[redacted] Date Of Birth [redacted] was interviewed at the San Francisco County Jail, 7th Floor, 850 Bryant Street, San Francisco, California, while he was in detention for [redacted] by the San Francisco Police Department (SFPD).

Prior to the interview, [redacted] was advised as to the identity of the interviewing agents, [redacted] and [redacted] and the nature of the interview.

[redacted] was advised that the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) wished to talk to him regarding threatening communications mailed to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon), Salt Lake City, Utah. Prior to interviewing [redacted] Special Agent (SA) [redacted] read to him the Interrogation; Advice of Rights from form FD-395. After reading form FD-395 to [redacted] including the Waiver of Rights paragraph on the form, SA [redacted] asked [redacted] if he understood what had been read to him and if he would be willing to talk to the FBI concerning the above threatening communications. After reading the first few lines out loud and then the rest of the FD-395 to himself, [redacted] advised that he understood his rights and that he was willing to give a statement. He advised that he graduated high school. He signed the form FD-395, which was witnessed by SAs [redacted] and [redacted]. Thereafter, [redacted] provided the following information:

On December 15, 1990, _____ hand delivered a copy of a manuscript authored by himself, delineating his plan to save the Mormon Church. The manuscript entitled "Final Woe, Manifest of Future Destinies" was hand written and partially professionally printed. _____ advised that no threatening language was used in this manuscript and denies ever writing threatening letters to the Mormon Church. He wishes no ill will on any particular person in the church and is not familiar with a man named GORDON HINCKLEY. He is however familiar with THOMAS MONSON, only by name. It is against his religious convictions to inflict harm on anyone.

On December 19, 1989, _____ traveled to Los Angeles, California, where he volunteered to help at a homeless shelter. No letters were sent to Salt Lake City, Utah from Los Angeles, California. On January 7, 1990, he left Los Angeles for Hawaii, claiming that January 7 fell on a Sunday.

After arriving in Hawaii, _____ spent much of his time at Brigham Young University (BYU) where he wanted to solidify his place in the Mormon Church as a prophet. He also had confrontations with the BYU security and was eventually asked to leave the BYU grounds.

On January 31, 1990, _____ traveled to San Francisco, California, where he was living on the streets and helping homeless shelters. _____

_____ further advised that April 19, 1990, would be the last day he would act as a prophet. The Lord told him there was no work left to do. Throughout the interview, _____ would recite verses from the New Testament he was carrying. At times, he would appear to be articulate and then go into a tirade about the Mormon Church. _____ admitted that he was a religious fanatic.

[redacted] inmate, San Francisco County Jail Number 3, San Bruno, California, was advised as to the identities of the interviewing Agents and advised they were there to obtain handwriting exemplars from him.

[redacted] advised that he remembered the previous conversation with the Agents and was more than willing to provide handwriting exemplars to the Agents in order to clear any possibility that he had written threatening communications to the Mormon Church.

At this time, [redacted] was instructed to write, "Shouldn't of cheated and etc." [redacted] was then told to print in capital letters the following, "I get you."

[redacted] was instructed to write the above phrases seven different times on seven separate pieces of paper. OO: Salt Lake City

FBI File No. 9-72236

Laboratory No. 00618039 D ST

Specimens received: June 18, 1990

Specimens:

- Q1 Envelope postmarked "SALT LAKE CITY UT 841 PM 8 JAN 1990" addressed to "First Presidency you Devils 47 East South Temple Salt Lake City Utah"
- Q2 Accompanying letter beginning "You damn old devils! Hinkley & Monson...."
- QC3 Photocopy of an eight-page communication beginning "So written, so Decreed Dec. 3 1989...."
- K1 Fifteen exemplars obtained from [redacted]

ALSO SUBMITTED:

Fingerprint cards and major/case prints for [redacted]

Result of examination:

The submitted specimens were searched through the Anonymous Letter File with negative results. Appropriate copies have been added thereto.

Due to the presence of unexplained variations in both the questioned and known writings a determination could not be made as to whether [redacted] K1, did or did not prepare the Q1 through Qc3 specimens.

b6
b7C

For your investigation assistance, due to the nature of the questioned writings further dictated exemplars would be of little value. However, undictated samples of [redacted] handwriting, as might appear on personnel correspondence, would provide a "control" specimen against which to compare both the questioned and known writing.

The submitted specimens will be returned upon completion of the latent fingerprint examination. Photographs have been returned.

Laboratory analysis of the fingerprints and handwriting exemplars of [REDACTED] submitted to THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) Laboratory for comparison with the fingerprints and handwriting on the threatening communication received by THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER DAY SAINTS (LDS) church in Salt Lake City has resulted in inconclusive results as to the handwriting, and negative as to a search of the anonymous letter file. The laboratory was unable to detect any latent prints of value.

[REDACTED] LDS church, 240-3245 were notified of the laboratory results. They were unable to provide any further leads. No other suspects have been developed. It is therefore recommended that this case be closed.

[redacted] first appeared on Temple Square in April, 1988. He made frequent visits until August, 1988. [redacted] has returned as of November 23, 1989, and is currently making frequent visits somewhere on Church Headquarters property. Information we have on file on [redacted] includes:

b6
b7C

April 3, 1988: [redacted] was on Temple Square saying he is a latter day prophet sent here to preach the truth to the Mormon Church. The Salt Lake City Police Department was called to help persuade [redacted] to leave Temple Square.

April 4, 1988: [redacted] was on Temple Square on a planter box near the flagpole singing loudly and preaching religion. Again the Salt Lake City Police Department was called.

April 7, 1988: [redacted] as he entered the South Visitors Center, told a security officer he was there to get a $5.00 collection from the Church. [redacted] also delivered a note to Temple Square Security which made no sense.

April 9, 1988: [redacted] was again on Temple Square prophesying and rambling. The Salt Lake City Police Department was again called to remove him from Temple Square.

b7C

April 12, 1988: Responding to a South Visitors Center Book of Mormon Diorama panic alarm, Security found [redacted] crawling from underneath the curtains. [redacted] said he was "looking for the truth and found it behind the curtains." The Salt Lake City Police Department was again called and [redacted] was arrested.

August 28, 1988: [redacted] approached Security at the South Gate of Temple Square. He asked that he no longer be restricted from entering Temple Square. He said he was willing to let us believe our own way even though he knew better. [redacted] said he was moving to Mexico.

November 23, 1989: [redacted] approached two security officers outside the South Gate of Temple Square. He expressed bitterness towards Church Security officers, claiming to have been badly treated in the past. [redacted] indicated he still considers himself a prophet.

November 30, 1989: [] was stopped from entering the North Gate of Temple Square. About two hours later he was again observed outside the North Gate talking to two Salt Lake City police officers. We learned he had called the police, protesting to our not allowing him on Temple Square.

December 4, 1989: [] entered the Church Administration Building asking to deliver his revelations to someone in authority. Investigators met with [] and he again met with [] [] was again told to make no further efforts to enter Temple Square or the Church Administration Building.

December 7, 1989: [] was on Church property twice selling or distributing some literature titled "The Final Woe - Manifest of Future Destinies." [] left 15 copies of this literature at the Administration Building for the "Brethren." When asked to stop and leave he became agitated. He cursed the security officers and prophesied of further calamities against all who belong to the L.D.S. Church.

December 8, 1989: [] was observed outside the South Gate of Temple Square. He was playing a radio very loudly. [] told Security he was grow to be 800 feet tall.

Because [] is a frequent visitor to Church Headquarters property, specifically Temple Square, the Church Administration Building, and the Church Office Building, also because of the number of times the Salt Lake City Police Department has been called, because [] has demonstrated he will not follow our directions, I feel we should pursue persona-non-grata status for []
