions from The Master Aetherius, The Master Jesus, Mars Sector 6, St. Peter, Jupiter Sector 92 and other highly evolved Cosmic Intelligences.

This is done through the frequently published magazine 'COSMIC VOICE' and other books, THE TWELVE BLESSINGS, YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE!, LIFE ON OTHER PLANETS, THE PRACTICES OF AETHERIUS, WISDOM OF THE PLANETS and THE NINE FREEDOMS.

The Society also conducts and publishes all types of Metaphysical courses for both beginners and advanced students. It has its own film Units in both London and Los Angeles, which make educational sound films depicting its many Spiritual activities. The Society publishes books, discs and tape recordings of lectures and actual Transmissions from the Cosmic Masters.

Regular meetings and Divine Services, which are open to the public, are held by branches throughout the world, as well as in the Headquarters in Los Angeles and London, England.

Special lecture courses are also delivered by Doctor King. During these very popular lectures, the Transmissions from actual Space Intelligences are analysed, sentence by sentence and the profound Truths and accurate prophecies of The Masters are explained in such a manner, as to be understandable to all serious minded attentive students.

You will agree that teachings of this calibre are unique. Deep perception is necessary in order to understand the Wisdom of The Masters and explain this in simple terms. In order to withstand such very close scrutiny by an expert occultist, the original text has to be of such a quality, that it could only have come from a highly elevated source--the brain of a real Cosmic Master, not a mythical one.

The lower realms are not allowed to have their twisted, confusion causing fun at the expense of people attending The Aetherius Society lectures! It is an essential part of The Aetherius Society policy to carefully check all information before it is given to the public.

Our Founder has many times boldly stated to his public that when he takes his place upon the Metaphysical platform, he is technically under oath before God, to speak truthfully to the very, very best of his ability. He is not afraid to openly declare that the greatest gift one man can give to another is Wisdom and the greatest single crime that one can commit is to base his teachings upon lies and so hold up the evolution of his followers!

The Society is sure of what is taught from its platform and can boldly declare that it believes it to be Truth which evolves and not the untruth and con-

At the completion of this great Spiritual Task, The Master Aetherius said: "Operation Starlight is the most important single Metaphysical Task ever undertaken upon Terra in this Her present Life." (Read Cosmic Voice, Issue No. 27, for full Transmission.)

Indeed are our Members proud to be an essential part of such a vital Organization, which has been entrusted to perform the greatest single service given to man!

THE NEW LORD'S PRAYER

On the evening of December 20, 1961, to a capacity audience at the Los Angeles Headquarters of The Society, a wonderful series of Transmissions were delivered through Doctor King. The Masters Who spoke were Aetherius, Mars Sector 6, Mars Sector 8, Jupiter 92 and the Master Jesus Himself. At the end of this brilliant demonstration of Cosmic Wisdom, the Lord Jesus gave to Earth His NEW LORD'S PRAYER.

In answer to dozens of requests, The Society published the sound track of this glorious Prayer, actually recorded as Jesus overshadowed the Reverend Doctor George King, on a phonograph record, called appropriately enough, THE SECRET OF DYNAMIC PRAYER. (Read Cosmic Voice, Issue No. 26, pages 21-28 for the whole text of this glorious Cosmic Transmission.)

JUPITER SAVES EARTH!

Later, between January 20th and February 19th, 1962, came a mighty series of Special Power Transmissions. During this time, great tides of Spiritual Energies were sent from the Planet Jupiter to counteract the modifications which terrestrial man had imposed upon the tremendous radiations which would come from the configuration of Planets on February 4th and 5th, 1962. (Read Cosmic Voice, Issue No. 26, pages 29-33 for full report.)

Scores of Aetherius Society Members in different countries throughout the World cooperated in this huge Spiritual mission with a result that many of the major catastrophes, due to befall ignorant mankind, were alleviated. Again in the dark hour of need for the world, The Aetherius Society was used as a trusted instrument by the mighty Cosmic Powers. While millions slept in blissful, but dangerous ignorance, The Aetherius Society Directors and Members tuned in, to be used as channels for the great Transmuting Energies. Every man, woman and child on this Earth benefited through the devotion to their Spiritual calling displayed by those who cooperated.

Jupiter saved Earth and used The Aetherius Society personnel to do so!!

Science in Europe before coming to America.
Open to all who are in need.

SPIRITUAL PUSH:

During certain times of the year a huge Spacecraft from Mars comes into orbit of this Earth. This time is known as a Spiritual Push or Magnetization Period. The Power radiations from this Spacecraft are so potent that every act performed in true unselfish service for others is enhanced 3,000 times. This is indeed a Holy Time.

The number of Divine Services and Twelve Blessings Services are stepped up during a Spiritual Push in order to use the Energies which are specially radiated from this Spacecraft for the benefit of all peoples on Earth.

SPECIAL POWER TRANSMISSIONS:

At certain times during a Spiritual Push, a Special Service is held at the Los Angeles Headquarters. During this time Branches and groups throughout the world tune into the flow of Power.

Branches and groups are open to the public, but the highly specialized Service at the Los Angeles Headquarters is strictly confined to Members only.

PILGRIMAGES:

Pilgrimages to the Holy Mountains are frequently arranged by Branches and the Headquarters in London and Los Angeles. The nearest Holy Mountain to Los Angeles is Mount Baldy. Branches and Headquarters officials will gladly give advice on climbing and wearing apparel which is absolutely necessary before pilgrims contemplate this or any other climb. Full particulars on application.

COLOUR SLIDES AND FILM SHOWS:

Are frequently held at London and Los Angeles Headquarters and Branches. Some of the beautiful colour slides taken by the Operation Starlight teams in their travels through England, Scotland, Wales, United States, Australia, New Zealand, Switzerland and France are shown much to the delight of all who attend.

Movie films in beautiful 16mm colour and sound, made by The Aetherius Society Film Units, are projected on professional equipment to illustrate the enormity of the Spiritual Mission of the Society.

Occasionally colour slides from the numerous World pilgrimages are also projected to everyone's delight.

These shows are so popular that booking beforehand is essential. Announcements are sent to our mailing list in plenty of time to allow for advanced booking. Open to Members and sympathizers.

SPEAKERS' CLASSES:

Will consist of six classes to train speakers for preliminary platform work. Open to Members only.

SIMPLE PHOTOGRAPHIC COURSE:

Simple instruction on how to take effective photographs and to encourage people on pilgrimages to take along and use their cameras.
Open to the public.

SPIRITUAL COUNCELLING:

Venus. In this book there is also a vivid description of an actual battle in Outer Space. The first true eye-witness account of such a happening which has ever been published. It tells how the whole of Earth civilization was almost destroyed and vividly describes the desperate fight to save your life!

YOUR FUTURE LIVES EXPLAINED

Between February 12th and March 15th, 1961, another shattering series of Transmissions were delivered to Earth, by that profound Orator, Mars Sector 6, at the Los Angeles Headquarters. As with all other Transmissions given to Earth, through The Aetherius Society, these were delivered through Doctor George King, in a positive, samadhic Yogic trance. These Cosmic Truths, called THE NINE FREEDOMS, give mankind for the first time in his history, in a simple, understandable form, the path of his future Evolution, not only upon Earth, but upon other Planets in the Solar System as well.

THE NINE FREEDOMS are now published in book form with a full commentary on the profound Mystic text carefully written by Doctor George King. The Publishers have gone to the expense of having this wonderful book printed in very easily read type, which does not strain the eyes of the student.

This book will give you the major steps towards attainment of the wonderful state of COSMIC CONSCIOUSNESS, then later tell you how to pass through the most elevated state possible to man upon Earth, that of -- ASCENSION.

Yet, THE NINE FREEDOMS does not even stop here! It goes even further than the Bible, the Baghavad-Ghita or the Buddhist conception of Nirvana. For within these pages, the sacred Wisdom, kept from you since your inception upon Earth, is now given, revealing the way in which you will eventually attain the glorious state of -- INTERPLANETARY EXISTENCE.

THE NINE FREEDOMS, is not just another book -- it is a Mission of Truth given to mortal man, so that he may climb the nine steps to -- LIVING IMMORTALITY!

OPERATION STARLIGHT CONCLUDED

The far reaching, ever extending Spiritual activities continued, as our now, much travelled Leader, left America for England, then on to Switzerland, where one more Holy Mountain was added to the chain of great Cosmic Power Centres. Then on to France, where on the side of Mount Blanc, Operation Starlight was ended. This one Operation alone had taken three years to complete. (Read Cosmic Voice, Issue No. 26, pages 10-20 inclusive.)

Highlights of this vital Operation were dramatically presented in the 16mm documentary motion pictures, "OPERATION STARLIGHT" and "A MYSTIC JOURNEY", both filmed on the actual majestic locations, in glorious colour and sound, by The Aetherius Society Film Unit.

the great Master from Venus, Aetherius, could speak to millions of television viewers throughout the British Isles. Such was the popularity of this half hour program, unique in television history, that it has been reshowed many times since this. (Read Cosmic Voice, Issue No. 20, pages 28-30 for the complete text of this history making Transmission.)

THE WORLD TOUR BEGINS

Later, while on his world tour, Doctor King again demonstrated his outstanding Yogic abilities by performing a similar unique feat in Hollywood, U.S.A. On July 19, 1960, on Station KCOP, The Tom Duggan Show, Aetherius again spoke to millions of Hollywood and Los Angeles television viewers. The important Space Message was beginning to be spread throughout Earth, so was the influence and importance of The Aetherius Society.

On June 16, 1959, George King set sail for America to spread the great Truths given in the frequent Transmissions to Earth by the Cosmic Masters, also, to extend Operation Starlight throughout the vast American continent. After months of touring from coast to coast, and scores of radio and television appearances, Four Mountains were charged as Cosmic Batteries in America! (Read Cosmic Voice, Issue No. 21, pages 20-24, and Issue No. 23, pages 11-22 for the full amazing story.)

Then, out across the vast green waters of the Pacific Ocean to Australia, where two more Mountains were charged and on to New Zealand, where another Mountain was charged to end Operation Starlight in the Southern Hemisphere. (Read Cosmic Voice, Issue No. 24, pages 5-21.)

On November 22, 1960, The Aetherius Society was officially incorporated under the American Law as a religious organization in California, with Headquarters in Los Angeles. This is an American Corporation, managed by a Board of Directors, all of whom are residents of California.

THE TWELVE BLESSINGS

On July 27, 1958, George King was overshadowed by The Master Jesus Who gave the first chapter of His Aquarian Age Bible to this Earth. In the eleven weeks which followed, this Great Cosmic Master of Love gave THE TWELVE BLESSINGS, a Teaching which was later published by The Aetherius Press and is already in its third impression.

THE TWELVE BLESSINGS has made a profound impression upon the lives of all who have studied its wonderful context and have put into operation these great Spiritual Truths.

OPERATION STARLIGHT BEGAN

George King was then instructed by The Master Aetherius to visit a small village called Combe-Martin in North Devonshire, England, on July 23, 1958.

There, at midnight, on top of a hill called, "Holdstone Down", another chapter in the life of The Aetherius Society and the whole world was begun. For, upon that barren hilltop in all His glorious Cosmic Light, stood the Master Jesus Himself, radiating His profound Love to all the world. Even the very ground beneath His feet became consecrated and sacred. "Holdstone Down" became the first Holy Mountain. The mission which followed, officially called by the Cosmic Masters, OPERATION STARLIGHT, took our Leader almost around the world. (Read Cosmic Voice Issue No. 27 for the complete amazing story of this physical contact with Jesus.)

Between July 23, 1958, and February 25, 1959, Nine Mountains in the British Isles were charged as Holy Mountains and New Age Power Centres by the great Cosmic Masters through Doctor King. Despite appalling weather conditions, Aetherius Society mountain teams laboured to the tops of these Mountains to help their Leader act as an essential link between Earth and the Higher Forces so that these Cosmic Batteries could be given to mankind prior to the coming Cosmic Initiation of Earth.

On May 21, 1959, George King was the first man on Earth ever to demonstrate a telepathic rapport with the Master Aetherius over the official government sponsored B.B.C., Television in England. Under the bright lights and probing eyes of the television cameras, he went into a deep Yogic trance so that tices. This Eastern Sage then outlined the vitally urgent Mission which George King had been chosen by Cosmic Intelligences to perform on behalf of mankind. (Read, "You Are Responsible!", page 21-22).

George King was chosen for this task for more than one reason. As far as worldly man is concerned, the most obvious reason for this choice was that he had demonstrated by his previous insatiable search for Truth and his single minded devotion to his years of difficult Yoga practices, that he not only had the ability necessary for such a task, but could be in every way trusted by the Masters to complete this assignment to the best of that well-trained, highly coordinated and strictly disciplined ability.

Disregarding his own business and comfort, Doctor King diligently threw himself into these advanced mystic Yoga techniques and a few months later a goal for all his very hard work was realized when he was able to gain true telepathic rapport with a Being actually living in a physical body on the shining Planet Venus. This great Cosmic Master was given the pseudonym of Aetherius.

THE EARLY DAYS IN ENGLAND

In January 1955, George King, acting on precise instructions from the Space Intelligences, first demonstrated his ability to use a self-induced Yogic trance, in Caxton Hall, London, in order to convey the Wisdom of Aetherius to the public.

In the early days he had to face much prejudice and opposition from all sides. He stood alone, save for one or two people who recognized that the contact was in every way genuine. Strangers would tell him that he could not continue for more than three months. His friends would constantly remind him of the dangers of such a deep trance condition before the general public. He would only smile and reply that he was well aware of these dangers.

As time went on, so the Messages from the Space Intelligences increased in length, regularity, importance and urgency. The strain on George King was enormous, but those who knew him best were often amazed at the abundant energy of the man. He would often work twelve hours a day at business, then return home and after a bath and a light meal, would go into trance so that Aetherius could give His Message of Wisdom and advice to mankind.

A single page, duplicated, news-sheet was started. This soon developed into a small magazine called, "Aetherius Speaks". In some strange way this magazine found its way abroad. Letters started to come in from all over the World. The public meetings became more frequent, as George King was featured as a lecturer by other, larger groups.

The general pace increased so much, that on August 2, 1956, George King founded The Aetherius Society. The aims upon which this Society was founded, were dictated by Saint Goo-Ling, a Member of The Great White Brotherhood, still living upon Earth.

Under Doctor King's leadership as Founder-Chairman and help given by elected Committee Members, The Aetherius Society grew steadily. This growth

THE COMMAND IS GIVEN

On a Saturday morning, early in May 1954, The Reverend Doctor George King was given a Command to:

"PREPARE YOURSELF, YOU ARE TO BECOME THE VOICE OF INTERPLANETARY PARLIAMENT."

This was no psychic apparition or vague voice in the head. The voice which made this pronouncement, in perfect English, was completely physical and held a peculiar musical and deep penetrating quality, not possessed by any ordinary earthly voice. (Read Cosmic Voice, Volume No. 1, page 34.)

In those days, George King had not heard of Interplanetary Parliament. For ten years previous to this, he had been a keen student of the Spiritual philosophies of East and West. He had practiced the ancient Mystic science of Yoga for as long as nine hours per day. Many times through this ten year period, sleep, spare time and vacations were given up to the practice of the greatest form of Spiritual development and Yoga, known to mankind. Urged on by some great inner Power, he drove himself relentlessly to practice, for hours each day, Mantra, Kriya, Raja, Gnani and the secret Kundalini Yoga, until he developed the ability to throw off the veils of basic materialistic thought and by the conscious control of the great Power of Kundalini within himself, he was able to enter the deeper, more lasting states of true Meditation. His deep perception and clairvoyant powers had enabled him to perform outstanding feats of Healing. Some of his patients, who had been attending doctors for years without any apparent success, were cured within a few days of their meeting with George King. Not once did he make any charge for his Healing services. His life in those days, as it is today, was devoted to Healing those who were suffering and to teaching those who were ready for the deeper Spiritual awareness which gave life a true, more understandable meaning to them.

Therefore, being already a highly trained occultist, when the Cosmic Command was given, he could appreciate its vital significance, even though at that time, he could not fully understand it.

VISITATION BY A GREAT MASTER

Eight days after the Command had been issued, Doctor King, sitting alone in his small apartment in London's teeming West-end, stirred to the innermost depths of his being by the deep implications of this Command, was visited by a Master of Yoga. The Master walked straight through the locked door into his small apartment and sat down facing the other, who recognized his visitor at once. This was no psychic experience, but a physical visitation by a Yogi of great renown from Northern India, who, to this day, is still alive on Earth and is to all appearances an Earth man. The boards beneath the Master's feet creaked as He crossed the floor, the springs of the chair creaked as He sat down.

The renowned Swamiji knew all about the previous event and gave precise instructions in highly advanced and, hitherto, completely secret Yogic praclate in the afternoon, in time to book into a couple of the local hotels.

The next day, Tuesday, August 15th, the Team split up as for more than half our number, Bill, Reg, Gerry, Ray and Niel, the termination of their annual holidays was fast approaching, leaving George, Monique, Keith and I, to move on elsewhere to tackle any further phase or phases of Operation Starlight, the Space People might deem necessary for our Leader to accomplish.

It was with some regret that the parting was made, for we all felt very deeply the spirit of comradeship and mutual co-operation that had developed between us during the past ten days, which had stood the test of adversity on so many occasions.

Bidding our comrades farewell we returned to the hotel. As they vanished into the distance, Keith and I wondered what other mountains in Europe George King would be called upon to scale, before our eventual return to England.

OPERATION STARLIGHT

THE FINALE

By KEITH D. ROBERTSON

Just over three years ago on the 23rd July, 1958, a lonely man walking under the gaze of a cloud dimmed moon at midnight, climbed to the top of Holdstone Down in North Devonshire, England, to keep a rendezvous with a Man from the Planet Venus—a Space Man whose earth name had been bandied about by Saint and sinner for centuries—a Space Man Whose Teachings through the centuries had suffered misconceived interpretations by fools and charlatans. This Space Man was the MASTER JESUS; the man climbing Holdstone Down that night was George King, the Chairman of The Aetherius Society. (See next issue for full details of this historic meeting).

This meeting was to spark off the most important Metaphysical task undertaken on Earth for 100,000 years. A task which, at the same time, has become one of the most controversial topics among "armchair" Metaphysical students, but not to the true followers of The Aetherius Society.

At the time, not only was a stream of Great Spiritual Energy released through George King by The Master Jesus to stop a war which was brewing in the Lebanon area, but unknown to George King at the time, The Master Jesus also sent through him, a stream of vibrant Spiritual Energy into Holdstone Down turning that mountain into a Mighty Cosmic Battery.

Operation Starlight had started.

Through the three years which followed, George King, under definite instructions from Space Intelligences travelled over two-thirds of this Globe together with carefully chosen Teams in order that he may act as Channel for 17 more mountains to be energised in a similar fashion. Many hardships, privations and a good deal of mental frustration together with constant lack of funds, was the only reward for George King throughout the whole Operation which was to end three years later, high in the French Alps, overlooking the Chamonix Valley in Southern France on August 23rd, 1961.

THE LAST CHARGE

As the Sun sank low below the horizon on the 15th August, the team consisting of George King, Monique Noppe, Michael Park and myself were packing up to journey on to what would be the close of Operation Starlight. Behind us lay the glories of the past few days. No longer was Davos and its nearby mountain Madrigerfluh an ordinary place. Mount Madrigerfluh now stood as a shining jewel beckoning men to its Holy Shrine of Service. Davos was now a town which would, in the future, act as resting place for Pilgrims from all parts of Europe.

Whilst in the mountains of Korbhorn, George King had been telepathically contacted by a Great Cosmic Master and told that, after the Charging of Mt. Madrigerfluh, there would be one more mountain to receive a Charge of Spiritual Energy in Operation Starlight.

The next morning on the 16th August, we motored out of Davos in the Bedford Dormobile and took the winding, climbing route to Arosa, a small town nestling in the valley on the other side of Mount Madrigerfluh. This was done with a view to taking photographs and movie film of Madrigerfluh, which, from Arosa stands tall and majestic. However, our hopes were soon dashed to the ground as thick cloud had enveloped the whole valley. During that night it snowed heavily, even though it was August. The next morning brought no change, so we journeyed on. Our excursion to Arosa, it would appear, had been a waste of time.

Our route was westward. Through the winding, twisting rough roads of the Swiss Alps, we chugged our way. The journey from now on became likened to a slow ride on a somewhat rough switchback. At the same time, the scenery soared to majestic proportions; higher and higher we journeyed, only to plunge again into lush green valleys, bedecked with mountain streams which had become roaring, scintillating torrents of cold snow water which dashed their way between the ancient rocks.

The night of the 17th saw us in the quaint old town of Disentserhof where the old traditional Swiss language of Romanesque is still spoken and proudly defended by its exponents when treated with ridicule by the more sophisticated linguist. The next day, we journeyed through the finest scenery that Europe has to offer. Over the breathtaking heights of the Oberalp Pass; past the enchantment of the Rhone Glacier and then over the wonders of the Furka Pass, we arrived in the small town of Brig, to stay yet another night amidst the charm of a culture undisturbed by war and strife for hundreds of years.

By 4.00 p.m. on August the 19th, we had arrived at a small camping site in Les Bossons, just over the border in France at the foot of the mammoth Mont Blanc mountain range. Here was scenic wonder unsurpassed in our travels and only marred by having to pitch tents yet again, for not one of the Operation Starlight team were willing campers and all would have preferred to bed down in a comfortable hotel. But alas, as usual, as it had all begun, so it would end; Operation Starlight was fated to be performed on a financial shoestring!

As the Sun sank below the mighty dome of Mont Blanc, we shivered our way in and out of tents or the small caravan. As usual with camping, preparing food, clearing away and getting to bed was tantamount to a strategic operation, which made us almost awestruck that many people do this for enjoyment on their summer vacations. At this time, also, George King suffered a strange bilious attack. By about 7.00 p.m. he was so ill that it was impossible for him to sleep the night under canvas. He needed a warm, dry room and bed. So almost in desperation, after finding no accommodation in Les Bossons, he was driven into Chamonix, to sleep the night in a hotel there.

We rose the next day with the big question in our minds—which was the mountain to be charged? In many ways, it would appear that Mont Blanc, being the highest land in Europe would be chosen by Space Intelligences for Charging. However, this constitutes a 3 or 4 day climb amidst heavy snows all the year round. Only the most experienced Alpinists would be able to attempt this and although the Operation Starlight Team could have easily managed this, how many Pilgrims would be able to follow later? Very few indeed.

Where, then, would the Charged Rock be?

We busied ourselves most-of-the-day-taking-photographs. George King had arrived around mid-day at the camping site, now very much better for his peaceful night in an hotel. In the afternoon, local ski lifts were duly examined and finally George King decided to attempt a climb the following day from the top of the ski lift at Bellevue, a few miles further west of Les Bossons.

The following day, complete with climbing boots and the necessary gear we travelled on the ski lift to Bellevue, where we chambered aboard the mountain tramway which groaned as it wound its way up the precipitous cliffs to "Le Nid d'Aigle," which is the base for the climb to Mont Blanc. The Charged mountain simply had to be in this direction. If not, the actual summit of Mont Blanc then en route somewhere overlooking the valley.

Moving away from the tramway stop, we took the steep, rocky slope towards a high peak, en route to Mont Blanc called "Aguit de Goutet". This turned out to be a long, tedious climb, and although our route was marked as a path, the boulder-strewn course we took could hardly have come under such a title. Eventually, we arrived at a broken down mountain hut which could hardly have offered much shelter to a stranded alpinist. However, this gave us the opportunity to brew some welcome tea on our small French portable gas stove and take a few photographs.

It was at this point that the big question arose. We were still a good two days climb from the summit of Mont Blanc with an overnight stay in the newly completed mountain hut on "Aguit de Goutet". Were we to go back and come again next day with full provisions for such a climb, or would the Charged Rock be along the ridge which faced us? The latter seemed likely, as it overlooked the Chamonix Valley some 8000 feet high, but it was still far from being the highest ground in the region.

George King decided that we would return to Les Bossons and at least make the climb for a second time the next day, fully stocked with provisions for a possible ascent of Mont Blanc.

We arrived back at Les Bossons in the valley quite tired at about 6.00 p.m. with rather a sense of frustration, not knowing what our next move would be. As yet, George King had not been told where the exact location of the Charged Rock would be except that it would be in this area, and with such a heap of possible locations confronting us, gave us a problem, not experienced on Operation Starlight before. In fact, it is worth noting here, that in the whole three years of Operation Starlight, we never experienced the same problems twice. There had always been something fresh to contend with on every phase of this mighty task, which, on reflection, was a great privilege to descend around us.

At mid-day we reached a horizontal stretch of rock strewn ground, situated just below the summit and, leaving us to guard the equipment there, George, alone now, as on previous occasions, made his way across the last few hundred snow covered yards to the top; then walked a little further down on the opposite side of Madrigerfluh, until no longer in view from our vantage point.

We did not have to wait long, however. Our Leader emerged once again triumphant from his Metaphysical ordeal, and with ice axe waved aloft, beckoned us to join him and enjoy the inestimable privilege of being the first of many pilgrims who would ultimately, stand on that mountain and radiate through themselves, the wondrous Spiritual Energies now residing there, to all the peoples of the world.

Words could not possibly adequately express our true feelings, of our having had bestowed upon us, a Divine privilege which not in a million lives could we hope to repay; as we stood on that Charged Rock and experienced for the first time, the Holy power coursing its way through our auras.

However putting aside our reveries, we immediately turned to George, who had experienced a terrible drop in bodily temperature as a direct result of the Operation, and gave him some hot tea prepared on a little portable gas stove, specially brought up for the purpose; whilst the rest of us apart from Monique, who actually cooked a hot meal, made ourselves useful taking cinefilm and 35 mm. colour photos of the area. These would, of course, eventually form a priceless pictorial representation of this phase of a truly unique Spiritual operation. We remembered the words of that Great Master, Saint Goo-Ling, "Operation Starlight is the most important single Occult task ever undertaken on this Earth for the last 100,000 years."

Our Leader now duly revived and partially rested, we returned to our former position, and, collecting the gear, moved off down the mountainside with a blazing summer sun beating down on us, which quickly removed evidence of the intrusion of winter only the day before.

We arrived back at the hut at 4 p.m. to be greeted by Gerry Holdaway, who had unselfishly volunteered to remain behind, in order to keep an eye on things during our absence.

The great 18th phase of Operation Starlight was now completed. Rather as an anticlimax perhaps, the remainder of the day was spent drying out our sodden tents and equipment, and generally preparing for our somewhat reluctant return to so-called civilisation on the morrow.

Our second and last night spent in the hut was certainly no more comfortable than the first, but at least we had the satisfaction of knowing that the object of the climb had been accomplished without mishap. With a little spare time on our hands at long last, having first attended to the usual chores that are part and parcel of an operation of this nature, we spent the remainder of the evening talking about our experiences earlier on in the day, and wondering what mountainous part of Europe the Powers that Be would lead us to next.

The team rose at about 9.00 a.m. the following morning, Monday, August 14th, and after a more leisurely breakfast than hitherto, loaded up the rucksacks and set off along the path back to the top of the ski lift. We arrived there at mid-day, and as on the previous occasion, had lunch at the local restaurant nearby, the first, bought meal for four days; then, duly nourished, caught the ski lift down to Davos reaching the town Exhausted and snowbound, these valiant four staggered into the hut, cast off their heavy burdens and protective clothing, and warmed themselves by a roaring stove, the fuel for which had been mercifully, if unknowingly, provided by the local ski club, whilst the rest of us kept them supplied with hot drinks.

Despite the fact that half the Team had come within an ace of dying from exhaustion, including our valiant Leader, and we were marooned in a mountain hut for the time being at any rate, our position was at least secure in so far as everyone, by the time they had thawed out, was still in a fit state for further climbing; we had sufficient food for five days and all our precious camera and climbing equipment had survived the initial stages of the Operation intact.

It was a cold, crisp, but sunny dawn that greeted us on that Sunday of August 13th, 1961, as we flung wide the door of our snow-covered cabin and beheld the object of our journey, mighty Madrigerfluh, towering above us like a great pyramid on the opposite side of the valley.

George pointed out that in view of the very inclement Alpine summer weather we were having, an attack on the summit would have to be attempted on that day, lest we lose the initiative to the elements, causing us to withdraw down the mountainside back to Davos, with nothing positive accomplished.

Therefore after a hasty breakfast, the Team donned their climbing equipment and with trusty ice axes in hand, set off along the top of the snow covered valley heading North West in the direction of the foot of the mountain, with George in the lead and Keith taking up the rear, movie camera at the ready.

It took the less experienced members of the party like myself, some time to become acclimatised to the unfamiliar conditions under foot, especially the long 'rivulets' of scree (small loose rocks) we were constantly traversing, that caused one to slip suddenly; more often than not only the quick use of an ice axe preventing a greater fall . . . !

However paradoxically enough, the ice and snow that on only the previous day had been our undoing, now transformed themselves into a veritable blessing, for the even more treacherous scree running up to the summit of Madrigerfluh, on all sides, that George, Monique and I had observed at the time of the scouting force, was now blanketed with snow, which caused the rocks to bind together better, giving a much firmer surface upon which to climb. This of course enabled us to make far quicker progress than might otherwise have been the case, so within two and a half hours of starting out, we had gained a tenuous foothold on the long ridge that led to the summit.

George, with the Team taking up the rear, moved on up the ridge but after a few minutes' progress came face to face with the worst obstacle encountered so far. In front of him was a narrow, but deep and treacherous gulley, running at right angles to the track, which fell away sharply on the western side of the mountain, into the Arosa Valley thousands of feet below. A rope was thrown, and hitching himself to it, George, with the utmost care, edged his way across the ice covered rocks to the other side. His reconnaissance of this area was not a favourable one, so the rest of the Team, having first retrieved the rope, descended two or three hundred feet across some difficult terrain, skirted a rocky bluff and the gulley in question, and reascended on to the ridge to join our Leader a little nearer the objective. Unfortunately this detour wasted many minutes of precious time, for even then at 11.30 a.m. the clouds had begun to experience for such a Godly cause.

However, the next day, George King spent in making enquiries from the local mountaineering clubs about climbing conditions on Mont Blanc and also made enquiries about climbs on the peaks the other side of the valley—so as to leave no stone unturned.

By the evening, it was decided to again climb to the Mont Blanc trail fully equipped in case Space Intelligences ordered George King to climb the summit of Mont Blanc. So, on the 23rd August, at 6.00 a.m., George, Mike Park and I caught the 8.00 a.m. ski lift to Bellvue. Returning again to the valley, I picked up some more gear, as to take full climbing gear for the team, for such a possible venture, needed two trips; the ski lift not being a very large affair. By 10.45 a.m. I had arrived back at "Le Nid d'Aigle" with extra equipment and we all set off again along the steep rocky trail.

The weather was fine and we lost no opportunity in taking photographs and some excellent movie film. Gradually, we climbed over the large boulders and eased ourselves across the deep crevices in the rock until again we came to the broken down mountain hut. We had come again to the crossroads of our journey. Were we to continue on to Mont Blanc or were we to forge ahead along the ridge overlooking the valley.

Many minutes ticked by, as George King pondered upon the situation. Finally he decided to strike out along the ridge.

Walking over a snow drift which had obviously not melted for many months and which was at least 30 foot high, we started to approach the brown heap of rocks which nature had formed on the edge of the precipice. If the Charge was to be placed in this region, surely, I thought, it will be on these rocks somewhere along this trail.

After about 25 minutes of slow trudging, George King surprisingly enough halted us and asked for lunch to be served. Cold chicken was on the menu and after our climb it tasted delicious. After washing this down with the usual tea, George King decided to strike out alone. Even at this time, he was not certain that this was the right area. As he left, he arranged that if he waved his ice pick to us, this would be a signal that he was on the right track and would commence to climb the wall of rock overlooking the valley. If not, he would beckon us on.

Hastily picking up the 16mm. movie camera I filmed his departure with mixed feelings—hoping that this rocky ledge would be the place chosen by Space Intelligences for the Charged Rock. The thought of climbing Mont Blanc was pleasant, but the thought of spending a night in an overcrowded communal mountain hut soon counteracted this, and I found myself hoping and hoping that . . . this was IT!

Indeed it was!

George King, waving his ice axe at us, suddenly branched off and started to climb the rocky cliff to our left.

The minutes ticked by. We wondered what was happening, high on that cliff overlooking the peaceful little valley of Chamonix . . . then suddenly, George appeared again waving his ice axe to come ahead . . .

IT WAS FINISHED! THIS GIGANTIC OPERATION WAS NOW . . . OVER!

It was hard to grasp this at first, yet it was true enough. After 3 years of travelling and hardship and sacrifice, Operation Starlight was now over.

On the top of the ridge, the view was magnificent. As usual, the Charged Rock stood very much alone and appeared to be perched on top of the World overlooking all France.

Painting the Aetherius Society symbol on the Rock, we busied ourselves for some minutes, taking photographs and movie film. Unfortunately, the area of movement around the Charged Rock was perhaps the smallest we had encountered during the whole Operation. One false move would have sent us plunging something like 8,000 feet into the valley below, for the top of the ridge here was only about 8 foot across and every step had to be carefully judged. This cramped our style considerably in taking photographs and we had to be content with a series of shots, very similar to one another.

Even then, it was still difficult for me to grasp the fact that Operation Starlight was over.

How long, I pondered, would it take for mankind to realize the vital significance of this gigantic task.

The Earth is now adorned with nineteen jewels in Her body. One stage further has been completed in the preparation of the wedding gown for the Cosmic Bride. The Earth is now one step nearer to Her Great Initiation which those with a troubled conscience do not look forward to.

Will it take a new race of men to appreciate Operation Starlight? It will certainly take a new concept to realize that man's place of worship is now on the hills and mountain tops of Earth; that Prayer is not a vague dreamy thing for use by a few on a Sunday morning, but an exact Science, where men can indeed commune with the Absolute; can move mountains; can heal his brother's sickness; can overcome ignorance—the greatest evil of all; and thus rise to the very heights of Spirituality.

Operation Starlight has indeed given to man the key to his salvation. It is up to man now, whether he uses this key, or throws it yet again into the bottomless pit of ignorance. One thing is certain. Next time this happens it will take place upon a distant star, for those allowed to stay on this Earth will be those who have taken the key now offered and used it . . . Wisely!

SPECIAL NOTE

For directions and complete climbing instructions of the two last mountains in Operation Starlight, please carefully read pages 13 and 14 of Cosmic Voice Issue No. 25.

All would-be pilgrims are cautioned not to attempt a climb in either Switzerland or France without carefully reading these instructions. Correct mountain climbing equipment is absolutely essential, especially as a raging blizzard may come on very quickly. Take notice of this warning.

GEORGE KING.

broad valley, from which point, Madrigerfluh would be within negotiable climbing distance on the other side.

This we decided was the route to be taken in the strenuous days ahead of us; for among its advantages was a soundly constructed wooden hut, situated some two miles nearer the mountain than our present vulnerable camping site. First and foremost, as this initial sortie had only been intended as a practice climb, it was essential that the majority of our number should go down to Davos again to collect as much additional food and equipment that could be carried just so that the assault on the mountain itself would be a practical proposition. So it was that Keith Robertson, Bill Mayhew, Reg and Gerry Holdaway and Peter Lawless, set off on what turned out to be a most arduous trek down to Davos again, leaving our Leader, Monique Noppe, Niel Goldie and myself to sort things out at camp.

Fortunately the morning was dry and sunny, which permitted us to lay out on the grass the sleeping gear soaked during the previous night, and to generally take stock of our position. In the afternoon after lunch, George, Monique and I, set out on a reconnaissance of the area, leaving Niel, who had not been feeling at all well, to rest and recuperate, and look after the camp during our absence.

Our little foray into the "unknown" merely confirmed the deductions we had made from the map the night before. The chief advantage of the particular route chosen was the Korbshorn Hut, which would, in an emergency, provide us with a sound refuge quite close to Madrigerfluh. Although we did not realise it then on that warm, sunny August afternoon, but this same hut was about to prove our physical salvation.

Following yet another tempestuous night, as a result of which our camp site became half flooded, with the Team and equipment suffering varying degrees of water damage, George decided that before we were washed completely off the mountainside, team members should make their respective ways towards the Korbshorn Hut, carrying with them as much gear in one journey as possible.

George and Monique left first followed shortly afterwards by Ray, Keith, Bill, Reg and Gerry, with Niel and I taking up the rear half an hour later.

By 11.30 a.m. the driving rain had turned into a raging blizzard, but despite this turn for the worse, George, Keith, Bill and Reg, left the warm comfort of the hut, and bravely journeyed out into the snow in order to pick up the tents that had unavoidably been left behind earlier on. They discovered that within the short space of an hour, the camping site had been turned into a veritable frozen lake. After much effort, they managed to prise those inhospitable bits of frozen canvas from the grudging tundra. Then, by this time at least twice their normal weight, carried them back to the Aetherius Society's newly adopted wooden sanctuary, in the mountainous wastes of Switzerland, which had expressed such vehement disapproval of our intrusion into their forbidden domain.

At this stage I would remind readers that these ones did not endure such physical suffering, because of some inordinate taste for heroics, but because, having the interest of the Planet as a whole at heart, they considered such experiences a Divine privilege, that enabled one rather special man to climb to the top of a certain mountain, for the purpose of being used to give to Earth man a battery of Light, which in future years would be used by him, as a positive instrument of service for the direct benefit of his fellow men.

After a hectic journey of some fifty miles, we arrived in the winter sports resort of Davos late on Wednesday afternoon, and having imbibed some tea, sought out yet another camping site situated in a small wood some two miles from the town. Thursday, August 10th broke bright and sunny in true Alpine fashion, putting us straight away in the mood for mountain climbing. It was not long after breakfast that George added fuel to our enthusiasm, by telling us that he had chosen a small range of mountains on the North West side of Davos, for the purpose of a breaking-in practice climb; but intimated that going by previous experience, one of the charged mountains to be, could be situated in that area and advised us to be prepared for such an eventuality. Duly warned, the Team made sure to take all necessary mountaineering equipment, food, cameras, film, tents, etc., as George intended that we should spend at least one night on the mountains, in order to acclimatise ourselves to altitude.

At 11.30 a.m., the well equipped party left the camping site and drove into Davos, parked the vehicles, and took the local track railway and ski lift up to the Strelapass; where, after having first fortified our bodies with a good meal at a nearby restaurant, we made off along an undulating path running in a south-westerly direction, overlooking and parallel with the Davos Valley, thousands of feet below.

As you can imagine, the view was truly magnificent, with the long backbone of the snow-capped Rhaetian Alps far away in the distance to the East of us. For people who had, of necessity, been confined to a noisome city existence for so long, this was an experience that our thirsty souls grasped at, breathing in the exhilarating prana laden air in great gulps, as if each breath was to be our last. We feasted our eyes on the everlasting beauty of—"She who, in sacrifice, had made a space refuge for us all".

At about five o'clock after a trek lasting some two hours, we reached a comparatively sheltered hollow, which George considered would be suitable as a camping site for the night. In fact it was the best that could be found in the area, despite the fact that it was poised on the very edge of a mountainous ridge.

During the night the elements did their best to blast the party off the mountain side, tents, equipment and all, but when dawn broke the following morning, the 11th, after a sleepless vigil had been had by all, it turned out the actual damage amounted to no more than a partial wetting for the members of the Team; however unpleasant enough for people miles from so-called civilisation.

Following a very beautiful service of the Twelve Blessings conducted by one of our number the previous evening, George told us that he had received a telepathic message from Space Intelligences, advising him that a certain mountain visible to us from the camp, some miles away on the other side of a deep valley, was destined to become yet another battery of Spiritual energy on this Earth. This was the cue we had all been waiting for, so without a moment's delay our Leader decided on a plan of action.

We observed, on studying the map, that although it was possible to approach the mountain, Madrigerfluh, by climbing down into the steep valley, and then up its ever steepening rocky floor to the base of the peak in question, this would involve losing far too much height in the initial stages of the climb without gaining anything. Consequently an alternative route was worked out, which would lead us along a comparatively even path South around the foot of a small ridge called Korbshorn, to the head of a

THE CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

On December 20th, 1961, at The Aetherius Society Headquarters in Los Angeles, starting at 8.30 p.m., the following series of highly significant Transmissions were delivered through the Reverend George King, to an audience of about 70 people.

Everyone who had heard about His previous severe injuries just prior to the transmutation of the centre of evil which existed on "Garouche", was pleased to hear the Master Aetherius announce that Mars Sector 8 was, "as well as can be expected".

As readers know this world called under the pseudonym of "Garouche", was run by four evil intelligences, who, as well as hypnotising every lifestream upon that world, had their eye more than once on the conquest of this Earth of ours. Study of "The Mars Story" in my latest book You Are Responsible, will give you a little idea of the ingenuity of these evil schemers and the science at their command. Yet even evil as strong as this, cannot last and it was overthrown in what must have been a gigantic operation performed by Mars Sector 8 and several other Masters under the command of that brilliant Interplanetary Strategist—Mars Sector 6. There is a great moral in this story for us all.

During this series of Transmissions, Mars Sector 8 gave us some wonderful advice regarding the transmutation of fear of which He Himself must be an Adept.

Mars Sector 6 went on to remind us all, that it is practice which really counts—not theory. He reminded us, yet again, very forcefully, that we were responsible for every micro-unit of Energy we use and therefore should not waste any time whatsoever with those who would steal our time in vain discussion and argument. Those who had not yet appreciated the meaning of Service and action, should be shunned by us all for our own sakes, because there would come a day when we would have to account for every thought and every action and every energy unit wasted. This Message should be carefully studied by all as its text is as ancient as Wisdom and yet more modern than tomorrow.

Then the Master Aetherius reminded us not to make our coming Christmas (or any other Christmas for that matter) a time of hypocrisy. He stated that we all should remember and keep the Christmas Spirit of goodwill throughout the whole year. He reminded mankind that his New Year's resolutions should be cemented firmly into the rock of selfless action for others and not just played with as a comedian does with words.

It is far better to regard Christmas as just another day and abstain completely from making any further New Year's resolutions unless we all intend to retain this Spirit and practice these good ideas throughout the year. The Master Aetherius said one beautiful sentence which sums up so very much. One sentence which everyone of us should regard as being a guiding phrase throughout our lives. He said: "Hypocrisy, you know, weighs heavy on the Karmic Scales".

Then came the wonderful Master Jesus, Who gave us His New Lord's Prayer. A Prayer which each and everyone should learn by heart and should use throughout his Spiritual life. So enthralled were the audience by these Transmissions and especially by The New Lord's Prayer, that The Aetherius Society has published this on disc and on small tapes so that everyone can absorb the wondrous beauty of this Prayer and can learn from a Master the classic procedure of true dynamic prayer. We felt that we should make the oratory of Jesus available to you as well as the script. Since this time many Members have played over these discs before their Twelve Blessings practice and after it in some cases, with wonderful Spiritual results. They have told us that the Power which fills their rooms every time they play over The New Lord's Prayer is a lasting Spiritual joy to them.

The series of Transmissions called "The Christmas Message" were indeed truly great, truly inspiring and truly important.

EDITOR.

THE CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

THE MASTER AETHERIUS:

"Good evening, my dear friends. Before we do anything else this evening, I feel that it is only right for you to know that the Cosmic Adept known as Mars Sector 8 is now as well as can be expected after His show of valor just prior to the Initiation of "Garouche" Also, the great strategist, Controller of Satellite No. 3, Mars Sector 6, is also in a state of almost complete recovery. The minor injuries suffered by other Masters who took part in this essential operation as active agents for, and on behalf of, the Lords of Karma have also recovered from their injuries. (Note 1).

"The Planet 'Garouche' has now passed through Her major Initiation and will shortly be so positioned in relationship to Her Sun that propagation of basic life can soon start again and as we previously announced, the seas will dry up gradually and the life will leave the seas to live upon dry land and so adapt itself to a different set of environmental conditions which will result in life taking humanoid form on that Planet.

"As many of you were deeply grieved at the serious injury of Mars Sector 8, you would perhaps like to hear Him now address you".

MARS SECTOR 8:

"Mars Sector 8, General Information. At this time you Terrestrials are facing your basic trials. Be you not, in anywise afear'd, for this fear is a weapon of the dark forces. Reject it. Let your magnificent hearts be filled with the Power of the One Divine Source and fear will have no place therein. Look deep within yourselves at the lasting Spark of the Absolute which has residence there, and fear will have no place. Cast out the darkness of your basic thoughts. Let the Light which flows unrestricted through the Mighty Cosmic System course through you and fear will have no place. Go you on, living the Faith you now profess and fear will be as a total stranger to you. As well, you will prepare yourself for a greater thing, a greater life. A fuller more complete existence is yours. Reach out, oh Terrestrial man and pick the fruit, the lasting fruit, from the Garden of Active Wisdom. Then you will not go backwards".

THE MASTER AETHERIUS:

"In that short message lies the obvious key to your own salvation. Every time that short message is played before you, Power will flow through you to the World. It is so.

"Now, I take great pleasure, if that is the correct terminology, in allowing a few moments with one of the greatest active Spiritual Strategists in this System."

the one side and the hills of Argonne on the other, passed through Sedan, close to the Belgium border, and turned South into the warm, rich, rolling countryside of Lorraine; through Verdun with its reminders of the infamous first world war, arriving at Nancy, the capital of the Province in the early hours of the evening.

We camped for the night at a well appointed camping site (by French Standards) in a park on the outskirts of the city. Later on in the evening it was reported by a number of the party, that a Flying Saucer had been seen travelling horizontally across the sky at a comparatively slow speed. It seemed our space friends had not forgotten us!

On Sunday 6th August, we broke camp early, and, leaving Nancy far behind, maintained our south-easterly course, in turn passing through Luneville, Baccarat, and St. Die, up into the picturesque Vosges Mountains of Alsace, and down the other side into the Rhine Valley and Colmar, which latter, in keeping with most towns in that cosmopolitan department of the country, still retains its German name, architecture and reputation for good beer . . .

After a short stop for tea in Colmar, we turned due South towards Basle some fifty miles away, along a straight road running parallel with the Rhine on our left, and the beautiful mountains of the Black Forest in Germany, far away on the Eastern horizon.

We crossed the Swiss Frontier on the outskirts of Basle without difficulty, early in the evening and from our camping guide selected one of the better appointed sites in the area, some ten miles on the other side of the city, not far from the small town of Rheinfelden, arriving there at about 7 p.m.

On the following morning, Monday, 7th August, George, convinced that in any event Switzerland was one of the countries the Space People had chosen to contain a Charged Mountain, decided to allow the Team a day's rest, which most of us spent taking in the sights of Basle, that included a visit to a cinema and the local zoo—of all places.

The next day we rose early, had a quick breakfast, packed our tents and gear into their respective cars, and moved around to the small but efficiently run Hotel Sonne in the village of Sonbad, where George and Monique had stayed the night, situated some two miles from the camping site. The Team having reunited, we continued our journey East along the flat plateaux of northern Switzerland, making a short stop for lunch in a wood off the high road on the way. Then on through Zurich, the commercial centre of the country, around the long lake of that name past the Wallen See, up into the foothills of the Glarus Alps and down the other side into the valley of the Rhine once more, although a very different Rhine to the wide, passive river we had seen two days before.

That night we pitched camp at the village of Bad Ragaz close to the Austrian border, and some of us managed to get a much needed bath, the first since leaving England, in a local swimming pool.

It would appear that eastern Switzerland does not share with the rest of the country, the reputation for being a summer tourist mecca, perhaps because the mountains are not as impressive by Swiss standards, as those to be found elsewhere. Also, as we discovered to our chagrin, the roads are exceptionally bad and in no wise comparable with the autobahns of Germany to the North, although to be fair, the engineering problems of road building created by the nature of the terrain of Switzerland, must at

SWITZERLAND

By MICHAEL PARK

For several weeks prior to the appointed departure date, Aetherius House, London, was a veritable hive of preparatory activity for the great Spiritual Operation ahead.

Unlike our Leader the Reverend George King, Monique Noppe, and Keith Robertson, the remainder of the party, Reg and Gerry Holderway, Ray Nielsen, Neil Goldie, Bill Mayhew, Peter Lawless and myself, had had no previous serious mountaineering experience apart from the occasional pilgrimage to the Charged Mountains in Great Britain, which in height are of course in no way comparable with those to be found on the Continent of Europe. Therefore George found it necessary to give the "greenhorns" of the party like myself, certain instruction and advice, as to the correct equipment to be carried or worn during the course of the Operation; climbing boots, anarack, crampons, ice axe, rope, sweaters, and a hundred other things all of which had to be purchased by the end of July. In addition we had to buy a lot of camping equipment, as it had been decided that in order to save our limited financial resources, use should be made of the many officially recognised camping sites on the Continent.

At 6 a.m. on the 4th August, 1961, duly ready and prepared, a very excited, but at the same time rather apprehensive Team set off from Aetherius House distributed between Bedford Dormobile, Morris Minor and Volkswagen, and headed along the A20 road towards Dover, in time to catch the 10 a.m. ferry across the English Channel to France.

The sea was choppy, but not rough by channel standards, so the happy medium was achieved whereby the Team were able to enjoy the rolling movement of the ship, without any one of them becoming seasick, so a good late breakfast was digested by all! The boat docked at Dunkerque, France, at 3 p.m., and shortly afterwards we disembarked and met up with Peter Lawless and his wife Joan, who had crossed over to France on an earlier ferry.

Speculation was rife among the party as to which direction North, South, or East, our Leader would take out of Dunkerque, for it was assumed, based on previous experience, that although the Space People would not actually advise him of the particular range in which the mountain to be charged lay, until we were closer to the target, he would be given some idea of the route through the country they intend us to take.

That evening we arrived at Arras, a small industrial town in Northern France, some 60 miles from Dunkerque, where camping accommodation was found rather unexpectedly right in the middle of a built-up suburb. This was the Team's first opportunity to try out its camping equipment and cooking gear, so much fun was had by all, sampling the open air life after having been for so long couped up in soul contaminating cities.

On the following day we left Arras, moving in a south-easterly direction along the Charleville Road, stopping for lunch on the way. Then, skirting the Ardennes on

LEAVE IT NOT AS THEORY

MARS SECTOR 6:

"This is Mars Sector 6, reporting from Satellite No. 3, now in orbit-Saturn. Subject: LEAVE IT NOT AS THEORY.

"Throughout the centuries Terrestrial man has been, in many ways, given the key to his salvation. Lie not that key in a box, but reach out with full determination, place this Key of theory into the lock of Practice which resideth in your heart and mind. Unlock these and go you forward. Tarry not with they who in vain discussion waste their time; waste their energies. For know you, each microsecond of time itself can be a micro-second carved out of the Rock of Experience. Each micro-unit of energy you waste means that sooner or later you must, by activity, replace this in the Great Cosmic Whole. By activity. Therefore, heed ye not, nor tarry ye in the presence of those who waste the great coursing Energies of the Divine Source, who waste that period when they could make substantial carving upon the standing Rock of Experience so that others may see, and read, and learn and go onwards. But stand ye firm in resolution, knowing as you do, that you face not only your trials, but your triumph. Think not of that which may pass before the triumph, yet of the triumph itself and be risen by this great lasting Divine Promise which shineth so bright as to dim all else.

"Within the souls of you is that potential which, when realized, will guide you in Truth upon the sure path back to your Source. Listen with cupped ears, with open mind, with yearning heart, to the still small voice which cometh in a gentle, yet vibrant whisper from deep within the Spirit of you. Let this manifest and you will go forward into your triumph.

"Know this, Terrestrial man. You stand today at one side of a mighty chasm. Across that chasm there is a thin, yet strong bridge. Tarry awhile. Gather together your strength. Put your hand in the hand of your true active Faith, and cross surely, bravely, decisively this chasm—to your true becoming. For I tell you: on the other side of that shineth a Light greater than any previous perception of yours. For perception passeth, yet not This. That Light can be the means to guide you to your victory, to your Spiritual Enlightenment and to the very portal of your Ascension. (Note 2).

"Falter not, man, no, no, not at this time, falter not. For you have been told that now is the hour when the Karmic Bell tolls. Falter not, for your own lasting sake. But go ye onwards.

"This Transmission came from Satellite No. 3, now in orbit—Saturn. From Mars Sector 6, through Primary Terrestrial Mental Channel, with the Sanction and Authority of Interplanetary Parliament based upon the Planet Saturn. The Power released to Terra during this Transmission was given with the Sanction and Authority of the Supreme Lords of Karma. Waste it not. Neither waste ye your true selves. For your reward can be above your greatest imaginings.

"Discontinue".

THE MASTER AETHERIUS:

"During both of those very powerful, quite outstanding speeches, tremendous power was released to the mental realms upon Terra. This Power will be used by some, we know. If you would be wise, you would be one of those who does use it.

"Very shortly, there will be a powerful configuration in the heavens, as you call them. As we have already said previously, you Terrestrials have, to some extent, modified the tremendous radiations which will be given from this particular configuration. This modification of yours has made what could have been Spiritual honey into a dark acid. You will have to drink this acid. By Karmic Law, you must.

"Such is the Karma of Terra that we cannot intervene any more than the pattern permits. However, whenever possible, we will project through some pieces of mechanism as much of the beneficent radiations from the Planet Jupiter as we can. Not that the radiations from the configuration are in any way malefic. Whoever says so, is an idiot, to use your own terminology back at you, if I may be permitted to do so. But, however, the alkali for the acid will be Jupiterian radiations and we will use Mental Channel No. 1 between this time and February the twenty-third to radiate as much Energy from this giant Planet as Karmic Law will allow. (Note 3). We will start now, at the moment.

"I will introduce you to an Intelligence who has not spoken to you for some time. I refer to Jupiter Sector 92".

JUPITER SECTOR 92 :

"Rise, oh wondrous Earth, to your Glory. The God-given potential within you lieth in a state of complete dormancy until, with firm deliberations, you bring this wondrous Potential into active manifestation.

"We have observed other Planets which have been in a similar position to you at the moment, and we have seen them rise. If you want a challenge, this is it. For you can at this time reach deep within yourselves and bring into manifestation that which existeth there.

"The radiations from the Planet Jupiter will be sent to you in that degree which is allowable. Use these and rise!"

DO NOT MAKE THIS A TIME OF HYPOCRISY

THE MASTER AETHERIUS :

"As communication with Jupiter is rather difficult for anyone possessing a Terrestrial physical body, each communication will, of course, out of necessity, be quite short, but long enough, however, to enable us to radiate certain essential energies into certain realms of Terra. Those people who already know of this, are indeed fortunate, because you can, of course, tune into these radiations and so bring into action certain nullifying factors which should be of very great help and assistance to all of you.

"Now, shortly, you will be celebrating a birthday. Although the Venusian called Jesus was not born on December the 25th, however, you have chosen to make this His birthday. (Note 4). May I remind you of something. The way to celebrate the birthday so that they may know, that God dwells silently within them all!"

"May you be Blessed in the name of the Everlasting three principles.

"Good night to you."

MARS SECTOR 6

"This is Mars Sector 6, reporting from Satellite No. 3, now divorcing orbit Jupiter. Destination—secret. During a Special Transmission.

"This Transmission was given through Primary Terrestrial Mental Channel with the Sanction and Authority of Interplanetary Parliament based upon the Planet Saturn.

"LIMITATION IS DEATH, EXPANSION IS LIFE, EXPAND—AND LIVE!"

"All Transmissions now discontinued."

Notes 1, 2 and 3. This is a conversation between Mars Sector 6 and another Cosmic Intelligence referring to a Beam of protection put around George King in order to combat interference, by the dark forces, during this vitally important Transmission.

6th and 7th. This made 6 hours interview on this Radio Station alone. Later, Station WJR broadcast six more interviews with our Chairman.

Altogether, 11 Radio and Television Stations carried information and interviews with George King in Detroit. A wonderful reception indeed. It should be noted that Miss Edna Spencer arranged this Press Conference in a most commendable and professional manner. One publicity representative told Edna that George King had received more publicity in that one conference than some of the large car firms in Detroit.

After this our Chairman gave 13 lectures in the first month to well attended and very appreciative audiences. In fact, as he left for New York many requests were made that he return on his way back.

He gave 8 lectures in New York. Although the audiences in New York were small, they were however very attentive, sincere seekers after Truth. But the city itself, from a Metaphysical point of view, is not nearly so important as Detroit and certainly not the heartbeat of the World as some people erroneously believe.

On the way back, Detroit was visited again and on May 31st, 1962, George King was interviewed by "The Detroit News", the largest afternoon paper in America. The religious Editor later wrote up a very good article. WWJ—Television also ran a newflash on the same day. The next day WKMJ—Radio ran two interviews together lasting nearly half an hour.

This kind of publicity was managed in a professional manner by Edna Spencer who certainly has built Detroit into the most active Branch of The Aetherius Society, through sheer dogged determination and downright hard work.

At this juncture it is fitting that our most sincere thanks are expressed to Mrs. Rose Harkness, who gave us the most wonderful hospitality for a month's stay there, and to Mrs. Ann Nicholson who also gave us wonderful hospitality on our return trip.

form of dictatorship, sort the Wheat from the chaff. So that the Wheat might spread the Wheat unto your followers. For, you know, the chaff cannot spread Wheat. From the pod of the seed of the weed falls the seed of the weed, the all-choking weed, choking out the good grain. This you know.

"It is obvious that upon the philosophical platform of this country you call, at the moment—America, there are those with wisdom. The Leaders of Spiritual Groups are directly responsible for allowing these with Wisdom to speak. They are directly responsible for not offering their platforms, so that their Karma will not be affected, to the spreaders of chaff.

"If this is done in the correct way, you will not have any room in your minds or hearts for the materialists who would, through choice promise, bind you to their belief: bind you in such a way that you will give unto them materialistic force. This has happened especially in the communist countries. The people were promised a greater wealth, greater ease and have they got it? Have they? They have not, but even if they had, at what a price, in the name of Heaven at what a price! A pawn like Hitler was given power by the dark forces so that he would rise and how did he balance his rise? Upon promises of greater ease, greater wealth, greater power for the German people. Did they have it? Twenty-five per cent of his followers are now dead and lie entombed in the lower astral realms, soon due for re-birth upon another Planet: soon due to start their whole history over again. Is this a price? Are you willing to pay this price? These are the questions you should ask yourselves, because these are the days of decision. No longer can you be carried across the craggy valleys of your Karmic deficiencies. You must gain the strength and Power to cross these danger valleys yourself. I think some of you realize this.

"There are many upon the Earth, as you call it, this night, who, like plants searching for the light of the Sun, do search for Wisdom. Go you on, oh great ones, your hearts and minds will be filled.

"Do not let the materialist limit you. Do not let anyone take you from that chosen path, but go forward to Enlightenment to the New World.

"Before I close Transmission Orbit, I would like to remind you all that when the great Energies from Satellite No. 3 are beamed down to you, you can use these in such way that you will become more vibrant. You will become more Enlightened and you will have a greater strength to help you to go forward and onward and upward.

"Now, before I do vacate Transmission Orbit, I would like to say this. As you noticed at the beginning of this Transmission, there was a considerable amount of interference. We did not reflect this interference away from Mental Channel No. 1 because, had we done so, we would have physically damaged those who sent this dark force against him. We absorbed it and Transmuted it. You all can do the same, you know. Do not meet hate with hate. Meet hate with its counterbalancing factor, namely—LOVE. Meet violence with strong passive resistance. Meet ignorance with Enlightenment. Meet negatively with Power and you will prove that you are ready, and you will be given every opportunity to demonstrate your readiness.

"I will give you now the benefit of my Invocation.

"I invoke the Power from the Masters of the Sun and Saturn this very moment. May this power fall upon the heads of all those upon the Earth this very moment, of a Master whom most of you revere and certainly have the greatest respect for, is not so much by feasting and drinking as by making firm determination to go forward into your future life in some improved fashion!

"Most of you will be joyful at this time; joyful rather than happy, because you will join in a festive spirit, so-called. Unfortunately, most of it comes from a bottle of some kind, but, nevertheless, so-called festive spirit. A spirit of giving, a spirit of generosity will make you joyful. There is nothing at all wrong in this. In fact, this spirit of giving is in all ways good. However, how long will it last? A matter of a few hours possibly, especially for the masses.

"I believe I am right in saying that before now many of you have said in a very honest and genuine fashion that it would be wonderful if the Spirit of Christmas could survive so that it permeated through the whole year. Might I remind you, friends, that all reform has to begin by the pattern set by the few. If the best within the Spirit of Christmas did indeed live on after the year was changed, your world would indeed be a far better place for it.

"There will come a time, shortly, when your Terrestrial clocks strike the hour of midnight, you will look to one another and make next year's resolutions, some of which will be very fine. The trouble, though, with them will be that, before twelve o'clock midnight, on January 1, 1962, you will have forgotten about them, just as you will have forgotten about the wonderful Spirit of friendship and goodwill and neighbourliness which existed on December the 25th. Such lack of memory on the part of Terrestrials makes their Christmas feast a strange mockery, makes their New Year's resolutions definite hypocrisy.

"My friends, if you would celebrate in the best possible way, then do so—in the best possible way. If you would make resolutions, then make them good resolutions. But stick to them. But remember your celebrations all through 1962.

"You say that you revere the Master Jesus. Some of you even say that you believe He was the one and only Son of God. Surely, then, in reverence to someone whom you express belief in, should you not hold fast to the very Spirit which you generated by the expression of your belief? Is not this in every way logical?

"On some Planets in the Solar System, Great Masters receive the blessing and homage from the inhabitants of those Planets. The big difference, though, between those inhabitants and Terrestrial man is that they remember this great event through all their actions. If the real true active Spirit of Christmas was remembered by you all throughout the whole year which is to come, it would be a wonderful year for you all. There is no doubt of this. It would also stop you being that much hypocritical . . . !

"I throw this definite metaphysical statement out to you for your most earnest consideration. I feel sure that if you give it the consideration it undoubtedly warrants, you will be filled with great joy and happiness during this time because you will have radiated joy and happiness to others around you. And you will continue radiating joy and happiness, giving service, being charitable, not only in the materialistic sense, but in the mental sense as well. How many times have those come to you with malicious gossip? How many times have you passed it on? You can kill it dead, you know, by not listening to it. Or if you do listen to it, by not, in any way, repeating it. By being charitable in your mind and in your actions, you can make this Christmas really mean something to you. You can make it mean far more to you than did any previous Christmas in your lives.

"If you make firm resolution to act throughout the New Year in the same spirit of mental charity in all its aspects as you do upon this day, you can make your celebrations of New Year's Eve really mean something. Supposing, instead of a drunken orgy, you treated this New Year's eve as a time for Spiritual determination, a time when, in great bravery and complete honesty you would walk before the mirror of your own mind and examine yourself with greatest care, and then declare, with firmness, to improve this and this and this. Then live in such a manner that these improvements would come into definite and active manifestation, then you would indeed improve. If anyone of you does this, I know that you will look back upon this Christmas and this New Year's eve as being the turning point of your lives. But do not make it a time of hypocrisy, my friends. Far better you forget all about it, than that.

"Just a moment, I will reintroduce you again to the Master Whose so-called birthday you will celebrate (Note 4). And I feel sure that after allowing yourself to be bathed in the Light of His active Love, you will not allow the dark clouds of hypocrisy to shade out that which is obviously so fine in your inner nature. Just relax, and receive these radiations. Receive this prayer from Jesus".

THE MASTER JESUS:

"Oh my sweet adorable children, let the great tide of Love flow through you all. If you would make the vistas of your life wide, then send out your active Love. If you would allow the wondrous Light of Mighty God to flow like an unrestricted stream from your heart, you would in return find a lasting inner joy which would warm you in the coldest night; would feed you in the bleakest deserts of your starvation.

"My children, you have been instructed that when you perform My practice you should do so with your very hearts and souls. (Note 5). The next time that you do this, send forth your Great Love in a stream which is delicately balanced, yet firm and strong and quick and sure. And to the very ends of your Earth will this go. And naught can stop it.

"If at this time you would remember me, then do so in your every action. Do so in your every thought, in your every prayer. Do so with all the atoms of your Being and let your mighty Love shine out. Let it go forth unto all the World. This, oh adorable children, would be the greatest memory of me. Not your words, but your actions. Remember this.

"Left I not you once to be remote, for I have never left you, but am here now. I am here always to help you, to guide you, to give you My Love and My Blessing. If you would help in return, then, oh adorable children, send out this Power to all the World.

"I will give unto you a Prayer which you can always use. A prayer which if said with true heart, will allow you to radiate the great and Mighty Love of God to all."

this will not alter its Truth—the time will still be the most important time in your life.

"The gist of Our Message this evening is to make these facts known to you. Come together, co-operate together, drop petty differences. Transmute them in the Light of Spirituality and use the Great Powers which will be offered to you during this time and you can so alter the Karmic pattern of yourselves, of your community, of your country, that greater things will be brought about.

"You can draw your own picture, you know, in the Akashic records of time. In fact, every thought and action you perform adds a little bit more to this Akashic picture. Will you not think of this the next time you think? Will not you use the greater part of yourself in the right way, so that you can draw for yourself an everlasting glorious picture in these timeless records? Or will you sign your own warrant of Involution? You must be the choosers.

THE TRUE MESSAGE

"Never once, in any Message given by anyone from another Planet to this Earth, have we condoned any political system, have we ever asked anyone to become a president, a king, a dictator or any other political ruler! Sometime, though we have asked people to go forward and start organizations. Those people have done so, to the best of their ability and are working very hard throughout the World. Why should we for one moment condone that which we know would fail? It would be utterly absurd for us to do so and indeed, if we did, we would be but tools of the dark forces. This is a definite statement. Like it if you will. Dislike it if you must but you cannot alter it. It is true.

"We have reminded you over and over again throughout your history that the Law known as the law of action and re-action is all pervasive and does exist. It is the One Great Basic Law of the Divine Creator. We have also told you that you have free will to accept or reject. Your free will, my friends, will not be interfered with. Is not being interfered with even at the moment but if you use your free will wrongly, you must know that you are misusing a great Power and by the Law of Karma, you must form for yourself a certain Karmic pattern which, at some time or other, must be balanced by each and every one of you.

"Do not let anyone limit you, my friends. Do not listen to the materialist who would limit you, who would bind you in material shackles, so that you could not expand. Listen to the Spiritual man who will tell you how to project your consciousness outwards and upwards, to the great Spiritual Light within yourself, so that you may be impregnated with this Mighty Light, with this vibrant Flame, this all pervasive Flame, the everlasting Flame of That which is GOOD and TRUE. Then indeed will you shine in the World.

LET THE RIGHT ONES SPEAK

"You Leaders of Spiritual Groups, throughout Terra, must realize your great responsibilities. It is your duty to study carefully, educate your minds so that your perception becomes deep, your awareness is opened so that you can, without any you. If you could create, out of nothing, in the same way as the Absolute does, a finger nail, then you could claim ownership. But, as there is not a force in the whole Macrocosmic system which can do this, then there is not a force in the same system which can claim ownership of anything. One moment's reflection will teach you this.

"Another moment's reflection will teach you that it is the great materialistic conspiracy which is specially geared to lull you into the false belief of ownership, so that you will fall for the trap and become ensnared by it. What happens when you fall for this trap? Do not you become the pawn working for the few? Has not this happened throughout your history? Does not your history repeat itself over and over again? Cannot you see this?

"The Spiritual path does not promise you a path of ease. It promises you a path of hard work, of great labour, of great sacrifice for your brother. Sleepless nights, abstention from liquor, drugs. These are the things that the Spiritual path has to promise you and in return—what? Greater enlightenment throughout the world!

"These are the different ways and yet, when weighed in the balance, which will you choose? A balance of Karma which will stand you in good stead for the rest of your total existence, or blind following of those glib-tongued individuals throughout the Earth, who promise greater ease, greater comfort, greater security?

"What security can there be in a motor car, in an aeroplane, in an atom bomb, in even a fatter belly, or a large bank account? Cannot you pass away at any moment and leave all these transient things? Is not this the security that passes like a ship in the night when you pass through the Initiation of death, which each and every one of you has to pass through, whether you like the idea or not. What security can there be in that? Yet, for thousands of your years, you have been lulled into this false state of basic security.

"The Spiritual path does not promise these things. Cannot promise you a place in Heaven, which exists as a state of consciousness only. Can only promise you great work, greater effort, greater strain but greater Enlightenment also but a place in the New World as well, a divine opportunity to really become of assistance to mankind, to really help to balance the negative Karmic pattern of this Earth.

"Come, come now, brothers of Earth, how long will you swallow the materialistic bait? Is it not time that you rose en masse in peace—IN PEACE—and declared it utter foolishness! Let us for once try something we have not tried in the past and go up the path to Spiritual advancement. Supposing that even the people of one country—any country upon the surface of Terra—say America, were to try the Spiritual path correctly in all honesty, what would happen to that country? I will tell you upon the best possible authority. That country would shine in the World like a star shines in your black skies of night. That country would be impregnable. Its walls would be strong and everlasting. It would not need to defend itself with arms. It would be defended by a greater Power than all these transient things.

"Have you not been admonished in the past to put your trust in the greater things, rather than in a chariot, which can, at the first rock, be shattered to pieces, causing you death.

"Men of Earth, you have been told that the next Magnetisation Period will be the most important two months in your history to date. This is so. You can make this important for yourselves, and indeed will do so. If you reject this statement,

YOUR NEW PRAYER

"Oh Divine and Wondrous Spirit!
Oh Everlasting Lord of Hosts!
Send forth, now, through Me
Thy Great and Lasting Power.

Allow Me, oh mighty God, the lasting privilege,
Of radiating to all the World Thy Great Love,
So that those who suffer may be given the Power and Energy to rise above their weaknesses.

Oh mighty God, in great humility do I ask you
To send forth Your Power.

To give to Me this Great Lasting Privilege
Of being a channel so that my suffering brothers
May be helped and guided and healed and Lifted into Thy Light.

So that they who know not may look up,
And in doing so, receive through their Higher Selves
Your Divine Counsel.

Oh mighty God, this day have you granted Me,
A Divine privilege.

I ask you, now, to give Me the strength,
So that never again will I turn from My inner vision of you:
Om Shanti, Shanti, Shanti.

In praise of Your Greatness, Oh God,
Doth My Soul sing,
Grant it Energy to sing on Forever and forever".

"That, my children, is your new Prayer. Take it to your hearts. Say it with your hearts, so that it might live in your hearts—forever.

"Oh, my sweet children. May God bless you all. May God bless you—all.

"Oh adorable children, go in God's Light. Do go in God's Light". (Note 6).

THE MASTER AETHERIUS:

"If any one of you can turn away from that, then you are certainly not ready to go into the New Age.

"My friends, have a very happy and very joyful Christmas time. Live afterwards in such a way that the Spirit of Christmas is not an annual event, but lasts throughout your year. And if you do, you will have accomplished something. Something worthwhile.

"Thank you for your kind attention. God Bless you all, and good night to you all".

EDITOR'S NOTES:

- Note 1. Mars Sector 8 was very badly injured just prior to the Cosmic Initiation of the evil world, "Garouche". He was one of those who acted as a Karmic Agent on a dangerous assignment on the surface of this world just prior to its Initiation and change. For further details about "Garouche" read Cosmic Voice Volume No. 1 pages 45-48. Read also, "The Mars Story" from You Are Responsible. Both these books are obtainable from the Aetherius Society, either London or Los Angeles Headquarters.
- Note 2. For one of the very few full descriptions of an actual Ascension ceremony read Cosmic Voice Volume No. 1 pages 57-70 inclusive. Obtainable from The Aetherius Society, either London or Los Angeles Headquarters.
- Note 3. Eight Special Power Transmissions were given through Reverend George King. The Energy was manipulated by Mars Sector 6 from Jupiter Sector 92—a Jupiterian Space Craft then in Orbit of Earth. (See page 29 present issue).
- Note 4. Jesus was born on March 15th.
- Note 5. Here the Master Jesus is referring to the Practice of The Twelve Blessings, His New Age Bible obtainable from The Aetherius Society, London or Los Angeles Headquarters.
- Note 6. This beautiful Prayer is now available on tape and disc. The New Lord's Prayer is truly wonderful and in printed form can be learned and used by everyone. But, to hear it in the way it was actually delivered by the Master Jesus, through your Editor, is a Spiritual experience no one will ever forget. These discs and tapes are available from The Aetherius Society from either London or Los Angeles Headquarters.

Thanks must also go to Mr. Harry Roth who did the work of any two good men at the meetings and who also generously gave the Society a costly Ampex tape-recorder. Miss Eleanor Jacobson, a young, attractive Member of The Detroit Branch Committee, proved that her belief in The Aetherius Society is not just theory, when, in her spare time she arranged the printing and binding of the latest booklet: "My Contact With The Great White Brotherhood" which George King wrote between meetings in Detroit. Mrs. E. Kolmetz, the other Member of the Committee in Detroit, a faithful worker for some time now also deserves our thanks, as indeed do many others who helped to make these meetings the unquestionable success which they were. In fact many stated that these were the finest meetings they had ever attended and even before we left, people made arrangements to travel the 2,400 miles to Los Angeles to attend further meetings! Naturally, others who could not do this asked our Chairman to promise to return as soon as possible.

The Committee of The Aetherius Society would like to say: "Well done Edna and your wonderful helpers in Detroit." It just shows what can be done if one has the real will to do it. What has been done in Detroit can be done in other places as well. This we know because we have met so many people who find The Aetherius Society teachings the best in the World, bar none!

deserve. Only if your perception and awareness are trained and enhanced can you avail yourself of correct Spiritual Leadership, correct Spiritual guidance.

"We will accept all interference factors in zeem zeem nine six division—We will continue. (Note 1)

"Those leaders who choose to lead the orthodox religions, too, have a great and vast responsibility of breaking down the dogmatic limitation which has been imposed for centuries and replacing this with the shining beams of Truth. If they fail in this task, they will be replaced!

"These are the last days. These are the days when the prophecies will be worked out, when mankind will be weighed in the balance of Karma. Those found wanting will be reborn upon another, younger planet. Those who have advanced far enough will go into the great Millenium upon Terra.

"Transmutation factor—nil 6."

"Acceptable. Continue." (Note 2)

"Then will the Earth, as you call it, move on Her axis, change Her place in relationship to the Sun and the New Day will dawn.

"It is today that the pattern of tomorrow is forged. Forge this well, oh brothers! Be brave, let not fear grasp your hearts so that you become weak. Be undaunted, be united in your efforts.

"Interference factor High."

"We will continue." (Note 3).

"Be united in your efforts, so that you may be a worthy channel for the Higher Forces to flow through you unto all mankind.

"Very shortly, Satellite No. 3 will come into Orbit of Terra. During this time, great Energies will be sent down unto all of you who are working for Peace, who are dispensing healing, who are dispensing Truth. Those of you who lead Spiritual Groups with the Flame of Honesty burning brightly in your Heart, are the ones who can gain tremendous Power from the Orbit of Satellite No. 3.

"The next Magnetisation Period of Terra will be the most important time in the history of your Planet.

"Mark this well. Absorb this great Power, oh workers, dispense it to the World. You will be helping this Earth go towards the Great New World, the Great New Age, towards its own deliverance and yours.

"Relate, zero, zero, five."

POLITICS—NOT THE ANSWER

THE MASTER AETHERIUS:

"Yes, it is so. In these days all people who are right-thinking and right-minded are given every available opportunity to turn away from materialism and make the journey into the Great Light of Spirituality.

"You know, the most insidious of all temptations ever given unto mankind is given by mankind—that is the promise of greater ease, greater wealth, greater ownership. But my friends, is not this foolish? How can anyone of you own anything? Do you not realize that even the atoms which constitute your small finger nail are borrowed from the Sun? This Energy cannot belong to anyone of of the dark ones, those who would keep you from the Truly Spiritual Path and limit you by their worship of materialism; limit you, by making unto you false promise; promise which, like foam, can be blown this way or that by the winds of politics; politics, flowered in many phrases.

"A vast number of the inhabitants of Terra have allowed themselves to become the pawns of communism. Another great number have allowed themselves to become the pawns of so-called democracy.

"The few, the thinking few, the Glorious Few, have divorced themselves from these things and are not the pawns of any political creed, any dogmatic belief. These Few know a greater freedom than the majority, for they are not limited to basic materialistic concepts.

"In the New World, you need not plan for a better economic system, for economy as you know it, will not exist. It is a cancer in the heart of Spiritual man.

"In the New World, you need not listen to those who make great political promise to you for politics will not exist.

"In the New World, you will need to have no fear of horror weapons hung over your heads, like the terrible sword of a vicious Damocles, for these weapons will be destroyed.

"In the New World, you need not plan the breakdown of your customs barriers, for there will be no countries. There will be inhabited land and sea. That is all.

"How do you go towards this goal?

"By training your intuition at this moment, so that your discrimination is so enhanced that you can see the false and detach yourself from it. You cannot detach yourself from that you are not aware of. So, become aware—then detach. Become aware of the great Spiritual Truths and then attach yourself to these.

"My friends, you will notice by keen study that not once in any true Message to Earth, given by an Agent from another Planet have we told you that one political system was better than another. For we advise detachment from all existing systems. We have reminded you often that every form of political system has been tried, but to fail. Most of them to fail horribly on some bloody battlefield. Most of them to run away with the blood of the slain and stain the green Earth red—steaming red.

"You do not need to be a man of perception in order to discover this for yourself. You do not need to be an Adept in order to formulate for yourself a workable philosophy which you can now start to demonstrate in your own life and become a living part of this philosophy so that others may copy you, may be guided by you, may be gently led by you into their own Enlightenment. Discrimination will show you the way.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF LEADERS

"All the leaders of Spiritual Organisations have at this moment a vast responsibility lying on their shoulders. Not only are they responsible for arranging suitable programmes but they are directly responsible for what goes from their platforms to their audiences. To lead a Spiritual group in these days is a truly magnificent task: a task which demands Power, perception, knowledge on the part of the leaders. You followers, can and indeed do elect those leaders which you

POWER FROM JUPITER SAVES EARTH

Towards the end of His speech, on December 20th, 1961, the Master Aetherius stated that a special series of Power Transmissions would be given so that energies from the Planet Jupiter might be radiated to Earth in order to tend to counteract the modifications which terrestrial people have imposed upon the tremendous radiations which would come from the configuration of Planets on February 4th and 5th, 1962. (See page 24 present Issue).

As these Transmissions were due to be given any time during the day or night, the Los Angeles and London Headquarters adopted emergency stand-by measures. On both sides of the World, we were prepared to go into action immediately.

On January 30th, 1962, at 9 p.m., the first of these Special Power Transmissions was delivered by Mars Sector 6, through myself. During this Transmission the secondary storage batteries of the Great White Brotherhood were charged with Jupiterian energies by Satellite 216.

On January 30th, 1962, at 11 p.m., came another tremendous Power Transmission during which the primary batteries of the Great White Brotherhood were charged in the same way.

The third phase of this vital Operation took place on February 1st, 1962, at 10 p.m. This time Mars Sector 6 directed Jupiterian Energies from Satellite 92 in Orbit Jupiter and Satellite 216 in Orbit Earth, from Satellite No. 3. These Energies were directed to the Logos of Earth, through the Keepers of The Flame and manipulated by the greatest Master now on Earth—THE LORD BABAJI, HIMSELF. At the end of this manipulation, there was a Council meeting on Earth, attended by Lord Babaji, Mars Sector 6, and the Lords, Buddha and Shri Krishna. This was an historic meeting indeed and we were informed that the Logos of Earth had received more Energy during this manipulation than ever She had received before in Her present incarnation as a Planet!

On February 1st, 1962, at 12 midnight, another tremendous manipulation was carried out by Mars Sector 6, this time from Satellite 216, then in Orbit of Earth. At the end of this manipulation, we were given the following beautiful, yet direct and easily understandable message from the Being we know as Jupiter 92.

We would all do well to carefully read the following Transmission and act in accordance with the unshakable Wisdom which this contains.

JUPITER 92

"In the coldness of your Spiritual aloneness, oh friends, reach outwards, upwards and yet more subtly inwards for the Light which burneth there, pure unadulterated, not contaminated by thought, nor ruled by passion, nor made a tool of foolish desire. The Light which shineth not, yet Which is all Light in Light. Let this shine through you. Let this very Power which is you, manifest as you and then you may become the lasting you. For centuries we have impregnated your World with our different essences. The essence of music we have sent upon you. The essence of colour we have laid at your feet. The essence of sound, of Love, of inspiration, these we have sent unto you. The essence of subtle beneficence, we have sent, but alas, too few have reached and grasped this from the very living ethers around them and taken this essence of inspirational culture to their very souls. Nay, they have eaten of the fruits of Earth without appreciating the greatness which was still small, yet all resounding. We have impregnated you with these essences, quite freely, save for an inward searching on your part, a lack of selfishness on your part, an urge to rise upwards on your part and this their only cost. Upon the temple of your very soul is placed even now great inspiration which could lift you upwards and away from your present dilemmas. Reach out the hand of your conscious mind and accept the fruits of super-consciousness and mentally digest them and life will become different for you.

"You have been told many times that you came not to be a slave of the basic Karmic wheel, but to be master of its every revolution. Evolution is borne from Karmic revolution, if this be controlled by the higher aspect of each of you. If you would attend a temple, then attend the temple within. Bathe yourself in the lasting Fire of your highest aspirations and come out as an inspired one. Yet inspired into Spiritual activity rather than theoretical lethargy.

"The World is yours, the Universe is yours, the Cosmos is yours, but only when the Spark speaks through you to all, about all, in all. Note it, be revived by it, be inspired by it, be risen by it, and come upwards, oh children of Earth. Rise upwards, oh children, of Earth, and express the greatness in your souls, express the lasting Divinity of your higher selves.

"Rise, oh Earth, into glory."

"This message was given by Jupiter 92 to you, from Satellite 216, now in special Orbit Terra."

MARS SECTOR 6

"You have just heard a message given by an Intelligence referred to as Jupiter 92. During the time that this message was given, the Intelligence was also sent out in its very simple form into the higher mental realms of Terra. Those who are ready will be inspired in one way or another."

As readers will see from Mars Sector 6 comment, this Intelligence was sent out to the higher mental realms of Earth, so as to act as a great wave of inspiration to those who are aware and humble enough to receive such intuitive stimulation.

Special Power Transmission No. 5 was radiated to Earth on February 2nd, 1962, at 9 p.m. During this Transmission, Mars Sector 6 manipulated the Energies which came from Jupiter through Satellite No. 92, from Satellite No. 3, then in Orbit of Jupiter. The Power this time was sent into the basic mind belt of Earth.

BE NOT LIMITED

At the end of the Northern California Spacecraft Convention, held in the fashionable Clairmont Hotel in Berkely, near San Francisco, on the 28th August, 1960, the following two Transmissions were delivered in the usual brilliant style. These Transmissions formed a fitting climax to what was an excellent Convention, for which we owe a vote of thanks to Della Larson for her hard work, entailed by organizing such a large undertaking.

It was during the Transmission given by Mars Sector 6 that a most significant statement was made to this Earth. To quote:

"The next Magnetisation Period of Terra will be the most important time in the history of your Planet."

This Statement stands—by itself—without any further comment from me, save to add that The Aetherius Society has already circularised all Members and readers of Cosmic Voice, appealing for their united efforts in Service to humanity during this time.

The Master Aetherius in His Speech told us all point blank that politics were not the answer to the World's troubles and He also went on to tell us all what was the answer.

Careful study of these Transmissions will help all of you to combat the great materialistic conspiracy which has already enslaved the minds of the majority of mankind.

Materialistic politics cause division and war . . . Spiritual Service causes co-operation and peace. If we all note this one fact, we then can rightly say that we are beginning to climb the ladder of Evolution.

In His Transmission, Aetherius gives us a true picture of politics as they are and goes on to give us a true picture of the New World as it will be, unhampered by any political system.

BE NOT LIMITED

MARS SECTOR 6:

"This is Mars Sector 6, reporting from Satellite No. 3, now in Orbit, Jupiter. Subject: BE NOT LIMITED.

"Oh Brothers of Earth, in these last days, in these days of trial and tribulation, in these days when the Forces of Light are liable to pass through the Initiation of Crucifixion, be ye not limited.

"In these days, the Workers in the genuine Cosmic Plan, specifically designed to bring about a Transformation of Terra, need not be limited, for a greater Power than ever before will be yours, if you but tread the narrow precipitous path into the goal of Truth; if you divorce yourselves from the Great temptation of materialism, which will be dangled in many colours before your gaze. In the past you have been tempted by this gaily-decorated bauble. In these days the decorations have become more subtle than ever before. High sounding phraseology is now the order

Word throughout Terra, will be known, not only to us, but also to Greater Beings than we are and this action will be considered with favour when their Karmic assessment is made.

"Put not your ice axe away, you will need it again.

"We will tell you when!"

Readers will see from this that our next task is to make known through every means at our disposal, the hidden meaning behind the great Messages given through the years. This is to be started with the publication of "The Nine Freedoms", obviously together with a commentary on their deep esoteric meaning. This is a gigantic task, as I am sure you will all agree and one which I cannot perform without your full help and co-operation. Many of you considered it a privilege to help me perform Operation Starlight which was a very costly task. Our next Mission will be equally as costly. But, there is one great difference between the two and that is, while from Operation Starlight there was no hope of any financial return, to the Society, from this one, as we have already made a good start, we should virtually go from strength to strength financially as well as every other way. More definite plans of how we intend to handle this next Mission will appear in a later Issue of Cosmic Voice.

Although the difficulties we will encounter will be very different from those we had to overcome during Operation Starlight, nevertheless, if we stand together in true Spiritual brotherhood, we will surmount these difficulties as we have done in the past. We may only have a relatively small Society, but what we lack in numbers, I am proud to say that we more than make up for in quality.

A WONDERFUL RECEPTION IN DETROIT, U.S.A.

Our Chairman has just returned to Los Angeles after a very successful tour of 6,500 miles, which included Detroit, Chicago and New York.

The reception which we received in Detroit was truly magnificent. On April 4th, 1962, Edna Spencer, The Aetherius Society Branch Organizer for that area, arranged a Press Conference at the Detroit Press Club. Major Detroit Television and Radio stations who sent representatives were WWJ, WJBK, WXYZ, WCAR, WKMH. As well as these, station CKLW from Windsor, Canada, also taped several interviews following the Press Conference. "The Detroit Times", "The Detroit Free Press", "The United Press Wire Service" and "Newsweek", one of the largest National newsmagazines, were also present.

On April 5th, 1962, from 11 p.m. till 1 a.m., on Station WGPR-FM--Dr. Jay Zee, interviewed Reverend George King for two hours. Because of the tremendous interest in the programme, Dr. Jay Zee did two more 2 hour interviews on April

During this Transmission not only were great Energies sent through my physical and mental counterparts, but also the other Directors of the Los Angeles Headquarters were used as radiators for these great Energies. Thus ended series No. 1 of a great Power manipulation, specially designed to help to counteract the dire results which would have otherwise been brought about through the foolishness of mankind.

I might say that after such potent Transmissions as these, I personally began to feel the strain. No human body or mind can live through such experiences without the imposition of a strain which is thousands of times greater than any other type of physical or mental work that any man can do.

But, there was no rest.

On February 6th, 1962, at 9 p.m. came the most important Power manipulation ever held for the benefit of terrestrial man up to that time.

Again, Mars Sector 6, using Satellite No. 3, but now in Orbit of Mercury, manipulated the Jupiterian Power for the benefit of all men upon Earth and for all the terrestrial mental planes, through the Three Adepts and 40 Agents of that Mystic Order, The Great White Brotherhood.

Probably more devastating catastrophies than the World can remember would have caused the death and destruction of tens of thousands of human lives, had it not been for This, the most important Power Transmission ever given for man at any time. The World has a great debt to repay to the Cosmic Masters and to those few people who are able to cooperate with an Operation such as this. Indeed was the Master Aetherius right when, in a Message to The Aetherius Society, on April 1st, 1961, at 9.30 p.m., He stated quite categorically: "The Aetherius Society is an essential part, an essential cog in the Great Cosmic Plan. It is the Master Cog, which is being driven by a Cosmic Battery. If this Cog breaks, the battery cannot discharge itself correctly and a new Cog will have to be hand moulded."

There is more in this statement than meets the eye. To mention only a small part of it, it was a brilliant prophesy on His part, as almost a year later, the Chairman of this Society was used in the most significant Power Manipulation ever held for the benefit of terrestrial man! In view of this, indeed is The Aetherius Society the MASTER COG in working out the Cosmic Plan on Earth. This one Operation alone makes it so, never mind the hundreds of other Special Operations which we have never yet spoken about!

Special Transmission No. 7 came on February 9th, 1962, at 11 p.m. and lasted until 12.12 a.m. Mars Sector 6, still on Satellite No. 3, but this time in Orbit of the Moon, carried on a Manipulation of Jupiterian Energies, radiated by Satellite No. 92, in Orbit of Earth. This Manipulation was for the basic physical and mental realms of Earth. Blocks of terrestrial cooperators were used at this time and a great stream of Energy was poured forth to you all. During this time the unique radionic apparatus in London, England, was being manned by the Reverend Keith Robertson and his party of willing helpers, so that even a greater Energy could be sent out to all mankind. While a good portion of the World slept or lazily watched television sets, a great manipulation was going on for their welfare, through a relative few. Such is the irony of so-called modern civilisation!

A human cellular structure can only stand so much, after which the cells begin to break down. By this time I was beginning to feel the strain of receiving these

EDITORIAL

Operation Starlight, "The greatest single Metaphysical Task undertaken on Earth for the last 100,000 years" has now been completed. It is a little difficult even now to appreciate the fact that it is finished, although this was accomplished some nine months ago. I suppose when one has had to live with a task as difficult and exacting as this for over 3 years, one gets used to it. Of course there are still many mysteries yet unsolved about Operation Starlight, much yet unpublished, which must one day be made known. But even so, the Mountains throughout the world are now charged and waiting in silent patience for a new breed of man—the New Age pilgrims to treat them as shrines of worship before their Supreme God.

Actually I was used as a channel for 18 out of the 19 Mountains which were charged. Just before the last 2 Mountains were charged in Europe, we were informed by the Master Aetherius that Mount Kilemanjaro in Africa had been charged by Saint Goo-Ling. Up to the time of going to Press, we have not received a full report about this Mountain, except that we do know now that it is another active Retreat of The Great White Brotherhood. This is the third Great White Brotherhood Retreat which has been formed out of the Mountains charged in Operation Starlight. The other two are The Craigh-en-Leth-Choin in the Cairngorm mountain range in Scotland and the mighty Castle Peak standing majestic in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado in America.

As soon as Operation Starlight was completed, I was ordered to return to the Craigh-en-Leth-Choin, in Scotland. There I was conducted into the Great White Brotherhood Retreat and shown Their important work in that area. In fact I learned that this Retreat was one of the most important to be occupied by the Order in the whole world. I have made known my contact in a separate little booklet, entitled: "My Contact With The Great White Brotherhood".

At 11:15 a.m., after my contact with The Great White Brotherhood, on the following morning, September 10th, 1961, I received a telepathic Message from the Master Aetherius, while standing near the charged Rock on the summit of the Craigh-en-Leth-Choin. Although this full Message is reported in the booklet referred to, such is its importance that I feel that a part of it should appear in this Editorial as the Master Aetherius gave to me an outline of the coming Mission of myself and The Aetherius Society.

Aetherius said these words:

"Give the Wisdom of The Nine Freedoms to the World.

"You performed Operation Starlight with a commendable honour. Through you, mankind was given something glorious which, when appreciated, will help him to raise himself into lofty Spiritual heights, hitherto undreamed of.

"Now go forth and give the Metaphysical Truths of our Message to those who are ready to listen and act.

"Heed not those who, through their own Karmic limitations will try to frustrate these attempts. Their own foolishness will be brought home, sometimes bitterly, to them for their attempted interference with the overall Cosmic Plan for the Enlightenment and lasting Spiritual unification of Earth.

"Tell your co-operators that they who help in this Mission to spread our True long arduous and highly technical Transmissions, which I may say, are a lot more difficult to receive than normal type of Message Transmissions. I would not have believed it possible that any human cells, nerves and blood could have withstood these type of vibrations for as long as mine had to withstand them and but for manipulations done by the Space Intelligences on my physical and mental structures, the Aetherius Society would have had to carry on without me.

But even so, there was still no rest, for on February 19th, 1962, at 10 p.m. came another outstanding Transmission. Again the Master strategist, Mars Sector 6, still in Satellite No. 3, but this time in Orbit of Jupiter, manipulated the Jupiterian Energies through Satellite No. 92 to the Auric Body of the Earth. Energies were manipulated by the Master of Earth, The Lord Babaji, through those mysterious saviours, the Three Adepts. In this latter manipulation, the Lord Buddha, the Master Jesus with Peter, Paul and John and Kuthumi, played a vital part. The Energies initially radiating from Jupiter, manipulated by Mars Sector 6, through these great Masters, were controlled by the Lord Babaji, in what must be one of the most amazing Metaphysical Operations of all times. The overall guidance of this Operation was done by a great Being from Saturn, simply referred to as Operator No. 1, Who was in Orbit of Earth. This great Saturnian Lord was acting under the direction of one of the Lords of Karma, in Orbit of the Planet Uranus.

Thus ended the two series of 8 Special Transmissions given for the benefit of every lifestream upon Earth, as well as, the Earth Itself.

We of The Aetherius Society consider ourselves to be unworthy of the great privilege bestowed upon us, that of cooperating with these most vital Power Transmissions and also being the organization chosen to make these facts known to all men who have overcome their ignorance to an extent which allows them to be ready for these occult Truths.

Mars Sector 8 gave the last overall report of these wonderful Transmissions.
MARS SECTOR 8, GENERAL INFORMATION

"The Operation which you have just seen brought to a conclusion has been successful in as much as tremendous Energies have been released to all the Great White Brotherhood batteries, as well as to Shamballah and the batteries of Terra Itself, and also to the Terrestrial Aura. A culmination of Energy will of course remain to some extent in a state of potential until the exact moment of the Initiation of this Planet. When this Initiation does come in its most potent stages, then these Energies will cause a heightened vibration of all base and auric mass of Terra as an Entity."

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE!

This True Story contains reports of projected experiences of the Author, The Reverend George King, which seem, as do all great Truths, more fantastic than fiction.

There are nine inspiring, instructive speeches by The Cosmic Masters, as well as answers given by Them to scores of questions asked over the years.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE! is a book which is entirely different—completely new. It is a book which will make you think—yet it gives you a greater insight into the Mysteries of the Solar System and its inhabitants than any other book has ever done.

Here, stage by stage a sure path is outlined for mankind which, if followed, will lead him into the lasting joy of a Golden Millennium.

Dear Sirs:-

This is an inquiry about the Aetherius Society whose American headquarters is 674 Crenshaw Blv'd., Los Angeles 5, California.

My questions are:- Do you have any evidence that this group is subversive or that it is receiving support from the Communists? Is any action being taken, or proposed to curb its activities?

I am enclosing a few samples of Aetherius publications to illustrate the fantastic claims, teaching and activities of this group. However, what they publish is carefully written, what they teach in group meetings, etc. is even more radical.

For example they say that Capitalism must go and that only backward planets like Earth use such systems. Their latest line seems to be that "The Golden Age" of Aryan root race is now starting. People that don't make "The Golden Millenium" will be reincarnated on a less evolved planet which is not now in the Solar system.

Evidently this well organized group is growing and prospering financially. A new home has been opened at 2221 West Grand Boulevard in Detroit.

In my opinion this group is a Menace to the American way of life and should not go unchallenged by our Government when it is so important for a Democracy to have a population that is fully and truly informed. We don't allow poison food, etc. to be sold. How can we permit groups like Aetherius to mesmerize and poison peoples' minds? I believe this is carrying "Free Speech" too far.
