NOTE:

[redacted]

I'm sending this as four separate faxes; about the only way I can do this with the fax software on our computer.

This appeared to be a greeting card, which the sender cut into four pieces. The first page I'm sending is the inside left, which had been cut into three pieces. I've assembled them in what I believe is the right order.

The next page will be the inside right of the greeting card, on which the sender had changed the printed greeting, as well as added some comments of his/her own.

I will also send the envelope, which has an address on it, as well as the front side of the greeting card.

[redacted] can be contacted at [redacted]. I can be contacted at that same number until 10:30am, and after 8pm. From 11am-7pm, I am at work at [redacted].

Thanks ever so much for forwarding this information to the proper authorities. Obviously we are both concerned about [redacted] as well as the fact that this person knows our address, and made a threatening reference to the person to whom it was addressed.

Synopsis: Reporting of death threat via US mail to US Senator George Voinovich and releasing of threatening communication to US Secret Service for investigation as writer directed a second threatening communication to [redacted].

Details: On 12/21/2000 [redacted], Offices of US Senator George V. Voinovich, 1240 East Ninth Street, Room 2955, Cleveland, Ohio, telephone [redacted], reported the receipt of a threatening communication directed to US Senator Voinovich received by [redacted], received on 12/20/2000.

b6
b7C

[redacted] was contacted at Senator Voinovich's office and provided a photographic copy of the threatening communication mailed to [redacted], which was furnished to him, [redacted] by [redacted], employed by a local Cleveland radio station. [redacted] advised that [redacted] could be contacted at her [redacted] address in [redacted], telephone number [redacted], and/or [redacted] could be contacted at telephone [redacted].

b6

[redacted] was contacted at her residence, [redacted] telephone [redacted] at which time [redacted] identifying herself as [redacted] to US Senator George V. Voinovich, provided the threatening communication received in the US mail on 12/20/2000. [redacted] advised that she is listed in the public telephone directory and it was her ~~belief~~ that the writer of the threatening communication believed that she may have been the mother of Senator Voinovich. Senator Voinovich's mother, Josephine Voinovich, passed away in 06/1998. [redacted] indicated that the threatening letter had been handled by [redacted] who reside at [redacted] as well as [redacted] who resides at [redacted] telephone [redacted]. [redacted] can be reached at telephone number [redacted]. Additionally, the envelope and contents may have been handled by [redacted] who shares [redacted] address with she, [redacted] and her children. b6 b7C

A review of the threatening communication determined that the threats were sent in a standard greeting card envelope postmarked 12/19/2000 at Cleveland, Ohio and has a stamp affixed to the envelope in an upside down position with the likeness of General Omar N. Bradley. The envelope appears to be hand printed and bears a zip code of 44126-1906 on the envelope. A review of contents indicates the existence of numerous expletives and threats directed to Senator Voinovich, to include the fact that the sender indicates "we will cut off your head and impale it on a spear". The communication bears the verbiage in closing [redacted]. b6 b7C

Same date [redacted] telephone [redacted] was contacted at his church and advised of the receipt of the threatening communication mailed to [redacted] threatening the life of US Senator George V. Voinovich. [redacted] advised that agents of the US Secret Service had also visited him at his church earlier that morning concerning similar threats mailed to [redacted] and directed to the Republican Headquarters on Superior Avenue in Cleveland. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that he obviously was not the individual sending the threatening communication to [redacted] and/or US Senator George V. Voinovich. [redacted] indicated that he has received what appears to be similarly words letters left in the church mail shoot for the past three to four years. [redacted] indicated that the messages left in the church mail are somewhat garbled and the content many times was garbled religious writings and/or condemnation of the church. [redacted] indicated that his church has 900 - 1,000 members who attend on a weekly basis. Additionally, the church serves as a local hunger center in the area. Years earlier the Fairhill Mental Hospital was closed and as a result people who appear to have mental problems appear at the church on a frequent basis. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that the US Secret Service agent provided him with a copy of the threatening communication mailed to [redacted] which once again was signed at the end in his name [redacted]. A comparison of the communication left with [redacted] by the US Secret Service and the note received by [redacted] indicated that there is little doubt that the two communications were sent by the same individual. [redacted] provided the Secret Service Agent's business card, which was that of SA [redacted] US Secret Service, 6100 Rockside Woods Boulevard, Room 440, Independence, Ohio, telephone 216/706-4437. b6 b7C

[redacted] US Capital Police, 119 D. Street Northeast, Room 605, Washington, DC, telephone [redacted], was contacted by the writer, at which time [redacted] was advised of the receipt of the threatening communication by US Senator George V. Voinovich and the sending of a similar communication to [redacted] who is assigned to the Office of Threat and Risk Assessment by the Capital Police, was advised that the Bureau was making efforts to coordinate the investigation relative to the threatening communication received by Voinovich. b6 b7C

Same date US Secret Service SA [redacted] telephone 216/706-4437, was contacted regarding the receipt of the threatening communication by [redacted] directed against US Senator Greg V. Voinovich as well as the investigation conducted at the Open Door Baptist Missionary Church. Writer and SA [redacted] agreed that based on examination of the two letters it appears that the same individual was responsible for sending the materials to each of the victims. Inasmuch as the communications sent to [redacted] at the Republican Headquarters had been handled by a fewer number of people, it was determined that the Voinovich letter would be released to the custody of the US Secret Service for processing along with the communication directed to [redacted] and that the US Secret Service would pursue the investigation relative to letters received by both [redacted] and Senator Voinovich. b6 b7C

[redacted]

[redacted] b6 b7C

It is recommended that a 9A-CV-NEW case be opened in connection with the receipt of the threatening communication by [redacted] containing threats against [redacted] US Senator George Voinovich, and that the investigation be closed at this time in view of the ongoing investigation by the US Secret Service concerning the receipt of a similar letter by [redacted]. b6 b7C

[redacted], date of birth [redacted], [redacted] Social Security Number [redacted], home address [redacted], home telephone number [redacted], cellular telephone number [redacted], was interviewed at his residence. [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the purpose of the interview. [redacted] understood that the interviewing agents were there to speak to him in regards to threatening communications he made towards Senator GEORGE VOINOVICH. [redacted] provided the following information: b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that he has avoided the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for the last three months. [redacted] stated that he was aware that the Cleveland Division of the FBI had an interest in speaking to him, but stated he has not returned calls that were made to him by the FBI and has not made himself available to be interviewed. [redacted] acknowledged making telephone calls to the local office of Senator GEORGE VOINOVICH. [redacted] stated he never threatened Senator VOINOVICH in any way and feels that the call taker may have misinterpreted what he said. [redacted] continued to ramble on about a general conspiracy that he felt that the Government (ie. the FBI, ATF, US Postal Service, Senator VOINOVICH and other federal agencies) was conspiring against him. b6 b7C (1) TJK

[redacted] stated that in 1989 he was terminated from his position as a letter handler with the US Postal Service. [redacted] stated that he has tried to contact Senator VOINOVICH and other members of Congress to see if they would assist him in getting his job back. [redacted] could not recall the exact conversation he had with the members of Senator VOINOVICH's staff, but stated he never recalled threatening to kill the Senator and has no intention of harming the Senator. [redacted] stated he only wants to have a sit down meeting with the Senator and explain his problems and to see if the Senator could help him. In addition, [redacted] also acknowledged sending numerous facsimiles to the FBI, Senator VOINOVICH's office and other federal agencies. b6 b7C

[redacted] was well aware that continuing to make threatening telephone calls or threats via facsimile would be of a criminal nature and would be prosecuted. [redacted] stated that the interviewing agents can rest assured that neither Senator VOINOVICH or the FBI would hear from [redacted] again. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that at no time in his life has he taken any medication for mental disorders. [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that he has never visited Senator VOINOVICH's Cleveland office and he has never traveled to Washington, DC. [redacted] further added that he selected Senator VOINOVICH because he is [redacted] representative to Congress and feels that if anyone could help him out it would be Senator VOINOVICH. b6 b7C

[redacted] reiterated that he would look into getting a civil attorney to handle his situation with the US Postal Service and would not involve Senator VOINOVICH or the FBI. b6 b7C
