I recieved a call from District 5, Mt. Holly, to proceed to the Howard Johnsons Motor Lodge on Rt. 541, that a man was running around the premises with a rifle in his hand. I acknowledged their call and proceeded to the Motor Lodge. While enroute, Ptl. [redacted] of our Department, came on the air and said that he was on his way to assist. Upon arrival, I met Ptl. [redacted] and we both checked the property of the Lodge and found no one. I checked with the Motor Lodge, and [redacted] the woman on duty at the Lodge, said that the subject had just walked around the first set of buildings. I then went back to the patrol car and radioed for assistance. I went back to the Lodge and asked [redacted] if the subject had checked into a room. She said yes, he and [redacted] were in room 44. I then went to the car and pulled around to the set of buildings of which Room 44 belonged to. The assistance I requested arrived, one car from Mt. Holly, one car from Eastampton, and a car from Burlington Twp. I then groupd the men together and informed them as to what I had. I sent Eastampton's car around the back of the building and Ptl. [redacted] Ptl. [redacted] and Ptl. [redacted] of Mt. Holly P. D., and Ptl. [redacted] of Burlington Twp. P. D., and myself went up to approach the door to Room 44. I stood directly to the left of the door along with Ptl. [redacted] while Ptl. [redacted] Ptl. [redacted] and Ptl. [redacted] stood to the right of the door. I knocked on the door, and a woman answered, who is it? I said Westampton Twp. Police, open the door. She then opened the door, and began screaming and making a lot of noise. I then grabbed her arm and pulled her out of the way and Ptl. [redacted] held on to her. I asked her if [redacted] was in the room and if he had a rifle with him. I then turned around and I was staring down the barrel of the of the rifle he had in his hand. I then pushed the rifle up in the air with my right hand and pulled him out of the doorway with my left hand. Ptl. [redacted] and Ptl. I bought a 22 caliber semi automatic rifle Oct. 12 in Yonkers, New York and signed proper form and answered all question Truthfully. The purpose I had in purchasing the gun was because my best friend, who I want to go into business with Nunts and I asked his wife today, Oct. 14, 1972 if he would go hunting shooting with me this Sunday. But he could not so I decide that I would go hunting later today about 5:30 PM at the appropriate place near the Delaware Water Gap. I consider my self a resident of Burlington, Va. although I plan to make my permanent home at Staten Island, New York. I therefore went down yesterday to the Firearms Control Board in New York City to file the proper papers so that the gun could be legally registered in New York. The FBI Identification Division is empowered to release to subjects of identification records copies of such records upon compliance with the requirements contained in the enclosed copy of United States Department of Justice Order 556-73. Fingerprint impressions are needed for comparison with fingerprints in our files to ensure that an individual's record is not disseminated to an unauthorized person. Enclosed for your assistance is an applicant fingerprint card. If the Paramus Police Department does not provide fingerprinting services, it is suggested you contact other local law enforcement agencies for assistance.

The Identification Division serves only as the custodian of arrest data submitted to us voluntarily by the contributing agencies. Therefore, any request for the revision or removal of non-Federal arrest data in our identification files, including the recording of dispositional information, must be received from the law enforcement agency which originally submitted the information to us or from some other criminal justice agency of competent jurisdiction. In an effort to clarify your arrest record, we are corresponding with the above-named agencies. You will be advised of the results of our contacts.

Federal Bureau of Investigation

Room 10104
10th & Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20537-9700

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am hereby requesting a copy of my own fingerprint file which I am informed I am entitled to. The following information is submitted:

Name: [redacted]

Address: Per Above

Date Birth: [redacted]

SSN: [redacted]

b6
b7C

*no file
sent 10-26-92
C 6551*

Attached is a seventeen dollar check ($17) and a return, pre-paid Federal Express envelope for your use.

It is vitally important that this request be expedited and that somehow the 2-3 week period be reduced. It is important for my family that I be able to see the correctness of this file before any others do and they will be making this request of you about the same time I will.

THIS IS THE REQUEST I INTENDED TO MAKE!

However, Lieutenant [redacted] of the Paramus police department refused to take my prints inspite of having a stack of job applicant cards. So I find myself in the middle because on the one hand the F.B.I. does not need the fingerprints to produce the file (yet is demanding them) and on the otherhand our police station which does prints regularly is refusing to do them and has refused to call officer [redacted] at the front desk to confirm your policy. I think you are both in violation of the law.

b6
b7C

So there is no check and no return envelope. But I am registering an objection to the contents of that file:

At the same time this request is being made, I am formally challenging what I believe to be on your records in error. Since you have informed me there is no way to hold up a third party request it is incumbent on you to expedite this challange so as not to put my job at risk.

While I have authorized the third party to access your files (and had no choice in that matter), I did not authorize you to put out or the third party to receive erroneous information.

The following information may be on your files and if it is, it needs to be immediately corrected:

a. In 1970, an item about destroying State Property in Culpeper, Virginia and spending time at Bland Correctional facility. The item should read that the arrest was made for a traffic violation only, that the other charge was trumped up involving a .50 cent light bulb and that the public defender was not informed about the charge until the case was tried. At a very minimum the .50 cent light bulb must also be specified as the State property involved.

b. In 1985, at my home in Paramus, New Jersey, because of a domestic dispute [redacted] some person called the police. The police made an unsubstantiated charge. There was never any complaint entered, the case was not tried and the charges subsequently dropped. Therefore, this item must be removed. It is a violation of my rights of privacy to carry such files and dispense them. [redacted] and I live happily together to this date.

At a minimum, just as credit reporting agencies, e.g. TRW Credit Data do, I ask that if you do not erase the errors, you enter my objections to them on your file. Otherwise, you are knowingly putting out disputed data and if this data reaches a prospective employer in its present, uncorrected form, and a job is lost, then it is my legal opinion, for what that is worth, that you are liable for damages.

FEDERAL EXPRESS
RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Very Truly Yours.

During the course of the investigation, the Newark Division learned that [REDACTED] was arrested by Agents of the INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE (IRS). According to [REDACTED] Inspector with the IRS, [REDACTED] sent a similar letter to the Director of the IRS. A review of that letter by the UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, Eastern District of New York, determined that enough probable cause existed to charge [REDACTED] with violation of Title 18, United States Code (USC), Section 876 (mailing threatening letters). A warrant was issued out of the Eastern District of New York and on August 24, 1993, [REDACTED] was arrested by IRS Agents at his residence in Paramus, New Jersey. [REDACTED] was released on a $10,000 personal recognizance bond.

On October 14, 1972, [redacted] was arrested in Mount Holly, N.J., for carrying a weapon with intent to assault. The details are that on October 14, 1972, Westampton Township N.J. police responded to a HOWARD JOHNSON'S MOTOR LODGE, in Westampton to reports of a man running around the premises with a rifle. Upon arrival, the police entered a room in which [redacted] was standing with a rifle pointing directly at them. The police disarmed [redacted]. The rifle was a Glenfield, Model 70, .22 cal., Marlin rifle, serial number 72206691, with a Hy-Score, Model number 811, uniscope mounted on top of the rifle. The rifle was loaded with a clip containing (7) seven rounds, one (1) round in the chamber, and the safety was off. Also a .177 cal., Marksman repeater, CO2 hand gun in a suitcase was found. Additionally, on May 14, 1985, [redacted] was arrested by the Paramus Police in Bergen County N.J., and charged with assaulting [redacted] and contempt of a court order. The details surrounding that incident are that on January 6, 1991, an argument irrupted between [redacted] and [redacted] at his residence in Paramus, N.J. [redacted] left his residence claiming he needed to cool off. Later that same day, [redacted] telephoned [redacted] and told her that he was at the HYATT REGENCY HOTEL located in Washington, D.C. and that he was going to blow up a "federal building". [redacted] knew that [redacted] had not taken his medication for at least three days prior to this incident, which prompted her telephoning the police. [redacted] was interviewed by Special Agent's of the FBI in Washington, D.C., at the HYATT REGENCY HOTEL, and found not to have any explosive devices in his possession. The AUSA's Office, District of New Jersey, advised that there was insufficient evidence for prosecution of [redacted] based on the comments that he made to [redacted] therefore, their office declined prosecution.

In April, 1993 a letter, from [redacted] was received at the Legal Counsel Division at FBI Headquarters. The letter, addressed to DIRECTOR SESSIONS, was virtually identical to the one received at the IRS and the one received by SENATOR BYRD.

b7C

FBI Headquarters forward the letter to the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory (LLNL) in California, for a credibility assessment. The LLNL stated in their technical assessment that they believed [redacted] thermonuclear bomb to be a hoax "with high confidence". The LLNL provide a psycholinguistic assessment which, in summary, stated that there was clear evidence of Bipolar Manic Syndrome Disorder in [redacted] communications. They also concluded that his specific threats regarding world destruction are without foundation. LLNL also provided a psychologic assessment in which they concluded that [redacted] does not appear to be a threat to government facilities or personnel, or to the general public at this time.

b7C

The rationale for LLNL psychologic assessment is in summary based on the information that all of [redacted] threats have been implicit. [redacted] threats are about what he could do in developing binary nerve gas, thermonuclear devices, or pandemic mosquito-borne AIDS. He presents the implicit threats as a demonstration of his superior knowledge and the potential danger he poses if he is not taken seriously. His threats are hypothetical, stated conditionally, in the subjunctive, and without the force of intent or tactical planning behind them".
