To: SAC, New York

From: Director, FBI

PASQUALE EBOLI
ANTI-RACKETEERING

Reurairtel 2-28-62 and Bureau letter 2-16-62.

Bureau files contain numerous references to a Pasquale Eboli who apparently is identical with this subject. He is a half brother of the extremely powerful and important New York top hoodlum, Thomas Eboli, also known as Tommy Ryan.

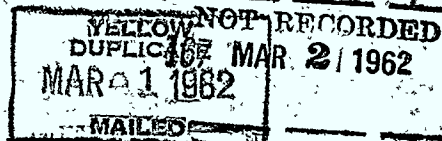

Also, according to the Bureau files, Pasquale Eboli was associating with the late "Lucky" Luciano in Italy and prior to that time, your office had received information that he had been associating with people believed by the Narcotics Bureau to be couriers between United States hoodlums and Luciano in Italy. This information appearing in New York, as well as Bureau files, would tend to cast doubt on the conclusion stated in your airtel that this subject, "does not have sufficient statute to come under a top hoodlum investigation." Furthermore, it is pointed out that your office did not furnish in reairtel brief background information concerning this subject in compliance with instructions in Bulet of 2-16-62.

It is suggested that investigation of Pasquale Eboli be conducted in a discreet manner with a view to locating a likely place in which highly confidential sources might be developed. It is possible that such sources could furnish information not only as to this subject but also his half brother, Thomas Eboli. There have been several instances in which extremely valuable information concerning the activities of top hoodlums has been developed by highly confidential sources covering directly associates and family members rather than top hoodlums themselves.

DETAILS:

NY T-1 advised on April 11, 1962, that on the evening of April 10, 1962, subject was observed at the Bella Napoli Cafe, 106 Sullivan Street, at approximately 8:00 p.m. Informant stated that the subject greeted him and stated that he was waiting to meet someone. Shortly thereafter the informant observed an individual in his middle 40's, well dressed, with Italian features, drive up in front of the Napoli Cafe in a 1961 Cadillac bearing California registration NNX500. EBOLI and his companion were then joined by another individual who drove a 1962 black Oldsmobile, Florida registration IW122434.

The informant advised that he overheard a conversation between EBOLI and his out of town companions which indicated that they were going to Fort Lee, New Jersey, to meet with ANTHONY STROLLO on an urgent matter.

NY T-1 advised on April 13, 1962, that prior to VITO GENOVESE's conviction, GENOVESE and ANTHONY STROLLO loaned fifteen million dollars to [redacted] top hood, New York City, recently arrested in Spain on a narcotics charge, for use in narcotic operation. According to the informant, this deal resulted in a five million dollar profit. Following GENOVESE's arrest and conviction, GENOVESE instructed STROLLO to have nothing further to do with [redacted]

During the incarceration of GENOVESE, STROLLO continued to contact [redacted] despite orders to the contrary, and STROLLO furnished the original bail for [redacted] and furnished aid and assistance to [redacted] while he was in a fugitive status. Following the arrest of [redacted] STROLLO continued to maintain contact with him. GENOVESE allegedly made the decision to kill STROLLO and relayed instructions to his brother, MIKE GENOVESE, and MIKE MIRANDA made the necessary arrangements for the killing with TOMMY EBOLI acting as the fingerman.

On April 17, 1962, the informant advised that one JOHNNY VERRA, also known as Johnny Balls, a reputed killer and enforcer on the payroll of THOMAS EBOLI, may have had some connection with the disappearance of ANTHONY STROLLO. VERRA, according to the informant, is presently at liberty on $60,000 bail in the Southern District of New York, after conviction on a bootlegging charge, which case is being appealed. There is presently an obstruction of justice case pending against VERRA for threatening witnesses.

According to the informant, EBOLI put up the bail for VERRA, and it is the opinion of the informant that VERRA may have been called in on the STROLLO "hit" in order to repay his obligation to EBOLI. [REDACTED]

NY T-1 advised on May 3, 1962, subject holding a meeting at Rocco's Restaurant, 181 Thompson Street, concerning three new crap games which were to be started by the subject. The first game was to be operated out of a place on Mulberry Street in the lower east side "over the undertaker's". This game is to be run Friday through Sunday night.

The second game was to be run in New Jersey in the vicinity of South Plainfield near Route 28 by LITTLE CARMINE BATTAGLIO and another unknown subject. This game was to be run Tuesday through Thursday night. b6 b7C b7D

In the New York game, limousine service would be available from New Jersey to New York City with the drivers getting $25.00 a head for each person they brought to the game. In the New Jersey game, the limousine service would be provided from New York City to the game site. The informant could not pinpoint the games more accurately.

The third game was to be run near Camden, New Jersey, and was to be operated by [REDACTED] who was to obtain another partner. This game would operate from Tuesday through Sunday. According to the informant, the Camden, New Jersey Police Department were being paid [REDACTED] a week to let the game operate.

NY 92-1569

MIKE MIRANDA attended a meeting of hoodlums at Apalachin, New York, on November 14, 1957, and his criminal activities include smuggling, illicit alcohol, narcotics, murder, extortion and theft.

JOHNNY VERRA, a reputed killer and enforcer on the payroll of THOMAS EBOLI, has been convicted in the past for bootlegging. VERRA has been out on bail appealing the bootlegging conviction but the appeal was denied and in May of 1962 VERRA was incarcerated at the United States Penitentiary, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. b6 b7C

SAS [redacted] and [redacted] have observed the subject, practically on a daily basis, during the period of this report in the Greenwich Village area. The subject frequents the Kettle of Fish Restaurant, 116 Mc Dougal Street; Bella Napoli Cafe, 106 Sullivan Street; Napoli Espresso Cafe, 165 Thompson Street; and Rocco's Restaurant, 181 Thompson Street.

NY 92-1569

On May 15, 1962, NY T-1 advised that the subject has requested MIKE GENOVESE to check with his brother, VITO GENOVESE, presently incarcerated in the United States Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia, on MIKE's next visit to Atlanta to ascertain if VITO will approve a plan advanced by the subject whereby all of the bookies operating in lower Manhattan can be consolidated under the control of the subject. According to the informant, the subject is very ambitious and eager to consolidate his new position. The informant advised further that the plans advanced by the subject presumably have the okay of MIKE MIRANDA and are awaiting the approval of VITO GENOVESE.

VITO GENOVESE is a well known underworld character presently incarcerated in Federal Prison, serving fifteen years for violation of the United States Narcotics Laws.

MIKE GENOVESE is a brother of VITO GENOVESE, who frequently visits him in the United States Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia.

[redacted] has an arrest record dating from 1933, which includes arrests for homicide and violation of narcotics laws. [redacted] is in the background of every important narcotics transaction of the ANTHONY STROLLO group and has been described as a merciless and vicious killer, operating through underlings. On May 17, 1961, [redacted] was arrested by Federal Bureau of Narcotics Agents on narcotic conspiracy charges. [redacted] jumped bail and was recently returned to the United States from Spain by Federal authorities.

ANTHONY STROLLO has the reputation of being a racketeer of the notorious hoodlum VITO GENOVESE and is considered the hoodlum who controls all illegal activities in the Greenwich Village area.

It is noted that the bodies of ROCERETO and LANGONE were found dead in the trunk of an automobile on the lower East Side section of New York City. THOMAS EBOLI
ANTI-RACKETEERING

In connection with our continuing inquiry regarding Thomas Eboli, a prominent New York underworld figure, Johnny Verra was interviewed on September 5, 1962, by Special Agent [redacted] of our New York Office at the Federal House of Detention, New York City, where Verra is awaiting sentence for an Obstruction of Justice violation.

Verra, who is alleged to be a member of the Eboli mob, was completely uncooperative and exhibited a general contempt for law enforcement.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised that Eboli was informed by Adolph Verra, the brother of Johnny Verra, that the FBI has made inquiries about him and that Johnny Verra has been interviewed by an FBI Agent named McCoy.

Eboli, according to source, was highly incensed and wanted to determine if anyone knew or had seen the FBI Agent described by Verra. The source said that he had been advised that an old man who patronizes the cafes in the Greenwich Village sector of New York City informed Eboli that he had seen a man resembling the description of Special Agent [redacted] in Greenwich Village.

The source advised that Eboli then ordered Adolph Verra to locate one of the sidewalk artists who draw sketches in Greenwich Village and have a likeness of Special Agent [redacted] prepared.

After the sketch was finished, according to the source, Eboli promised that he would pay $200 to the first man who recognizes Special Agent [redacted] and points

One of our New York informants, who is in regular contact with the leaders of the New York racket group headed by Eboli, has reported that this group has received a "contract" from New York representatives of James Riddle Hoffa to supply "muscle" during a current Teamster strike in New York City. It is noted that approximately 5,000 Teamsters, serving 500 New York trucking firms, are currently on strike in New York.

According to our informant, Hoffa's representatives furnished the Eboli group with a list of names of trucking firms who are employing independent truck owners to haul merchandise from their terminals during this strike, and that this racket group was called in to forcibly stop these independents from operating in that manner. The informant has received information from members of the Eboli group concerning a plan whereby one car containing three hoodlums, each armed with a rubber hose-type blackjack, is to be stationed at a trucking terminal employing independents in the above manner. These hoodlums are being given instructions that any independents operating as "scab" labor are to be assaulted, as a warning to others attempting to haul merchandise during this strike. In connection with this plan, Eboli has reportedly enlisted the assistance of Brooklyn, New York, racket leaders to furnish additional hoodlums to operate as "enforcers" in furtherance of this plan.

Our New York Office is following this matter closely in an attempt to develop labor violations involving this leading racket group. Information concerning this situation has been furnished to the New York City Police Department in view of the possibility of violence at New York City trucking terminals.

A top echelon informant of our New York Office

Vito Genovese group, has reported that this group, now headed by Eboli, has taken a "contract" from New York representatives of James Riddle Hoffa to supply "muscle" during a Teamster strike currently underway in New York City. It is noted that 5,000 Teamsters, serving 500 New York trucking firms, are currently out on strike in New York.

According to our informant, Hoffa's representatives furnished the Eboli group with a list of names of trucking firms who are employing independent truck owners to haul merchandise from their terminals during the strike, and that this group was called in to stop these independents from operating in this manner. The informant has received information from members of the Eboli group that a plan has been devised whereby one car containing three hoodlums, each armed with a rubber hose type blackjack, would be stationed at a trucking terminal where independent truckers are operating. These hoodlums are being given instructions that any independents operating as "scab" labor are to be assaulted as a warning to others attempting to haul merchandise during the strike. In connection with this plan, Eboli has reportedly enlisted the assistance of Brooklyn, New York, racket leaders to furnish additional hoodlums to operate as "enforcers" in this matter.

It is significant to note that we have previously developed information that the Eboli group receives $2,500 per week "protection" money from Hoffa, and it is reasonable to assume that this racket group would be on "call" to perform this type service for the Teamsters in view of these payments.

New York is maintaining particularly close contact with the above informant to follow this strike situation as it develops and to continually evaluate developments for labor violations involving this leading racket group. NY 92-1569

On September 23, 1962, NY T-1 advised that he had learned that THOMAS EBOLI was going to attend the SONNY LISTON - FLOYD PATTERSON heavyweight fight in Chicago on Tuesday, September 25, 1962. NY T-1 stated that he, EBOLI, had secured 50 ringside tickets from CUS D'AMATO, PATTERSON's manager. NY T-1 stated that he also learned that "everyone" in the Greenwich Village area of New York City was going to attend the fight and that the general consensus among the gambling element in the Greenwich Village area was that LISTON would win and no PATTERSON money could be found.

Group photographs of ringside spectators were taken during the evening of September 25, 1962, at the PATTERSON-LISTON fight in Chicago. The presence of several prominent Chicago hoodlums were noted in the group photographs, but the identity of THOMAS EBOLI was not recognized therein.

Photographs of New York City underworld subjects were forwarded to the Chicago Office for possible assistance in identifying ringside seat occupants at the fight. Although persons bearing similar physical descriptions to the persons in the New York photographs were noted no positive identification was effected of any of the Greenwich Village associates of THOMAS EBOLI.

CUS D'AMATO, manager of FLOYD PATTERSON, advised SA [redacted] on September 25, 1962, that he was not aware of the presence of any New York hoodlums in Chicago, nor did he know of any who were attending the fight.

On September 1, 1962, NY T-3 advised that he had met a very close associate of THOMAS EBOLI who advised him that he was required to give 25% of his "take" to TOMMY RYAN (THOMAS EBOLI). NY T-3 stated that the associate of EBOLI who furnished this information was a known gambler and bookmaker and operated in the Queens section of New York City. NY T-3 further stated that EBOLI appeared to be organizing bookmaking activities and assessing a certain cut against their operation for himself as the "acting boss" of the VITO GENOVESE "family".

It is noted that NY T-2 advised on September 11, 1962, that he had learned from a reliable source that THOMAS EBOLI is now the "acting boss" of the VITO GENOVESE "family", at least during the incarceration of VITO GENOVESE.

On September 13, 1962, NY T-4 advised that the following individuals had been arrested in a police bank at Apartment 6E, 16 Monroe Street, New York City:

According to NY T-4 various gambling paraphernalia was seized with the above subjects who were charged with violation of Sections 974, 974A, and 975 of the New York State Penal Law.

According to NY T-4 ANTHONY CAPUTO's brother, [redacted] New York City, a known gambler, was in charge of the above policy operation and THOMAS EBOLI was the overall operator of this policy racket.

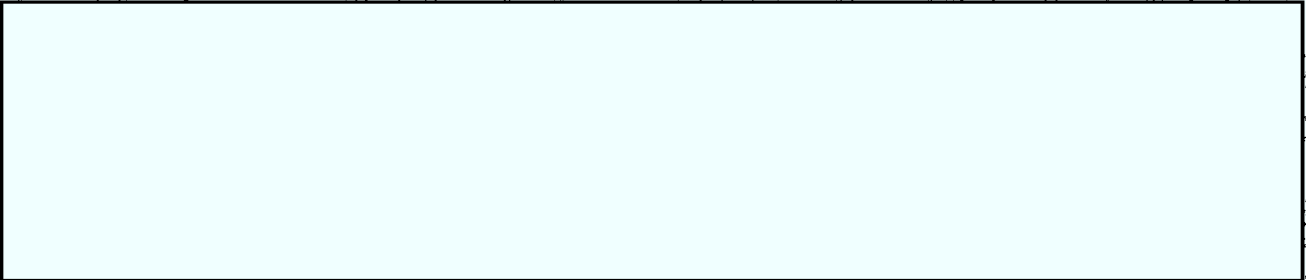

NY T-1 advised on September 29, 1962, that he had heard from a close associate of THOMAS EBOLI that EBOLI was very concerned about the investigation which the "Feds" were conducting concerning him. EBOLI stated that he believed "they" were trying to "frame" him and he, EBOLI, was going to stay away from the Greenwich Village area of New York City for a few weeks, and his brother, PASQUALE EBOLI, would be in charge of things during his absence.

On October 19, 1962, NY T-3 advised that he had a conversation with a known "fence" who was definitely in the business of buying stolen property. The "fence" advised NY T-3 [redacted]

NY 92-1569

On September 24, 1962, NY T-5 advised that his office was conducting an investigation concerning THOMAS VITO MICHAEL EBOLI aka Tommy Ryan. NY T-5 stated that his office was conducting an inquiry regarding THOMAS EBOLI due to the fact that he possessed a criminal record and was not a native born citizen, having been born in Naples, Italy, on June 11, 1911.

b6
b7D

NY T-5 further stated that his files also reflected that EBOLI had arrived in the United States on March 6, 1912, and gave his occupation as the manager of Village Taffy's Inc., 406 6th Avenue, New York City. NY T-5 also noted that his files reflected that EBOLI had given a former occupation as a prize fight manager.

An article in "The Bergen Evening Record", a newspaper covering Bergen County, New Jersey and Rockland County, New York, reflected that LYNNE SCHNEELOCH became the bride of XAVIER EBOLI on Saturday, October 13, 1962. EBOLI was described as the son of Mr. and Mrs. THOMAS EBOLI, 379 Forest Drive, Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey. EBOLI was further described as having served three years in the United States Marine Corps after his graduation from Fairfield University and is now employed as a restaurant manager at Village Taffy's, Inc., New York City.

NY T-6 advised on September 25, 1962, that LAWRENCE GALLO and a group of his associates visited the Copacabana, a New York City night club, on the evening of September 15, 1962, and that later in the evening LAWRENCE GALLO, after drinking heavily and becoming somewhat intoxicated, started to yell that he was going to kill all the "wise guys". GALLO then named THOMAS EBOLI, JOSEPH STRACI, CARLO GAMBINO and JOSEPH PAGANO as individuals he planned to kill.

NY T-6 further advised that during this occurrence [redacted] of the Copacabana, was present and became very upset at GALLO's outburst. Subsequently, according to NY T-6, [redacted] reportedly complained of GALLO's action to THOMAS EBOLI. EBOLI, according to NY T-6, allegedly advised one ANTHONY ABBATEMARCO, a member of the LAWRENCE GALLO mob that if he did not want to get killed he should get away from President Street. It is noted that President Street, Brooklyn, is the location of the GALLO mob headquarters.

On October 2, 1962, [redacted] of the Copacabana night club, was interviewed concerning the outburst of LAWRENCE GALLO against THOMAS EBOLI and others in the Copacabana night club. [redacted] stated that he had asked LAWRENCE GALLO to quiet down because he was making too much noise in the club, but stated that he was unable to understand any statements made by GALLO against any of the above mentioned persons. [redacted] denied having any knowledge of GALLO making threats against anyone. [redacted] further stated that when he asked GALLO to quiet down he also asked him to leave the Copacabana.

Re: Thomas Eboli
Anti-Racketeering

The files of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), 1060 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey, were reviewed and found to contain the following information concerning Thomas Eboli:

INS file A5-728945 reflects that Eboli is known to them under the names of Thomas Eboli, Thomas Vito Michael Eboli, Thomas Di Rosa and Tommy Ryan. The file reflects that Eboli was born on June 13, 1911, at Scisciano, Italy, and his parents are Luigi and Madalena Eboli. Eboli's current address was listed as 379 Forest Street, Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey.

The file contains an indication that Eboli was married to [redacted] whom he married on October 26, 1931. The INS file reflects that Eboli claimed to have obtained a Mexican divorce decree from his wife [redacted] and on September 3, 1937, in Ridgefield, New Jersey, Thomas Eboli giving his age as 26 and marital status as single, and place of birth as Jersey City, New Jersey, married [redacted] age [redacted] place of birth Passaic, New Jersey. This marriage was performed by [redacted] According to the file [redacted] and Thomas Eboli have two sons [redacted] age approximately [redacted] and [redacted] age approximately [redacted] and Thomas Eboli have three children, [redacted] age approximately [redacted] age [redacted] and [redacted] age approximately [redacted]

According to the file, [redacted] in an affidavit, stated that upon learning in 1952 that she was not legally married to Eboli, resumed her maiden name of [redacted] but on August 10, 1953, in an application for a [redacted]

Tryan Cigarette Service. It is noted that 992 Phelps Road, Teaneck, New Jersey, is a former residence listed by Thomas Eboli, and Tryan Cigarette Service, Incorporated, is a former business venture with which Eboli was associated.
The file further reflects that a separation agreement between [redacted] and Thomas Eboli was not entered into until February, 1958. The file reflects that an affidavit dated December 8, 1958, signed [redacted] contradicts a statement that she resumed her maiden name in 1952 upon learning that she was not legally married to Thomas Eboli.
[redacted] in an affidavit stated that she had been separated from Thomas Eboli, since 1937, claiming that he had visited her in Chicago, and further stated that she had had sexual relations with him as husband and wife in 1958. She further advised that Thomas Eboli had not supported her or her children and she was assisted financially by her father for whom she worked. She indicated that her father was Sam Ariola, owner of the West Lake Beverage Company, 816 North 23rd Avenue, Melrose Park, Illinois.

According to this file, the Petition for Naturalization for Thomas Vito Eboli was granted over the objection of INS on August 5, 1960, by United States District Judge Charles M. Metzner in the Southern District of New York. The INS file contains a notation that since the sole issue was the petitioner's good moral character, appeal was not recommended on August 9, 1960. Eboli's petition number was listed as 701994 and his Certificate of Naturalization number is 8216086 dated August 22, 1960. A witness for Eboli on his naturalization petition was listed as [redacted]

Re Boston airtel 2-5-63 captioned, "Raymond L. S. Patriarca, aka, AR."

The first paragraph on page 3 of re airtel states that "Angiulo stated that Tommy Ryan and the Jew (possibly [redacted]) are opening a new office in his building above Jay's Lounge, Tremont Street, Boston." With reference to this information, it is recalled that the missing (reportedly murdered) Anthony Strollo, had areas of interest in New England and subject Eboli, commonly known as Tommy Ryan, apparently has succeeded to the position in the Vito Genovese "family" formerly held by Strollo.

Boston should advise whether or not the Tommy Ryan referred to in re airtel is an individual known to that office and, if not, should explore the possibility that the person referred to as Tommy Ryan is, in fact, subject Eboli.

In view of the fact that GENNARO J. ANGIULO contacted THOMAS EBOLI, aka Tommy Ryan, in NYC on 2/14/63, it is believed that the THOMAS RYAN referred to in Bosairtel dated 2/5/63 captioned "RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka, AR," is, in fact, subject EBOLI.

BACKGROUND

Naturalization

On January 9, 1963, [redacted] Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) 1060 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey, advised SA [redacted] that THOMAS VITO MICHAEL EBOLI, Alien Registration number 5728945, residing at 379 Forrest Road, Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey, was naturalized on August 5, 1960, at New York City.

[redacted] advised that EBOLI's naturalization was over the objections of INS, their objections being primarily based on the fact that EBOLI is not a person of good moral character who would make a good American citizen.

[redacted] further advised that INS has instituted, and is investigating a citizenship revocation case against EBOLI, and efforts are being made to develop information concerning EBOLI's financial dealings which could result in prosecutive action for income tax evasion. In connection with this investigation, INS recently checked the records of incorporation, New York City, on the following firms to determine EBOLI's financial connection therein:

Legitimate Enterprises

Tryan Cigarette Service
10 Jones Street, New York, New York

Concerning this company, INS investigators interviewed one [redacted] on September 14, 1962, who is [redacted] the Tryan Vending Industries. [redacted] had purchased the above company from EBOLI in February, 1958, but that EBOLI is retained on the payroll as a developer of new territories for company machines on a commission basis. According to [redacted] EBOLI receives approximately $4,000 to $5,000 yearly income from this activity.

On September 14, 1962, [redacted] the [redacted] was interviewed as [redacted] of Village Tarrey's Incorporated, doing business as Burger Village, 406 6th Avenue, New York City. [redacted] identified himself as [redacted] and stated that [redacted] is, and has been President of this corporation since 1956. [redacted] further acknowledged that [redacted] is currently associated with the Tryan Vending Industries, formerly of 172 Thompson Street, New York City, now located at 10 Jones Street, New York City.

[redacted] advised that in connection with INS's current citizenship revocation case against EBOLI, their investigation has shown that all statements made by EBOLI on his citizenship application have been investigated and no discrepancies found.

It is noted in this regard, that previously reported INS information concerning THOMAS EBOLI reflects that his second marriage to [redacted] on September 3, 1937, in Ridgefield, New Jersey, may in fact be a bigamous marriage. This presumption arises from the fact that INS records reflect that EBOLI was married to [redacted] on October 26, 1931, and later claimed that this marriage was dissolved by a Mexican divorce decree prior to his marriage to [redacted] on September 3, 1937. The INS records reflect that a separation agreement between [redacted] [redacted] and THOMAS EBOLI was not entered into until February, 1958. She stated, however, that she had been separated from THOMAS EBOLI since 1937, but claimed that subsequent to their separation, EBOLI had visited her in Chicago, where they had sexual relations as husband and wife in 1958. She further advised that THOMAS EBOLI had not supported her or her children, and was assisted financially by her father for whom she worked. She indicated that [redacted] was SAM ARKOLA, owner of the West - Lake Beverage Company, 816 North 23 Avenue, Melrose Park, Illinois.

It is noted that the above facts concerning a possible bigamous marriage between THOMAS EBOLI and [redacted] were discussed with Assistant United States Attorney, DANIEL B. HOLLMAN on February 4, 1963.

Mr. HOLLMAN indicated that he would review the INS records to determine if possible prosecutive action might be considered on a local basis against EBOLI on bigamy charges.

NY 92-1569

It was further noted that EBOLI stated in his passport application that he was last married on October 26, 1931 to ANNA ARIOLA EBOLI, born in Italy on April 13, 1914, now an American citizen residing at the time of the application at [redacted] Illinois. The passport application indicated that this marriage had not been terminated. He gave his permanent residence as [redacted] [redacted], New York City.

On December 18, 1962, the files of the Passport Office, Department of State were again reviewed by SA [redacted] and found to contain no additional information concerning THOMAS VITO MICHAEL EBOLI.

It is noted that information furnished in 1960 reflects that EBOLI gave as a reason for his travel abroad was to visit his [redacted] who was then a member of the United States Marine Corps and stationed aboard the "United States Independence".

In January, 1962, SA [redacted] conducted an investigation at Chicago, Cook County State's attorney's office, concerning SAM "BIG SAM" ARIOLA, age 37, and LOUIS EBOLI, age 28. Both were listed as living at 818 North 23rd Avenue, Melrose Park, Illinois. It is noted that the above address coincides with the address of [redacted] the subject's wife, as listed in his passport application. It is further noted that the subject has a brother LOUIS EBOLI, born in 1924.

PASSPORT APPLICATION

On October 24, 1961, the files of the Passport Office, Department of State were reviewed by SA [redacted] concerning THOMAS VITO MICHAEL EBOLI. The file reflected that EBOLI was issued passport number 2485114 at New York City on November 15, 1960 for proposed travel of an unstated duration to Italy, Spain, France, Switzerland, Germany and England to visit relatives. In his passport application dated November 14, 1960 at New York City, EBOLI stated his intention to depart from New York City on or about November 18, 1960 via Trans World Airlines and advised that he was not travelling by an organized tour. The passport was valid for three years travel to all countries except Albania and those portions of China, Korea and Viet-Nam under Communist control.

EBOLI stated in his passport application that he was born June 13, 1911 in Italy and immigrated to the United States in March, 1912 and has resided in the United States since then at New York City and Chicago, Illinois. This application further reflects that EBOLI was naturalized as a citizen of the United States before the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on August 22, 1960. The file further reflects that his Certificate of Naturalization number 8216086 had been seen by passport authorities. He listed his father as LUIGI EBOLI born in Italy in May, 1887, who presently resides in the United States and is not an American citizen. He gave his father's address at the time of this application as 177 Thompson Street, New York City. He listed his mother as MADDALENA MADDALONI EBOLI born in Italy, in 1889, and resided in the United States from 1912 to 1914 when she died in Chicago Illinois.

ARIOLA and EBOLI allegedly beat with a baseball bat, in a Franklin Park (Illinois) warehouse in September, 1961, two individuals named [redacted] and [redacted]. SAM ARIOLA and LOUIS EBOLI allegedly picked up [redacted] and [redacted] after they had rigged a pinball machine for a $72 pay-off in River Grove, Illinois. ARIOLA is supposedly the individual who controls the pinball machines in the Franklin Park and River Grove area. ARIOLA and EBOLI have since been discharged in State court concerning the charges of beating [redacted] and [redacted].

[redacted] also advised that a 1962 Volvo bearing New Jersey registration GHM922 was also observed parked in front of the EBOLI residence at 379 Forest Road. This vehicle was subsequently determined by [redacted] to be registered to [redacted] 298 Coolidge Avenue, Fort Lee, New Jersey. ~~MIKE MIRANDA~~

N.Y. NY T-2 advised on February 17, 1963, that he had met a close acquaintance of THOMAS EBOLI on February 15, 1963. This acquaintance lives in the Greenwich Village area of New York City, and advised NY T-2 that EBOLI has submitted a list of names to MIKE (MICHELE) MIRANDA which contained the names of old GENOVESE "family" members who were not too active at this time. EBOLI proposed that these men be dropped as active members and "retired". The purpose of this forced retirement, according to NY T-2 was to reduce the payroll of men to be paid out of gambling revenue controlled by the GENOVESE mob. NY T-2 stated that it was his understanding that MIKE MIRANDA allegedly disagreed with EBOLI's plan stating that these men were all old acquaintances of VITO GENOVESE and should not be forced to step aside until GENOVESE was consulted on the matter.

~~KANSAS~~

NY T-2 stated that later in the same day he heard the same story from another source close to EBOLI. This source repeated the story stating that EBOLI had taken on quite a few new men who were out hustling for him, and the older men had not been active enough so EBOLI decided to retire them. This source further stated that EBOLI was becoming more powerful all the time and in his opinion, EBOLI would be taking over eventually anyway so that everyone may as well abide by his decisions now.

made by WFO in the Passport Office on 12/18/62, which reflected no additional travel applications made by the subject since the date of his last application.

Investigation conducted by the Chicago Office in January, 1962, as set forth in the details of this report has not been previously reported. It is set forth at this time to establish the relationship between THOMAS EBOLI, [redacted] SAM ARIOLA, and the subject's brother, LOUIS EBOLI.

N.Y.
On 1/7/63, [redacted] advised that ANTHONY (Little Pussy) RUSSO contacted ANGELO (Ray) DE CARLO and discussed organization business and personalities. Much of the conversation concerned THOMAS EBOLI and his activity in the VITO GENOVESE organization. Inasmuch as GENOVESE is currently serving a 15-year sentence in the United States Prison, Leavenworth, Kansas, there was speculation between DE CARLO and RUSSO concerning a power struggle in the GENOVESE family between GERARDO CATENA, the "underboss" ^V ~~EUGENE~~ CATENA, who were aligning themselves with RUGGIERO BOIARDO and MICHELE MIRANDA all on one side and DE CARLO, RUSSO and THOMAS EBOLI on the other side. The informant indicated that RUGGIERO BOIARDO was a bloodthirsty, vicious individual who would not hesitate to kill on the slightest provocation. In view of this reputation, both DE CARLO and RUSSO decided to remain silent, but still loyal to VITO GENOVESE pending at least the disposition of GENOVESE's appeal and the subsequent determination as to whether he would be released to return to the leadership of his organization. Both DE CARLO and RUSSO indicated that they would not attempt to side with anyone until the fate of VITO GENOVESE was decided by the courts. RUSSO stated that "until we see what happens with VITO,....then I'll make my stand my way." RUSSO further indicated that MIKE MIRANDI intended to win over GERRY CATENA to his side in the event that if something happened to VITO GENOVESE, MIRANDA and CATENA would eventually be the bosses and they would take over and TOMMY RYAN (THOMAS EBOLI) would be forgotten. RUSSO also described RUGGIERO BOIARDO,

It is noted that the informant advised of individuals, according to DE CARLO and RUSSO, who were members of the "Criminal Commission." Among those mentioned as a "commissioner" was TOMMY RYAN who has heretofore not been identified as a member of the Commission.

[redacted] reported on 9/26/62, that TOMMY RYAN (THOMAS EBOLI) was interested in learning all he could concerning one (FNU) LA ROSA or LA RUSSO. EBOLI was reportedly interested in finding out complete background information concerning above person and whether he was a "thief" or a "wise guy." LA ROSA is not otherwise identified.

On 2/11/63, [redacted] advised that EBOLI promised to meet GERARDO CATENA at the Route 46 Diner located on New Jersey route 46 near Ridgefield, New Jersey. A discreet surveillance of this location by agents of the Newark Office revealed that EBOLI kept his appointment with CATENA at the appointed location on 2/11/63. It was noted by the surveilling agents that EBOLI made sure he was not being watched at this location by entering the diner and personally observing each customer seated at the booths.

EBOLI then chose a booth located near the rear of the diner which was separated from the other customers by a vacant booth. CATENA later joined EBOLI at this location. Due to the sensitive source of this information and EBOLI's apparent caution in being observed at this location, no further attempt was made to continue the surveillance of EBOLI.

On 1/31/63, [redacted] advised that GENNARO J. ANGIULO contacted RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA in Boston, Mass.,

MASS. and ANGIULO stated that TOMMY RYAN and the Jew (possibly [redacted] are opening a new office in his building above Jay's Lounge, Tremont Street, Boston. ANGIULO has been described as a top lieutenant of RAYMOND PATRIARCA, a prominent underworld figure in the Boston, Mass., area.

On 2/13/63, [redacted] advised that GENNARO J. ANGIULO intended to travel to NYC on 2/14/63, and contact THOMAS RYAN. If ANGIULO was unable to see RYAN, according to the informant, he would try to see JOE CATALDO and TONY (LNU). N.Y.

N.Y. On 2/14/63, ANGIULO and his companion, one PETER LIMONE were observed to arrive in NYC at La Guardia Airport at 3:15 p. m. by SA [redacted]. From La Guardia airport both subjects proceeded to a Western Union office located at 203 West 52nd Street, NYC. From this location MASS. both subjects proceeded to the Rivoli Shoe Repair Store, 828 7th Avenue, NYC, where they were observed to get a shoe shine. b2 b6 b7C

The subject and his companion then departed the shoe store and walked to the Park Sheraton Hotel, 56th Street, and 7th Avenue, NYC, where they entered at 4:15 p. m. They were observed to eat dinner at the "Town House" restaurant located within the Park Sheraton Hotel. ANGIULO and LIMONE then left the hotel and walked to D'Angelo's Italian Restaurant located at West 55th Street, between 7th and 8th Avenues, NYC, where both entered at 4:55 p. m.

At 4:50 p. m. SA [redacted] observed a 1961 white Cadillac convertible bearing New Jersey license BJC 179. The registrant of this number is known to be [redacted] New Jersey. The driver of the vehicle was identified by SA [redacted] as THOMAS EBOLI. EBOLI and an unknown individual described as white, male, 5' 7", 165 pounds, black topcoat, blue hat, entered D'Angelo's Restaurant. A second unknown individual who arrived with EBOLI was described as white, male, 5' 5", 150 pounds, grey wavy hair, wore glasses, gray suit and no hat, stayed in the Cadillac.

ADMINISTRATIVE (CONT'D)

At 5:45 p. m. EBOLI and the unknown individual who had entered the above restaurant with him departed. The unknown individual proceeded to walk in a westerly direction on West 55th Street while EBOLI and his second companion proceeded north on 8th Avenue in the above described Cadillac.

At 5:50 p. m. ANGIULO and his companion LIMONE left D'Angelo's Restaurant and were observed walking in the Times Square area. They subsequently hailed a taxi and proceeded to La Guardia airport where they boarded Eastern Airlines shuttle flight to Boston departing at 7:00 p. m.

In view of the fact that GENNARO J. ANGIULO contacted THOMAS EBOLI, also known as TOMMY RYAN, in NYC, on 2/14/63, it is believed that THOMAS RYAN referred to by ANGIULO in his conversation with [redacted] on 1/31/63, is in fact THOMAS EBOLI.

[redacted] AFFILIATED WITH [redacted] advised on 2/5/63, that GENE CATENA and TOMMY RYAN (THOMAS EBOLI) had a meeting on 2/4/63, concerning the operations of [redacted] in Spectronics, Inc. Spectronics is a West Virginia Plastic optical lens company in which the CATENA organization, EBOLI and others have invested heavily. RYAN's investment appears to be $20,000. CATENA indicated [redacted] is in financial difficulty and his assets have been dissipated. [redacted] feels that he can salvage approximately $68,000 to pay off RYAN and CATENA group.

RYAN has told [redacted] he will kill him if money is not repaid, but CATENA indicates that he expects priority of vengeance.

[redacted] advised on 3/15/63, that he had learned from JOE ROSS (JOSEPH DE NEGRIS) on 3/14/63, that weekly meetings were being held between TOMMY RYAN (THOMAS EBOLI) and TONY BOY (ANTHONY BOIARDO) at a location near Wilmington, Delaware. According to the informant, ROSS told him that either ANGELO BRUNO or BRUNO's personal representative from Philadelphia was also attending these meetings.

ROSS, who has been identified as a member of "Causa Nostra" and a member of the VITO GENOVESE "family", stated that the NYC area, as well as Newark, NJ and Philadelphia, were considered unsafe places to hold such meetings, and it had been decided to select a centrally located area far enough away to avoid suspicion, but easily accessible from NY, Philadelphia, and Newark. According to ROSS, the place designated within easy travelling distance via the NJ Turnpike, is located on the Dupont State Road or Highway across the Delaware Memorial Bridge on the Delaware side of the bridge. The informant stated that ROSS described this location as a large restaurant and bar, and possibly including a motel, all of which is run by one "CLEMENTE." According to the informant, the name of the location may be "Clemente's" and is only a few miles from the Memorial Bridge. The informant stated that it was his understanding that "CLEMENTE" is from the Wilmington, Delaware area and is an old friend of "TONY BOY" BOIARDO.

The informant noted that neither TOMMY RYAN or his brother, PAT RYAN, had been seen in the Lower West Side area of NYC during the past two weeks, and this absence was partially due to the above described meetings allegedly being held at "Clemente's", as well as a reluctance to be seen in the area until it could be determined if VINCENZO (VINNIE) MAURO had agreed to talk. It should be noted in this respect that MAURO was sentenced in the SDNY on 3/11/63, along with co-defendants FRANK "THE BUG" CARUSO, SALVATORE MANERI, and JOHN PAPALIA. MAURO received a 15 year jail sentence on narcotics conspiracy charges plus a 5 year sentence on a bail jumping charge, the sentences to run concurrently. [redacted] told the informant [redacted]

[redacted] It is noted, however, that MAURO has been reported by numerous sources in the past as "cooperating" the proof of such cooperation being that he would receive a sentence of 5 years or less. The informant stated that the fact that MAURO had received a 15 year sentence did not apparently convince RYAN and his associates that MAURO had not or would not talk in the future.

For the information of the Baltimore and Philadelphia Offices, THOMAS EBOLI, aka Tommy Ryan, has been described as the acting "boss" of the GENOVESE "family." His brother, PASQUALE "PAT" EBOLI (RYAN), has been described as a "caporegima" in the GENOVESE "family." ANTHONY "TONY BOY" BOIARDO, along with his father, RUGGERIO "THE BOOT" BOIARDO are also members of the GENOVESE "family" operating in the Newark, NJ area and have been described as vicious individuals who control gambling and shylocking operations in the Newark area as well as being highly placed members of the "family" operating closely with the CATENA brothers, GENE CATENA being known as the "underboss" of the GENOVESE "family."

The Baltimore Office will attempt to verify the location of the above-described meeting place and attempt to ascertain all pertinent background information regarding "CLEMENTE," the alleged owner of the establishment.

The Newark Office will attempt to ascertain from [redacted] any substantiating information indicating that "TONY BOY" BOIARDO is meeting EBOLI and his associates at the Delaware location. b2

Philadelphia will maintain contact with [redacted] and other appropriate sources to attempt to verify information furnished by the NY informant.

On 2/7/63, [redacted] reported a conversation between RAYMOND L. SY PATRIARCA, GENNARO "Jerry" ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE, which took place at PATRIARCA's place of business in Providence, Rhode Island. ANGIULO stated, according to the informant, that he liked TOMMY RYAN's (THOMAS EBOLI) methods. ANGIULO stated that EBOLI was "really bought," probably referring to EBOLI's business interests in the New York and Boston areas. PATRIARCA then stated that EBOLI was the "acting boss" (GENOVESE family) in New York in the absence of VITO GENOVESE. PATRIARCA further stated that EBOLI was with VITO all the time and when VITO GENOVESE went to prison, VITO put in a "representation" for him (EBOLI). PATRIARCA further explained that TOMMY (EBOLI) was a little younger (than the other family leaders) and if he (EBOLI) needed to make a big decision, he could sit down with JERRY (CATENA) and MIKE (GENOVESE). } N.Y.

Information linking THOMAS EBOLI with various labor union activities has been received from several confidential sources of the NYO and Newark Offices.

u.s.A. On 3/6/63, [redacted] advised that one THOMAS PECORA met, on an unknown date, with TOMMY RYAN (EBOLI), JOE STRACCI, and [redacted] is seeking a Teamster Charter from ANTHONY PROVENZANO's New Jersey Joint Teamster Council. [redacted] has an unidentified union (possibly Local 222) of 2300 members, which he controls. This union is in NYC, and STRACCI had attempted to get a New York Teamster Charter but was blocked in this attempt by [redacted] New York labor union official.

NY 92-1569

JEAN CATENA, the brother of JERRY CATENA has told PROVENZANO to grant the charger to [redacted] providing the latter restricts the activities of this local to NYC, and does not extend into New Jersey.

On 2/13/63, [redacted] advised that PAT EBOLI, brother of THOMAS EBOLI, one JOE LNU and another individual, possibly identical with [redacted] met in the office of [redacted] a NYC labor attorney, who also represents VITO and MIKE GENOVESE.

b7C

The conversation between the above parties apparently centered around an unidentified union local which EBOLI was negotiating to buy outright and take over. EBOLI indicated in his conversation that his brother THOMAS EBOLI and MIKE GENOVESE would also be his associates in this venture. Apparently, THOMAS EBOLI and MIKE GENOVESE control an association of wastepaper dealers in the NYC area, and the union which EBOLI was interested in acquiring consisted of drivers and helpers in the wastepaper industry.. JOE LNU mentioned during the conversation that since GENOVESE and the EBOLI's controlled the "Association", it would be apparent that "our boys would have to do business with you." JOE LNU evidently meant that the union which they were discussing and about to be dominated by the EBOLIS and GENOVESE, would in fact, be conducting their negotiations with the New York Wastepaper Association. The informant also reported that the individual believed to be identical with [redacted] wanted it understood that drivers of the trucks involved in the wastepaper union would be shuttled into his Local 27 while EBOLI was free to organize any of the other allied workers connected with the handling and hauling of wastepaper.

EBOLI repeated on several occasions that the reason why he and his brother were looking for a "setup of this kind" was to furnish jobs for men in their organization who were unemployed.

EBOLI stated that he had a couple of kid brothers and a brother-in-law who were not doing anything at this time, and it would be nice to know that he could take care of them. PAT EBOLI also mentioned that MIKE (presumably MIKE GENOVESE) was anxious to get his (EBOLI's) advice on the feasibility of taking over the unidentified union local.

JOE LNU cautioned PAT EBOLI that he must be careful that none of his organizing activities should encroach upon any of [redacted] activities in the trucking field. JOE stated that he had always let [redacted] men alone and EBOLI should remember that [redacted] men were not subject to organizing pressures from the Teamster locals.

[redacted] advised on 2/24/63, that he had learned from JERRY MOORE (GERARD MOSIELLO) that THOMAS EBOLI had attended a meeting of New Jersey underworld figures at the home of TONY BANANAS (ANTONIO CAPONIGRO) in Belmar, New Jersey, during the earlier part of the week. MOORE related to the informant that the meeting concerned important decisions to be made on the New Jersey waterfront, but he was unable to give any further details as to what was discussed at this meeting.

On 5/8/63, [redacted] advised that [redacted] had another meeting with PAT EBOLI, at which time [redacted] and EBOLI discussed a labor union in the waste material industry which had evidently come under the EBOLI--GENOVESE control and [redacted] and EBOLI were making plans for the reorganization of the union local.

[redacted] stated that MIKE GENOVESE had told him to work the union matter out with both PAT and THOMAS EBOLI. [redacted] and EBOLI continued their discussion indicating that they were interested in organizing a thousand men in their local and that [redacted] described such a situation as a "gold mine."

NY 92-1569

[] noted to PAT EBOLI that the welfare money of the union was contributed by the employers, and that MIKE GENOVESE, PAT EBOLI and THOMAS EBOLI could appoint their own men in key positions to insure control of union funds. [] explained that he wanted to change the union's present self-insuring system to one where Welfare Fund insurance would be carried with outside insurance companies. [] stated that TOMMY (EBOLI) would be given the insurance, and inferred that by placing the insurance premiums with companies of his own choosing, he would be in a position to collect kickbacks on the insurance premiums.

[] stated that he was in the process of drawing up a new Trust Agreement by which he and MIKE GENOVESE and PAT EBOLI would either be named as trustees, or men in the union acceptable to them would be placed in the position of trustees of the insurance fund.

[] told EBOLI that they would hold a meeting within the near future to effect a reorganization of the local's officials and implement the plan of placing GENOVESE-EBOLI men in key positions.

The union local which is apparently controlled by the EBOLIs and MIKE GENOVESE has been tentatively identified as Local 958, Waste Material Sorters, Trimmers and Handlers with offices at 225 Lafayette Street, NYC. One [] is listed as the [] of the Local. It is noted that 225 Lafayette Street is also the headquarters for the New York Wastepaper Association.

On 5/23/63, ANTHONY MIRANDA, the son of MICHELE MIRANDA, a caporegima in the VITO GENOVESE family, visited [] in his office at 166 E. 61st St., NYC. according to [] According to the informant, [] and MIRANDA held a discussion in which [] and MIRANDA tentatively agreed that the welfare fund insurance from Local 958 would be placed through MIRANDA's office, who is an insurance broker doing business under the name of REXON Associates, 555 5th Ave., NYC. The informant inferred from the above conversation that MIRANDA would be expected to split his commission on the insurance premiums with THOMAS EBOLI.

NY T-1 stated that the meeting place was at a location near the Delaware Memorial Bridge not far from Wilmington, Delaware. NY T-1 stated that it was his understanding that this place was easily accessible via the New Jersey Turnpike, and was far enough away from the New York City and New Jersey areas where meetings could be held without arising law enforcement suspicion. NY T-1 further stated that it was his understanding that this place was run by one [redacted] whom NY T-1 described as an old friend of [redacted]

NY T-1 also noted that [redacted] was allegedly frequented by horse owners and trainers and that in several instances, race track information had been passed to underworld members at this location.

NY 92-1569

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] in New Castle County, Delaware:

Clemente's is a cafeteria and bus stop located about one quarter of a mile north of the section of U.S. Routes 13 and 40 at New Castle, Delaware, and is the last building north of Troop 2 of the Delaware State Police. It is a large cafeteria that contains a small bar and is open 24 hours a day and most buses of the Greyhound and Trailways and others stop there to permit passengers to eat.

On April 16, 1963, [redacted] Troop Number [redacted] Delaware State Police, New Castle, Delaware, advised that Clemente's is operated by three brothers.

[redacted] (the oldest); [redacted]

also known as [redacted] (the next oldest), who resides at [redacted]

[redacted] New Castle, and [redacted]

[redacted] (the youngest), who resides at [redacted]

[redacted] advised that to the best of his knowledge, none of the brothers had any arrest records in the State of Delaware. He advises that the brothers originally came from South Jersey where they operated a night club and came to Delawareⁱⁿ about 1953-1954.

He said that they had a contract with Greyhound Bus Company whereby all buses had to stop at their cafeteria as their bus stop and that the building consisted of a large cafeteria and a small bar. He said the brothers also owned a farm in Bear, Delaware, which was about a mile and one half south of the Troop on Route 40.

He advised that the brothers now own a night club and resort at Naggshead, North Carolina. According to [redacted] the restaurant has been frequented by troopers of the Delaware State Police and nothing of a derogatory nature has ever been noted concerning the [redacted] or their establishment. He advised that the youngest two brothers own some horses, but he does not know of any racketeering connections they would have.

NY 92-1569

[redacted], Delaware State Police, 505 Weldin Road, Wilmington 3, Delaware, who is presently employed by the Delaware State Tax Commission, Wilmington, Delaware, was interviewed on April 17, 1963. He advised that he was [redacted] of Troop [redacted] Delaware State Police, and that subsequent to his retirement, he was employed by the [redacted] brothers as a [redacted] prior to accepting other employment,

He advised that [redacted] was about [redacted] years old and was the oldest, and [redacted] was about [redacted] and [redacted] was about [redacted]

He stated that their father was a bootlegger during prohibition time in Pennsgrove, New Jersey, and that right after prohibition, their father opened a place on Route 130, Pennsgrove, New Jersey, across from the Pennsgrove High School, which he believed is presently called Andy's Inn. This was a night club and restaurant. He stated that their father is dead and that the brothers had had a contract with the Greyhound Bus Company when they were operating this Inn at Pennsgrove when the New Jersey Turnpike opened about 1952. At that time, the brothers came to Delaware and opened the present establishment next to Troop 2, Delaware State Police. He advised that he believes they now have a contract with both the Greyhound and Trailways Bus Companies to stop at the place. He stated that he was [redacted] on the 4 to 12 shift and that it was highly possible for any body to have a meeting in the cafeteria at any time of the day or night, since buses were constantly coming in and out of the place and the cafeteria was opened 24 hours a day. He stated that there were no private dining rooms in the place and that while there was a motel next door to Clemente's, that it was not operated by them.

He advised that the oldest brother [redacted] was rather conservative; that the other two brothers [redacted] and [redacted] both own some race horses and about 1961-1962, they had purchased a farm at Bear, Delaware, for the purpose of breeding horses. He advised that they formerly owned the

He stated that [redacted] has a home on [redacted] [redacted] which is worth in the neighborhood of $65,000 - $70,000.

He said that they did own a night club and summer resort at Naggshead, North Carolina, which they operated for about one month after purchasing it and that the following March, which was probably March of 1961, it was entirely wiped away by storms.

[redacted] advised that the youngest two [redacted] did bet on horse races, but that he did not know of them ever having been connected with any big time gamblers or racketeers.

He stated that the restaurant and bus stop is under the [redacted] of [redacted] as [redacted] and that the [redacted] themselves take very little interest in the actual operation of the restaurant. He advised that [redacted] was married to a niece of one of the [redacted]

[redacted] advised on 5/16/63, that [redacted] GENOVESE attorney, met an unknown visitor in his office on the above date. The purpose of the meeting, according to the informant, was a discussion concerning the new trust agreement which [redacted] had drawn for Local 958, of the Waste Material Sorters, Trimmers and Handlers, which local, allegedly, is controlled by THOMAS EBOLI, his brother, PAT EBOLI, and MIKE GENOVESE. [redacted] explained to his unknown caller that the union had previously been a self-insurer in regard to benefits paid to its members from the union welfare fund. [redacted] explained that under the new welfare fund trust agreement, the insurance would be placed with outside insurance companies and the premiums for such insurance paid from the union welfare fund. [redacted] instructed his caller (who may be one [redacted]) that "You'll have to see Tommy about it". Previous information indicates that THOMAS EBOLI had been promised the insurance regarding the union welfare fund and the informant inferred that EBOLI in some manner would receive a kick-back on the insurance premiums.

On 7/5/63 [redacted] reported that THOMAS EBOLI visited the office of EUGENE CATENA, brother of "Commission" member GERARDO CATENA. EBOLI, in reference to GERARDO CATENA, instructed EUGENE CATENA that he, GERARDO, was to get in touch with EBOLI. EBOLI further stated that a "Commission" meeting was set up for Sunday, the 14th of July.

On 7/23/63 [redacted] advised of a meeting between [redacted] GENOVESE attorney, and MICHAEL GENOVESE. [redacted] stated that since [redacted] had been elected ILA [redacted] [redacted] had information that [redacted] would discharge ILA attorney, [redacted] informed MIKE [redacted]

GENOVESE that he would like the appointment as ILA counsel. [] further stated that he was asking the advice of MIKE GENOVESE whether he, [] could request the assistance of THOMAS EBOLI in securing the ILA position vacated by []. According to the informant, [] hoped that EBOLI would either contact [] or recommend him, [] for the ILA position. MIKE GENOVESE gave his approval to [] to seek EBOLI's assistance in this matter.

On 6/26/63 [] advised of a meeting between MICHAEL GENOVESE and THOMAS EBOLI. According to the informant, GENOVESE and EBOLI had a long conversation in which they discussed initially the plight of [] and his involvement in the Murray Packing Company matter (Murray Packing Company, Inc., Et At, New York 49-4130). EBOLI indicated that he was unhappy with the treatment [] had received from his associates in the Murray Packing Company, especially from PETER CASTELLANO, who has been previously described as a member of the CARLO GAMBINO "family". EBOLI indicated to MIKE GENOVESE that before the company had gone bankrupt, CASTELLANO succeeded in convincing [] to become the [] of the Murray Packing Company and when the company was declared a bankrupt, [] was made the "fall guy". EBOLI further stated that CASTELLANO had bankrupt two previous companies and as a result of his illegal maneuvers, there were now six men "doing time". EBOLI stated that he had spoken to CARLO GAMBINO regarding CASTELLANO's operations and accused CASTELLANO of buying the assets of the corporation at thirty per cent of its value. EBOLI indicated to MIKE GENOVESE that he was not happy with CARLO GAMBINO's control over the GAMBINO "family" members. EBOLI further complained that the GAMBINO "family" was forever calling meetings at which there was endless talk and few decisions made. MIKE GENOVESE agreed with EBOLI, stating that CARLO GAMBINO has always been "a good bull thrower".

EBOLI continued his discussion with MIKE GENOVESE relating another incident involving the GAMBINO "family". EBOLI related an incident concerning the garbagehauling business which occurred at the Bronx Amusement park known as "Freedomland".

According to EBOLI, [redacted] had secured a contract for the garbage business in Freedomland. Subsequently, one [redacted] who was later identified as [redacted] complained that [redacted] had stolen the Freedomland contract from him. EBOLI met with CARLO GAMBINO and undertook to resolve the dispute since [redacted] came from the GAMBINO "family". After his meeting with GAMBINO, EBOLI contacted [redacted] and both agreed that [redacted] and [redacted] would be partners in the garbage hauling business at Freedomland. EBOLI then stated that [redacted] had caused the driver hauling for [redacted] to lose his truck by causing him to gamble excessively and then lending him money at shylock rates. When [redacted] reported the subsequent activities of [redacted] to EBOLI, EBOLI called upon [redacted] and chastised him for his underhanded methods. He concluded by informing [redacted] that [redacted] and [redacted] would be partners in the Freedomland garbage business "until the day they die".

EBOLI then discussed with MICHAEL GENOVESE the assassination of AUGUST "LITTLE AUGIE" CARFANO, who was shot on 9/25/59, along with his girl friend JANICE DRAKE. EBOLI stated that CARFANO had been repeatedly warned by VITO GENOVESE to mend his ways and that CARFANO had acknowledged that VITO had saved his life on previous occasions. EBOLI concluded that CARFANO "had to go", because he continually disobeyed GENOVESE's orders.

EBOLI also noted that [redacted] a member of the CARLO GAMBINO "family", had been assassinated due to an illicit relationship with his mother-in-law. EBOLI complained that the GAMBINO "family" was "full of degenerates".

EBOLI also mentioned that there had been an attempt to "fix" the jury impaneled in the ANTONY PROVENZANO case in Newark, New Jersey, but for some reason, the jury had been locked up before the attempted fix could be accomplished.

EBOLI noted that PROVENZANO was confident that he was going to "beat this rap".

Synopsis:

NY T-2 advised that THOMAS EBOLI exerted a powerful influence in the garbage hauling business, at least in the Lower West Side section of NYC. NY T-2 also advised that EBOLI's associates were greatly interested in proposed off-track betting in NYC. NY T-2 stated that EBOLI's organization had allegedly secured "front-men" who would be eligible for licensing under the new betting law and would operate legalized betting establishments on a 50-50 basis. EBOLI was observed in the Greenwich Village area of NYC with associates MICHAEL GENOVESE, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. EBOLI has allegedly issued orders, according to NY T-2, that absolutely no one in his organization is permitted to handle or participate in any narcotics activity.

DETAILS:

NY 92-1569

Legitimate Enterprises

NY T- 2 advised on July 16, 1963, that he had learned that one [redacted] (Phonetic), [redacted] the Blue Moon Bar located in the Bronx on Gun Hill Road, had been seeking the permission of THOMAS EBOLI to enter the garbage hauling business. According to NY T- 2, EBOLI exerted a powerful influence in the garbage hauling business and, in fact, allocated territories at least in the lower west side section of New York City and received a certain kick-back from the operators in the areas assigned by EBOLI.

b7D

NY T- 2 noted that [redacted] had associated in the past with [redacted] and had a reputation as a big shylock operator in the Bronx.

NY T- 2 further noted that there was a great deal of discussion among EBOLI's associates in the Greenwich Village area of New York City that off-track betting would be legalized in New York State within the very near future. NY T- 2 noted that EBOLI's associates felt certain that this law would pass and that EBOLI's group was desirous of securing preferred locations, where they could operate legally within the framework of the new legislation. NY T-2 noted that EBOLI's organization had allegedly secured "front-men" who would be eligible for licensing under the new law and operate legalized betting establishments on a 50-50 basis, with EBOLI's organization.

Hangouts and Associates

On July 15, 1963, THOMAS EBOLI was observed by SA [redacted] in the Greenwich Village area of New York City. At the time of observation, EBOLI was observed to confer with several individuals on the sidewalk near Rocco's Restaurant, located at 181 Thompson Street, New York City.

Among those persons identified conferring with EBOLI at the above location were MICHAEL GENOVESE, N.Y. the brother of VITO GENOVESE.

VITO GENOVESE is currently serving a fifteen-year prison term resulting from conviction of narcotics conspiracy charges, and has been described by [redacted] as the most powerful underworld figure in the eastern section of the United States.

b7C

The subject was also observed to confer with his brother, PASQUALE "PAT" EBOLI, who has been described by NY T-1 as a "Capo" in the VITO GENOVESE "family". PASQUALE EBOLI was a military deserter from the United States Army from 1943 until 1945, and, according to NY T-1, works closely with his brother, THOMAS EBOLI. NY T-1 has also described PASQUALE EBOLI as being in charge of all shylocking activities under his brother, THOMAS EBOLI.

EBOLI was also observed to confer with [redacted] N.Y. who is currently serving a ten-year prison term in the United States Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, as a result of a conviction on narcotics conspiracy charges.

EBOLI was also observed to meet, at the above location, [redacted] who allegedly controls all numbers bets on the night-trotting races in the Jersey City, New Jersey area.

NY 92-1569

b6
b7C

In addition to the above, four other unidentified associates of THOMAS EBOLI were observed to meet with EBOLI on the sidewalk at the above location.

"La Cosa Nostra" is the designation used by the organized Italian criminal element to refer to their overall criminal organization. This organization is composed of "families" within the framework of "La Cosa Nostra". Each family is ruled by a "boss" and under each boss are captains and lieutenants, commonly referred to as "Capos", who are appointed by the boss to exercise authority over the "soldiers", the lowest strata of membership in the organization.

NY 92-1569

On July 26, 1963, THOMAS EBOLI was again observed in the vicinity of Rocco's Restaurant, 181 Thompson Street, New York City, by SA [REDACTED] EBOLI was observed to meet [REDACTED] on the above date with [REDACTED] and two unknown subjects.

b7C

[REDACTED] is the top lieutenant of MICHELE "MTW" MIRANDA, who has been identified by NY T-1 as the "Consigliere" or the counselor of the VITO GENOVESE "family".

A "Consigliere" or counselor of a "family" is appointed by the "boss" to arbitrate disputes within the "family" or between other "families" within the framework of "La Cosa Nostra".

NY 92-1569

Illegal Activities

NY T-2/ advised on June 10, 1963, that he met one [redacted] (Phonetic) in the Greenwich Village area of New York City. NY T-2 stated that [redacted] confided to him that he was engaged in shylocking activities in the Greenwich Village area of New York, but used a job in a funeral home as his legitimate "front" to cover his shylocking activities. [redacted] stated that the funeral home is located on Bleecker Street, between MacDougal Street and Sixth Avenue in the Greenwich Village area of New York City. [redacted] further stated that TOMMY RYAN (THOMAS EBOLI [redacted]) [redacted] inferred from this that TOMMY RYAN would receive a percentage of the profits resulting from [redacted] shylocking operations.

b7D

NY T-2 further stated that [redacted] also noted that one [redacted] was also with TOMMY RYAN and engaged in shylocking and numbers activities.

NY 92-1569

NY T- 2 advised on July 20, 1963, that THOMAS EBOLI had recently instructed all of his associates that absolutely no one in his organization would be permitted to handle or participate in any narcotics activities. NY T-2 stated that any violation of EBOLI's instructions would probably result in the death of the person who disobeyed his orders.

NY T- 2 further stated that since the death of ANTHONY STROLLO (TONY BENDER), the organized Italian underworld has taken steps to completely eliminate any traffic in narcotics due to the stiff jail sentences being meted out by the courts and the unfavorable publicity resulting from a narcotics conviction.

ANTHONY STROLLO also known as TONY BENDER has been missing from his home in Fort Lee, New Jersey, since April, 1962. According to information furnished by NY T-1 STROLLO was the victim of a gangland assassination for having disobeyed the orders of VITO GENOVESE. According to NY T-1 GENOVESE ordered STROLLO to cease his participation in narcotics activity and STROLLO was killed for violation of GENOVESE's instructions.

Miscellaneous

NY T-2 advised on June 18, 1963, that he had learned that JOSEPH CATALDO also known as "JOE THE WOP" had recently returned from a trip to Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic. NY T-2 stated that he had learned that CATALDO had been negotiating for the purchase of a gambling casino in Santo Domingo, but he was unable to ascertain whether his negotiations were successful. NY T-2 also stated that CATALDO controlled at least the concessions in several night clubs and restaurants throughout the city and was required to split a certain percentage of his "take" with THOMAS EBOLI.

NY T-2 noted that CATALDO has the look of a sick man and had recently been discharged from the hospital after suffering a severe stomach ulcer attack.

Re New York tel, 9-23-63.

Information received from [redacted] that transportation is being provided at 50th and Broadway, New York City, for daily crap games operating evenings in New Jersey area, appears to have excellent potential for ITAR prosecutions. Based on information provided by informant, it is imperative that both offices make determined efforts to thoroughly exploit and further develop this matter. Consideration should be given to opening ITAR cases on the crap games operating in Bayonne, Ft. Lee, and on Route 28 between Union City and North Plainfield, New Jersey. B

Your investigation must be thoroughly planned to insure all elements of the statute are developed and appropriate logs and evidentiary material are properly maintained. Do not overlook possibility of use of photographic equipment and other Bureau technical equipment. Established sources and informants who can substantiate information received from [redacted] should be promptly contacted. Both offices should coordinate your activities in these investigations and Newark should be designated origin in ITAR cases opened. Luggers, operators, and individuals running the crap games should be fully identified. Size of games and established daily take should be established in each instance.

The Newark Office is in agreement with the Bureau that information received from [redacted] that transportation is being provided at 50th and Broadway, NYC, for daily crap games operating evenings in the New Jersey area, offers excellent potential for ITAR prosecutions. Prior to opening ITAR cases on these crap games, which are reportedly operating in Bayonne, Fort Lee and on Route 28 between Union City and North Plainfield, N.J., the Newark Office feels that [redacted] should be contacted for more specific information concerning these alleged games. It being noted that one game reportedly is taking place on Route 28 between Union City and North Plainfield. Route 28 runs from Union, N.J. and North Plainfield, N.J., a distance of some 15 miles. For this reason it is felt that more specific information should be ascertained from informant.

As soon as additional information has been developed from [redacted] concerning the locations of these games and as soon as New York is in a position to set up surveillances in order to take the proper players from New York to New Jersey arrangements will be made with that office to coordinate these activities. Appropriate cases will be opened at that time by the Newark Office and an outline of Newark's plans and anticipated actions will be forwarded to the Bureau at that time. The Bureau will be kept advised.

Re Newark airtel 9/25/63.

Prior to authorizing a survey to determine feasibility of misur coverage at the Englewood Country Club House in Englewood, New Jersey, the Bureau should be furnished additional information.

New York Office should interview [redacted] for specific details as to the exact place in the Englewood Country Club House hoodlum meetings take place. This information should be promptly forwarded to the Bureau and the Newark Office. Newark should, thereafter, submit its recommendations regarding conducting a survey to develop highly confidential coverage at this location.

Every consideration must be given by the Newark Office to the development of live informant coverage at the Englewood Country Club House. This type coverage is urgently needed to enable the Bureau to penetrate the New York - New Jersey underworld group operating under Thomas Eboli and Gerardo Catena.

1 - New York

NOTE: A TE informant of the NYO has reported that meetings regularly take place particularly on Sunday nights at the above-mentioned country club house in NJ where there is a split up of profits from the gambling rackets operated by the Eboli and Catena groups. NK has been unable to date to conduct physical surveillances at this location due to the physical setup. NK requests authority to conduct a survey to determine feasibility of misur coverage. It is recommended that the NYO obtain specific information from the informant in this matter as to the exact place the meetings take place prior to authorizing a survey. Eboli and Catena are two of most prominent racket figures in the metropolitan NY area.

Eboli Asked To Tell Role

By CHARLES ROLAND and
ALFRED ROBBINS

Thomas "Tommy Ryan"

Eboli, a shadowy but increasingly prominent New York underworld figure, has been subpoenaed to testify before the Senate Investigations Subcommittee, it was disclosed yesterday.

A one-time fight manager who has been under FBI scrutiny since the early 1940's Eboli, 52, who lives in Englewood Cliffs, N. J., will be asked a variety of probing questions about crime within the United States. He will be asked to tell what part he plays in the operation.

Eboli reportedly holds a key position in the Cosa Nostra.

2ND IN COMMAND

"We have reports that Eboli is second in command to Vito Genovese in Cosa Nostra," Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), subcommittee chairman, said yesterday.

For that reason, Eboli will be questioned specifically about reports that he will succeed Genovese as "boss of all bosses" when the 66-year-old czar steps into retirement. Right now, Genovese is serving a 15-year sentence in the Federal Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan.

Senate probes also will ask Eboli to tell all he knows about the disappearance of Anthony "Tony Bender" Strollo from his Fort Lee, N. J. mansion in April, 1962.

Valachi has linked Eboli to Strollo's sudden departure. While testifying before the subcommittee Friday, Valachi said Strollo had been executed on orders from Genovese.

we do not propose to have a parade of hoodlums coming before the committee and taking the Fifth Amendment," Sen. McClellan said yesterday. "It is possible, however, that perhaps on one occasion we might make an exception."

Obviously, Eboli would be that "exception." Which gives some idea of just how important a figure he has become.

OWNS BUSINESS

Suggest to Eboli that he is part and parcel of the underworld, as a Journal-American reporter did recently, and he becomes quite indignant.

"I own a vending machine business in Greenwich Village," he related. "I never was in the underworld. I never was a member of Cosa Nostra (Our Thing). So how could I be a top boss?"

"I will account for my income to anybody—the Justice Department, the Senate Committee, Atty. General Kennedy, or anyone else."

NOT AT HOME

Eboli was not at home at 379 Forest ave. in Englewood Cliffs yesterday. His wife explained he was in New York "on business."

Eboli lost his fight manager's license in New York State after punching and kicking promoter Al Weill in a Madison Square Garden donnybrook on Jan. 11, 1952.

Eboli's outburst came after his fighter, middleweight Rocky Castellani, had been knocked out by Ernie Durando. Eboli pleaded guilty in Special Sessions court to an assault charge and was fined $500.

He later came to public attention when questioned about the still unsolved shooting of gambler Frank Costello May 2, 1957. A bullet creased Costello's skull as he walked into the lobby of his upper West Side apartment.

Valachi testified that Genovese remained the kingpin of crime even while behind bars in Leavenworth, and before that in the Atlanta Federal pen.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.), a member of the investigations sub-committee, was so shocked by Valachi's disclosure of Genovese's dealings within prison walls; that he called for special surveillance of the Cosa Nostra czar to insure that he orders no more murders from Leavenworth.

GENOVESE IN HOSPITAL

Valachi with a Cosa Nostra price of $100,000 on his head, goes back on the witness stand Tuesday. His appearance is expected to be brief because Sen. McClellan has other commitments that will take him away from the Senate caucus hearing room at mid-day. The hearings, however, are expected to take close to four weeks.

Genovese's reign as "the boss of the bosses" in Cosa Nostra may not have long to run.

"He is in the prison hospital," a spokesman at Leavenworth said. "He had a heart condition and high blood pressure. Indications are that he will never be any better."
