May 9, 1974

Sisters and brothers,

Here is PRAIRIE FIRE, our political ideology —a strategy for anti-imperialism and revolution inside the imperial US. It comes out of our own practice of the last five years and reflects a diversity of experiences. This paper is not the product of one or two people, nor even a small handful of us. Rather PRAIRIE FIRE represents the politics and collective efforts of an organization. It has been the focus of our study groups and our political education. It has been chewed on and shaped in countless conversations, struggles and written pages. It has travelled around the country, growing, developing thru the attempt to understand the shape of world forces and the revolutionary possibilities before us. The paper was rewritten four times and collectively adopted as the political statement of the Weather Underground. The twelve-month process of writing PRAIRIE FIRE, squeezed between on-going work and practice and action, has now reached a kind of end-point. A cycle is done.

We undertook this analysis to explain the changes in US and world conditions since the Vietnam ceasefire and to evaluate the consequences of the Vietnamese victory. We have come some distance in evaluating the political situation, the priorities for revolutionary work since we began this writing. Now many more revolutionaries will need to shape and change the paper. The politics cannot be realized unless and until the content of the program is activated in thousands of situations, among thousands of people in the coming period. PRAIRIE FIRE will be a growing thing.

We hope the paper opens a dialectic among those in the mass and clandestine movements; we hope people will take PRAIRIE FIRE as seriously as we do, study the content and write and publish their views of the paper as well as their analysis of their own practice. We will respond as best we can.

Our movement urgently needs a concrete analysis of the particular conditions of our time and place. We need strategy. We need to battle for a correct ideology and win people over. In this way we create the conditions for the development of a successful revolutionary movement and party. We need a revolutionary communist party in order to lead the struggle, give coherence and direction to the fight, seize power and build the new society. Getting from here to there is a process of coming together in a disciplined way around ideology and strategy, developing an analysis of our real conditions, mobilizing a base among the US people, building principled relationships to Third World struggle, and accumulating practice in struggle against US imperialism.

CONFIDENTIAL

PRAIRIE FIRE is written to communist-minded people, independent organizers and anti-imperialists; those who carry the traditions and lessons of the struggles of the last decade, those who join in the struggles of today. PRAIRIE FIRE is written to all sisters and brothers who are engaged in armed struggle against the enemy. It is written to prisoners, women's groups, collectives, study groups, workers' organizing committees, communes, GI organizers, consciousness-raising groups, veterans, community groups and revolutionaries of all kinds; to all who will read, criticize and bring its content to life in practice. It is written as an argument against those who oppose action and hold back the struggle.

PRAIRIE FIRE is based on a belief that the duty of a revolutionary is to make the revolution. This is not an abstraction. It means that revolutionaries must make a profound commitment to the future of humanity, apply our limited knowledge and experience to understand an ever-changing situation, organize the masses of people and build the fight. It means that struggle and risk and hard work and adversity will become a way of life, that the only certainty will be constant change, that the only possibilities are victory or death.

We have only begun. At this time, the unity and consolidation of anti-imperialist forces around a revolutionary program is an urgent and pressing strategic necessity. PRAIRIE FIRE is offered as a contribution to this unity of action and purpose. Now it is in your hands.

By airtel dated 7/15/74, captioned, "WEATHERMAN, IS - WEATHERMAN (MISSING.NON-FUGITIVE SUBJECTS), (OO: Chicago)", the Portland office advised that CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF was recently discovered in Eugene, Oregon. He recently purchased 6,000 pounds of paper in Portland and transported it to Eugene. The paper was paid for by personal check for $1,800.00. VAN LYDEGRAF's activities have centered around the Jack Rabbit Press, a Eugene printing establishment for movement printing.

VAN LYDEGRAF's background and history of underground activities appears in the Weatherman Album. Recent investigation reveals VAN LYDEGRAF was in the Los Angeles - San Diego, California area in March 1974, Indiana, Nebraska, and Iowa in April 1974, and New York City in May 1974. b6 b7C

[redacted] using the deceased infant identity of [redacted], was in Los Angeles area March 1974, New Mexico in March 1974, and New York City in April and May 1974.

For offices not yet aware, TIMOTHY FRANCIS LEARY, JR. is cooperating with the FBI at Los Angeles regarding his escape from jail and all related aspects of his subsequent travel out of the United States. LEARY has involved VAN LYDEGRAF, [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], and two San Francisco attorneys in his escape from the California Men's Colony (CMC), San Louis Obispo, California in September 1970. b6 b7C

It appears likely that VAN LYDEGRAF is colsely associated at this time with Weathfugs [redacted] and [redacted] and non-fugitive [redacted]. VAN LYDEGRAF's involvement in 1970 with LEARY's escape, his recent travel to the East coast at the same time as [redacted], and his purchase of 6,000 pounds of paper, appear to be more than coincidence and he is probably involved in distribution of this book. b6 b7C

LA 176-189B

LEADS:

All recipient offices should alert sources familiar with underground news outlets and radical bookstores to the possible appearance of "Prairie Fire" in their divisions. Sources should attempt to determine how the books are being distributed and the point of origin of any shipments. Offices locating copies of this book should alert the Bureau, Chicago, and interested offices.

PORTLAND

AT EUGENE, OREGON: (1) Will attempt to obtain a sample of the paper recently purchased by VAN LYDEGRAF and forward to the Laboratory for comparison with copies of the book furnished by Boston in an attempt to determine whether the book is being printed at Eugene.

(2) Will, if above can not be accomplished, attempt to develop sources which can identify contents of shipments from the Jack Rabbit Press.

LOS ANGELES

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA: Will direct [redacted] b7D (EXTREMIST) to attempt to determine additional sources of the book in Los Angeles and determine their supplier.

CAUTION: WEATHERMAN CONSIDERED DANGEROUS.

Re Seattle airtel, dated 7/30/74, requesting San Francisco to advise of significance of 106 Pine Street, San Francisco, California, appearing on wall of [redacted] Washington farmhouse occupied by [redacted] b6 b7C 106 Pine Street, San Francisco, is a non-existent address since the 21-story Pacific Insurance Building at 100 Pine Street has occupied the block since 1971. Prior to 1971, smaller office buildings occupied the block but no address of 106 was used. The tenants of the 21-story building are primarily major insurance companies and prior to 1971, tenants were food brokers and insurance companies.

It should be noted that in 1971, Weathfug subjects [redacted] et al, occupied an apartment at [redacted] and 106 Pine Street may be a type of Weatherman code. b6 b7C

Result of examination:

The handwriting on Q15 is not sufficiently comparable in letters and letter combinations with the [redacted] signature on Q2 to permit a definite determination whether the writer of the Q15 signature signed Q2, previously received in connection with this case. b6 b7C

Because of characteristics in the Q15 handwriting and hand printing and Q2 signature which are not found in specimen K1, it was not determined whether the person or persons who prepared K1 also prepared Q15 and the [redacted] signature on Q2. b6 b7C

The Identification Division advised no fingerprint card was located under the name [redacted]."

The evidence was photographed. Specimen Q15 will be returned to Chicago separately. Specimen K1 is attached to copies of this report for New York. The items which were ALSO SUBMITTED by New York will be returned separately.

A search of Q15 in the National Security File (NSF) disclosed hand printing similarities with previous documents submitted in connection with WEATHFUG in the name '[redacted]" There are not enough comparable letters common to Q15 and the [redacted] documents to permit a definite determination, but a number of similarities indicate the person who prepared Q15 probably prepared hand printing in WEATHFUG in the name of [redacted] b6 b7C

It is believed the purported handwriting and hand printing of [redacted] on Item 108, received from New York with airtel dated 4/20/74 in WEATHFUG, and the K1 hand printing are of sufficiently questionable authenticity that further efforts should be made to obtain hand printing exemplars which are of less questionable authenticity. While the [redacted] signatures may have been written by [redacted] they are of little or no value for comparison with the [redacted] and [redacted] writings. b6 b7C

BUREAU AND RECEIVING OFFICES, IS REFERENCE TO LEARY ALLEGING THAT SAN FRANCISCO INVESTIGATIVE REPORTER DAVID MC QUEEN, EMPLOYED BY RADIO STATION KSAN, PROVIDES A POSSIBLE EXPLANATION OF LEARY'S RECENT ACTIVITIES. ACCORDING TO ARTICLE, MC QUEEN, IN A BROADCAST REPORT, CLAIMED THAT "LAST WEEK LEARY'S WIFE, JOANNA, AND 'FIVE STRAIGHT-LOOKING DUDES' REMOVED LEARY'S ENTIRE SET OF FILES AND DOCUMENTS FROM THE OFFICES OF SAN FRANCISCO ARCHIVIST [redacted]." ARTICLE STATES FURTHER "JOANNA APPARENTLY PRODUCED A LETTER FROM LEARY STATING THAT THE FILES COULD BE REMOVED". b6 b7C

ACCORDING TO MC QUEEN'S NEWSCAST "LEARY'S FRIENDS ARE WORRIED AND ARE SPECULATING THAT LEARY MAY HAVE MADE A DEAL FOR THE RELEASE OF HIS PAPERS, AND THAT THE PAPERS MAY NOW IN FACT BE IN THE HANDS OF AUTHORITIES".

THE AUGUST 12, 1974 ISSUE OF NEWSWEEK MAGAZINE, PAGE 17, CARRIES SHORT ARTICLE ENTITLED "A GURU SWITCHES" SUGGESTING LEARY, "..THE ONE TIME HARVARD PROFESSOR WHO BECAME A GURU OF THE 1960'S COUNTER-CULTURE IS CHANTING A DIFFERENT TUNE. ACCORDING TO CALIFORNIA LAWMEN, HE IS WORKING WITH THE FBI ON SEVERAL BUREAU INVESTIGATIONS". COPIES OF ARTICLE ARE LIKEWISE BEING REPRODUCED FOR SUBMISSION TO BUREAU AND INTERESTED OFFICES. RE CHICAGO AIRTEL POINTS OUT PRESS WAS UNAWARE OF LEARY'S COOPERATION (AS OF JULY 12, 1974) AND SUGGESTED DISCREET INVESTIGATION. FOR INFO OF BUREAU AND CHICAGO THE "CALIFORNIA LAWMEN" MENTIONED IN NEWSWEEK ARTICLE, SUPRA, IS UNDOUBTEDLY VEILED REFERENCE TO [redacted] WHO HAS COMPLAINED OF REMOVAL OF LEARY'S FILES FROM HIS POSSESSION. LOS ANGELES HAS ENDEAVORED TO ASCERTAIN IF ANY LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITIES HAVE DISCUSSED LEARY'S COOPERATION WITH THE NEWS MEDIA REPRESENTATIVES AND NONE HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED. b6 b7C

WITH RESPECT TO INFO SET FORTH IN RE CHICAGO NITEL OF AUGUST 6, 1974, RE LEARY'S CONCERN FOR THE SAFETY OF JOANNA LEARY AND ALLEGED ASSURANCES OF ORANGE COUNTY DRUG TASK FORCE AND DRUG ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION (DEA) REPRESENTATIVES, FOLLOWING BEING SET FORTH:

LOS ANGELES DIV HAS BEEN ADVISED BY JOANNA LEARY THAT ORANGE COUNTY AUTHORITIES PROMISED TO AFFORD HER NECESSARY PROTECTION AT SUCH TIME AS [redacted] WAS ARRESTED. [redacted] CURRENTLY REPRESENTING CLIENT IN CASE IN COURT IN LAS VEGAS, NEVADA. HIS ARREST WILL BE EFFECTED UPON HIS RETURN TO CALIF. AT PRESENT TIME, THERE IS NO APPARENT CAUSE FOR CONCERN OF SAFETY AND WELFARE OF JOANNA LEARY. ORANGE COUNTY DA'S INVESTIGATOR [redacted] ADVISED SA R. J. LA JEUNESSE JR. THAT HIS OFFICE IS PREPARED TO AFFORD APPROPRIATE PROTECTION FOR JOANNA LEARY WHEN NECESSARY. b6 b7C

ON AUGUST 1, 1974, SA LA JEUNESSE, WHILE ESCORTING JOANNA LEARY TO ORANGE COUNTY AIRPORT FROM QUEEN MARY HOTEL, LONG BEACH, CALIF.,

WHERE SHE HAD BEEN STAYING PREPARATORY TO FLYING TO SAN FRANCISCO FOR CONTACT WITH ATTORNEY JOE RHINE, WAS CAUTIONED STERNLY ABOUT HER FLAMBOYANT CONDUCT. SHE WAS INSTRUCTED THAT WHEN TIM LEARY WAS MOVED TO ANOTHER FACILITY, SURROUNDINGS AND COMMUNITY STANDARDS WOULD BE QUITE DIFFERENT FROM URBAN AREAS OF LOS ANGELES AND SAN FRANCISCO. SHE WAS NOT, REPEAT NOT, ADVISED ON AUGUST 1, 1974, THAT LEARY WOULD BE LEAVING THE FEDERAL CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTE, TERMINAL ISLAND (FCI-TI), CALIF., NOR WAS SHE TOLD HIS DESTINATION SINCE SAME WAS NOT THEN KNOWN TO SA LA JEUNESSE. SHE WAS TOLD WHEN HE WAS RELOCATED SHE WOULD BE ADVISED OF HIS WHEREABOUTS AND IF SHE DESIRED COULD MAKE PERSONAL PLANS TO JOURNEY TO AREA NEAR FACILITY WHERE SHE COULD VISIT WITH HIM. UPON HER RETURN FROM SAN FRANCISCO, AUGUST 1, 1974, AFTER MEETING WITH RHINE, SHE VISITED LEARY AT FCI-TI. NEITHER TIM LEARY NOR JOANNA LEARY WERE TOLD OF HIS IMPENDING TRANSFER ON MORNING OF AUGUST 2, 1974.

APPROXIMATELY 12:30 PM, AUGUST 2, 1974, JOANNA LEARY WAS TELEPHONICALLY ADVISED BY SA LA JEUNESSE THAT LEARY HAD BEEN MOVED FROM FCI-TI. SHE IMMEDIATELY DEMANDED TO KNOW HIS WHEREABOUTS STATING SHE INTENDED TO FLY TO JOIN HIM. IT WAS EXPLAINED TO HER LEARY HAD NOT YET BEEN SETTLED IN NEW FACILITY AND HIS WHEREABOUTS COULD NOT BE DIVULGED FOR SECURITY REASONS AND HIS PROTECTION. TELEPHONE DISCUSSION DETERIORATED WHEN JOANNA LEARY REFUSED TO ACCEPT EXPLANATION GIVEN HER AND FURTHER DISCUSSION WAS DISCONTINUED.

ON AUGUST 3, 1974, SA [redacted], DEA, LOS ANGELES, TELEPHONICALLY ADVISED HE LEARNED IN TELEPHONE DISCUSSION WITH JOANNA LEARY ON AUGUST 2, 1974, SHE HAD RECEIVED LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE CALL FROM DENNIS MARTINO, AUGUST 2, 1974, FROM BOGOTA, COLUMBIA. DURING THAT CONVERSATION SHE ADVISED MARTINO THAT TIMOTHY LEARY HAD BEEN MOVED FROM FCI-TI. b6 b7C

ON AUGUST 5, 1974, JOANNA LEARY AGAIN TELEPHONED SA LA JEUNESSE DESIRING TO KNOW THE WHEREABOUTS OF TIMOTHY LEARY. INFO WAS NOT FURNISHED TO HER AND SHE STATED SHE PLANNED TO FLY TO LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, TO MEET WITH JOHN D'AMECOURT, HER ESTRANGED HUSBAND, WHO CURRENTLY RESIDES IN WASHINGTON D.C. BOTH ARE AMENABLE TO DIVORCE AND D'AMECOURT APPARENTLY AGREED TO JOIN HER IN LAS VEGAS TO SIGN NECESSARY PAPERS FOR DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS.

FOR INFO OF BUREAU AND CHICAGO, D'AMECOURT PREVIOUSLY DESCRIBED BY BOTH TIMOTHY AND JOANNA LEARY AS RESIDING 2146 WYOMING AVENUE, NORTHWEST WASHINGTON D.C. (TELEPHONE 202-332-2963). HE IS THE SON OF GERTRUDE D'AMECOURT, REPUTED TO BE CLOSE FRIEND OF SENATOR KEATING. JOHN D'AMECOURT ALSO FORMER "ASSISTANT" TO AN UNKNOWN NEW JERSEY CONGRESSMAN. D'AMECOURT WAS ALSO REPRESENTING TIMOTHY LEARY IN LATTER'S LITERARY EFFORTS.

JOANNA LEARY DEPARTED FOR LAS VEGAS AUGUST 5, 1974, AND CONTINUED TO TELEPHONE SA [redacted] FREQUENTLY. b6 b7C

ON AUGUST 6, 1974, HE ADVISED HER OF WHEREABOUTS OF LEARY AND SUGGESTED SHE CONTACT [redacted], SANDSTONE FEDERAL PRISON, MINNESOTA, UPON HER ARRIVAL IN MINNEAPOLIS OR BEFORE HER DEPARTURE FROM CALIFORNIA. b6 b7C

FOR ADDITIONAL INFO OF BUREAU AND CHICAGO, LEARY HAS PREVIOUSLY SUGGESTED HE MIGHT DESIRE ATTORNEY TO REPRESENT HIS INTERESTS AND TO ACT AS LINE OF COMMUNICATION BETWEEN HIM AND GOVERNMENT. HE DESIRED THE NAME OF COMPETENT ATTORNEY BE SUGGESTED TO HIM BY EITHER [redacted] OR SA LA JEUNESSE. BOTH DECLINED EXPLAINING THEY WERE PRECLUDED FROM DOING SO. LATEST DISCUSSION RE FOREGOING TOOK PLACE JULY 26, 1974 AT FCI-TI WITH LEARY. ON THAT OCCASION HE ALSO SUGGESTED JOANNA LEARY TRAVEL TO SOUTH COAST OF SPAIN FOR THREE TO FOUR WEEK REST WITH HER MOTHER THEREBY AFFORDING HER RELEASE FROM "PRESSURES" AND UNTIL SUCH TIME AS HE COULD BE RELOCATED.

RE CHICAGO TEL SUGGESTED POSSIBILITY OTHER PROSECUTION MAY OCCUR IN USA, LOS ANGELES, JURISDICTION UNDER ACCESSORY AFTER THE FACT OR ESCAPE AND RESCUE STATUTES. LOS ANGELES DIV PREVIOUSLY SUGGESTED FOREGOING AS POSSIBILITY TO BUREAU AND CHICAGO AS WELL AS TO DEPARTMENTAL [redacted], LATTER ADVISED DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE WAS RESEARCHING POSSIBILITIES. b6 b7C

LA 100-76342

LOS ANGELES HAS FURNISHED TO CHICAGO LEARY'S PAPERS OBTAINED FROM DEA WHICH WERE EXAMINED BY SAS [redacted] AND SA [redacted] [redacted] WITH ASSISTANCE OF SA LA JEUNESSE. SA [redacted] DEA, ADVISED AUGUST 9, 1974, VIDEO TAPE OF LEARY'S INTERVIEW BEING REPRODUCED AND COPY WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE TO BUREAU. TEXT MATERIAL DOES NOT DEAL WITH INFO RE LEARY'S ESCAPE - ONLY WITH HIS PHILOSOPHICAL VIEW OF DRUGS, ETC. DEA HAS FURNISHED TO LOS ANGELES DIV ALL MATERIAL PREVIOUSLY IN THEIR POSSESSION RE LEARY'S PAPERS AND DOCUMENTS.

TIMOTHY FRANCIS LEARY, JR. was interviewed at the Office of the California Department of Corrections, 3415 Fletcher Avenue, Suite 201. Also present at the beginning of the interview was [redacted], a Special Agent of the California Department of Corrections. b6 b7C

The interview commenced at 10:16 a.m. at which time Special Agent R. J. LA JEUNESSE, JR. presented Mr. LEARY a form entitled, "Interrogation; Advice of Rights". After reading the form LEARY signed the Waiver of Rights section of the form and the interview commenced.

Interviewing Agent personnel had in their possession considerable papers, documents, correspondence and other memorabilia belonging to LEARY which had been obtained on July 16, 1974, from personnel of the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), Los Angeles, California.

One of the items located among the papers in a folder was a letter on blue stationery directed to "TIMOTHY LEARY, Le Dauphin Number One, Villars SVR - Orlon, Switzerland." It bears the return address of "KENNEDY, 21A Warwick Avenue, London W. 9, England." Upon examining this letter LEARY identified it as one sent to him in November 1971, from ELEANOR and MICHAEL KENNEDY. The contents of the letter are as follows:

"Brother Timothy - We are regally ensconced in a cottage on Galway Bay. Ireland is perfect in all ways. Glorious sights and the best of people.

"We will live here some day. May be soon. We still plan to come to Switzerland for Christmas. Let us know C/O Simon whether this is okay or not. Also let us know what your plans are.

"You may be contacted by friends of one of our dearest Paris friends for an interview. [redacted] are friends of [redacted] is Fantastic - friends of hers could be good people. You should find b6 b7C the whole thing interesting. Right. Right.

"Love,

Eleanor and Michael."

LEARY identified the author of the letter as ELEANOR KENNEDY, wife of MICHAEL KENNEDY, a San Francisco, California attorney, about whom he previously furnished information regarding KENNEDY's assistance in LEARY's escape from prison in 1970.

With respect to the above described letter LEARY explained it was directed to him while he was living in Switzerland following his escape in the California Prison System in 1970.

As best he can now recall the letter followed a personal visit to him made by the KENNEDYs when LEARY was living in Villars, V.D., Switzerland, probably in late September or early October 1971.

Another communication located among the LEARY documents is a cablegram bearing a dated stamp of "Central Telegraphique Alger" with the numbers "2-2- 1971." The text of the cablegram went to LEARY under the name of Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM MC NELLIS CHEZ, Ait Kacimi 6th Etage, Apartment A/B7, Rue Lafayette Algiers (Algeria) is as follows:

> "If you are in trouble or need help have just heard tape from oer there for anyone waiting wondering watu happen contact us if you need assistance through Michael.
> "[redacted]."

b6
b7C

LEARY identified the cablegram as being directed to him and identified [redacted] as a dope dealer from Orange County and San Francisco. The "MICHAEL" mentioned in the cablegram, according to LEARY, is MICHAEL KENNEDY.

LEARY was questioned concerning his marriage to the former ROSEMARY WOODRUFF. He explained they were married December 12, 1968, at the estate of BILLY HITCHCOCK in Millbrook, Dutchess County, New York. Present as a legal witness to the marriage was HITCHCOCK's sister, MARGARET MELLON HITCHCOCK. Also present at the wedding were numerous other people. LEARY stated the marriage was performed by [redacted] and ordain minister of "some Hindusect" which he recalls was named "[redacted]". b6 b7C

LEARY considers the marriage to have been a legal one and that it should have been recorded in Albany, New York. He stated he recalls getting the license for the marriage in the town hall in Millbrook, New York. The former MARY MELLON HITCHCOCK is now married to WALTER BOWARD and they are living in Tucson, Arizona.

LEARY explained that he and ROSEMARY WOODRUFF was subsequently remarried on several other occasions in different marital rites none of which was legally recorded.

With respect to [redacted], about whom LEARY previously furnished information, the following was set forth by him: b6 b7C

Subsequent to LEARY's arrival in Switzerland and to the best of his knowledge in September 1971, [redacted] and his wife [redacted], visited with he and ROSEMARY when LEARY was living in the village of Villars, Switzerland. As best as he could recall the [redacted] were on vacation and visited LEARY on that trip. LEARY has no recollection of any specific discussions he had with the [redacted] regarding his, LEARY's, escape from prison. He explained, however, that it was a favorite question of his to inquire of people as to their whereabouts on September 12, 1970, the date LEARY effected his escape. LEARY explained, "My memory was that he was extremely friendly and supportive" in a discussion which they probably had regarding LEARY's escape. Further, LEARY has b6 b7C

no knowledge that [redacted] had any knowledge or participation in LEARY's escape prior to the time the escape occurred. Likewise, LEARY has no knowledge that [redacted] contributed financially to the escape attempt. LEARY could not recall any specific comments made by him to [redacted] or by [redacted] to him in Switzerland in 1971, which would lead LEARY to believe that [redacted] had any part of his escape from prison. b6 b7C

It is noted that during the period from 4/22/70 up to LEARY's escape numerous letters were selected by LEARY reflecting meetings between ROSEMARY IEARY with MICHAEL KENNEDY and JOSEPH RHINE. The letters do not reflect any specific conversations regarding the escape, however LEARY felt that they did show the unusual frequency of contact between his wife, ROSEMARY, and his attornies. As bank records in San Francisco area are not centralized, further investigation to locate accounts of RHINE and LEARY's is not being considered at this time.

Chicago is requested to consider interview of TIMOTHY LEARY regarding location of his bank accounts.

Knock at door

FEMALE: Hi.

MALE: Hi. How are you?

FEMALE: Fine

MALE: (inaudible)

FEMALE: Come right in. Nice to see you. Well, I have a problem. I think (inaudible). Sit down.

MALE: (sits down)

FEMALE: Number one, um, thanks for coming.

MALE: Your welcome.

FEMALE: Number 2 is, uh, TIMOTHY and I wanted to know, and, um, it's very important, it seems to be very important to his release, you know, (inaudible), we want to get married, there's, uh, okay, different world, different time, different places (inaudible) divorce just the opposite of our (inaudible) so, um, here's this here, which are divorce papers, uh, in (inaudible) you can get a divorce if the other person, uh, the other person doesn't have to be pregnant, all they have to do is, um, sign the papers, and then we can, you can get, like, you know, like it used to be in Mexico, uh huh, so if there is anyway you could get that through to her, and maybe also what kind of arrangements she wants, um, you know, I want to give her some money, etc., that I want to know, you know, I want to know what she would be willing to settle for.

MALE: True.

FEMALE: And, uh, she will have to do that as quick as possible. And, um, that would be leading the way, I wouldn't I wouldn't be doing that too, with my husband, you know, (inaudible) and then we could get divorced there and (inaudible).

MALE: (inaudible)

FEMALE: Okay, um, (inaudible) identical to something that is very heavy to explain over the phone, uh, you know my house was robbed, I know that you were in the hospital I don't know if you read that in the newspaper

MALE: No, uh, MICHAEL said something about it at one point.

FEMALE: He explained to you?

MALE: He said that there had been a burglary or something, you know.

FEMALE: Yeah. My house was robbed, but I know that people I knew would help me cuz he said that I knew that I had quite a large sum of money, (inaudible) so while I was in Los Angeles, uh, they broke into the house and they stole like everything out of the house, like more than stealing my mink coat and the stereo and stuff like that, they stole my notebooks and a considerable amount of tapes. Uh, in one way for me is knowing is cuz, uh, I was, you know, taping some conversations and (inaudible) telephone away, you know, but, whats happening for an unsolved case with a tape that TIMOTHY and I had done in Vienna at the point where, you know, we talked like we might be separated and we didn't know what was gonna happen. I had checked the copy of that tape in the safe deposit box, the original copy, and I made a copy of it. Uh, that tape was stolen. Uh, I've been since then, uh, I've been to the city and realized that they have charged this what they call extortion of a secret. (inaudible) they will charge you with extortion of a secret they can expose the secret in court. Now, uh, a copy of these tapes followed me in the property that they recovered. I, I, um, helped to recover some of the property when they needed, they called me, people who stole the stuff called me, uh, just after I came back from Paris (inaudible) $20,000 (inaudible).

FEMALE: (inaudible) Yeah, the tape, you know, but, what's on the tape they had it, so um (static) $20,000 and we'll give you back your stuff, so I said, I, you know, I didn't think that uh, I didn't think [inaudible) at that moment. And uh (inaudible) called some people himself, so now I saw th~~at that~~ tape wasn't in the stuff that the Police had recovered and that when your stuff is stolen, nothing happens. Either, you know, they just tell you burglary and they don't look through your papers and listen to your tapes, um,

MALE: Except for who, you and TIM would probably be true.

FEMALE: Right. So, still we'er hoping, you know, that tapes not in there. Then return it for the offense of blackmailing, say okay, that they are incriminating several tapes, especially one tape is very incriminating to your friend so um he told that to KEN, he told that to me, I mean not to personally me, but through the DA.

MALE: Who is the attorney? Do you know?

FEMALE: He's called VINCE [inaudible]. So it came to a point where it became such a nightmare pertaining to me cause, you know, okay, [inaudible] student and you had a lot of tapes made, whatever it was, that's what MICHAEL said, but you can imagine what, that's what I want, I want you to listen to the tape. Uh, you, in a place where quiet before, like, next year, next June, for a few days, and what I want you to do is listen to the tape very carefully. Actually, I feel quality, you know, not having got rid of it when I realized I was separated, you know, when I realized we were not gonna use it, but, you know, I kept it and I always figured, you know, I need it. I'm sorry about it, I really am, but, you know, I didn't destroy it, and I made copies. I mean, you know, it's my fault, but I don't know, we don't know what to do now, because um, whatever, you know, it's gonna be.

MALE: Well, what are they asking you to do? What are these people asking you to do? Pay them money, or drop the charges, or FEMALE: Well, they want me to drop the charges, but the State doesn't want to drop the charges.

MALE: Um.

FEMALE: [inaudible].

Tape Playing

MALE: I am sending a message, giving a message to my friends regarding the situation we are in now and, uh, some of the things that happened in the last two years. Today is December 2....

FEMALE: 29th.

MALE: 29th, 1972. The place is the (inaudible) hotel in Vienna. At the present time, JOANNE and I are mainly in a very vunerable and dangerous position. We may have wandered into a trap by coming to Vienna, so I'm not making this position which may or may not be necessary, but, uh, I think we better have it on tape. The last month in Switzerland, uh, increasingly a lot of pressure, uh, came on me there. Some of it came from [inaudible], uh, whom I believe is a U.S. Government agent. Some of this came from my lawyer there [redacted] [inaudible], who is a [inaudible]. Um, about two weeks ago, the Police came to my house when I was not there, just to search around, something they had never done before, and, uh, two days later, um, some friends of mine were in my car [inaudible] stopped and questioned by the Police. Now, this has got to be pressure put on me and MICHELE said [inaudible] sister. Now JOANNA and I were inside [inaudible] for Christmass at that time we were in touch with a Vienna film director and he said he would [inaudible] to piano. Now, I was pretty touched with the Viennese Government. The Russian Government [inaudible] SMITH [inaudible] American [inaudible] and he is definitely some sort of CI Agent. He (inaudible) and arranged for my company here. Now, I met [inaudible] SMITH through a man named [inaudible].

b6
b7C
b7D

FEMALE: [inaudible]

MALE: Yeah. He claims to be a reporter and freelance writer when he first got kicked out of Czechoslovakia around the time this guy [inaudible] he had been accussed of being a CI Agent, and he came to Switzerland and he travelled with me for three days to all my houses in Switzerland, now I was [inaudible] later I found out [inaudible] and he was in touch with SMITH [inaudible] in touch with [inaudible]

FEMALE: That's why he called up Vienna.

MALE: Well he lives in Vienna.

FEMALE: Oh,

MALE: Now the, uh, the Viennese [inaudible] wrote me a letter in November, and it concerned [inaudible] it was okay for me to come to order several things that had happened to me [telephone ringing on tape]. First name was RENEE [phonetic] to last years [inaudible] records [inaudible]. First night of the hearing he warned us that the [inaudible] is an agency, you know, you got to [inaudible] them for money. These men took us yesterday to a lawyer, her name was [redacted] What's the first name? b6 b7C

FEMALE: [redacted] b6 b7C

MALE: [redacted], and she was extremely objective of our intentions. And, uh, she said don't trust [inaudible] raise [inaudible] the agency Russia and America. To please the Americans without hurting the Russians, very likely to do, and she gave us no insurance that we could trust the Russian Government. Now the episode with the [inaudible] which [inaudible]

FEMALE: [inaudible]

MALE: Uh, uh, he was like [inaudible] and said that I fought the [inaudible] and that I was to choose deep politicizing and [inaudible] general [inaudible] that there was a dangerous situation there.

FEMALE: Yeah.

MALE: I became good at it [inaudible]

MALE: [listening to tape] when was TIM arrested?

FEMALE: [listening to tape] The first of January.

MALE: About three weeks after that?

FEMALE: Yes.

MALE: [on tape] [inaudible] Yugoslavia, but um, they got the highest amount and [inaudible] and then, uh, with the man that stole [inaudible] book.

FEMALE: [inaudible]

MALE: Yeah, he stole [inaudible] book, the night [inaudible] had a [inaudible] showing provoked a physical fight with the [inaudible] tremendous episode of drunkeness I don't believe they were drunk at all, and I don't believe that the thing was impulsive, I think it was FEMALE: I think it's horrible.

MALE: I think the [inaudible] ascertaining it was the impression on this [redacted] [phonetic]. Now in it is a injury [inaudible] tape before we decide what we are going to do tonight, so if anything happens to me, either in Europe or in the United States, JOANNA will be able to fight for him, and [inaudible] where friends are and, uh, these are my serious [inaudible] as to who can be trusted in the United States is very very general, because, um, there are people who will pretend to be your friends in case I'm on the sidelines. Now, I think I'll talk about Switzerland. I like the [inaudible] in Switzerland generally anyone in Switzerland is okay, it's a good country [inaudible], my lawyer in Switzerland now is from Missouri, can be trusted [inaudible]. Uh, [redacted] then, uh, [redacted] from Missouri, [redacted] from Missouri. b6 b7C

FEMALE: Okay, now

MALE: [inaudible] and it [inaudible]

FEMALE: That's [redacted]. b6 b7C

MALE: [inaudible]

FEMALE: I know him.

MALE: Yeah, he's a, uh, friend. Now the enemies in Switzerland are of course MICHAEL, I know the CIA, [inaudible] is MICHAEL's partner. [inaudible] and the [inaudible] in Switzerland [inaudible]. Now France uh, the [inaudible] trust is some.

FEMALE: Oh,

MALE: Yeah. He's got to be a Government agent and he is the one that got me the [inaudible] and sold me on [redacted] [phonetic]. b6 b7C

FEMALE: Oh.

MALE: No, but just the case. I want to talk about Algeria. I have figured Algeria to be [inaudible] and she's extremely [inaudible] she's okay. Now the important methods I can't get from the United States is [inaudible] operations is CIA operation. You either get it, or it's being used. Now there are two people that may incline and [inaudible] who are provoking CLEAVER to fight them. And they are starting [inaudible] CLEAVER had been told that the [inaudible] was brought on by these people. I was working through [redacted] um, [inaudible] but, uh, I [inaudible] lie about this operation because operating ambassador [inaudible] is uh, using CLEAVER and doing CLEAVER to pronounce the general thing here is the black liberation army people. They are all [inaudible] agents that don't trust the [inaudible]. b6 b7C

FEMALE: Against the what?

MALE: [inaudible] very filtrated as a matter of fact, don't trust any politicals of the United States, any militants except for the Weatherman.

FEMALE: Weatherman?

MALE: Yeah.

FEMALE: Yeah, I heard about them.

MALE: Now, uh, to to [inaudible]

FEMALE: Yeah.

MALE: Now, you will be contacted by American Standard employee [inaudible] against, uh, against your own husband and bet his a crook. The kind of crook that, uh, lives [inaudible] people and, uh, stays away from people. As in [inaudible] was the editor of [inaudible].

FEMALE: [inaudible]

MALE: I want you to keep these names so that any kind of [inaudible] statement, you better make notes of this.

Uh, you know BILLY HITCHCOCK?

FEMALE: Yeah, I do, he's a friend of my sister's

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: So that, uh, just keep enough to rise [inaudible] your position. [inaudible] the crook, your friendly crook, he's a nice guy, but, uh, don't trust him, Uh, you know BILLY HITCHCOCK?

FEMALE: Yeah, I do, he's a friend of my sister's

MALE: BILLY's friendly, he's weak, he's selfish, nice guy, he might give you a little money, but you can't count on it. And also, uh

MALE: [listening to tape] I'd say that's true, that's been born now.

MALE: [on tape] BILLY's gonna ask me to put [inaudible] people many of them homosexuals who are totally, totally dangerous.

FEMALE: [inaudible]

MALE: Yeah, but, a man needs, sure, a man named [inaudible] in Berkeley, he also is working for the stay away from all such people.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: It really is a scarey situation. Now that's all the bad news, now the good news.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: Okay, the keeper [inaudible] Government of the United States is a man named MICHAEL KENNEDY.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: He lives in San Francisco, he's married to a beautiful woman named ELEANOR, and she knows everything that he does, they work together, and, uh, he could be president [inaudible] was a master mind [inaudible] for prison. He's in liaison with the Weatherman, he's the above ground, most of the Weatherman are underground.

FEMALE: Are the Weatherman involved in the [inaudible].

MALE: Well, he didn't have any

MALE: [listening to tape] Can make nice headlines.

FEMALE: [listening to tape] Yeah.

MALE: [on tape] Now, you probably expect me [inaudible] United States I want you to FEMALE: I'm gonna go anywhere you go.

MALE: Hey ..... You'll be in danger for the time the Police [inaudible] group of people I know very well, they could set you up and try to get you kicked out of the country and it may be necessary to to underground.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: [listening to tape] I don't think those guys are doing to well.

MALE: [on tape] um, um, [inaudible] friends.

FEMALE: How will I recognize them.

MALE: [inaudible]

FEMALE: [inaudible]

MALE: No [inaudible]

FEMALE: Okay [inaudible]

MALE: Yeah. Okay, yeah, yeah

FEMALE: Yeah, I just

MALE: [inaudible] huh.

FEMALE: Yeah.

MALE: Yeah. There's nothing happening.

FEMALE: Yeah, alright.

MALE: Uh, okay, uh, main thing you should do is go to San Francisco.

FEMALE: Yeah.

MALE: [inaudible] the number is in my address book, you know, you know where it is, but, where you can get in at the [inaudible] at San Francisco, it's 2420 9th Street [ph], usually theres gates. Now, if KENNEDY himself is under a lot of, uh, pressure, grand jury and [inaudible] he may not be around. If that happenes, contact a man named JOE REHONE, who is his partner.

FEMALE: JOE REHONE.

MALE: Yeah.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: Yeah, R-E-H-O-N-E.

FEMALE: [inaudible] will JOE REHONE be [inaudible]?

MALE: He came to the prison the day before [inaudible] he gave me, he also contacted the Weatherman, yeah, so these two people can be trusted and I don't know his wife, I think she can be trusted [inaudible] and do not trust any hippies any yippies, any people who say they are with the [inaudible] or they are with the brotherhood. There's lots of people running around claiming they are with the Weatherman, don't trust anyone that isn't endorsed by KENNEDY, REHONE or a man named MICHAEL RANDAL.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: Now, RANDAL is for the, the head of what is called the brotherhood and don't trust like [inaudible] he's an opportunist, he's not a deliver agent, he's a [inaudible[agent.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: People like JERRY [inaudible] now he's, you know?

FEMALE: No.

MALE: Well, alright, just don't trust anybody that hasn't been endorsed by KENNEDY or REHONE or RANDALL.

FEMALE: Those are the three main friends.

MALE: Now, huh, yeah, brother, uh, don't trust anyone that says they are from the brotherhood because brotherhood is infiltrated by the Police and KENNEDY is a contact with my friend.

FEMALE: That's, that's the thing you were talking about to [redacted] [ph]. b6 b7C

MALE: Yeah, RANDALL has money to help you with money.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: You can get him through KENNEDY or REHONE.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: Now, the brotherhood is around Laguna Beach, that's in Southern California, oh, yeah, that's right, there's another person that can help you, ah, and his name is [redacted], but he's at Laguna Beach b6 in Southern California, he's a lawyer, he's a dope b7C lawyer, he has a [inaudible] of about, uh.

FEMALE: How about a teacher, can we find [inaudible]

MALE: Oh yeah, uh, [redacted] now you got to be careful uh, uh, you have to be very careful on this, [redacted] [redacted] is the dope lawyer. He knows about the brotherhood he knows about [inaudible] he doesn't think about the Weatherman and doesn not know, for example, that KENNEDY and [inaudible] escaped, KENNEDY is loved, or whatever, he doesn't know about REHONE giving me the place which he [inaudible]. He doesn't know, uh, about [inaudible].

FEMALE: [inaudible]

MALE: Yeah, yeah, yeah, [inaudible] come down there [inaudible] if I'm going to play this tape.

MALE: [listening to tape] How long does this go on? How long does this tape go on?

FEMALE: [listening to tape] Another, about 20 minutes.

MALE: [on tape] I want you to have all these facts so if you talk to people you can make it so they know you for real, very diplomatic, that you will accept KENNEDY, RANDALL.

MALE: I am now going to, uh, make a separate tape introducing JOANNA to my friends and that statement.

MALE: This is TIMOTHY LEARY, the place is Vienna, December 29th, 1972. This is to introduce JOANNE [inaudible] SMITH who is my friend and my [inaudible] and my mate and if anything happens to me, JOANNA [inaudible] SMITH will be the only person entitled to speak for me. She is the only person who knows what has ahappened to me and, uh, can, uh, organize the [inaudible] needed to [inaudible] in the future. I have given to JOANNA [inaudible] SMITH a tape to be played to my very special friends in America. Like all the work for my freedom and for the freedom of everyone. Now, JOANNA, get your passport.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: Alright then, this is JOANNA [inaudible] SMITH.

FEMALE: Shall I read it?

MALE: Yeah.

FEMALE: Alright, the other names on my passport are [inaudible and it says [inaudible] and it says maiden name [inaudible] SMITH. It's a [inaudible] passport and the number on the passport is 6518699. Um, I was born in [inaudible] Switzerland on the 13th of January, 1946 on MALE: [listening to tape] Capricorn.

FEMALE: [on tape] I am 5 feet 5 and my eyes are blue and my hair is fair.

MALE: And she is [inaudible] and the wisest and the best woman in the world and I introduce my friend as a matter of total [inaudible], hold on.

MALE: [listening to tape] is that it?

FEMALE: Well, that's it.

MALE: Well, I have a couple of reactions, uh, the first one is that I can't get involved in extortion. It doesn't mean anything as far as I'm concerned TIM's tape doesn't mean anything. I don't know anything about his escape other than what I've read in his versions of it. We have some of the manuscripts that he has sent us at various times. We represent him at at that time. We were his lawyers, uh, the last trip I made,

FEMALE: TIM .....

MALE: Well, the last trip I made down there I went down there with a brief that we had just finished for TIM to read and, uh, we were about ready to file it, as a matter of fact it was going to be filed I think, within a few days after that, I've forgotten exactly when it had been filed, and so I am not concerned about such a tape because I, it is not true, and I don't thing you know, had you played the tape when you first came to see us. I would have told you the same thing, but you didn't have to play the tape because we would have accepted you for what you represented yourself to be and we were still representing TIM at that time and we tried to do anything we could to help him out in legal problems and that's what we did at that time and up until relatively recently when you got [redacted] and that office to represent instead of us, and we filed those briefs, matter of fact, and when he escaped, and left the country, the only thing that we did, we couldn't do anything after that because the courts wouldn't hear the case without him being there and when they brought him back, they wouldn't reinstate the case so we couldn't do anything at that time either, um, not, now you know, other than that that I think it would be any, any anything meaningful is not gonna come out of that tape one way or another. I would have told you the same thing had you played it right at that time.

FEMALE: Well, the thing is, uh, we don't need to play games, I know what TIMOTHY told me is true, I know it because [inaudible] today about [inaudible] know, you know, that MICHAEL [inaudible] that, you know, doesn't matter because the fact the [inaudible] is gone and it just doesn't concern anybody, it's not that it's gonna make an awful lot of publicity and I think it could [inaudible] what I wanted to know is are there any ways that it is possible to [inaudible] stonewall this trial coming up, is there anyway that I can get the charges dropped . I don't think this concerns you or anybody.

MALE: I wouldn't try to get them dropped. And I would not, uh, I, I, the same way the presidents problem. I don't think he should have done it either, because, uh, it seems to me that if there has been a crime commited, the Government is entitled to try and prove it through whatever means it, if they have this tape, they kind of prove that was if, you know, they want to have ROSEMARY come back to the country, I told TIM when I went to see TIM the last time when we went up to see him, that if you wanted to have any of the people who he talked to about getting our of jail get in touch with us, we still represent ROSEMARY and if they want ROSEMARY to come back and testify for which they would give her amunity, and say she didn't have to go to jail, that we would pass that along to ROSEMARY. She would be willing to come back here, I think, if she felt she wouldn't have to go back to jail, but nobody has told us that, nobody has told her that, so if ROSEMARY would cooperate this time, she should be brought back to testify, uh TIMOTHY has told 20 different versions, I've read several different versions and he's got it on this tape and I don't know what the truth is. He's the only person who could testify to it so he should testify, uh, he or ROSEMARY, whoever could, and, uh, if I don't accept that version, I know I didn't participate in the version that he is referring to about me, I don't accept his versio what MICHAEL did, and other than the fact that we have been politically active in various things, uh, I don't think that, uh, I don't think the Government would be that interested in it, unless they felt, I think they probably, from what I read in TIM's versions of it, I think they might be interested to figure out where the Weathermen are, but they are, for lots of reasons, not particulary just because of that, and I read where the Weathermen, you know, have put out a new matafesto [ph] or something, where they say they are responsible for a bunch of bombings, so they probably are after them for all those things and would like to find them for all those reasons including whatever TIM said about their helping him escape.

FEMALE: Well, TIMOTHY hasn't [inaudible] the Government since he's been working on the [inaudible] and there are a lot on your board have been working in Sacramento the KENNEDY people because we think that they are people who will help us next, and [inaudible] that's not [inaudible] I do believe TIM and I know, you know, what the story of TIMOTHY is and it really doesn't matter.

MALE: Why, why didn't you bring the tape in when you first came into see us, I mean, you came in to see us right the month after this tape was made in January.

FEMALE: Right, right, because I didn't think it was necessary I didn't think it was necessary, I mean, I didn't think it was necessary at that point to talk about it, only you know, he told me the store, I always believed that what he told me was true. He would never, he indicated more or MICHAEL or anybody in the group, therefore, I know that what he told me is true, but there is no reason why I should [inaudible] at that point, you know, I mean the way you, now, it happens to be the biggest thing to come out of court and [inaudible] scandle, therefore, I think it's only fair and honest for us to talk about it with you.

MALE: I think the only thing that is going to be important will not be a tape or something that is written by people that you are being extorted about. The only thing that will have any meaning at all will be TIM's testimony about what happened to him and how he escaped, because he's the best evidence, he's the person that everybody's going to look to. Even if somebody heard that tape, even if the Government heard it or seombody else heard it, the Media heard it. The first person they would go to talk to would be TIM and they would say is this true or is this not true or what are you testifying about, about or something. So that's the important issue as to what time says, uh, he did, what other people did and so on. And, uh, TIMOTHY has to make up his own mind what he's you know, what he sees is his own roll and all that, what he feels that he has to do about it. Now, I don't think that, I would, if I were in your shoes, I would not worry about any tape, I wouldn't let, you know, get involved in any kind of blackmail operation that anybody's trying to, because, you, there's nothing uh, that .....

FEMALE: Well, I would, I would worry, yes, you know, in the sence of nothing worse can happen to us, I mean the [inaudible] him that [inaudible] you know, onde again, so, you know, it's not so much me worried about ourselves, we are worried about you, you know, I mean, uh, I know that MICHAEL and ELEANOR left the country after the case to get away, you know, so there wouldn't be any problems and the fact that .....

MALE: I would even disagree with that, I, you know, I'm close to them, I think, you know, they took a vacation, uh, we had on going cases at that time, and MICHAEL had to be back for, there was never, uh, he took a vacation and, uh, they didn't leave the country to escape anything. They hadn't, there wasn't any investigation going on that I was aware of anyway. Or that MICHAEL was aware of, and so the only thing they did was, and then of course I left to go to get TIM out of his trouble in Switzerland. Oh, you know, the first thing I said to you uh, when I taolked to you after you guys came back, was that, I, I don't agree with any of TIM's statements on the tape about Switzerland and about people who sharred and master YARDY [ph] and those guys trying to turn him in or something, because everytime I talk to anybody in Switzerland when I was over there that time, I got full insurance that nobody was gonna bother TIM in Switzerland. Nobody, the United States Government wasn't going to bother him. Nobody else was gonna bother him. He could of stayed there forever and been free. Just as ROSEMARY has access to all of that too. They weren't gonna do anything because they felt in all honesty that he was a political prisoner. Had he done the same thing in their country he would have been in jail for 2 or 3 weeks maybe and that the only reasons that he was getting those heavy sentences back here was because of ideas that he had, books that he had written, ideas that he had expressed, the Media, so there wasn't any fear. He could have stayed in Switzerland without any problem and he choose to, you know, wander around elsewhwere in the world, uh,

FEMALE: Well, no, that's not quite true, I was there, and you weren't there, the point was that he had to leave uh, you know, I know because I was right there. That was the beginning of my involvement, and I'm quite sure about that,

MALE: Legally I don't think.....

FEMALE: The question right now is most probable that the Government has the estate. They probably have forgotten about all this a long time except as you say, the Weathermen, uh, God knows why, our becoming involved again, and I don't understand, um, it is possible as you said, that they will come question TIMOTHY about it and, uh, should we tell the truth. Uh, that's what he wants to know.

MALE: I always tell anybody to tell the truth, otherwise you are going to end up, that's my legal advice to anybody for the simple reason that they are going to end up in worse trouble in terms of perjury as many of the Watergate defendents are now finding themselves. Had NIXON been honest ....

FEMALE: Well, don't you feel, don't you feel that you are doing, see, I believe that you are doing [inaudible] wrong in what you telling me I would be telling you if TIMOTHY tells the truth, he's got to tell about MICHAEL's involvement in this case.

MALE: Your entitled.

FEMALE: [inaudible]

MALE: Excuse me, your entitled to believe that, but you weren't there.

FEMALE: That's true.

MALE: See, what your doing is accepting a particular version that TIMOTHY has given you, out of many versions he has given you. And that's your problem, I mean, I'm not trying to pursuade you or anything. I don't have to do that. All I'm saying to you is that I don't agree with what he said, and I'm telling you and you can tell TIMOTHY that I don't agree with him, and MICHAEL, I'm sure, doesn't agree with it. That I've never heard of any such thing, and that, you know, TIMOTHY then, my advice to TIMOTHY is to tell what he believes to be the truth.

FEMALE: Okay.

MALE: And, uh, you know, he can decide what he wants to do at that time.

FEMALE: Okay. I'll tell him that.

MALE: Um, I don't think ROSEMARY will agree with him.

FEMALE: Um, she [inaudible] might [inaudible].

MALE: She may, but I mean, you know, she can, in terms of tapes and people making statements from various places, they can make them from whereever their sitting. And she could certainly you know, go through interviews from the press and everything else.

FEMALE: I just think the time will come to choose [inaudible], and that there's nothing to be afraid of. [inaudible in three prisons and in the worse conditions, you know, and there is nothing to be afraid of, uh, who wants to know what the condition was about what really happened. I am eager to tell, uh, I mean, as much as you can, [inaudible] there, as much as I realize that all the rest of the times, I believe that he can be true and, I just thought it would be nice to know how you felt about.

MALE: Well, I wouldn't see, your raising, your raising two different questions I would assume. One is your raising the question about the extortion, we'll your raising three in sort of an outlaw way, the, uh, you know, if you want to deal with the board without getting married, and so on, but FEMALE: Yeah, that's ....

MALE: Beside that for a minute, your raising the question about extortion, and, uh, you know, there is no since in getting involved in an extortion, I mean, first of all I would tell whoever's got that tape in some, they could shove it. Uh, do what they want to do. Then you are raising the question beyond that, whether TIMOTHY is gonna come out in public cooberating the tape, what is he gonna say. TIMOTHY asked basically the same question you know, in a sence when we saw him this last time, which is, uh, you know, uh, I suppose if he wants to, uh, make his peace with society, uh, with God, if he believes in such a thing, or whatever, that's a decision he has to make. It is obvious tha he is making it under diress. It is obvious that he would be making it in turn for promises, not the least of which will be the promise to get out of jail and it is obvious that is why he is considering doing it. That's why I asked you why you didn't show us the tape when you first came back. This is the tape that's just appearing now.

FEMALE: What happens when

MALE: When he is negotiating

FEMALE: He's not negotiating.

MALE: Yeah, but you said he has been talking to the board.

FEMALE: [inaudible] talk to the board.

MALE: That's another shading

FEMALE: That's not, uh, I mean everybody goes and talks to the board, and, you know, explains what they

MALE: And I've handled three cases where people have told lies in order to get out of prison to parole boards because that's the only way they felt they could get out. That's what the Solidad cases were, that's what the murders were in those cases, and they finally confessed many of those people were telling lies just because they wanted to get out of prison, and they were promised that if they said such and such they would get out.

FEMALE: Why?

MALE: And that's what I think TIM is getting himself caught in, and that's all I said to him that time when we visited him.

FEMALE: Well, I think your wrong I think that for one or for all times, I'm absolutely sure that TIMOTHY is telling you the truth. But, your not, that's the problem.

MALE: Okay, that's yours and TIM's.

FEMALE: Sure.

MALE: I mean you will have to decide, as I say, if TIMOTHY, I think, you know, like he was saying, he told us that he was desperate to get out of prison. He told us he had been talking to people about getting out of prison, and uh, the question, I suppose, I don't, you know, I have difficulty believing he even made that tape in Vienna in 1972. But, you know, if you tell me that again, I wasn't there, so I don't know what he did in Vienna in 1972.

FEMALE: Right, right.

MALE: So if you and he take the position that you made that tape in 1972, I suppose it would be another one of those celebrated tapes. I, of course, say that experts should look at that tape and see if it was really made that long ago and so on. And then he can judge on that, but, you have to be honest and TIM has to be honest with himself.

FEMALE: Right.

MALE: Especially if he is going to make peace with God, which is, basically, that he is doing these things in order to get himself out of prison.

FEMALE: No, he's doing whatever he's doing, which is not what you think he's doing, just becausa it's time to tell the truth for everybody, you know, I mean

MALE: JOANNA you got to believe you got to be telling me that if you were sitting on a Chalet now, a hillside in Switzerland that he would be doing, you know, be making these negotiations with people and getting himself into a position.

FEMALE: What's telling you that he is making negotiations.

MALE: He did.

FEMALE: No, he told you that I was negotiating with the KENNEDY people and then he would talk to the KENNEDY people and various people from the coming public, BROWN, KENNEDY and people like that.

MALE: That's negotiating.

FEMALE: That's negotiating, but on a different level than what you are insinuating.

MALE: Well, I don't know who he's negotiating with, but he said he was negotiating. He's looking forward to his release. He also said that he

FEMALE: Obviously [inaudible]

MALE: I understand. I'm very sympathetic to that. I'm saying that's why he's doing what he's doing, and you have to be honest and he has to be hones about that. That in the sence that he, I don't care who you say he's negotiating with, he is negotiating and the fact is that he also said that he wanted to come out against the use of drugs and various and change the whole life style, and again, I don't think that all the millions of people, I just saw the figures I'd say 20 million people in America now smoke marijuana. I don't think all those people are going to think to themselves that TIMOTHY LEARY is making those statements that marijuana is not good anymore for any other reason other than to get out of prison. I don't think that they are going to think to think to themselves that he really believes it. Now if he is going through all that metamorphasis himself, internally and personally, then far be it from me to take that away from him. That's why I say my advice is to tell the truth if that's really going on in his mind.

FEMALE: Right.

MALE: And, uh, then he'll have to I suppose, all the cahnges that his life has gone through but I say to you that basically what I see is negotiations going on to get out of prison. I told him at the time I said if they want to offer ROSEMARY uh, a deal, and they want to have her come, she would like to come back if she didn't have to go to jail, uh, whe would like to, now her mother lives here, relatives, she has people that she likes around here, she would certainly come back if she didn't have to go to jail. I said why don't you have some of those people get in touch with us and give us an indication that, uh, you know, they could sit down and talk with her that they could work out a deal whereby she could come back. Nobody has ever contacted her since then. I think that basically TIM is trying to work out his own deal, and , uh, I think that, you know, he, at the very least, would be if he comes back and tells that store, aside from whatever he is implicating as far as MICHAEL and me are concerned, he's gonna have to talk about ROSEMARY and her, you know, whatever she did during that period, and uh, I don't think he can testify that in any other way than that he would like to get out of jail and this is his way of doing it.

FEMALE: Well, I don't agree with that I agree, of course, he wants to get out of jail, I mean, he's had enough jail,

MALE: I don't argue that, he shouldn't have had this sentence in the first place.

FEMALE: Right, but on the other hand I just believe that he's telling the truth, and that he covered a lot of things up for a long time and he's asked to cover them up and

MALE: Not by me

FEMALE: Not by you, but certainly by MICHAEL.

MALE: I doubt that ever. Certainly not MICHAEL.

FEMALE: I know that.

MALE: I think that, yeah, I think that it's unfortunate that, uh, TIMOTHY feels that he has to demean himself because I think that's really what he is interpreting I sort of like the contest approach to getting all of his jailers in front of me and he now feels he must clear X number of hurdles to get out of jail, and I think he figures he will do it, you know, by various means and I, I, I say that is unfortunate. It's unfortunate that he's in that position. I'm sympathetic to the fact that he's in a position where he would like to get out of jail. I don't think that the problem is all he got was five years for that escape, which is running concurrently with his other sentences. So his real problem is the sentences on the marijuana. My view has always been that as the pressure goes on the marijuana law that those are going to be changed. It's only a matter of time, but for possession of marijuana at least going to be a misdeameanor and then if a certain period of time like that is probably going to be no crime at all, but a mesdeameanor carries a maximum of one year and TIM has done a lot longer than that, Okay. I don't think there is any question but what he'll get down on the marijuana charges if there is a change in Sacramento, which is going to take place in November, and you say talking to people KENNEDY or anybody else he thinks might be beneficial in that regard. I don't think he needs to get into testifying about his escape. Uh, to do that ....

FEMALE: I'm gonna tell him that, I'm gonna tell him that

MALE: What the story?

FEMALE: I'm gonna tell him that.

MALE: But, I don't know, as I say, I have never asked him to say anything, uh, great deal is what his individual conscientious and my view. I respect his conscientious and as far as the feelings, I've had um, no, but at the same time, I think a good analagy, which he talks, for example, about Venceramous and he says don't trust them. Uh, this guy [redacted] who is in prison, Venceramous helped escape and now [redacted] has made his appeal and ordered to not even get out of prison, but what he's doing is going around the country testifying, he's testified in court trials against the Venceramous people thus putting all of them in prison and uh, because they helped him escape. Now, there must be some tortured way in that guy's dealing with them. Oh, but, I don't thing, judging by his line, that it is some kind of sloving of his conscientious by telling the truth. I think he rather clearly indicates that he has no concientious whatsoever and never did have and people then made the mistake of thinking he ever did have were wrong. And, uh, I just don't think TIM is the same king of person. Um,

FEMALE: You were talking about the Venceramous. b6 b7C

MALE: Yeah, [redacted], then you might mention that to TIM, ask him if he feels that's, you know, that [redacted] clear you know, he's got a couple of people that he's sent away now for life because they heoped him escape from jail.

FEMALE: Okay, I'll tell him about all that. Um, one important [inaudible] I um, I got to get a @:00 plane to pick up [inaudible].

MALE: Okay.

FEMALE: I think you for coming out here.

MALE: Okay JOANNA, Good luck.

FEMALE: Do you think he should be in jail.

MALE: No, I don't think he should be in jail, I think he should, I have always felt that, you know, the charges are crazy, I mean, and I remember [inaudible] about the first appeal that DOUGLAS was in, and just being so sympathetic to his situation there because even a guy like DOUGLAS would not, was not able to bring himself to do something for him.

FEMALE: Yeah.

MALE: And, so, you know, I'm fully aware and that's the way I felt at the start before.

FEMALE: Well, I hope everything goes well for everybody.

MALE: Sure, okay,

FEMALE: Okay Okay, bye, see you soon, bye bye

MALE: Bye bye - Good Luck

Re Chicago report 8/16/74.

For the information of Headquarters, AUSA [redacted] Chicago, on 8/20/74 advised that he has reviewed instant report and discussed this matter with the USA, Chicago. The USA does not doubt probable cause in this case, but does feel that insufficient confirming evidence is presented in instant report for a successful prosecution, namely, to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that a conspiracy with the specific object of obtaining for LEARY a fraudulent passport existed. [redacted] emphasized that this was not a declination and that he was fully aware that the FBI has an ongoing investigation regarding this and other associated matters. Re Los Angeles nitel to the Bureau, dated 8/12/74.

Enclosed herewith to the Bureau and receiving offices are one copy each of an August 12, 1974, "Newsweek" magazine article (pages 17 and 53) regarding captioned subject.

Page 53 does not necessarily pertain to LEARY; however, deals with the Department of Justice "Witness Security Program".

Also enclosed herewith for the Bureau and receiving offices is an article which appeared in the 8/9/74 issue of the Los Angeles "Free Press" entitled, "How the SLA Was Born", which makes reference to TIMOTHY LEARY and his alleged "cooperation with California Department of Corrections officials". The Los Angeles "Free Press" is a Los Angeles area underground communication.

Also enclosed for Chicago is one copy of a memorandum of SA THOMAS G. MANSFIELD, dated 7/30/74 in captioned matter which is self-explanatory.

For additional information of Chicago, Los Angeles is in the process of obtaining results of prosecution of LEARY by San Luis Obispo County, California, authorities in 1973 for his escape in September 1970.

Los Angeles will continue to keep the Bureau and other interested offices advised.

TIMOTHY FRANCIS LEARY, JR., AKA
PASSPORT FRAUD - CONSPIRACY

Re SFairtel dated 8/16/74, captioned as above, enclosing a copy of a transcript of a tape which concerned a conversation between Joanna Leary and, apparently, Attorney Joseph Rhine. FBI Headquarters notes that in referenced Sairtel San Francisco indicated the tape was a transcript of a conversation between Leary and Michael Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy. This statement is obviously in error. San Francisco should refer to Headquarters teletype dated 7/25/74, captioned as above, wherein Headquarters advised the Department had authorized use of a body recorder and/or transmitter by Joanna Leary during a meeting between her and Attorney Joseph Rhine. Further, San Francisco, by nitel dated 8/1/74, also under the above caption, reported that Leary, on 8/1/74, was contacted by Attorney Joseph Rhine and his wife and that this conversation had been recorded. Inaccuracies of this type in ongoing, sensitive, and vital investigations cannot be tolerated. Insure that in the future the Agent who prepared this communication and the Supervisor approving same are more responsive to the absolute need for accurate reporting.

Headquarters has carefully reviewed the aforementioned transcript, and it is noted there are numerous typing errors and a number of instances of questionable transcription. Errors of this type are especially serious inasmuch as a document of this nature must be disseminated and could possibly be presented as evidence at subsequent court proceedings.

Accordingly, one copy of the aforementioned transcript is being returned. San Francisco should note that the various typing errors have been circled and comments made or a question mark inserted relative to a particular word where it appears that the transcription is inaccurate.

San Francisco promptly re-transcribe the Leary tape and furnish to Headquarters and receiving offices, a new and accurate transcription. Headquarters expects in the future that the San Francisco Office will be more diligent in the preparation of a document of this type.

An article entitled "Leary Likely to Testify Against the Weatherman", written by Lacey Fosburgh, date-lined August 21, 1974 at San Francisco, California, appeared on page 40 in the August 22, 1974 issue of the "New York Times", a New York City (NYC), New York (NY), daily newspaper. According to the article, John Russell, a spokesman for the Department of Justice, confirmed that Leary was cooperating with Federal authorities in the hope of making a "deal". The article further announced that Leary, according to an unidentified "law enforcement source", furnished authorities accounts of his narcotics activities undertaken by Leary and others on the West Coast and in the New York area. The article announced that Leary is expected to testify before a Federal Grand Jury (FGJ) in Chicago, Illinois, and furnish information against members of the Weatherman Underground who allegedly aided him in his escape from the San Luis Obispo, California, prison on September 12, 1970.

The Weatherman group, now commonly referred to as the Weather Underground, was formed in June, 1969, as a faction of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). A Weatherman ideological paper entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows", prepared in June, 1969, stated the basic philosophy of this group is Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action, not theory, would bring about revolution in the United States. In Mid-February, 1970, members of the Weatherman entered an underground status with an intended program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

Current Federal warrants are outstanding for a number of Weatherman wanted for violations of Federal statutes and local criminal violations. Since 1970, the Weather Underground has claimed responsibility for a number of bombings, including the United States Capitol Building in March, 1971; the Pentagon Building in May, 1972; the ITT Building in NYC in September, 1973; the Office of the California State Attorney General, Los Angeles, in May, 1974; and the Gulf Oil Corporation Building, Pittsburgh, in June, 1974. In October, 1973, a Weatherman fugitive, in a letter to the press, encouraged other revolutionaries to assume an underground status, noting that the underground provides a revolutionary haven for operations looking toward the violent overthrow of this Government.

On August 22, 1974, a confidential source advised that he had learned of a meeting of Weatherman and other individuals active in revolutionary activities in the NYC area, that was held on the evening of August 21, 1974 at the residence of David Klafter, 425 East 12th Street, NYC, NY. During the meeting Judy Clark and Bart Lubow related that an article appeared in the August 18, 1974 issue of the "San Francisco Examiner" newspaper announcing that Leary would appear before a FGJ in Chicago, Illinois, in the near future and that he would furnish testimony against Weatherman Underground members who aided in his escape from prison. Clark and Lubow expressed strong fears that Leary's testimony would be damaging, and they announced that plans are being made to "take the offensive" and discredit Leary by preparing leaflets and propaganda articles for movement newspapers describing Leary as a "pig" who is now working for the authorities. CONFIDENTIAL (U)

David Klafter and Judy Clark are publicly known as Weatherman; Bart Lubow has been identified by the confidential source as a Weatherman supporter.

IT WAS INDICATED "SOMEONE" (NOT IDENTIFIED) IN NEW YORK CITY RECEIVED A LETTER WITH A COPY OF "PRAIRIE FIRE" FROM WEATHERMAN UNDERGROUND REQUESTING BOOK BE PRINTED NEW YORK CITY AND DISTRIBUTED ON EAST COAST, WITH DISTRIBUTION OFFICE ESTABLISHED FOR THAT PURPOSE. FOUR THOUSAND COPIES HAVE BEEN PRINTED AND WILL BE DISTRIBUTED THIS AREA AS SOON AS ADDITIONAL TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS PRINTING COSTS CAN BE RAISED WITHIN NEXT TWO WEEKS. TOTAL PRINTING COSTS ARE TWO THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS. EXPECTATIONS ARE TO RAISE NECESSARY TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS BY DONATIONS FROM SYMPATHETIC GROUPS NEW YORK CITY AREA. THERE IS ALSO WEST COAST DISTRIBUTION OFFICE AT SAN FRANCISCO, AND PLANS ARE TO SET UP SOUTHERN DISTRIBUTION OFFICE NEAR FUTURE, POSSIBLY IN ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

IMPORTANCE OF WIDE DISTRIBUTION "PRAIRIE FIRE" STRESSED. NEW YORK CITY PRINTINGS WILL HAVE LESS PICTURES SINCE PRINTER DOES NOT HAEVE PHOTOGRAPHIC PLATES.

JUDY CLARK NOTED KEY POINT OF "PRAIRIE FIRE" IS THAT IMPERIALISM, THE INHERENT FIMAL STAGE OF CAPITALISM, IS CLEARLY DISTINGUISHABLE FROM CILONIALISM, AND THE ROLE OF THE REVOLUTIONARY IS ANTI-IMPERIALISTIC.

BART LUBOW JOINED CLARK IN RELATING ARTICLE IN AUGUST 18, 1974, ISSUE OF SAN FRANCISCO EXAMINER NEWSPAPER ANNOUNCED

TIMOTHY LERAY WOULD APPEAR BEFORE FGJ, CHICAGO, NEAR FUTURE AND TESTIFY AGAINST WEATHERMAN UNDERGROUND MEMBERS WHO AIDED IN HIS ESCAPE. CLARK AND LUBOW HAVE STRONG FEAR LEARY'S TESTIMÓNY WILL BE DAMAGING AND ANNOUNCED PLANS BEING MADE TO TAKE OFFENSIVE AND DISCREDIT LAEARY BY PREPARING LEAFLETS AND PROPAGANDA ARTICLES FOR MOVEMENT NEWSPAPERS DESCRIBING LEARY AS "PIG" NOW WORKING FOR GOVERNMENT.

ACCORDING TO JUDY CLARK, SAME SAN FRANCISCO NEWSPAPER ARTICLE MENTIONED AUTHORITIES BELIEVE UNIDENTIFIED FORMER MEMBER COMMUNIST PARTY ASSISTED WEATHERMAN UNDRGROUND IN PREPARING "PRAIRIE FIRE". SHE IMPLIED AUTHORITIES WERE CORRECT. THIS POINT WAS OF MUCH CONCERN TO ALL, AND CLARK EXPRESSED FEAR AUTORITIES MAY HAVE LOCATED PART OF UNDERGROUND OPERATION.

Should [redacted] learn of their whereabouts he stated he would notify the FBI. b6 b7C

The following investigation was conducted by the NYO:

[redacted] Brooklyn, NY, was interviewed at his place of employment, Lieberman, 82 Livingston St., Brooklyn, NY, and advised he was a schoolmate of [redacted] and spent a weekend in New Hampshire visiting him. He advised he once met [redacted] but learned from [redacted] that the family is not in contact with either [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] will not be reinterviewed, at this time, due to prior uncooperativeness. b6 b7C

On 7/23/74, [redacted] advised he did not know the whereabouts of [redacted], had nothing to say to the FBI, and refused interview. b6 b7C

During July and August, 1974, the following was determined from [redacted], a neighbor of the [redacted]: b6 b7C

1. [redacted] has returned to work after being hospitalized.

2. Sometime in May, 1974, [redacted] left the USA for Guadaloupe, France, to work at the Club Mediterraine. She returned to NY during the first week of August and departed Roslyn Heights for a vacation of a "couple of days" at Southhampton, LI. b6 b7C

3. Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] are presently vacationing in the Berkshire Mt. area with no fixed address.

[redacted] further advised that [redacted] told her that no one in the family has been in contact with

[redacted] for several years and neither girl knew of [redacted] recent hospitalization. CONFIDENTIAL (U) b6 b7C

Investigation by the NYO determined [redacted] resided in Southhampton, Long Island, in care of [redacted] Tuckahoe Lane, Southhampton. CONFIDENTIAL (U) b6 b7C

Spot checks of the above on 8/7 and 9/74, reflected two vehicles, one registered to [redacted] and the other to [redacted]. On 8/12 and 14/74, a vehicle registered to [redacted] was observed but the [redacted] car was not observed. CONFIDENTIAL (U) b6 b7C

NYO by 4/26/74 airtel to the Bureau noted the following five pieces of mail were observed by a source and received from 2/19/74 to 2/22/74 by the [redacted] at 65 Locust Lane, Roslyn Heights, Long Island. b6 b7C

Addressee	Sender	Return Address	Place and Date of Postmark	Class of Mail
[redacted]	JOSEPH L. RAUH	1001 Connecticut Avenue, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20036	Rock Island, Ill. 2/22/74	1st Meter # 610394
	[redacted]	Box 1123 Sparks, Nev. 89431	Rock Island, Ill. 2/21/74	1st Meter # 610394
		None	Italy received 2/19/74	Postcard
	None	None	Guadeloupe, France received 2/20/74	Postcard
	None	None	Frankfurt, Germany 2/22/74	Air-Mail

Regarding the first two pieces of mail the following is noted:

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] at Wilton, Iowa: b6 b7C

[redacted] Mc All's Information Services Company, 1419 West Fifth St., on 5/28/74, advised that postal meter number 610394 is one of six meter numbers assigned to Mc All's Information Services Company (MISCO). This number corresponds to a postal meter which is used in processing direct mailing of more than 200 pieces of business mail. How it should happen that this meter number would appear upon an envelope bearing a private individuals's name and return address is unknown to him. [redacted] stated that it is possible that an employee could run any number of blank envelopes through the postal meter he was operating and thereafter use those envelopes on a personal basis. However, it is unlikely that an employee would run blank envelopes through a machine being operated by him, as mailings are controlled by job orders which specify the precise number of pieces being mailed, and that number must correspond with the count of items passed through the meter. Another possibility is that return envelopes mailed as enclosures to a direct mailing had been removed from the direct mailing literature at the point of delivery and, after the return address had been deleted, utilized by the recipient as a personal envelope. [redacted] noted that approximately 60 employees had been utilized on the direct mail postal meters since 1/1/74, but that it would be possible to compile a list of operators of the postal meter bearing number [redacted] if that should be necessary. [redacted] checked the current and past employee rosters for MISCO and advised that he could locate no current or past employee identifiable with JOSEPH L. RAUH or [redacted]. b6 b7C

Regarding the third piece of mail, NYO opines [redacted], who attended [redacted] with [redacted] and who has corresponded with [redacted] from England, probably wrote the postcard. b6 b7C

Regarding the fourth piece of mail, NYO opines [redacted] who subsequently was employed in Guadeloupe, b6 b7C

CONFIDENTIAL

France, wrote the postcard and therefore, possibly the fifth piece of mail.

However, NYO presently preparing LHM's for dissemination to Legats in Italy, France and Germany to determine if [redacted] or [redacted] might have entered their respective countries. CONFIDENTIAL (U) b6 b7C

Chicago note that all available handwriting samples of [redacted] at NY have been obtained and the FBI lab recently advised more samples are needed. Chicago is requested to consider obtaining samples by subpoena from Bennington College as set forth in NY airtel to the Bureau, 8/1/74. b6 b7C

Referenced Los Angeles letter pertained to the interview with TIMOTHY FRANCIS LEARY, JR., who had been interviewed on assorted things, primarily security matters and passport fraud.

In view of LEARY's extensive knowledge of militants throughout the nation and especially on the West Coast, it is requested that Chicago give consideration to interviewing him in efforts to obtain any information concerning [redacted]. Chicago should realize that [redacted] parents b6 b7C appear to be divided in their opinion concerning the possible demise of [redacted].

Informants have indicated the belief that [redacted] b6 b7C was put to death shortly after the attempted jail break at San Quentin in California. No valid information to sustain that opinion, which is also shared by [redacted] mother, has been obtained.

SA STEC noted that this agreement concerned the rental of an automobile by LORRAINE JELLINS in September, 1971.

[redacted] advised she would mail a copy of the above-mentioned rental agreement. On August 26, 1974, SA STEC received a letter from Avis Rent-a-Car Corporation containing a photoduplication of Avis rental agreement 17118847. Also contained in the Avis letter was the photoduplication of Avis rental agreement 18064746, which revealed that the person executing this agreement was also LORRAINE JELLINS. b6 b7C

When telephonically contacted on August 26, 1974 by SA STEC, [redacted] noted she included a copy of rental agreement 18064746 inasmuch as the LORRAINE JELLINS mentioned on this rental agreement appeared to be identical to JELLINS noted on rental agreement number 17118847. b6 b7C

Copies of the above-mentioned rental agreements are attached.

JOE: Hi. How are you?

JOANN: Fine

JOE: (inaudible)

JOANN: Come right in. Nice to see you. Well, I have a problem. I think that you are the one to see. Sit down.

JOE: (sits down.)

JOANN: Number one, um, thanks for coming.

JOE: You're welcome.

JOANN: Number 2 is, uh, TIMOTHY and I wanted to know, and, um, it's very important, it seems to be very important to his release, you know, (inaudible), we want to get married, there's, uh, okay, different world, different time, different place, (inaudible) divorce just the opposite of our (inaudible) so, um, here's this here, which are um, (inaudible) divorce papers, uh, in (inaudible) you can get a divorce if the other person, uh, the other person doesn't have to be present, all they have to do is, um, sign the papers, and then we can, you can get, like, you know, like it used to be in Mexico, uh, so if there is anyway you could get that through to her, and maybe also what kind of arrangements she wants, um, you know, I want to give her some money, etc., that I want to know, you know, I want to know what she would be willing to settle for.

JOE: True.

JOANN: And, uh, she will have to do that as quick as possible. And, um, that would be leading the way, I wouldn't, I wouldn't be doing that too, with my husband, you know, to get him to sign (inaudible) and then we could get divorced there and married the same day.

JOE: I'm sure (inaudible)

JOANN: Okay, um, the other thing is that, the other thing is really, I talked to [redacted] and MICHAEL on the telephone the other day and that is something that is, you know, very heavy to explain over the phone, uh, you know, my house was robbed, and I was in the hospital I don't know if you read that in the newspaper b6 b7C

JOE: No, uh, MICHAEL said something about it at one point.

JOANN: He explained to you?

JOE: He said that there had been a burglary or something, you know.

JOANN: Yeah, my house was robbed, but I know that people I knew would help me cause he said that I knew that I had a quite large sum of money, (inaudible) so while I was in Los Angeles, uh, they broke into the house and they stole like everything out of the house, like more that stealing my mink coat and the stereo and stuff like that, they stole my notebooks and a considerable amount of tapes. Uh, in one way for me is knowing is cause, uh, I was, you know, taping some conversations and things like that, but that's secret cause they take your telephone away, you know, but, what's happening for an unsolved case was a tape that TIMOTHY and I had done in Vienna at the point where, you know, we talked like we might be separated and we didn't know what was gonna happen. I had checked the copy of that tape in the safe deposit box, the original copy and I made a copy of it. Uh, that tape was stolen. Uh, I've been since then, uh, I've been to the city and realized that they have been charged with what they call extortion of a secret and we heard that (inaudible) they will charge you with extortion of a secret that have to expose the secret in court. Now, uh, a copy of these tapes followed me and the property that they recovered. I, I, um, helped to recover some of the property when they needed, they called me, people who stole the stuff called me, uh, just after I came back from Paris (inaudible

(Static)

(inaudible) yeah, the tape, you know, but, what's on the tape they had it, so um (static) $20,000 and we'll give you back your stuff, so I said I, you know, I didn't think that uh, I didn't thing of that at that moment and I called the Police, and uh, (inaudible), called some people himself, so now I saw that, that tape wasn't in the stuff that the Police had recovered and that when your stuff is stolen, nothing happens. Either you know, they just tell you burglary and they don't look through your papers and listen to your tapes, um,

JOE: Except for who, you and TIM would probably be true.

JOANN: Right. So consider we're hoping, you know, okay, that tape's not in there. Then the attorney for the defense of blackmailing, says okay, that the tape is dirty and incriminating, several tapes, especially one tape is very incriminating to your friend, so, um he told that to KEN, he told that in court, that to me, I mean not to personally me, but through the DA.

JOE: Who is the attorney? Do you know?

JOANN: He's called [redacted] (ph). So it came to a point where it became such a nightmare pertaining to my cause, you know, okay, then your a book student and you had a lot of tapes made, whatever it was, that microfilm, but you can imagine what, that's what I want, I want you to listen to the tape. Uh, you, in a place where quiet (inaudible) for a few days, and what I want you to do is listen to the tape very carefully. Actually, I feel guilty, you know, not having got rid of it when I realized TIMOTHY and I was separated, you know, when I realized we were not gonna use it, but you know, I kept it and I always figured, you know, I need it. I'm sorry about it, I really am, but you know, I didn't destroy it, and I made copies. I mean, you know, it's my fault, but I don't know, we don't know what to do now, because um, whatever, you know, it's gonna be. b6 b7C

JOE: Well, what are they asking you to do? What are these people asking you to do? Pay them money, or drop the charges, or ....

JOANN: Well, they want me to drop the charges, but the state doesn't want to drop the charges.

JOE: Um.

JOANN: (inaudible)

(She plays the tape)

(Static)

TIMOTHY: I am sending a message, giving a message to my friends describing the situation we are in now and, uh, some of the things that happened in the last two years. Today is December 20....

JOANN: 29th b6 b7C

TIMOTHY: 29, 1972. The place is the Bristol (ph) Hotel in Vienna. At the present time, JOANN and I are mainly in a very vulnerable and dangerous position. We may have wandered into a trap by leaving Switzerland and coming to Vienna, so I'm not taking this position which may or may not be necessary, but, uh, I think we better have it on tape. The last month in Switzerland, uh, increasingly a lot a pressure, uh, came on me there. Some of it came from [redacted], uh, whom I believe is a U.S. Government Agent. Some of this came from my lawyer there BORIS (ph), who is a total pawn in [redacted] hand. Um, about two weeks ago, the Police came to my house when I was not there, just to search around, something they had never done before, and, uh, two days later, um, some friends of mine were in my car in Switzerland and were stopped and questioned by the Police. Now, this has got to be pressure put on me and [redacted] said (inaudible). Now JOANN and I were inside (inaudible) for Christmas at that time we were in touch with a Vienna film director and he said he brought us to Vienna. Now I was pretty touched with the Viennese Government. The Russian Government (inaudible) [redacted] (inaudible) American (inaudible) Switzerland and he is definitely some sort of CIA Agent. He (inaudible) the Chanselor of Austria and arranged for my coming here. Now, I met [redacted] through a man named (inaudible).

JOANN: That's (inaudible)

TIMOTHY: Yeah. He claims to be a reporter and freelance writer but he was kicked out of Czechoslovakia around the time this guy was around he had been accused of being a CIA Agent, and he came to Switzerland and he travelled with me for three days to all my houses in Switzerland, now I was (inaudible) later I found out (inaudible) and he was in touch with [redacted] (inaudible) in touch with (inaudible b6 b7C

JOANN: That's why he called up Vienna.

TIMOTHY: He lives in Vienna.

JOANN: Oh, he lives in Vienna.

TIMOTHY: Now, the, uh, Viennese film director wrote me a letter in November, and it concerning (inaudible) that it was okay for me to come to (inaudible) order several things that had happened to me (telephone ringing and TIMOTHY answers it) I'm talking about the biggest (inaudible) Vienna, you know, the first name was [redacted] to last (inaudible). First night of the hearing he warned us that the (inaudible) is an agency, you know, you got to prevent the money. These men took us yesterday to a lawyer, her name was [redacted] What's the first name? b6 b7C

JOANN: [redacted]

TIMOTHY: [redacted] and she was extremely objective of our indictions, and uh, in Vienna, she said don't trust the Nazis and she also said if anything (inaudible) on a razor's edge, the edge between Russia and America. To please the Americans without hurting the Russians, very likely to do, and she gave us no reassurance that we could trust the Russian Government. Now the episode with the (inaudible)

JOANN: (inaudible)

TIMOTHY: Uh, uh, he was like (inaudible) and said that I fought the (inaudible) and that I was to choose deep politicizing and (inaudible) general (inaudible) that there was a dangerous situation there.

JOANN: Yeah.

TIMOTHY: But, uh, I became good at it (inaudible)

JOE: (listening to tape) When was TIM arrested?

JOANN: (listening to tape) The first of January.

JOE: About three weeks after that?

JOANN: Yes.

TIMOTHY: (on tape) They advised us (inaudible) Yugoslavia, but um, they could hide us in the mountains, and but, uh, (inaudible) turn us over for (inaudible) and then, uh, (inaudible) who was the man that stole (inaudible) book.

JOANN: Well, he stole (inaudible) diary.

TIMOTHY: Yeah, he stole (inaudible) book, the night [redacted] had a (inaudible) showing provoked a physical fight with the (inaudible) tremendous episode of drunkenness. I don't believe they were drunk at all, and I don't believe that the thing was impulsive, I think it was b6 b7C

JOANN: I think it's horrible.

TIMOTHY: I think the (inaudible) ascertaining it was the impression on this [redacted]. Now in it a injury (inaudible) tape before we decide what we are going to do tonight, so if anyghing happens to me, either in Europe or in the United States, JOANN will be able to find friends and know where friends are and, uh, so people will always (inaudible) to me and to us. These are my serious opinions as to who can be trusted in the United States is very very general, because, um, there are people who will pretend to be your friends in case I'm on the sidelines. (inaudible). Now I think I'll talk about Switzerland. I like the (inaudible) in Switzerland generally anyone in Switzerland is okay, it's a good country (inaudible), my lawyer in Switzerland now is from Missouri, can be trusted (inaudible). Uh, [redacted] then, uh, [redacted] from Missouri, [redacted] from Missouri. b6 b7C

JOANN: Okay, now (inaudible)

TIMOTHY: (inaudible) and it is stashed

JOANN: That's [redacted].

TIMOTHY: (inaudible) b6 b7C

JOANN: I know him.

TIMOTHY: Yeah, he's a, uh, friend. Now the enemies in Switzerland are of course [redacted] I know the CIA (inaudible) is [redacted] pawn. (Inaudible) and the Media, don't trust any Media in Switzerland (inaudible). Now France, uh, the entire is to not trust [redacted] son [redacted]

JOANN: Oh, well, he's (inaudible) the Sheriff.

TIMOTHY: Yeah. He's got to be a Government Agent and he was the one that got me to leave Algeria (inaudible) and sold me on crank.

JOANN: Oh.

TIMOTHY: No, but just the case. I want to talk about Algeria. I have figured Algeria to be (inaudible) and she's extremely (inaudible) she's okay. Now the important methods I can't get from the United States is (inaudible) operation in Algeria is CIA operation. You either get it, or it's being used. Now there ar two people that may incline and (inaudible) who are provoking CLEAVER to fight them. And they are starting (inaudible) CLEAVER had been told that the (inaudible) was brought on by these people. I was working through LAWRENCE, um, well, I won't go into all of the details, but, uh, I , this (inaudible) told (inaudible) people over there and (inaudible) lie about this operation because operating ambassador (inaudible) in Algeria is uh, using CLEAVER and doing CLEAVER to pronounce. The general thing here is don't trust any black liberation army people. They are all dupes or agents and don't trust the Venceremos .

JOANN: Vence what?

TIMOTHY: Venceremos, uh, very infiltrated as a matter of fact don't trust any politicals of the United States, any militants except for the Weatherman.

JOANN: Weatherman?

TIMOTHY: Yeah.

JOANN: Yeah, I heard about them.

TIMOTHY: Now, uh, not able to, uh, hand me a cigarette

JOANN: Yeah.

TIMOTHY: Now, you will be contacted by MICHAEL Standard(ph) insuranc co. lawyerdo not trust him (inaudible) against, uh, against your own husband and bet he's a crook. He's the kind of crook that, uh, lives off liberals and lives off political people and, uh, stay away from him. There's a man named COLEMAN who is of (inaudible)

JOANN: (inaudible)

TIMOTHY: He's the president (inaudible). I want you to keep these names so that any kind of (inaudible) statement, you better make notes of this.

JOANN: Okay.

TIMOTHY: So that, uh, just keep enough to write my friends, it's so easy for someone in your position to get picked up. COLEMAN is just a crook. He's a friendly crook, he's a nice guy, but, uh, don't trust him. Uh, you know BILLY HITCHCOCK?

JOANN: Yeah, I do, he's a friend of my sister's.

TIMOTHY: BILLY's friendly, he's weak, he's selfish, he's nice guy, he might give you a little bit of money, but you can't count on it. And also, uh

JOE: ... (listening to tape) I'd say that's true, that's been borne out.

TIMOTHY: (on tape) (inaudible) there are a lot of (inaudible) people many of them homosexuals who are totally, totally dangerous.

JOANN: (inaudible) on this tape.

TIMOTHY: Yeah, yeah, but example is a man named (inaudible) and a man named SUPER (inaudible) in Berkeley, he also is working for CLEAVER. Stay away from all such people.

JOANN: Okay.

TIMOTHY: It really is a scarey situation. Now that's all the bad news, now the good news.

JOANN: Okay, that's better.

TIMOTHY: The keeper who helped me come into the United States is a man named MICHAEL KENNEDY.

JOANN: Okay.

TIMOTHY: He lives in San Francisco, he's married to a beautiful woman named ELEANOR, and she knows everything that he does, they work together, and, uh, he could be president. KENNEDY was a master mind when I escaped from prison. He's the liaison with the Weatherman, he's the above ground, most of the Weatherman are underground.

JOANN: Were the Weatherman involved in the (inaudible)?

TIMOTHY: Well, he didn't have any ....

JOE: (listening to tape) Can make nice headlines.

JOANN: (listening to tape) Yeah.

TIMOTHY: (on tape) now you probably expect (inaudible) United States I want you to ...

JOANN: I'm gonna go anywhere you go.

TIMOTHY: Hey... You'll be in danger for the time the Police (inaudible) group of people I know very well, a guy named (inaudible) they could set you up and try to get you kicked out of the country and it may be necessary that you go underground.

JOANN: Alright.

JOE: (listening to tape) I don't think those guys are doing too well.

TIMOTHY: (on tape) um, um, if you do have to go underground, you have to be very careful that you are with friends.

JOANN: How will I recognize them?

TIMOTHY: Right.

JOANN: (inaudible)

TIMOTHY: No (inaudible)

JOANN: Okay (inaudible)

TIMOTHY: Yeah. Okay, yeah, yeah.

JOANN: Yeah, I just

TIMOTHY: (inaudible) huh.

JOANN: Yeah.

TIMOTHY: Yeah. There's nothing happening (inaudible)

JOANN: Yeah, alright.

TIMOTHY: Uh, okay, uh, if anything should happen, the main thing you should do is go to San Francisco (inaudible) San Francisco.

JOANN: Yeah.

TIMOTHY: KENNEDY's, uh, uh, number is in my address book, you know, you know where it is, but, where you can get it in the telephone book in San Francisco, it's 2420 (inaudible) Street, usually there's gates. Now, if KENNEDY himself is under a lot of, uh, pressure, grand jury and (inaudible) he may not be around. If that happens, contact a man named JOE RHINE who is his partner.

JOANN: JOE RHINE.

TIMOTHY: Yeah.

JOANN: Okay.

TIMOTHY: Yeah, R-H-I-N-E.

JOANN: Was JOE RHINE involved in all this?

TIMOTHY: He can be trusted, yeah, but he came to the prison the day before I escaped and he gave me, he also contacted the Weatherman, yeah, so these two people can be trusted and I don't know his wife, I think she can be trusted, I know KENNEDY can be trusted, and do not trust any revolutionary group, any hippies any yippies, and people who say they are with the (inaudible) or they are with the brotherhood. There's lots of people running around claiming they are with the Weatherman, don't trust anyone that isn't endorsed by KENNEDY, RHINE or a man named [redacted] b6 b7C

JOANN: Okay.

TIMOTHY: Now, [redacted] is for the, the head of what is called the brotherhood and don't trust like [redacted] he's an opportunist, he's not a (inaudible) CI Agent, he's a (inaudible) CI Agent. b6 b7C

JOANN: Okay. b6 b7C

TIMOTHY: People like [redacted] (inaudible) now he's, you know

JOANN: No.

TIMOTHY: Well, alright, just don't trust anybody that hasn't been endorsed by KENNEDY or RHINE or [redacted] b6 b7C

JOANN: Those are the three main friends.

TIMOTHY: Now, huh, yeah, brother, uh, don't trust anyone that says they are from the brotherhood because brotherhood is infiltrated by the Police and KENNEDY is a contact with my friend.

JOANN: That's, that's the thing you were talking about to [redacted]. b6 b7C

TIMOTHY: Yeah, [redacted] has money to help you with money.

JOANN: Okay.

TIMOTHY: You can get him through KENNEDY or RHINE

JOANN: Okay.

TIMOTHY: Now, the brotherhood is around Laguna Beach, that's in Southern California, oh, yeah, that's right, there's another person that can help you, ah, and his name is [redacted] but he's at Laguna Beach in Southern California, he's a lawyer, he's a dope lawyer, he has a (inaudible) of about, uh, b6 b7C

JOANN: How about a teacher, can we find (inaudible).

TIMOTHY: Oh yeah, uh, [redacted] now you got be careful uh, uh, you have to be very careful on this, [redacted] [redacted] is the dope lawyer. He knows about the brotherhood, he knows about [redacted] he doesn't think about the Weatherman, he does not know, for example that KENNEDY master minded my escape, KENNEDY is (inaudible), or whatever, he doesn't know about RHINE giving me the place which he (inaudible) in prison. He doesn't know uh, about (inaudible). b6 b7C

JOANN: (inaudible) talk to him.

TIMOTHY: Yeah, yeah, yeah, he said there was suppose to be somebody come down here (inaudible) if I'm going to play this tape.

JOE: (listening to tape) How long does this go on? How long does this tape go on?

JOANN: (listening to tape) Another, about 20 minutes.

TIMOTHY: (on tape) I want you to have all these facts so if you talk to people you can give them, you can make it so they know you for real, very diplomatic, that you will accept KENNEDY, [redacted] RHINE. b6 b7C

TIMOTHY: I am now going to, uh, make a separate tape introducing JOANN HARCOURT SMITH to my friends and that statement.

TIMOTHY: This is TIMOTHY LEARY, the place is Vienna, December 29th, 1972. This is to introduce JOANN HARCOURT SMITH who is my friend and my partner and my mate and if anything happens to me, JOANN HARCOURT SMITH will be the only person entitled to speak for me. She is the only person who knows what has happened to me and, uh, can, uh, organize any rescue or help that may be needed if anything happens in the future. I have given to JOANN HARCOURT SMITH a tape to be played to my very special friends in America. Like all the work for my freedom and for the freedom of everyone. Now, JOANN, get your passport.

JOANN: Okay.

TIMOTHY: Alright then, this is JOANN HARCOURT SMITH.

JOANN: Shall I read it?

TIMOTHY: Yeah.

JOANN: Alright, the other names on my passport are (inaudible) and it says (inaudible) and it says maiden name HARCOURT SMITH. It's a British passport and the number on the passport is C518699. Um, I was born in San Lawrence, Switzerland on the 13th of January, 1946 on JOE: (listening to tape) Capricorn.

JOANN: (on tape) I am 5 feet 5, the color of my eyes is blue and my hair is fair.

TIMOTHY: And she is totally (inaudible) and the wisest and the best woman in the world and I introduce my friend as a matter of total confidence, hold on.

JOE: (listening to tape) is that it?

JOANN: (listening to tape) Well, that's it.

JOE: Well, I have a couple of reactions, uh, the first one is that I can't get involved in extortion. It doesn't mean anything, as far as I'm concerned TIM's tape doesn't mean anything. I don't know anything about his escape other than what I've read in his versions of it. We have some of the manuscripts that he has sent us at various times. We represented him at at that time. We were his lawyers, uh, the last trip I made

JOANN: TIM .....

JOE: Well, the last trip I made down there I went down there with a brief that we had just finished for TIM to read and, uh, we were about ready to file it, as a matter of fact it was going to be filed I think, within a few days after that, I've forgotten exactly when it had been filed, and so I, you know, am not concerned about such a tape because it, I, it is not true, and I don't think you know, had you played the tape when you first came to see us. I would have told you the same thing, but you didn't have to play the tape because we would have accepted you for what you represented yourself to be and we were still representing TIM at that time and we tried to do anything we could to help him out in legal problems and that's what we did do at that time, you know, up until relatively recently when you got [redacted] and that office to represent instead of us, and we filed those briefs, matter of fact, and when he escaped and left the country, the only thing that we did, we couldn't do anything after that because the courts wouldn't hear the case without him being there and when they brought him back, they wouldn't reinstate the case so we couldn't do anything at that time either, um, not, you know, there is nothing, uh, that or other than that, that I think it would be any, any anything meaningful is not gonna come out of that tape one way or another. I would have told you the same thing had you played it right at that time.

JOANN: Well, the thing is, that, uh, we don't need to play games, I know what TIMOTHY told me is true, I know it because (inaudible) today about (inaudible) different people who know, you know, that MICHAEL (inaudible) that, you know, doesn't matter because the fact the indicating is gone and it just doesn't concern anybody, it's not that it's gonna make an awful lot of publicity and I think it could be embarrassing. What I wanted to know are there any ways that it is possible to (inaudible) stonewall this trial coming up, is there anyway that I can get the charges dropped. I don't think this concerns you or anybody.

TJOE: I wouldn't try to get them dropped. And I would not, uh, I, I the same reason the president's in his problem. I don't think he should have done it either, because, uh, it seems to me that if there has been a crime committed, the Government is entitled to try and prove it through whatever means it, if they have this tape, they can kind of prove that way, uh, if you know, they want to have ROSEMARY come back to the country, I told TIM when I went to see TIM the last time when we went up to see him, that if you wanted to have any of the people who he talked to about getting out of jail get in touch with us, we still represent ROSEMARY and if they want ROSEMARY to come back and testify for which they would give her immunity and say she didn't have to go to jail, that we would pass that along to ROSEMARY. She would be willing to come back here, I think, if she felt she wouldn't go back to jail, but nobody has told us that, nobody has told her that, so if ROSEMARY would corroborate this story, she would be brought back to testify, uh, TIMOTHY has told 20 different versions, I've read several different versions and he's got it on this tape and I don't know what the truth is. He's the only person who could testify, uh, he or ROSEMARY, whoever could, and, uh, I don't accept that version, I know I didn't participate in the version that he is referring to about me, I don't accept his version of what MICHAEL did, and other than the fact that we have been politically active in various things, uh, I don't think that, uh, I don't think the Government would be that interested in it, I mean, unless they felt, I think that what they probably, from what I read in TIM's versions of it, I think they might be interested to figure out where the Weatherman are, but they are, for lots of reasons, not particulary just because of that, and I just read where the Weathermen, you know, have put out a new manifesto or something, where they say they are responsible for a bunch of bombings, so they probably go after them for all those things and would like to find them for all those reasons including whatever TIM said about their helping him escape

JOANN: Well, TIMOTHY hasn't (inaudible) the Government since he's been working on the Parole Board and there are a lot on your board have been working in Sacramento the KENNEDY people because we think that they are people who will help us next, and (inaudible) that's not the matter, the matter is that I do believe TIM and I know you know, what the story of TIMOTHY is and I mean, it really doesn't matter.

JOE: Why, why didn't you bring the tape in when you first came into see us, I mean, you came in to see us right the month after this tape was made in January.

JOANN: Right, right, because I didn't think it was necessary, I mean, I didn't think it was necessary at that point to talk about it, only you know, he told me the story, I always believed that what he told me was true. He would never, he indicated [redacted] or MICHAEL or anybody in the group therefore, I know that what he told me is true, but there is no reason for us to discuss it, uh, at that point, you know, I mean the way you, now, it happens to be, it's gonna come out of court and (inaudible) scandal, therefore, I think it's only fair and honest for us to talk about it with you. b6 b7C

JOE: I think the only thing that is going to be important in court will not be a tape or something that is ripped off by people that you are being extorted about. The only thing that will have any meaning at all will be TIM's testimony about what happened to him and how he escaped, because he's the best evidence, he's the person that everybody's going to look to. Even if somebody heard that tape, even if the Government heard it or somebody else heard it, the Media heard it. The first person they would go to talk to would be TIM and they would say is this true or is this not true or what are you testifying about, and so on, So that's the important issue as to what TIM says, uh, he did, that other people did and so on. And, uh, TIMOTHY has to make up his own mind what he's you know, what he sees in his own roll and all that, what he feels that he has to do about it. Now, I don't think that, I would, if I were in your shoes, I would not worry about any tape, I wouldn't let, you know, get involved in any kind of blackmail operation that anybody's trying to, because, you, there's nothing uh, that ....

JOANN: Well, I would, I would worry, yes, you know, in the sense of nothing worse can happen to us, I mean the Parole Board has talked to him, that they can review his case (inaudible) solitary confinement, you know, once again, so, you know, it's not so much we worried about ourselves, we are worried about you, you know, I mean, uh, I know that MICHAEL and ELEANOR left the country after the case to get away, you know, so there wouldn't be any problems and the fact that .....

JOE: I would even disagree with that, I, you know, I'm close to them, I think, you know, they took a vacation, uh, we had on going cases at that time, and MICHAEL had to be back for, there was never, uh, he took a vacation and, uh, they didn't leave the country to escape anything. They hadn't, there wasn't any investigation going on that I was aware of anyway. Or that MICHAEL was aware of, and so the only thing they did was, and then of course I left to go to get TIM out of his trouble in Switzerland. You know, the first thing I said to you uh, when I talked to you after you guys came back, was that, I, I don't agree with any of TIM's statements on the tape about Switzerland and about people who shared (inaudible) and [redacted] and those guys trying to turn him in or something, because everytime I talk to anybody in Switzerland when I was over there that time, I got full assurance that nobody was gonna bother TIM in Switzerland, Nobody, the United States Government wasn't going to bother him. Nobody else was gonna bother him. He could of stayed there forever and been free. Just as ROSEMARY has access to all of that too. They weren't gonna do anything because they felt in all honesty that he was a political prisoner. Had he done the same thing in their country he would have been in jail for 2 or 3 weeks maybe and that the only reasons that he was getting those sentences back here was because of ideas that he had, books that he had written, ideas that he had expressed, the Media, so there wasn't any fear. He could have stayed in Switzerland without any problem and he chose to, you know, wander around elsewhere in the world, uh, b6 b7C

JOANN: Well, no, that's not quite true, I was there, and you weren't there, the point was that he had to leave, uh, you know, I know because I was right there. That was the beginning of my involvement, and I'm quite sure about that.

JOE: Legally I don't think.....

JOANN: The question right now is most probable that the Government has the estate. They probably have forgotten about all this a long time except as you say, the Weathermen, uh, God knows why, are becoming involved again, and I don't understand, um, it is possible as you said, that they will come questinn TIMOTHY about it and, uh, should we tell the truth. Uh, that's what he wants to know.

JOE: I always tell anybody to tell the truth, otherwise you are going to end up, that's my legal advice to anybody for the simple reason that they are going to end up in worse trouble in terms of perjury as many of the Watergate defendants are now finding themselves. Had NIXON been honest ....

JOANN: Well, don't you feel, don't you feel that you are doing, see, I believe that you are doing wrong in what your telling me I would be telling you if TIMOTHY tells the truth, he's got to tell about MICHAEL's involvement in this case.

JOE: You're entitled.

JOANN: (inaudible)

JOE: Excuse me. You're entitled to believe that, but you weren't there.

JOANN: That's true.

JOE: See, what you're doing is accepting a particular version that TIMOTHY has given you, out of many versions that he has given you. And that's your prerogative, I mean, I'm not trying to pursuade you of anything. I don't have to do that. All I'm saying to you is that I don't agree with what he said, and I'm telling you and you can tell TIMOTHY that I don't agree with him, and MICHAEL that I'm sure, doesn't agree with it. That I've never heard of any such thing; and that, you know, TIMOTHY then, but my advice to TIMOTHY is to tell what he believes to be the truth.

JOANN: Okay.

JOE: And, uh, you know, he can decide what he wants to do at that point.

JOANN: Okay. I'll tell him that.

JOE: Um, I don't think ROSEMARY will agree with him.

JOANN: Um, she won't come back for that.

JOE: She may, but I mean, you know, she can, in terms of tapes and people making statements from various places, they can make them from wherever they're sitting. And she could certainly you know, go through interviews for the press and everything else.

JOANN: I just think the time will come to choose for everybody and that there's nothing to be afraid of (inaudible) in three prisons and in the worse conditions, you know, and there is nothing to be afraid of, uh, who wants to know what the condition was about what really happened. I am eager to tell, uh, I mean, as much as you can since you were't even there, as much as I realize that all the rest of the times, (inaudible) I believe that he can be true and, I just thought it would be nice to know how you felt about it.

JOE: Well, I wouldn't see, you're raising, you're raising two different questions I would assume. One is you're raising three in sort of an outlaw way, the, uh, you know, if you want to deal with the Parole Board without getting married, and so on, but JOANN: Yeah, that's .....

JOE: Beside that for a minute, you're raising the question about extortion, and, uh, you know, there is no sense in getting involved in an extortion, I mean, first of all I would tell whoever's got that tape in some, they could shove it. Uh, do what they want to do with it. Then you are raising the question beyond that, whether TIMOTHY is gonna come out in public corroborating the tape, what is he gonna say. TIMOTHY asked basically the same question, you know, in a sense when we saw him this last time, which is, uh, you know, uh, I suppose if he wants to, uh, make his peace with the society, uh with God, if he believes in such a thing, or now, that's a decision he has to make. It is obvious that he is making it under duress. It is obvious that he would be making it in return for promises, not the least of which will be the promise to get out of jail and it is obvious that that's why he is considering doing it. That's why I asked you why you didn't show us the tape when you first came back. This is the tape that's just appearing now.

JOANN: What happens when

JOE: When he is negotiating

JOANN: He's not negotiating.

JOE: Yeah, but you said he has been talking to the board.

JOANN: Yeah, he's been talking to the board.

JOE: Well, that's negotiating.

JOANN: That's not, uh, I mean everybody goes and talks to the board, and, you know, explains what they JOE: And I've handled many cases where people have told lies in order to get out of prison to parole boards because that's the only way they felt they could get out. That's what the Soledad cases were, that's what the murders were in those cases, and they finally confessed many of those people that were telling lies just because they wanted to get out of prison, and they were promised that if they said such and such they would get out.

JOANN: Why?

JOE: And that's what I think TIM is getting himself caught in, and that's all I said to him that time when we visited him.

JOANN: Well, I think you're wrong, and, uh, I think that for one or for all times, I'm absolutely sure that TIMOTHY is telling you the truth, and, uh, that, uh, you're not, that's the problem.

JOE: Okay, that's yours and TIMs.

JOANN: Sure.

JOE: I mean you will have to decide, as I say, if TIMOTHY I think, you know, he was saying, he told us that he was desperate to get out of prison. He told us he had been talking to people about getting out of prison, and, uh, you know, the question, you know, I suppose, I don't, you know, I have difficulty believing he even made that tape in Vienna in 1972. But, you know, if you tell me that again, I wasn't there, so I don't know what he did in Vienna in 1972.

JOANN: Right. Right.

JOE: So if you and he take the position that you made that tape in 1972, I suppose it would be another one of those celebrated tapes, because, uh, uh, I, of course, say that experts should look at that tape and see whether it was really made that long ago and so on. And then he can judge on that, but, but you have to be honest and TIM has to be honest with himself.

JOANN: Right.

JOE: Especially if he is going to make peace with God, which is basically, that he is doing these things in order to get himself out of prison.

JOANN: No, he's doing whatever he's doing, which is not what you think he's doing, just because it's time to tell the truth for everybody, you know, I mean ...

JOE: JOANN you got to believe, you got to be telling me that if you were sitting on a chalet now, a hillside in Switzerland, that he would be doing, you know, be making these negotiations with people and getting himself into a position.

JOANN: What's telling you that he is making negotiations with people?

JOE: He did.

JOANN: No. He told you that I was negotiating with the KENNEDY people and then he would talk to the KENNEDY people and various people from the coming Government, BROWN KENNEDY and people like that.

JOE: That's negotiating.

JOANN: That's negotiating, but on a different level than what you are insinuating.

JOE: Well, I don't know who he's negotiating with, I mean, but he said he was negotiating. He's looking forward to his release. He also said that he

JOANN: Obviously

JOE: I understand. I'm very sympathetic to that. I'm saying that's why he's doing what he's doing, and you have to be honest and he has to be honest about that. That in the sense that he, I don't care who you say he's negotiating with, he is negotiating and the fact is that he also said that he wanted to come out against the use of drugs and various and change the whole life style, and again, I don't think that all the millions of people, I just saw the figures I'd say 26 million people in America now smoke marijuana. I don't think all those people are going to think to themselves that TIMOTHY LEARY is making those statements that marijuana is not good anymore for any other reason other than to get out of prison. I don't think that they are going to think to themselves that he really believes it. Now if he is going through all that metamorphosis himself, internally and personally, then far be it from me to take that away from him. That's why I say my advice is to tell the truth if that's really what's going on in his mind.

JOANN: Right.

JOE: And, uh, then he'll have to I suppose, try to explain to people all the changes that his life has gone through, but I say to you that basically what I see is negotiations going on to get out of prison. I told him at the time I said if they want to offer ROSEMARY, uh, a deal, and they want to have her come, she would like to come back if she didn't have to go to jail, uh, she would like to, now her mother lives here, she has relatives, she has people that she likes around here, she would certainly come back if she didn't have to go to jail. I said why don't you have some of those people get in touch with us and give us an indication that, uh, you know, they could sit down and talk with her that they could work out a deal whereby she could come back. Nobody has ever contacted us since then. I think that basically TIM is trying to work out his own deal, and, uh, I think that, uh, you know, he is at the very least, if he comes back and tells that story aside from whatever he is implicating as far as MICHAEL and me are concerned, he's gonna have to talk about ROSEMARY and her, you know, whatever she did during that period, and uh, I don't know he can testify that in any other way than that he would like to get out of jail and this is his way of doing it.

JOANN: Well, I don't agree with that, I agree, of course, he wants to get out of jail, I mean, he's had enough jail, he's had enough jail and ....

JOE: I don't argue that, he shouldn't have had this sentence in the first place.

JOANN: Right, but on the other hand I just believe that he's telling the truth, and that he covered a lot of things up for a long time and he's asked to cover them up and ...

JOE: Not by me.

JOANN: Not by you, but certainly by MICHAEL.

JOE: I doubt that even. Certainly not MICHAEL.

JOANN: I know that.

JOE: I think that, yeah, I think that it's unfortunate that, uh, TIMOTHY feels that he has to demean himself because I think that's really what he is gonna end up interpreting, it's sort of like the contest approach to getting all of his jailers in front of me and he now feels he must clear X number of hurdles to get out of jail, and I think he figures that he will do it, you know, by various means and I, I, I say that's as unfortunate. It's unfortunate that he's in that position. I'm sympathetic to the fact that he's in a position where he would like to get out of jail. I don't think that the problem is; all he got was five years for that escape, which is running concurrently with his other sentences. So his real problem is the sentence on the marijuana. My view has always been that as the pressure grows on the marijuana law that those are going to be changed. I think it's only a matter of time, but for possession of marijuana for personal use in California at least going to be a misdeameanor and then if a certain period of time like that is probably going to be no crime at all, but a misdemeanor carries a maximum of one year and TIM has done a lot longer than that in jail. I don't think there is any question but what he'll get out on the marijuana charges if there is a change in Sacramento, which is going to take place in November, and you say talking to people KENNEDY or anybody else that he thinks might be beneficial in that regard. I don't think he needs to get into testifying about his escape. Uh, to do that ....

JOANN: I'm gonna tell him that, I'm gonna tell him that.

JOE: What the story?

JOANN: I'm gonna tell him that.

JOE: But, I don't know, as I say, I have never asked him not to say anything, uh, great deal is what individual conscience and my view. I respect his conscience and as far as the feelings, I've had with him, um, no, but at the same time, I think a good analogy which he ought to think about, you know, he talks, for example, about Venceremos and he says don't trust them. Uh, this guy [redacted] who is in prison, who Venceremos helped escape and now [redacted] has made his deal and not in order to even get out of prison, but what he's doing is going around the country testifying, he's testified in court trials against the Venceremos people thus putting all of them in prison and uh, because they helped him escape. b6 b7C

Now, there must be some tortured way in that guys dealing with them. Oh, but, I don't think, judging by his line, that it is some kind of salving his conscience by telling the truth. I think he rather clearly indicates that he has no conscience whatsoever and never did have, and people then who made the mistake of thinking he ever did have were wrong. And, uh, I just don't think TIM is the same kind of person. Um,

JOANN: You were talking about the Venceremos.

JOE: Yeah, [redacted] Then you might mention that to TIM, [redacted] ask him whether he feels that's, you know, that [redacted] clear you know, he's got a couple of people that he's sent away now for life because they helped him escape from jail. b6 b7C

JOANN: Okay, I'll tell him about all that. Um, one important (inaudible) I um, I got to get a 2:00 plane to pick up (inaudible).

JOE: Okay.

JOANN: I thank you for coming out here.

JOE: Okay JOANN, good luck.

JOANN: Do you think he should be in jail.

JOE: No, I don't think he should be in jail. I think he should, I have always felt that, you know the charges are crazy, I mean, and I remember talking to TIM about the first appeal that DOUGLAS was in, and just being so sympathetic to his situation there because even a guy like DOUGLAS would not, was not able to bring himself to do something for the situation.

JOANN: Yeah.

JOE: And, so, you know, I'm fully aware and that's the way I felt at the-start before, you know.

JOANN: Well, I hope everything goes well for everybody.

JOE: Sure. Okay.

JOANN: Okay, okay, bye, see you soon, bye bye.

JOE: Bye bye - good luck.

Re Chicago airtel to Los Angeles, dated 9/5/74.

As San Francisco and Chicago are both aware, TIMOTHY FRANCIS LEARY was initially interviewed in depth, on 5/25, 26, and 27/74. The interview on 5/27/74 dealt primarily with information in LEARY's possession regarding individuals, organizations, conditions, and staff members of the various California Penal Institutions. In addition, during the interviews and in subsequent contacts with LEARY, the entire spectrum of the militant groups and terrorist organizations were discussed with LEARY. One of those discussed with him was subject [redacted], supra. LEARY advised he is not personally acquainted with [redacted] but knows of him through publicity given to [redacted] alleged involvement in the incident at San Quentin Prison in 1971. He was unable to furnish any information regarding the possible whereabouts of [redacted] nor could he suggest anyone who might be in a position to assist in locating [redacted]. b6 b7C

Result of examination:

Specimens Qc16 through Q63 were examined to determine if they contain coded or encrypted material. Most of these specimens consist of transcripts of textual material typical of "free association" writing. This type of writing, presumably meant to represent the thought process, does not always produce logical, complete sentences, and lends itself particularly well to codes of the "veiled" or "double meaning" variety. In this type of code, certain segments of seemingly innocuous statements hold special meanings obvious only to the communicators. These "veiled" meanings may have been derived from particular significant events in the experience of the correspondents or may have been previously determined and set forth as an arbitrarily selected group of equivalents.

Without benefit of Timothy Leary's explanation of the meanings of the coded terms related to his escape and the participants therein, it is possible to state that the texts of specimens Q34, 35, 37, 39, 40, 41, 42, 44, 45, 46, 52 and Qc50 and 51 are consistent with the type of text normally employed to transmit messages having "veiled" meanings. The Qc50 and 51 photocopies of letters from Timothy to Rosemary Leary, when viewed independent of Timothy Leary's explanation of coded terms, but in light of subsequent events, i.e., the escape, can be said to refer, generally, to the escape of Leary from prison. Especially significant in this conclusion are the following statements in specimens Qc50 and 51 respectively:

"The Beckett manuscript (referring to the escape plan)...should leave here Thursday or Friday. When you get it read it carefully beloved. It is a very important story... Listen to the words carefully and you will see that it carries the solution to all our problems. This man-uscript will bring everyone together and end paranoia, distrust and separation."

"Beloved...please contact MK and communicate to him the underlying message of my last two letters..."

Explanations of Timothy Leary as to the meanings of symbols and statements contained in submitted specimens are plausible and consistent with subsequent events. No discrepancies in his interpretation of the true meaning of the specimens were noted.

Specimens Qc16 through Q63 are being retained in Bureau file.

HITCHCOCK displayed a general willingness to cooperate with the FBI and be interviewed regarding the escape of LEARY.

At this point HITCHCOCK and his attorney were both advised by SA [redacted] that the FBI had no specific knowledge of any grant of immunity from prosecution for his testimony in these matters, which HITCHCOCK had stated during a September 25, 1974 interview with the FBI he had been previously granted. b6 b7C

HITCHCOCK was then furnished an "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form which he read and then questioned his attorney whether or not he should execute the form.

At this point discussion was conducted with HITCHCOCK's attorney, [redacted], relative to the execution of the above form. b6 b7C

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

[redacted], Attorney, with offices at [redacted] b6
[redacted], was interviewed at 18 East 73rd Street, apartment b7C
1A, the residence of WILLIAM MELLON "BILLY" HITCHCOCK. He advised he is legal counsel for HITCHCOCK. He was advised of the identities of [redacted], [redacted], and [redacted] as Special Agents (SAs) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and the purpose of the interview with his client to discuss the escape of TIMOTHY LEARY and closely related matters. He was advised by SA [redacted] that the FBI had no specific knowledge of any grant of immunity from prosecution for HITCHCOCK's testimony in these matters, which HITCHCOCK had stated during a September 25, 1974 interview with the FBI he (HITCHCOCK) had been previously granted.

After SA [redacted] furnished the "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form to HITCHCOCK, [redacted] stated the following: b6 b7C

He was willing for HITCHCOCK to be interviewed by the FBI without executing the "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form or if it was preferred that HITCHCOCK execute this form, that, that form have the following addendum. SA [redacted] advised it was preferable that the form be executed by HITCHCOCK. [redacted] then wrote the following addendum on the "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form: b6 b7C

"Mr. HITCHCOCK is required to cooperate with all government agencies as a condition of probation. On the advice of counsel he is agreeing to submit to this interview by reason of this condition of probation and this decision is without prejudice to his right to assert at a later time a proper objection to the use against him of the information he furnishes or of the leads obtained therefrom. This is a condition to his signing the advice of rights set forth above."

[redacted] then stated that HITCHCOCK is under probation for a little less than five years and it is a condition of that probation that he cooperate with government agencies. [redacted] further advised that a mutual understanding had been reached that HITCHCOCK would cooperate with the investigation b6 b7C

Interviewed on 9/26/74 at New York, New York File # NY 49-432

by SAs [redacted] /RWT:jl Date dictated 9/27/74 b6 b7C conducted by the United States Attorney's office, San Francisco, which investigations had touched on this matter. He then stated that the advice of rights form reached a legal conclusion, that being, that any information HITCHCOCK furnished the FBI, having waived his rights, could be used against him in future proceedings.

[redacted] advised if cooperation with governmental agencies were not a condition of HITCHCOCK's probation, [redacted] would not agree to the interview of HITCHCOCK. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised the grant of immunity had been made verbally with Assistant United States Attorneys [redacted] and [redacted], Northern District of California, and [redacted] declined further comment on this immunity matter. b6 b7C

The possiblity that the addition of this addendum to the "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form would make the voluntary waiver of rights conditional was raised and further discussion was terminated until this matter could be resolved.

[redacted] advised that HITCHCOCK did not wish to violate his probation and would be available for interview at a later date. HITCHCOCK then interjected that he did not wish to incur any additional legal expenses caused by the necessity for Attorney [redacted] to travel to East Hampton, Long Island, where he (HITCHCOCK) would be making a movie on location for the next nine days. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that after prior discussions of the area this interview would cover with HITCHCOCK, he determined that, if HITCHCOCK was to relate his information to the FBI, it would contain no information of an expedite nature or timely relevance which would necessitate any action on the part of law enforcement. b6 b7C

This is to confirm discussion between [redacted] b6 b7C and [redacted], Special Litigation Unit, General Crimes Section, and Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted] of this Bureau on September 30, 1974.

Timothy Leary claims William Melton "Billy" Hitchcock knew about his (Leary's) escape from a California prison during September, 1970, prior to its happening and Hitchcock learned of the escape from Michael Standard. Hitchcock is an associate of Leary and is on probation for Federal Income Tax evasion.

Hitchcock was contacted in the presence of his attorney, [redacted], on September 26, 1974. On the advice of counsel, Hitchcock refused to sign the "Waiver of Rights" form without the following addendum: b6 b7C

"Mr. Hitchcock is required to cooperate with all Government agencies as a condition of probation. On the advice of counsel he is agreeing to submit to this interview by reason of this condition of probation and this decision is without prejudice to his right to assert at a later time a proper objection to the use against him of the information he furnishes or of the leads obtained therefrom. This is a condition to his signing the advice of rights set forth above."

Interview was terminated, since the addendum would substantially alter the meaning of the "Waiver of Rights" form.

[redacted] and [redacted] agreed that Hitchcock should be orally advised of his rights and interviewed, notwithstanding the fact that he has refused to sign the "Waiver of Rights" form. b6 b7C

Timothy Leary, et al. - Conspiracy to Violate Passport Laws, 18 U.S.C. 371 and 18 U.S.C. 1542, et seq.

In your continuing investigation into the allegations of Timothy Leary regarding his escape from confinement in California and his flight to Europe in which he was aided by the use of false identification and falsely obtained passports, you have recovered several cabinets of documents from [redacted] of the Fitz Hugh Ludlow Memorial Library. Timothy Leary provided written authorization for the recovery of these documents by Joanna Leary, who, in the company of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, obtained these documents from [redacted]. b6 b7C

As you can see from the attached letters written by [redacted] to United States Attorney James Browning, [redacted] is now raising several objections to the retention of these documents by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. In addition to his implication that the documents were obtained by some unexplained "intimidation," [redacted] also claims that many, if not all, of the documents were his own personal property either as a result of being gifts from Leary or as a result of being [redacted] own copies of documents of Leary's. [redacted] also indicates that there were additional Leary documents remaining in his possession which were not recovered by Joanna Leary and the agents. b6 b7C

As you are aware, [redacted] appears to be the individual identified as [redacted] in some of the recovered documents which Leary claims refer to the escape plan, thus [redacted] should be regarded as an uncooperative individual who may have an interest in preventing the completion of the examination of these documents. b6 b7C

As a result of the allegations of [redacted] it is suggested that the following steps be taken: b6 b7C

1. Leary should be thoroughly questioned regarding the nature of the arrangements made with [redacted] of the Fitz Hugh Ludlow Memorial Library regarding ownership of the documents delivered to [redacted] In this regard it should be ascertained, if possible, whether [redacted] was merely the custodian of the documents for Leary (as indicated in the first paragraph of [redacted] letter of August 1, 1974) or whether title to the documents had been transferred to [redacted] If title passed to [redacted] then inquiry should be had regarding any conditions placed upon such transfer giving Leary unlimited or limited access to the documents. An attempt should be made to ascertain whether there is any documentary evidence of the nature of this transaction and whether there are any witnesses to it. Because of the technical nature of the legal questions posed you may desire assistance from Departmental attorneys in making this inquiry of Leary. b6 b7C

2. Please obtain detailed statements from Joanna Leary and the Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who participated in the removal of the documents from the [redacted] residence. Particular attention should be given to statements, if any, of [redacted] indicating a disclaimer of ownership of the documents. b6 b7C

3. Leary should examine all documents obtained from [redacted] in order that he may state whether they are the property of Leary or the property of others. ([redacted] claims that photocopies in his possession were made by him from Leary's original documents, and thus, the photocopies are the property of [redacted].) Thus, an effort must be made to ascertain whether Leary can establish ownership of any photocopies found among the documents. b6 b7C

In regard to those documents which Leary can identify as his own property, the Federal Bureau of Investigation should retain possession of them. If there are any documents which Leary advises are not his property, their evidentiary potential should be promptly determined by prosecuting attorneys and your Bureau should inventory all such documents for possible future subpoena from [redacted]. b6 b7C

4. Departmental attorneys have been provided by your Bureau with a photocopy of a typewritten manuscript which is entitled It's About Time. Leary claims this manuscript is the original unedited version of his escape which appeared in altered form in Confessions of a Hopo Fiend. It appears that this manuscript may have evidentiary value in this matter. Thus it is important to ascertain from whom this manuscript was obtained. If it was obtained as a result of investigation by the Department of State, [redacted] New York City, New York, should be interviewed regarding the origin of this manuscript. In addition, Leary must be shown the manuscript in order that he can identify the manuscript as his own writing and identify any markings or handwriting thereon. According to [redacted] New York City, New York, the original manuscript was rewritten twice, the second time with the assistance b6 b7C

Lead for CG sent to

of a London writer, Brian Barrett. This final version, according to [redacted], is the published book Confessions of a Hope Fiend. Leary must advise which of these versions is the manuscript in possession of the Bureau. b6 b7C

The book, Confessions of a Hope Fiend, refers to other telegrams not referred to in your report. Leary should be asked the whereabouts of these additional telegrams and the whereabouts of any additional correspondence. (It is noted that the first known letter to Rosemary was dated May 6, 1972, yet according to Jail Notes Leary was in Chino Prison on February 25, 1972. Further, there are no letters from Rosemary to Leary after August 18, 1972, and no letters from Leary to Rosemary after August 25, 1972.) If Leary acknowledges the existence of other correspondence which was given to [redacted] it will be necessary to obtain them. [redacted] refers to additional Leary documents in his possession.) b6 b7C

5. It is recommended that if Leary, on reinterview, indicates there is additional correspondence or additional documentary evidence relating to his escape and flight in [redacted] possession which Leary can describe with any particularity, a search warrant should be obtained for the recovery of these documents. Departmental attorneys are available to assist in the preparation of such search warrants. b6 b7C

Dear Mr. Browning:

Thank you for your prompt reply of August 9th to my letter concerning the removal of Dr. Leary's archives, and for verifying the authenticity of his letter of authorization.

My protest as to the rude and intimidating manner with which the Leary archives were removed from my home by Joanna Leary and agents of the Federal Government still stands.

There was no reference in your letter to my personal records and other possessions which were also removed. These included: personal correspondence, photographs, momentoes, files of news clippings, photocopies of some of Dr. Leary's manuscripts and documents that I made in the course of editorial work performed for him with his consent, and manuscripts and documents of Dr. Leary's which he had given to me, with the understanding that they would be preserved as a historical record in the Fitz Hugh Ludlow Memorial Library, San Francisco, of [redacted]. These materials described above certainly were not and could not be authorized for removal by virtue of Dr. Leary's letter. I hope to hear from you very soon on the matter of their prompt return to me.

Dean believes a Special Agent from L.A. was present when Leary signed; in any event, he had previously acknowledged he would sign such an authorization.

USA Chicago is using records for Grand Jury which will likely indict for false passport application.

Also, [redacted], Assistant Attorney General, California, will likely charge suspects with suborning perjury in connection with Leary's escape trial (from San Luis Obispo). August 1, 1974 1974 AUG 5 AM 10 15

James R. Browning
U. S. Attorney
Federal Bldg.
450 Golden Gate Ave.
San Francisco, CA.

Dear Sir:

On July 25, 1974, at approximately 11:30 a.m., five men, at least two of them (Irving Dean and Lawrence Savage) appearing to be Federal agents, entered my home in the company of Joanna Harcourt-Smith D'Amecourt Leary for the purpose of removing from my custody the archives of Dr. Timothy Leary, who is currently incarcerated in Terminal Island Federal Correction Institution. These archives have been in my custody for four years. The seizure was performed without warning or notice of any kind, and without my consent. The stated purpose of this action was to microfilm Dr. Leary's private correspondence files which contain records of his public and private activities going back several decades.

I was not at home when they arrived, but others in my household allowed them entry, as Joanna Leary is known to me, and is someone I have worked with on and off for the past 1½ years in connection with Dr. Leary's publishing and legal affairs. When I arrived a short time later Joanna Leary handed me a letter handwritten and signed by Timothy Leary in which he asked me to turn over his archives to these men.

The handwriting, with which I am familiar, appeared genuine. However, as the letter was pre-dated one week (July 18th), as I have not had any other direct communication with Dr. Leary in more than a month, as the letter countermanded previous expressions and communications from Dr. Leary not to turn his archives over to anyone, and as I felt there was a distinct possibility the letter may have been written under some form of duress and that it may not have been his actual intention for me to follow his instructions, I refused to allow them to take the archives unless immediate telephone communication between myself and Leary could be established.

Joanna Leary attempted to reach Timothy Leary by telephone from my home but was unsuccessful. I continued to refuse to turn over the archives for about one hour. During this period there was continuous insistance from Joanna Leary that I turn them over. Mr. Dean and Mr. Savage were polite and themselves asked nothing of me, but whenever I addressed them expressing my intention not to give over the archives they deferred to Joanna Leary, so that the implication was clear she was speaking with their consent and that their presence in my home served to add weight to her demands.

Mr. Dean and Mr. Savage were vague as to their positions or whom they represented, saying only that they were "contacts" for the microfilm company, which they told me was Scott's Microcopy Systems, 7485 Monterfey Pass Rd., Monterery Park, CA. From a subsequent telephone call to that company I learned that these men were unknown to them. I have also heard subsequently that the archives are no longer in California.

Joanna Leary made it clear that neither she nor the two men in the house nor the three men sitting in a panel truck parked outside my home were going to leave without the archives. I noted that there was now some agitation among the men and Joanna Leary. Several members of my family and household were present during this period, and our children were due home at any moment. Fearing that the situation might become far more ominous than it was, I allowed them entry to the room containing the archives, making it clear it was not my consent that they take them under these circumstances.

A substantial portion of the archives were then removed from my home to the truck outside. Among this material was some of my own papers, including correspondence, clippings, publications and photocopies I had myself made of certain documents to be used in literary publications I have been preparing with the consent of Dr. Leary, for whom I have acted as literary agent, editor, biographer, and bibliographer since 1970. Some of it included material Dr. Leary had given me, inscribed to me, and so on. Attempts on my part to separate from his archives these personal possessions were for the most part thwarted by Joanna Leary, acting always with the consent if not the verbal expressions of the other men.

Joanna Leary and Irving Dean signed a handwritten document of transfer of the archives which I hurriedly prepared as they were rushing out of my house after the archives were removed. Joanna Leary told me Dr. Leary would phone me that day or the next to explain this action. This did not occur. I immediately drafted the foregoing portion of this letter but withheld it hoping for communication. The following morning I phoned Joanna Leary and informed her I wanted the archives returned to me immediately. She indicated that it was not possible, but that Dr. Leary would call me that afternoon. Shortly after this conversation I noticed another truck with three men in it parked outside my home, apparently to remove the remaining archives. But as Mr. Dean and Mr. Savage did not come back as they had said they would, the truck left. These men have as yet not returned for the remaining archives.

If the archives of Timothy Leary are in the possession of Federal officials or agents I want them returned immediately. If through your help and the consent of necessary parties a visit between myself and Dr. Leary could be arranged, or if a telephone call could be arranged, and I can learn to my satisfaction the basis of this action and his committment to it, I may not have to take any further steps in this matter and may even consent to turn over the remaining portion of the archives. I will of course pay any travel expenses or telephone charges, and will make the call from any phone you designate.

I have written this letter upon the advice of Dr. Leary's attorney, Kent Russell, of the firm of Belli, Ashe, Ellison & Choulos.

I look forward to your reply in this matter, and your advice. Thanking you in advance for your time and attention, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Re Chicago report, 8/16/74.

Enclosed for the Bureau is one copy of an FD-302 October 9, 1974, reflecting additional investigation at the Sheraton O'Hare Motor Hotel.

Chicago located no information indicating ROSEMARY LEARY, also known as (aka), SYLVIA E. MC GAFFIN, or [redacted] aka, [redacted] stayed at the Sheraton O'Hare, Rosemont, Illinois, in August, 1970. Chicago notes that the Bureau has no information that ROSEMARY or [redacted] stayed at any Chicago area motel/hotel when ROSEMARY as MC GAFFIN obtained her fraudulent passport 8/27/74. b6 b7C

Registration Number 58492 for [redacted] was located with Invoice Number 58492 (see Page 262 referenced Chicago report), both of which are voided. Registration Number 58493 to [redacted] reflects the same address, as 58492, namely [redacted] Connecticut, and the same company, [redacted], except [redacted] indicated an additional firm name as International Multi Foods. A possible obvious explanation of the voided registration is that [redacted] and [redacted], both from the same company, decided to stay together in one room. b6 b7C

Regardless, Chicago in a future communication will set out LEADS for the interview of persons registering about the same time as LEARY and [redacted] Chicago recognizes that the possibility of effecting a photo identification after four years is very slim, but in view of the lateness of the hour of registration, the fact ROSEMARY was a relatively attractive woman, and that other registrants may have been on the flight from Seattle, the identity of LEARY, ROSEMARY, or [redacted] may have "stuck" in someone's mind.

ADVISED THAT HE AND DEA ARE FAMILIAR WITH MATTERS RELATING TO LEARY'S INVOLVEMENT WITH BROTHERHOOD OF ETERNAL LOVE PERSONNEL AND THE BROTHERHOOD ITSELF, AND WILL COOPERATE WITH FBI. FOR INFO NEW YORK AND HQ, DEA HAS PRIOR SWORN STATEMENT FROM HITCHCOCK. [redacted] BELIEVES THAT INSTANT STATEMENT CONTAINS DENIAL BY HITCHCOCK OF ANY PRIOR KNOWLEDGE OF LEARY ESCAPE, WHICH IF TRUE, SUBSTANTIALLY CONFLICTS WITH INFO HITCHCOCK PROVIDED NEW YORK IN RECENT INTERVIEW. PRIOR STATEMENT MAY CONSEQUENTLY BE PERJURED. [redacted] WILL ATTEMPT TO LOCATE INSTANT STATEMENT AND FURNISH TO FBI. b6 b7C

[redacted] ALSO INDICATED FORMER LOS ANGELES SA R. J. LA JEUNESSE INTERVIEWED ROSEMARY LEARY'S PARENTS WHO [redacted] BELIEVES KNOW ROSEMARY'S CURRENT LOCATION. ROSEMARY'S PARENTS WERE "ALMOST CONVINCED" BY LA JEUNESSE TO CONTACT ROSEMARY TO SURRENDER HERSELF, BUT APPARENTLY CONTACTED MICHAEL KENNEDY WHO ADVISED AGAINST COOPERATING WITH FBI. IN OPINION OF [redacted], WITH WHICH CHICAGO AGREES, IF DEPARTMENT IN CONJUNCTION WITH CALIFORNIA ATTORNEY GENERAL, COULD MAKE SPECIFIC PROPOSAL TO ROSEMARY'S PARENTS THAT IN RETURN FOR ROSEMARY'S COOPERATION, b6 b7C

HER CURRENT CALIFORNIA PROBATION VIOLATION WOULD BE SET ASIDE, ROSEMARY WOULD SURRENDER. ALTERNATIVELY, [redacted] BELIEVES NO AGENCY HAS ANY COVERAGE OF ROSEMARY'S PARENTS' RESIDENCE. ORIGINAL APPROACH TO LEARY TAKEN FROM "TASK FORCE" POINT OF VIEW, IN THAT NUMEROUS FEDERAL AND LOCAL AGENCIES WERE PARTY TO SAME. CHICAGO IN BOTH LEARY REPORTS HAS SUGGESTED POSSIBLITY OF FEDERAL ESCAPE AND RESCUE (E & R) VIOLATION WITH VENUE OF LOS ANGELES FOR WHICH INVESTIGATIVE GUIDANCE REQUESTED FROM FBI OFFICE OF LEGAL COUNSEL. FROM PRIOR CHICAGO EXPERIENCE WITH LOCAL "WEATHERMAN" TRIALS, DEFENSE HAS ATTEMPTED TO INVOLVE FBI WITH WIRETAPS, ILLEGAL SURVEILLANCES, ETC., REGARDLESS WHETHER OF PERTINENCE TO LOCAL CASE. FD-302 (REV. 11-27-70)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 10/10/74

WILLIAM WELDON "BILLY" HITCHCOCK was advised the identities of [redacted], [redacted] and VINCENT A. ALVINO as Special Agents (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in the presence of his attorney [redacted] at the offices of Anderson, Russell, Kill and Olick, 630 Fifth Avenue, New York City. He was advised of the nature of the interview and orally advised by SA [redacted] of certain rights which appear on the "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form. HITCHCOCK advised he understood his rights, but declined to execute waiver of same. b6 b7C

HITCHCOCK advised as follows:

The first time he had heard anything concerning an escape by TIMOTHY LEARY was during the first quarter of 1970 when both ROSEMARY LEARY and [redacted] visited him at Millbrook. This was the first time he actually met [redacted] although he might have briefly met him prior to that in California, at the Brotherhood Ranch. ROSEMARY LEARY asked him to contribute $20,000, although he was not sure of the exact amount, to assist in a plan to get her husband, TIMOTHY LEARY, out of jail. He stated he told her that he could not consider that and there was no further conversation regarding the escape plan. b6 b7C

HITCHCOCK stated that he had been the benefactor for TIMOTHY LEARY for many years, although he could not recall whether his assistance to LEARY was for legal expenses or not. He regarded himself as a logical source for ROSEMARY LEARY to approach for monetary assistance, but advised he did not know if he was the first person contacted regarding this and advised that he did not consider this low keyed request a matter of desperation. HITCHCOCK stated that after he had advised ROSEMARY LEARY that he had no interest in contributing money toward this project she did not try to dissuade him, but simply accepted his answer.

Interviewed on 10/9/74 at New York, New York File # NY 40-432

REVIEWED INDEXED

He did not know who else, if anyone, ROSEMARY approached, but he advised that it was his understanding that the "Brotherhood" had no lack of funds. He did not recommend anyone else for her to contact. ROSEMARY LEARY and [redacted] were only at Millbrook for a couple of hours and HITCHCOCK stated they had come from New York City in a car; he did not know further details regarding their presence in New York City, where they had been prior to arriving in New York City, or their conveyance to Millbrook. He also stated that the remainder of their time at Millbrook was spent in conversations about TIMOTHY LEARY and walking around the grounds at Millbrook. He advised no one else was present during their visit. He stated the only information he had regarding the possibility of "Weathermen" connections with the escape plan was what he had read in the newspaper. He stated, he believed one of the purposes of their visit to Millbrook was that [redacted] was able to see the estate. b6 b7C

HITCHCOCK recalled that in the Summer of 1970 at Millbrook he made or received a long distance telephone call to or from ROSEMARY LEARY in California during the course of which ROSEMARY mentioned that the "plans were moving along". HITCHCOCK understood that ROSEMARY was referring to TIMOTHY LEARY's escape plan. Nothing further regarding this escape plan was discussed during the conversation.

HITCHCOCK advised that during the Summer of 1970, he met [redacted] in the Law Office of MICHAEL STANDARD, New York City. This visit was occasioned because STANDARD was handling HITCHCOCK's marital separation. During the course of his conversation with STANDARD he asked STANDARD if he had heard anything regarding the escape plan of TIMOTHY LEARY. STANDARD advised him that he had heard rumors to the effect that TIMOTHY LEARY was planning to escape. There was no further discussion of the escape or any money being raised on behalf of TIMOTHY LEARY. No one else was present during the above conversation between himself and STANDARD. As HITCHCOCK and [redacted] had met in the public waiting room leading to STANDARD's law office they did not enter into conversation. HITCHCOCK advised that he did not know why [redacted] was there, he did not ask and no one volunteered the reason why [redacted] was there. HITCHCOCK stated he was aware of the attorney client relationship between MICHAEL STANDARD and TIMOTHY LEARY. b6 b7C

He stated that the above three conversations were the only occasions, as far as he could remember, during which he discussed with anyone the possible escape of TIMOTHY LEARY.

HITCHCOCK stated that in June, 1971, while on a business trip to London, England, he received a telephone call from TIMOTHY LEARY. Following the call HITCHCOCK visited LEARY in Lausanne, Switzerland. LEARY wanted HITCHCOCK to meet with [redacted] (phonetic) and put up some money so that a book that LEARY was writing could be published and HITCHCOCK would then receive royalty from the sale of the book entitled "Confessions of a Dope Fiend". LEARY and HITCHCOCK met for approximately one hour and HITCHCOCK stated they did not discuss any matters relating to LEARY's escape. LEARY mentioned to HITCHCOCK that while he was in Algeria he met ELRIDGE CLEAVER and ELRIDGE CLEAVER had threatened both ROSEMARY and himself. b6 b7C

HITCHCOCK stated he did not consider his visit to LEARY to be unusual in that LEARY's presence in Switzerland had received considerable press coverage and Swiss authorities had refused to extradite LEARY. He stated his relationship with TIMOTHY LEARY was strictly in the psychodelic movement and when TIMOTHY LEARY became political he severed his relationship with him. HITCHCOCK stated he has had no contact since this meeting in Switzerland with TIMOTHY LEARY.

HITCHCOCK advised that he had no knowledge of any connection between MICHAEL STANDARD and the escape of TIMOTHY LEARY, but HITCHCOCK speculated that he would not be surprised if MICHAEL KENNEDY was involved. He advised he recalled KENNEDY to be an unethical attorney, who had on occasion encouraged clients to lie. [redacted], a client of KENNEDY, advised his former confidant HITCHCOCK that he had no use for KENNEDY. b6 b7C

HITCHCOCK recalled that during the Spring of 1972, he met [redacted] at [redacted] home in San Diego, California, and discussed a grand jury investigation being held in San Francisco. He stated he has not heard from, heard about or been in contact with [redacted] since that date. b6 b7C

HITCHCOCK advised he does not know the whereabouts of any Federal, State or Local fugitives, including the current Weathermen fugitives whose photographs were displayed to him. He also stated he knew nothing of TIMOTHY LEARY obtaining a passport for escape nor had he learned of any information concerning the escape of ELDRIDGE CLEAVER.

HITCHCOCK stated he first met MICHAEL STANDARD during the Fall of 1969 at Millbrook. STANDARD was at that time representing TIMOTHY LEARY. HITCHCOCK stated he engaged STANDARD at that time and continues to retain him as legal counsel in the matter regarding the legal separation of his wife and himself.

Certified for W.P.A. employment, Portland, Oregon 11/18/35; classified as stone mason, and employed off and on continuously since that date. Was reported an alleged member of the Communist Party. Investigation does not reveal LAWYER a member of the Communist Party, and no documentary evidence available to reflect membership in the Communist Party. However, upon interview under oath, LAWYER admitted membership in the Communist Party at Portland, Lents District, in 1931 under the Communist Party name of JOHN EMERICK, for a period of approximately five months. States his purpose in joining Communist Party was for assistance in obtaining relief for his family and other unemployed, and in connection with the Unemployed Council. States considerable "squabbling" took place at Communist Party neighborhood meetings in Lents District, and he was not in accord with Communist Party instructions, resulting in his leaving the Communist Party in 1931. I. PERSONAL HISTORY

A. On November 18, 1941, MR. DON AINSWORTH, Field Investigator, Division of Investigation, W.P.A., of Portland, advised that he had not received any request from his headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah to investigate CLAUDE F. LAWYER. MR. AINSWORTH recalled that the name CLAUDE LAWYER was contained in a list of alleged Communists employed by the W.P.A., and that he was of the opinion CLAUDE LAWYER's name had been furnished by S. EUGENE ALLEN of the Oregon Labor Press. MR. AINSWORTH stated that no other reports have been received by his office indicating that CLAUDE LAWYER is an alleged Communist.

MR. DENZIL H. DREWERY, Division of Employment, W.P.A. at Portland, Oregon, after a review of the W.P.A. personnel file of CLAUDE F. LAWYER, advised that LAWYER was born December 19, 1892 at Portland, Oregon, and was first certified for W.P.A. employment at Portland, Oregon on November 18, 1935, and classified as a stone mason. He stated that LAWYER has been employed by the W.P.A. off and on continuously since that date, and is presently working at Rocky Butte on the County Jail project as a stone mason. MR. DREWERY advised that the personnel file in question did not contain any complaints from LAWYER's co-workers to the effect that he was engaged in activities inimical to the best interests of the U. S. Government. The records reflect that LAWYER completed the 10th grade and speaks and writes English. He is married, and his wife JOSEPHINE [redacted] Portland, Oregon. LAWYER signed the usual citizenship and allegiance W.P.A. affidavits. The latest date of the signing of such affidavits was on July 15, 1941. b6 b7C

B. As previously related, LAWYER has been employed by W.P.A. as a stone mason off and on continuously since November 18, 1935. He is not engaged in his W.P.A. work in a supervisory capacity, and his work has been satisfactory. Prior to LAWYER's W.P.A. employment, he followed the occupation of a roofer and from 1926 to 1929 worked for various roofing contractors, whose identities are not set out in the W.P.A. records.

II. BASIS FOR INVESTIGATION

MR. S. EUGENE ALLEN, to whom MR. AINSWORTH referred the writer, advised that CLAUDE LAWYER is unknown to him, and that no doubt CLAUDE LAWYER's name was contained in a list of alleged Communists employed by the W.P.A., which he furnished to the Division of Investigation, W.P.A. during the spring of 1941. MR. ALLEN was interviewed concerning all factual information or documentary evidence that he might have available to substantiate the complaint regarding LAWYER. He stated that he had no documentary evidence or factual information, and that he does not know of anyone who might be able to substantiate that LAWYER has been or is a member of the Communist Party.

III. RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

At the Portland Police Department, WALTER BERT ODALE was contacted, at which time he furnished the following information. He stated that CLAUDE F. LAWYER was said to be a member of the A. F. of L., and that LAWYER signed the petition for the release of DIRK DeJONGE, who was sent to prison in the year 1936 for Criminal Syndicalism. This is the only information MR. ODALE has in his files concerning LAWYER. MR. ODALE was also requested to search his files for the name JOHN EMERICK, an alias used by LAWYER, but he could find no record of such an individual. The Portland Police Department has no record of an arrest for either LAWYER or his alias EMERICK.

Confidential Informants [redacted] whose identities are known to the Bureau, were contacted, but these individuals advised that they had never attended any Communist Party meetings at which LAWYER was present. The above informants could furnish no information whatsoever concerning LAWYER. b7D

No documentary evidence was located during this inquiry establishing CLAUDE FREDERICK LAWYER or JOHN EMERICK as a member of the Communist Party, and there are no reports made to the Portland Field Division stating any factual information regarding the affiliation or sympathies of LAWYER under his true name or his Communist Party name.

IV. INTERVIEW WITH EMPLOYEE

Arrangements were made by the writer and Special Agent ALLEN whereby LAWYER voluntarily appeared at the Portland Field Office for an interview regarding the complaint. The following is a signed statement furnished by LAWYER, the original of which is being retained in the Portland file:

Portland, Oregon
November 25, 1941

The following statement was given to Special Agent JULIUS H. RICE, Federal Bureau of Investigation, in the presence of Special Agent SAM H. ALLEN, and KATHRYN BURFIELD, Stenographer, F.B.I., between 5:45 PM and 6:10 P.M., November 25, 1941.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, I want to identify myself to you. This is my commission card.

LAWYER: O.K.

RICE: You've met MR. ALLEN.

MR. LAWYER, a general complaint has been received concerning your activities, and you are being given an opportunity to answer these allegations. During the course of the interview, if you have any statement you desire to make, feel free to do so.

Do you have any hesitation, MR. LAWYER, to being placed under oath?

LAWYER: Do I have any hesitation? No sir. But what is the nature of the complaint? What is this in reference to?

RICE: MR. LAWYER, we are not at liberty to reveal the source of the complaint, as the files of this office are confidential.

LAWYER: What is the nature of this complaint? There must be a nature of this complaint. What is it - subversive activities, or what?

RICE: I'd like to place you under oath, MR. LAWYER. Will you raise your right hand?

LAWYER: Yes sir.

RICE: I, CLAUDE LAWYER, do solemnly swear to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help me God.

LAWYER: I do.

RICE: Please state your full name.

LAWYER: CLAUDE FREDERICK LAWYER.

RICE: Your present address.

LAWYER: 5708 S. E. Knapp.

RICE: The place and date of your birth.

LAWYER: December 19, 1892. The place of birth is Portland, Oregon.

RICE: What is your occupation?

LAWYER: At present, I am a W.P.A. stone cutter - a stone cutter employed on W.P.A.

RICE: As mentioned before, a general complaint has been made to this office to the effect that you are engaged in activities inimical to the best interests of the United States Government. Is this true?

LAWYER: Well, no. It surely is not. Not to my knowledge. I am not engaged in any activities with the exception of my work. That's the only activity with exception of one organization that I'm a member of. I'm sure that is not under the - well, I mean it is not under question by this Bureau. If you're talking about subversive, which I'm sure you must be, why that's absolutely false, because I have no connection, and have not had for years, with any subversive organization of any kind. I belong to one organization only.

RICE: It has been reported that you are a member of the Communist Party. Is this true?

LAWYER: That's false.

RICE: Were you ever a member of the Communist Party?

LAWYER: I was. Yes sir.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, when did you become a member of the Communist Party, as near as you can recall.

LAWYER: I can't give you the date. Approximately some time in 1930 or 1931. Now I couldn't say, because I've been away from it so long that I just - I never did pay a great deal of attention as to when I happened to be in it. I was in it for a short while, and was affiliated with organizations sponsored by the party more than I was in the Party; but I got blame for a lot of things. I know how this all came out.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, where did you join the Communist Party?

LAWYER: Here in the city.

RICE: At Portland, Oregon?

LAWYER: Yes, Portland.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, with whom did you make application for membership with the Communist Party?

LAWYER: That's a pretty tough question, if you want names. I don't remember that. My application was turned in, but just the name of the person who took the application in, that would be almost impossible to say at this time. I presume my application went into Seattle, but the names of people are a very peculiar thing in a setup like that. If that's what you are intending to ask, just who was the person who took the application in, it would be pretty hard for me to remember. It could have been the section organizer. It could have been him, but I'm not positive.

RICE: Will you please state to the best of your recollection the year that you became affiliated with the Communist Party at Portland?

LAWYER: As near as I can remember, it was in 1931, but I'm not absolutely certain, that's just an approximate date.

RICE: Were you accepted as a member of the Communist Party, and did you pay dues to that organization, and over what period of time?

LAWYER: I couldn't remember that. I did receive a book all right, and paid some dues, but it has been so long ago I couldn't state the number of months, or whatever it happened to be. I believe the dues were monthly, although I couldn't give you any accurate check on that.

RICE: Under what name did you join the Communist Party?

LAWYER: Under the name of JOHN EMERICK.

RICE: And where did you reside during the period you were a member of the Communist Party?

LAWYER: In Portland. Do you want the city, or district?

RICE: Street address.

LAWYER: I can't give you the street address, because things were in pretty much of a turmoil, and I was on the road quite a bit. But I can tell you it was in the Lents District, mostly in the Lents District, Southeast District.

RICE: Do you recall what branch or section of the Communist Party you were a member of?

LAWYER: It was the Portland Section. It couldn't have been anything else.

RICE: Who was the leader of the branch or section that you were a member of?

LAWYER: His name was LOUIS OLSON. He was the section organizer.

RICE: When did you see LOUIS OLSON last?

LAWYER: Well, I don't remember when I did see LOUIS OLSON last. It was some time ago.

RICE: Do you believe you have seen him in the past five or six years?

LAWYER: I've met him on the streets during that time, yes, just to pass the time of day.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, have you any way to determine the true name of LOUIS OLSON?

LAWYER: That's a very peculiar question. I imagine it could be arrived at all right in time, by the proper procedure. But that's something I never did bother myself about in the past, you see.

RICE: Will you please state the address or addresses where you attended Communist Party meetings?

LAWYER: I don't believe I can give you that either. It's pretty difficult to remember those things.

RICE: Can you recall what section of town these meetings were held in.

LAWYER: Well, the meetings that I attended were held in the Lents District. You understand that was not the Section Committee I'm talking about, but that was a small group that meets in the neighborhoods. This particular group was organized with a purpose of assisting the unemployed to obtain relief. It had no connection with any industrial occupations or functions, aside from assisting the unemployed to obtain relief. It was connected with the Unemployed Council.

The Unemployed Council was the larger organization.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, this neighborhood group you have just mentioned - was this group a member of the Communist Party?

LAWYER: Well, partially so. Some of them. Of course the organization at times was composed of three and four hundred members, who were just plain citizens, not members of anything except the Unemployed Council.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, I desire to question you only about membership in the Communist Party. Will you again re-state what section or branch of the Communist Party you were a member of?

LAWYER: Well, you say Section or Branch. That simply means the Portland Section. That's the only section here, you see, the Portland Section. The Branch is probably called the nucleus.

RICE: How long did you continue to be a member of the Communist Party that you have just mentioned?

LAWYER: Well, that's another thing I can't be definite about. I was not a member of the party very long. I dropped out of the party. I couldn't get along with some of the section committee. Other members in the same neighborhood had the same difficulty, and we quit the party and continued to carry on with this neighborhood organization, which is not the party, but the Unemployed Council, and we carried on with that for our own use, that is for the purpose of trying to get relief and things along that line. In fact we carried the larger organization after we dropped from the Communist Party itself.

RICE: Would you estimate that you were a member of the Communist Party three months, six months, a year, or the approximate period, please?

LAWYER: Well, I believe that I paid dues for about five months, something like that. I was in for a month or so, and then I got disgusted and dropped out, and then I picked up the book again, and paid another month's dues or so. That's the way it was until we dropped the thing entirely. We fell out when we couldn't get along any more. There was considerable squabbling going on over there most all of the time. They were putting out instructions that we wouldn't carry out, and weren't interested in. We were interested in taking care of our neighborhood group in that particular neighborhood.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, what disposition did you make of your Communist Party membership book?

LAWYER: I don't know. I probably burned it up. I've moved four or five times, and I really don't know.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, do you recall the names of any individuals who were members of the Communist Party, with whom you were associated as previously related by you?

LAWYER: You mean members in my particular neighborhood where I belonged? Is that what you refer to?

RICE: Yes.

LAWYER: Yes, I can remember, one fellow in there especially, that was associated with the Section Committee for a short time. He used to make some speeches. I've known this boy ever since he was 12 years of age. We've been friends since that time. I'm 49 years old now. He was one of them.

RICE: Will you disclose his name?

LAWYER: Will I disclose it? Is it absolutely necessary that I do this? Of course there's no harm in disclosing his name, as far as that goes, because he has been out of it for years. He admits it, and doesn't make any bones in saying so. Yes, I'll tell you what his name is if you want to know his name. His name is NOLAN A. MACKRILL.

RICE: Does MACKRILL reside in Portland now?

LAWYER: Yes.

RICE: Do you know his address?

LAWYER: I can't tell you his house number right off like that, but I could find it in the telephone directory if you want me to look it up. I think it's 4009 S. E. 82nd, but I'm not positive that that's the number. It might be 4029 or something else. That's a close guess.

RICE: What is MR. MACKRILL's present occupation?

LAWYER: He is a statistician with the W.P.A. at Camp McNamara. He has been there for about three years, on the Wilson River Highway.

RICE: To the best of your knowledge, MR. LAWYER, is MR. MACKRILL a member of the Communist Party at the present time?

LAWYER: He is not. Absolutely not. I can swear that he hasn't been in it for nine years.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, have you ever been a member or sympathizer of any other organization which you have not mentioned advocating the overthrow of the United States Government?

LAWYER: No sir. I have not belonged to any other organizations except what we mentioned here tonight.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, have you ever made any statements to anyone which would prompt one to report you to the Federal Government?

LAWYER: Not that I recall. I've made no serious statements. That's why I couldn't understand when I came in her what this is all about. What I couldn't understand was, I understood you to say you had a recent report about me saying something of a subversive nature. Well that's foolish. It just hasn't been done, that's all. It's just somebody that got a phoney idea and thought he would bring it here. I know those things happen too. In fact, there's too much of it happening all along. Everybody wants to turn somebody else in, even for a statement made in fun. A lot of statements are made among people who are working that don't mean a thing - that are just a joke. As far as my advocating the overthrow of the government, I didn't even do that in the Communist Party, because I wasn't in it for that purpose. I was in there for the purpose of tiding myself over a tough spot. There wasn't any other way out of it. I didn't want to get a gun and stick somebody up and I never was taught to steal.

ALLEN: May I ask you a question. As a member of the Communist Party, MR. LAWYER, just what did your duties consist of?

LAWYER: Well, there wasn't very much duty to it.

ALLEN: Did you solicit any members for the party.

LAWYER: No.

ALLEN: Were these meetings held in downtown Portland, or were they held in private homes?

LAWYER: In private homes.

ALLEN: At the present time, are you personally acquainted with any active members of the Communist Party in Portland?

LAWYER: Well, no. I've been away from it for so long you see that I couldn't tell now whether a man is active or not, because I haven't talked to anybody about such things you see for several years.

ALLEN: What was your main reason for getting out of the Communist Party?

LAWYER: I got out of it because I didn't have any further need for it. I didn't really like it anyhow. It was just merely something, like I say, to tide me over a tough spot.

ALLEN: Was there any particular reason for your using an alias when you became a member of the Communist Party?

LAWYER: Well, the reason I used an alias was because I didn't thoroughly trust everybody connected with it, and the fact of the matter is, I had no intention of being in it very long, and I don't know why I used the name. I guess a lot of them did. It was a foolish thing to do at that.

ALLEN: Have you been approached recently and asked to re-join the Communist Party?

LAWYER: I haven't been approached by anybody.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, you have just read your statement that you made to us yesterday, and there are several things that you might be more specific about. MR. LAWYER, you mentioned that you were affiliated with organizations sponsored by the Party. Will you please identify the organizations you have reference to?

LAWYER: The organizations sponsored by the Party were the Unemployed Councils and the Civic Emergency Federation was also more or less sponsored by the party and it would be well to mention those two.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, you mentioned attending meetings held in the Lents District, and you mentioned that a small group met in the neighborhoods. Will you please clarify what you meant by small group.

LAWYER: The small group was the nucleus of the Communist Party itself.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, will you please clarify the reference you made to the instructions that you were to carry out with reference to your neighborhood group in that particular neighborhood.

LAWYER: The instructions which we were mostly bothered about, and the instructions which we didn't wish to carry out were instructions that this small neighborhood group, this nucleus, should - well, demonstrate or seek relief in all the different districts in the city where relief agencies had been established, and then there were demands made for money, some of it to help the German Communist Party and various things like that. Their idea seemed to be to have the Lents group do all of the work, that is trying to get relief for the unemployed all over the city and supplying most of the money, probably to keep up their section committee, or assist in keeping it up financially. That's where we offered the objections, to those things.

RICE: Did these instructions come from the Communist Party?

LAWYER: They came from the Portland Section of the Communist Party.

RICE: Do you know who passed those instructions on to your nucleus?

LAWYER: They were passed on by the Section Organizer.

RICE: Do you know his name?

LAWYER: LOUIS OLSON.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, you mentioned an organization in your statement, which you said at times was composed of 3 or 400 members, who were just plain citizens, and not members of anything except the Unemployment Council. Will you please state whether or not you made reference to the Communist Party, in this particular instance, or the Unemployment Council?

LAWYER: This group mentioned as having 2 or 300 members is the unemployed councils.

RICE: MR. LAWYER, you mentioned that you were a member of an organization now. Will you please state the name of that organization?

LAWYER: Yes, I am a member of Technocracy, Incorporated.

SUBJECT: TIMOTHY FRANCIS LEARY, JR., aka

On July 21, 1974, I was advised by a Special Agent of the Los Angeles Office that JOANNA LEARY, wife of Dr. TIMOTHY LEARY, would be coming to San Francisco to retrieve the personal papers of Dr. LEARY which were reportedly stored at the Fitzhugh-Ludlow Memorial Library, 1445 Stockton Street, San Francisco, California. I was advised that she would have the written authorization and that she had requested assistance because of the voluminous nature of these papers.

On July 25, 1974, I was contacted by JOANNA LEARY and told b6 b7C that the papers of Dr. LEARY were not actually at the Fitzhugh-Ludlow Memorial Library, but that she had determined from [redacted] this library, that he had stored the personal papers of Dr. LEARY in the basement of his residence at [redacted].

In the company of JOANNA LEARY, I went with her to [redacted], where she determined that [redacted] was not at home but that his wife had stated that she would call him and he would come to his home as quickly as he could. In approximately thirty minutes, [redacted] appeared and was presented by JOANNA LEARY with the authorization of Dr. LEARY to retrieve his papers. [redacted] and JOANNA LEARY went into another room for a short time and while there was conversation, I was not privy to what was said outside of my presence. [redacted] and JOANNA LEARY returned whereupon [redacted] took us to the basement and assisted in identifying the file cabinets containing the papers of Dr. LEARY. He was careful to point out that certain cabinets stored in the basement contained his own personal papers as well as certain notes made from the LEARY papers and could not be considered Dr. LEARY's papers. He pointed out the cabinets that contained Dr. LEARY's papers and I assisted in removing these papers from the basement and placing them in a truck parked outside. At no time did [redacted] ask me who I represented and I did indicate to him that the papers would be protected, would be catalogued and possibly microfilmed for future use by Dr. LEARY.

Date of transcription 9/6/74

Mrs. VERL WOODRUFF, 10659 Lower Azusa Road, (telephone 444-8876) was contacted at her residence. Mrs. WOODRUFF is the mother of ROSMARIE LEARY, nee Woodruff.

Mrs. WOODRUFF was advised that the purpose of the interview was designed to furnish information to her so that she might subsequently forward it on to her daughter for proper evaluation. Mrs. WOODRUFF was told that various law enforcement agencies, including the FBI, were attempting to locate ROSMARIE LEARY to interview her regarding any knowledge she might have of the events leading up to the escape of TIMOTHY LEARY from the California Prison System in September 1970.

Mrs. WOODRUFF was further advised that in all probability ROSMARIE LEARY would be taken into custody by Orange County, California, authorities in the event she decided to make herself available for interview inasmuch as she is in violation of her probationary status with that agency.

Mrs. WOODRUFF professed not to know of the whereabouts of her daughter nor is she able to contact her.

She explainedthat the last time she and her husband saw their daughter was when ROSMARIE appeared at the WOODRUFF residence shortly before she left the country. They next heard from her when she and TIMOTHY LEARY telephonically contacted them from Algiers. On the occasion that ROSMARIE visited her parents prior to contacting them from Algiers TIMOTHY LEARY was still incarcerated in the California Prison System.

Mrs. WOODRUFF was advised that in the event she is able to contact her daughter that her daugher be advised of the United States Government's interest in talking with her for the purpose of obtaining information which might tend to corroborate information furnished by TIMOTHY LEARY regarding his escape.

LEARY HAS ADVISED EARLY VERSIONS OF INSTANT BOOK VERY CLOSELY FOLLOW ACTUAL EVENTS OF ESCAPE AND PASSPORT CONSPIRACY AND CONTAIN TRUE NAMES OF SOME CONSPIRATORS. IN NOVEMBER, 1970, SIMON TRAVELED TO ALGERIA WHERE LEARY EXECUTED CONTRACT WITH RANDOM HOUSE FOR INSTANT BOOK WITH $15,000 ADVANCE, $7,500 TO BE TENDERED IMMEDIATELY TO STANDARD AS LITERARY AGENT. LEARY UNDERSTOOD THROUGHOUT THAT MICHAEL KENNEDY AND JOSEPH RHINE AND WEATHERMEN WOULD CENSOR MANUSCRIPT PRIOR TO RECEIPT BY SIMON. FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

TIMOTHY FRANCIS LEARY, JR. was interviewed in the offices of the FBI. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing agents by means of display of credentials and of the nature of the inquiry, the ownership of the LEARY archives. He was furnished an Interrogation; Advice of Rights form, which he read, advised he understood, and signed. He provided the following information:

In approximately July, 1970, during which time he was imprisoned at California Men's Colony-West, San Luis Obispo, California, he had a meeting with [redacted] and [redacted] who visited him at that prison. [redacted] and [redacted] had been previously contacted by his wife, ROSEMARY LEARY, and advised of the existence of the LEARY archives. LEARY noted that he and ROSEMARY were concerned about these archives, insofar as they were planning to leave the country. During this visit, LEARY proposed that he turn over the totality of his archives to [redacted] and [redacted] as representatives of the Fitzhugh Ludlow Memorial Library, San Francisco, California, which contains numerous books concerning the history of drugs. [redacted] and [redacted] were delighted and accepted LEARY's suggestion. At this time the possibility of [redacted] and [redacted] becoming literary assistants for publishing LEARY books and sale of material from his archives was discussed, but no specific arrangement was reached. [redacted] and [redacted] advised they felt the LEARY archives were worth at least $150,000, but no specific arrangement was made regarding an agent's percentage. LEARY advised there was never any question whatsoever to the current time that he is the legal owner of the LEARY archives, which were maintained by [redacted] and [redacted] as agents of the Fitzhugh Ludlow Memorial Library.

Interviewed on 10/24/74 at Sacramento, California File # SC 100-3667

SA [redacted] &

by SA GORDON M. SIM/KIK:epg 2 Date dictated 10/25/74

b6
b7C

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

During this meeting, LEARY advised that the LEARY papers and archives were located in the basement of his garage at 1230 Queens Road, Berkeley, California, and the ostensible purpose of the transfer of the archives to [redacted] and [redacted] was to provide a safe place for their storage and to provide for their cataloguing and filing the documents. b6 b7C

During this meeting, the LEARY archives were defined as all TIMOTHY LEARY papers from his attendance at high school to that time, including an extensive library of books, memorabilia, photographs, minor objects of art, souvenirs, manuscripts, and particularly all letters to or from TIMOTHY LEARY. No agreement in writing was ever reached concerning photostatic copies of the material in the LEARY archives except the archivists had permission to Xerox any material in the LEARY papers with the proviso that they have no right to copy material for their own purposes.

Subsequent to the first meeting and prior to LEARY's escape, LEARY met with [redacted] and [redacted] an additional two or three times at the prison where possible publication plans and reprints of previous TIMOTHY LEARY books were discussed. No formal contract was signed regarding [redacted] and [redacted] acting as literary agents, but while at California Men's Colony-West, LEARY wrote several suggestions to the archivists regarding possible sharing profits, which were never formalized. b6 b7C

LEARY noted that he in fact paid certain monies to the archivists on several occasions for their expenses in maintaining the LEARY papers. Specifically, in approximately September, 1972, he sent [redacted] about $990 from royalties for their office expenses and at an unrecalled time sent an additional $400 from other royalties for their office expenses. b6 b7C

LEARY recalls the only written document bearing on his possession of the LEARY papers was executed in Switzerland in 1972. LEARY typed out and signed a letter to ROSEMARY giving to her half of LEARY's rights to the archives during the period he and ROSEMARY were together, approximately August, 1965 to October, 1970. ROSEMARY was to receive half of the profits for any material pertaining to this period sold by the archives.

LEARY advised that in fact [redacted] and [redacted] sent Xerox copies of his San Luis Obispo correspondence with ROSEMARY to him in Algeria, which Xerox copies were eventually returned to the archivists. b6 b7C

Approximately one year ago, the LEARY papers were removed from the Fitzhugh Ludlow Memorial Library to the residence of [redacted]. The motivation for the moving of these documents was that the library was attempting to get foundation grants and felt that the controversial nature of the LEARY material might block their obtaining of such money, and [redacted] and [redacted] had a substantial fear of the police because the LEARY papers in fact contained substantial material concerning the drug LSD and other drugs. [redacted] was afraid that the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) would subpoena the totality of the LEARY archives. b6 b7C

At the present time, there is no question in LEARY's mind that the TIMOTHY LEARY archives are owned by himself. He feels there has never been any question concerning either the nature of the material, which was considered to be the LEARY archives, or his ownership of these papers. LEARY feels that [redacted] and [redacted] are well aware that they were only the custodians of the LEARY archives and have never indicated to him or to his knowledge anyone else that they owned any part of the LEARY archives. LEARY can recall no written agreement whatever in which he has relinquished any ownership of any of his papers to the Fitzhugh Ludlow Memorial Library, [redacted] or [redacted] b6 b7C

TIMOTHY FRANCIS LEARY, JR., was contacted in the offices of the FBI. He was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents by means of display of credentials and of the nature of the inquiry, determination of ownership of the TIMOTHY LEARY papers.

LEARY advised that during the period October 25, 1974, through November 2, 1974, he has reviewed all material in the possession of the FBI obtained from the residence of [redacted] archivist, Fitzhugh Ludlow Memorial Library, San Francisco, California. All material contained in both the two trunks of documents obtained by JOANNA LEARY and [redacted], and all material contained in 31 boxes of documents obtained by JOANNA LEARY in the company of Agents of the FBI in fact belong to LEARY with the following exception: b6 b7C

> One black cover notebook approximately 5½" by 8½" with the notation inside one cover, "This notebook is the property of KIF Corporation, 1028 Geary Street, San Francisco, California."

This notebook is the only item in all the above-mentioned material which does not belong to LEARY. LEARY requested that the FBI maintain custody of all above-mentioned material with the exception of the notebook.

Concerning letters missing from the material in possession of the FBI, LEARY indicated that while he was in Algeria in late 1970, [redacted] mailed to him xerox copies of the correspondence between TIMOTHY LEARY and ROSEMARY LEARY while LEARY was incarcerated in California Men's Colony - West, San Luis Obispo, California, presumably copied from b6 b7C the original letters. Also, while LEARY was in Algeria and Switzerland, he received regular correspondence from [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] both came to Switzerland in spring, 1972, and returned to the United States with approximately nine boxes of material to be maintained in the LEARY archives, including originals of correspondence between [redacted] and LEARY. b6 b7C

LEARY believes that originals of both his correspondence with ROSEMARY LEARY and with [redacted] were to be maintained in the LEARY archives by [redacted] but none of these original letters are contained in the material in possession of the FBI. b6 b7C

JOANNA LEARY was interviewed in the offices of the FBI. She was advised of the identity of the interviewing agents by means of display of credentials and of the nature of the inquiry, her obtaining documents from [redacted] and the Fitzhugh Ludlow Memorial Library. She furnished the following information: b6 b7C

During the period TIMOTHY LEARY was incarcerated at Vacaville Prison, Vacaville, California, she and TIMOTHY discussed the possibility of his cooperating with law enforcement agencies and the transfer of the TIMOTHY LEARY papers at the Fitzhugh Ludlow Memorial Library to these agencies. During this period she contacted Special Agent [redacted] Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), Los Angeles, and advised [redacted] of the desire of LEARY to cooperate with law enforcement agencies. She also advised [redacted] of the existence of the TIMOTHY LEARY papers and that she would attempt to obtain a portion of them. b6 b7C

JOANNA also advised that in approximately the first week of May, 1974, she obtained from TIMOTHY LEARY a full power of attorney which, on a date not recalled but during this period, she in the company of [redacted] displayed to [redacted], who was the custodian of the LEARY papers for the Fitzhugh Ludlow Memorial Library. b6 b7C

At approximately 9:30 p.m. on the night of May 27, 1974, JOANNA and [redacted] appeared at the residence of [redacted] San Francisco. She had previously advised [redacted] that she and [redacted] would be stopping by his residence that evening concerning his preparation with JOANNA of a book called, "Apologia for Timothy Leary". [redacted] admitted JOANNA and [redacted] to his residence, at which time she advised [redacted] that she desired to obtain all the TIMOTHY LEARY papers pertaining b6 b7C to 1969 and 1970, through LEARY's second imprisonment. [redacted] inquired as to her motives, to which she responded that she had nothing to do at that time and desired to catalogue and otherwise organize these papers. She recalled for [redacted] that she was, in fact, the common-law wife of TIMOTHY LEARY and had a full power of attorney from TIMOTHY LEARY, which she had previously displayed to [redacted] advised he did not want her to remove the files, but she advised [redacted] that he would have access to them and would be called upon to help catalogue and arrange the documents. At no time did [redacted] indicate that any of the papers of TIMOTHY LEARY belonged to him or the Fitzhugh Ludlow Memorial Library. b6 b7C

[redacted] and JOANNA proceeded to the basement where the LEARY papers were stored, and [redacted] and JOANNA began removing material concerning LEARY's correspondence with his former wife, ROSEMARY, photographs of MICHAEL KENNEDY, ELEANOR KENNEDY, TIMOTHY LEARY and ROSEMARY in Switzerland, other correspondence of LEARY, various papers and memorabilia of LEARY during his stay in Algeria, and other items. It appeared to JOANNA that [redacted] was attempting to guard the files from 1969 and 1970, but JOANNA continued to reassure [redacted]. Approximately two file drawers of documents were obtained and placed by [redacted] and JOANNA in a cardboard file box and another cardboard box. [redacted] requested JOANNA to sign a receipt for these documents which indicated she would "respect the archives", maintain care of the documents, and not allow unauthorized people access to them. At no time did either JOANNA or [redacted] imply or use any physical force with [redacted] These boxes were moved from the basement of the [redacted] residence outside into a rented station wagon and were taken to JOANNA's residence where she and [redacted] reviewed them. During this review, JOANNA took one file which contained letters between TIMOTHY LEARY and ROSEMARY LEARY during his incarceration at California Men's Colony-West, San Luis Obispo, California. b6 b7C

The next day JOANNA purchased two red, white and blue trunks at a San Francisco store and placed all the documents, with the exception of the file folder, in these trunks. She flew to Los Angeles to meet with JEROME UTZ, Assistant Attorney General, State of California, [redacted] ROGER J. LA JEUNESSE, FBI, Los Angeles, and others. Before her meeting with these persons, she placed both the trunks in a locker at the Los Angeles Airport and in fact only brought one file which she gave to [redacted] which she felt would establish her credibility, the file containing the letters between ROSEMARY LEARY and TIMOTHY LEARY at San Luis Obispo. b6 b7C

After she became convinced of the sincerity of the agents and agencies interviewing LEARY, several days later, the exact date unrecalled, she obtained the two trunks from the Los Angeles Airport and brought them to [redacted] at his office in Los Angeles. b6 b7C

During the period LEARY was being interviewed by a number of agencies, in discussions between LEARY, JOANNA, and LA JEUNESSE, it became apparent that it would be desirable to obtain all of the TIMOTHY LEARY papers, as additional evidentiary material may have been contained therein. Consequently, on an unrecalled date sometime in June, 1974, JOANNA flew to San Francisco and lodged herself at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in San Francisco, where she met with Special Agent JOE SMITH of the FBI, San Francisco. SMITH arrived at her room at approximately 11:10 a.m., at which time she discussed the obtaining of all the LEARY papers from [redacted] residence. She had previously placed a call to [redacted] concerning obtaining Xerox copies of "Apologia", and [redacted] also appeared in her room at approximately 11:20 a.m. SMITH was represented to [redacted] as a literary agent interested in publishing and editing LEARY books. It was represented to [redacted] that SMITH desired access to the LEARY archives, and [redacted] presented no objection to such access. The meeting was then terminated. b6 b7C

Subsequent to this meeting, LEARY wrote a letter which authorized JOANNA in conjunction with JOE SMITH and IRVING DEAN to obtain all of the LEARY papers in the possession of [redacted]. This letter was given to JOANNA on an unrecalled date by LA JEUNESSE. b6 b7C

On an unrecalled date sometime late in July, 1974, the same date that LEARY was making a moving picture for DEA, JOANNA again flew from Los Angeles to San Francisco. She was met at the San Francisco Airport by Special Agent ROBERT SAVAGE of the FBI, San Francisco, and was driven to the offices of the FBI in San Francisco. There she met with Special Agent IRVING DEAN, SAVAGE and three other Special Agents of the FBI, whose identities she does not recall, in DEAN's office. From DEAN's office she called the [redacted] residence and spoke to [redacted] was not there so she advised [redacted] she desired to see [redacted] immediately and would be at the [redacted] residence in approximately one hour. In discussions with IRVING DEAN, they determined that all FBI agents would represent themselves as being from a microfilm company in San Francisco. SA DEAN leafed through the telephone book and obtained the name of a San Francisco microfilm company, which they agreed they would indicate they represented. b6 b7C

JOANNA, SAVAGE and DEAN in a sedan followed by a van with the other three agents arrived at the [redacted] residence, [redacted] at approximately 11:30 a.m. JOANNA, SAVAGE and DEAN knocked on the residence door and were greeted by [redacted]. They were admitted to the [redacted] residence by [redacted], who indicated that [redacted] would not be back with the first copy of "Apologia" for awhile. (JOANNA noted that the previous day she had called [redacted] from Los Angeles indicating that she was going to San Francisco the next day to see the first proof of "Apologia".) JOANNA introduced SAVAGE and DEAN as microfilm company executives, and all three b6 b7C persons were seated in the front room of the [redacted] residence awaiting [redacted] arrival. During this period JOANNA gave to [redacted] LEARY's letter to [redacted] [redacted] authorizing the release of all the LEARY papers and indicated to her that she intended to obtain these papers for microfilming and cataloguing. She advised [redacted] that there was at that moment a van outside waiting to transport the LEARY papers. b6 b7C

At approximately noon, [redacted] arrived and was introduced to DEAN and SAVAGE as microfilm company executives. [redacted] at this time appeared to JOANNA to be nervous but friendly, but it appeared to JOANNA that [redacted] had been telephoned by [redacted] prior to his arrival. During the time SAVAGE, DEAN and JOANNA were in the front room of the [redacted] residence, also present were an unknown male and female hippie. b6 b7C

After [redacted] arrived, he, [redacted], and JOANNA went into a bedroom at the [redacted] residence. [redacted] indicated that he could not release the LEARY papers, did not know the microfilm company, and did not know the people accompanying JOANNA. [redacted] asked how long the LEARY papers would be in the possession of JOANNA, to which she replied she did not know. [redacted] indicated it would be very dangerous to release the papers, as some documents may be destroyed and that the archives contained information that would injure a lot of people. JOANNA questioned [redacted] concerning these expressed fears, to which he responded that the LEARY papers contained material pertaining to usage and research of the drug, LSD, and also said he would have to ask permission of all the people who had written letters to LEARY before he would release them to JOANNA. JOANNA indicated to [redacted] that she wanted these files, that DEAN and SAVAGE were microfilm company executives from Los Angeles, and that there was a b6 b7C van outside waiting to transport the files, all of which she had paid for. [redacted] indicated perhaps he should call [redacted] another archivist, for his opinion. The male hippie who was present in the bedroom during part of the conversation told [redacted] he probably would not need to call [redacted] which appeared to satisfy [redacted]. b6 b7C

[redacted] indicated that at this point JOANNA would do just about anything to get the files. JOANNA asked [redacted] why he was so paranoid, to which he responded with the question, "Are these people agents?" JOANNA said that they were just people from a microfilm company. [redacted] then said that all the files are going to the police and the government and he could not let that happen. JOANNA replied that the TIMOTHY LEARY archives did not belong to him, that TIMOTHY wanted JOANNA to obtain these files, and questioned [redacted] as to whether the files or TIMOTHY LEARY's friendship meant more to him. She asked whether he was a friend or a bookworm. [redacted] responded that he guessed he didn't have much choice, to which JOANNA replied, "No you don't." b6 b7C

[redacted] at this time requested some more time to think about the matter, but JOANNA gave him the TIMOTHY LEARY letter and indicated again that the files did not belong to [redacted]. She told him he was relieved of the responsibility for the archives and did not have to worry. [redacted] said his responsibility was to protect people in the archives. JOANNA again asked [redacted] what he was afraid of, to which he responded that he guessed he was going to have to give the files to JOANNA. b6 b7C

JOANNA at this time said she was going to the basement and was accompanied by SAVAGE, DEAN, and [redacted] [redacted] When these people arrived in the basement, [redacted] asked JOANNA what files she wanted, and JOANNA replied she wanted everything. At this time SAVAGE, DEAN and JOANNA began taking these files through a basement b6 b7C door with the assistance of the other three agents in the van who were admitted through the basement door. On several occasions [redacted] objected to a specific packet or file folder that was being taken and in each and every instance, JOANNA indicated to [redacted] that the documents in question belonged to TIMOTHY LEARY. For example, [redacted] objected to the taking of a packet of TIMOTHY LEARY documents pertaining to LEARY's stay at West Point, manuscripts of LEARY books, and other items indicating to JOANNA that these were [redacted] personal papers. JOANNA simply explained to [redacted] they were obviously not his papers and belonged to TIMOTHY LEARY, and in each case [redacted] relented. b6 b7C

After 15 or 20 minutes, [redacted] appeared resigned and left the basement to go upstairs. The unknown hippie male had accompanied the group to the basement where he stayed. During the approximately 15 minutes [redacted] was gone, a number of file cabinets and boxes were transferred from the basement to the van. [redacted] then returned to the basement and insisted that both JOANNA and DEAN sign release papers, to which both consented. b6 b7C

During another approximately 15 minute period, other file cabinets and boxes were removed containing certain items which [redacted] protested. However, as previously, in each case JOANNA convinced [redacted] that the item being taken in fact belonged to TIMOTHY LEARY and not to [redacted]. b6 b7C

At the end of this period, the van was filled. JOANNA and [redacted] returned upstairs where [redacted] sat at a typewriter and typed a letter for JOANNA to sign, parts of which were dictated by JOANNA and parts of which were written by [redacted] JOANNA signed this typewritten document, which indicated she took full responsibility for the archives, relieved [redacted] of the responsibility for the archives, would protect the sources b6 b7C mentioned in the archives from being damaged, etc. [redacted] then ran out into the street, asked IRVING DEAN to sign a document which JOANNA believes is the document she also signed, but was not certain. DEAN signed the document on the front steps of the [redacted] residence, and JOANNA, DEAN, SAVAGE in the sedan and the three agents in the truck departed the [redacted] residence at approximately 1:30 p.m. JOANNA advised that because the van was filled, approximately two file cabinets were left in [redacted] basement, which she believed contained LEARY's 1973 letters from Folsom Prison and other items which she could not recall. b6 b7C

During the above incident, at no time did [redacted] ever indicate that he was the owner of the TIMOTHY LEARY archives but rather indicated he was the custodian or archivist. He made no comment whatsoever regarding photostatic copies of TIMOTHY LEARY documents, and JOANNA noted that sometime in approximately June, 1974, she in the presence of [redacted] had given [redacted] $300 as payment on his maintaining the LEARY papers. During this time she also gave [redacted] another $100 because he told her he was broke. b6 b7C

Regarding the actual involvement of DEAN and SAVAGE in obtaining these documents, JOANNA related very little conversation took place between [redacted] and these two persons. The conversation that did take place mainly concerned [redacted] inquiries concerning DEAN's representation of a microfilm company. [redacted] closely questioned DEAN about both the microfilm company and microfilming, and it appeared to JOANNA that DEAN lacked sufficient knowledge of microfilming to convince [redacted] he was in fact a microfilm executive. However, DEAN continually told [redacted] he was hired by JOANNA LEARY to do this job and knew very little about the details. All of this conversation took place upstairs prior to the group's moving to the basement. Once downstairs, DEAN, SAVAGE and b6 b7C

the other three agents moved quickly to transport the LEARY papers from the basement to the van. JOANNA emphasized that neither DEAN nor any of the other agents by threat, innuendo, or impression implied that physical force could or would be used against [redacted]. In fact, JOANNA felt that no one was so much as rude to [redacted] and described the atmosphere as only being "hurried". b6 b7C

After the van was filled, DEAN indicated to [redacted] that they would return tomorrow to obtain the material that would not fit in the van, and a conversation ensued concerning making arrangements for obtaining the documents the next day. JOANNA had indicated that during a private conversation with DEAN after it became apparent all the material would not fit in the van, they had decided they would not return the next day to obtain the material. b6 b7C

Later that afternoon, JOANNA flew back to Los Angeles where she was lodged on the Queen Mary. She had previously furnished [redacted] her telephone number, which he called later that same evening and indicated to her that if she did not return the material in 24 hours, he would release to the press a statement that the documents were illegally obtained, that the persons representing themselves as microfilmers were in fact agents, and would issue a press release to this effect. JOANNA attempted to allay [redacted] fears by telling him she would protect the archives and told him to relax. During this conversation, [redacted] made no allegations whatever that he was the legal owner of the TIMOTHY LEARY papers. This is the last conversation she has had with [redacted] since that time. b6 b7C

JOANNA also commented that a girl named [redacted], who is corroborating on a LEARY book with [redacted], has a small portion of the LEARY papers at her residence because of this book. In addition, [redacted] b6 b7C had assisted [redacted] in closing JOANNA's San Francisco office called "Star Seed" and also has a portion of both JOANNA and TIMOTHY LEARY's papers in her possession. JOANNA cannot recall the specific TIMOTHY LEARY papers involved.
