CALVIN FLOYD NAY, Route 2, Box 11C, Harrisville, West Virginia (WV), was interviewed at his residence. Present at the time of the interview was [REDACTED] Deputy, RITCHIE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT.

b6
b7C

NAY advised that he personally made a telephone call to the office of United States Senator ROBERT BYRD, Washington, D.C.

NAY advised that the purpose of his call was to warn Senator BYRD that while BYRD was in the state of West Virginia, and in particular Parkersburg, WV, BYRD should be aware that NAY had received information, BYRD's life was in jeopardy.

NAY stated that he had received, through his thought processes, certain information that would indicate BYRD was in danger. NAY further noted that he had previously received information concerning the same type of threats to the grandson of Senator BYRD.

NAY stated that at no time was he making a personal threat on the Senator's life, but only wanted to provide information that the Senator may be in danger from some other source.

NAY advised that this is a common problem he has had over the years, in that very few people understand his thought processes.

NAY advised that he would make no further calls to the Senator's office, and had no intention of indicating he was making a threat against the Senator's life.

At this time the interviewing Agent admonished NAY as to the seriousness of such threats to public officials, and again NAY indicated that he would make no further efforts to contact the Senator's office.

It was apparent during the conversation with NAY, that NAY exhibited an abnormal and unstable personality. NAY's thought processes were disjointed and rambling at times.
