FBI PUBLIC AFFAIRS – DIRECTOR’S AM NEWS BRIEFING

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 6, 2021 4:00 AM EST

Intel Agencies Say Russia Was Likely Behind Hacking Of Government Departments. The CBS Evening News (1/5, story 4, 0:25, O'Donnell, 4.65M) reported “the FBI and three other national security agencies” issued “a rare joint statement saying Russia was likely behind the cyber hacking of multiple government departments.” NBC Nightly News (1/5, story 7, 0:15, Holt, 6.11M) said the agencies’ “assessment is a rebuke of President Trump’s suggestion that China might have been behind it.” Likewise, Bloomberg (1/5, Sebenius, 3.57M) says the statement “is the latest contradiction of Trump’s assessment of the hack,” and the New York Times (1/5, Sanger, Barnes, 20.6M) that it is “a clear rebuke of President Trump’s efforts” to cast blame on China. Politico (1/5, Geller, 6.73M) says the statement “had been approved two weeks ago but was delayed at the White House’s insistence, a person familiar with the matter told Politico.”

The AP (1/5, Tucker) says Trump, “in a series of tweets late last month, sought to downplay the severity of the hack and raised the unsubstantiated idea that China could be responsible. Tuesday’s statement makes clear that that is not the case, saying the intrusions are likely ‘Russian in origin.’”

Reuters (1/5, Menn) says the statement from the Office of the Director of National Intelligence, the FBI, the National Security Agency, and the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency said that the hacker, “likely Russian in origin, is responsible for most or all of the recently discovered, ongoing cyber compromises of both government and non-governmental networks.” The Washington Post (1/5, Nakashima, 10.52M) reports the statement “said that fewer than 10 federal entities had their networks breached, though that list includes major agencies such as the Departments of State, Treasury, Homeland Security, Energy and Commerce. U.S. officials have told The Washington Post that they think that as many as 300 government and private-sector entities at most have been compromised, though investigators are working to ascertain the scope of the hacks and to notify nongovernment entities affected.”

USA Today (1/5, Johnson, 12.7M) says the statement is “the most definitive accounting yet after separate statements last month by Secretary of State Mike Pompeo and then-Attorney General William Barr who both pointed to the Kremlin.”

CNN (1/5, Cohen, 89.21M) reports, “While top US officials, including Secretary of State Mike Pompeo, have previously suggested that the hacking campaign was carried out by a Russian-backed group, Tuesday’s joint statement offers the most definitive and concrete assessment about the attack’s origins from agencies investigating the incident. In short, the statement issued by the Cyber Unified Coordination Group (UCG) clearly acknowledges what US officials and experts have suspected since the data breach was first disclosed last month: the Advanced Persistent Threat (APT) actor responsible is ‘likely Russian in origin.’”

The Washington Times (1/5, Gertz, 626K) reports, “The Russian government has denied any involvement in the attack, which has raised serious questions about the security of public and private computer networks in both the U.S. and abroad. The cyberattack affected about 18,000 government and private networks, including computers at key federal agencies such as the Energy, Treasury and Commerce departments.”

Yahoo! News (1/5, McLaughlin, 10.87M), The Hill (1/5, 5.69M), CNBC (1/5, Haselton, 7.34M), Forbes (1/5, Beer, 10.33M), the Financial Times (1/5, Subscription Publication, 1.48M), ABC News (1/5, Barr, 2.44M), TechCrunch (1/5, Whittaker, 502K), the Telegraph (UK) (1/5, Murphy, 249K), US News & World Report (1/5, Shinkman, 1.91M), Fox News (1/5, Betz, 23.99M), NBC News (1/5, Dilanian, 4.91M), NPR (1/5, Myre, 3.69M), NextGov (1/5, Baksh), Bloomberg (1/5, Korte, Sebenius, 3.57M), the Washington Examiner (1/5, Dunleavy, 888K), the Wall Street Journal (1/5, Volz, Subscription Publication, 8.41M), BBC News (1/5, 876K), Axios (1/5, Rummier, 1.26M) and The Daily Caller (1/5, Datoc, 375K) provide similar coverage.

In an editorial, the Washington Post (1/5, 10.52M) says protecting the government from the next cyber attack and developing a “strategy for speedy recovery from infiltration” must be “an urgent priority for the Biden administration.”

Top Admiral Says SolarWinds Hack Did Not Harm US-Based Nukes. The Washington Times (1/5, Glenn, 626K) reports, “America’s nuclear arsenal wasn’t compromised by a recent cyber attack that targeted thousands of sensitive computer networks used by government agencies and private companies, the Navy admiral in charge of the U.S. Strategic Command said.” According to the Times, “The hack exploited a flaw in network monitoring software produced by Texas-based SolarWinds that allowed an Advanced Persistent Threat (APT) actor – most likely Russia – to covertly install back door access points in computer networks, officials said. ‘We believe this was, and continues to be, an intelligence gathering effort,’ according to a joint statement from the FBI, the National Security Agency, the Director of National Intelligence and other federal officials.”

FBI, FAA Investigate Threat To US Capitol To Avenge Soleimani. The CBS Evening News (1/5, story 3, 1:55, O'Donnell, 4.65M) reported that "the FBI and FAA are looking into a breach of the air traffic control system tonight after someone broadcast a threat to attack the US Capitol over the radio frequencies used by pilots." CBS' Jeff Pegues added that a "chilling threat obtained exclusively by CBS News was heard by multiple air traffic controllers Monday afternoon in New York." Unidentified Speaker: "We are flying a plane into is it Capitol Wednesday. Soleimani will be avenged." CBS cited "sources" who said "the Pentagon and other agencies were briefed today about the digitized voice recording and believe it was designed to suggest hitting the Capitol on the same day Congress is set to count the electoral college results."

On its website, CBS News (1/5, Pegues, 5.39M) reports, "While the government does not believe the warning of an attack is credible, it is being investigated as a breach of aviation frequencies." CBS adds, "The FBI is not commenting but said it takes 'all threats of violence to public safety seriously.'"

The Hill (1/5, Budryk, 5.69M) reports, "The message was received on Jan. 3, the first anniversary of the U.S.' killing of Soleimani at a Baghdad airport." Additional coverage includes Fox News (1/5, Singman, 23.99M).

FBI Warns Of COVID-19 Related Fraud Schemes. USA Today (1/5, Phillips, 12.7M) reports, "For the past year, federal law enforcement agencies have received tens of thousands of complaints of fraud tied to the coronavirus pandemic." FBI Financial Crimes Section Chief Steven Merrill said, "We've been concerned about fraud schemes regarding the vaccine as soon as the vaccine went from an idea to reality ... The one thing that we've learned throughout this pandemic is that when there's money to be made, criminals will figure out how to do it." He added, "We want to make sure that the public understands that the information they should be getting about the vaccine should not be coming from an advertisement or unsolicited information; it should be coming from an official government website." Warned against "medical providers asking patients to undergo unnecessary tests and procedures, bad actors seeking personal information from unsuspecting victims in order to fraudulently bill Medicare, fraudsters asking people to pay out of pocket to obtain vaccines, and marketing representatives offering wholesale shipments of vaccines in exchange for fees."

Reuters (1/5, Bellon) reports, "Scams include emails promising entry to supposedly secret lists for early vaccine access and robocallers impersonating government agencies." Message boards on the dark web offer purported COVID-19 vaccines for sale.

The Houston Chronicle (1/5, Forward, 982K) reports indicators of fraud include "advertisements for paying for early access to the vaccine or requests for patients to pay out of pocket to get the vaccine or to enter personal medical information," offers for additional medical testing or procedures when obtaining a vaccine, "as well as marketers offering to sell or ship doses of a vaccine, domestically or internationally, in exchange for payment of a deposit or fee."

FBI Says It Was Unaware Agent Was Interrogating Legislative Staffer About Conversation On Legislation. The Detroit Free Press (1/5, Boucher, 2.16M) reports that in a statement, the FBI said that while it interrogated Michigan state Sen. Rosemary Bayer's chief of staff Katie Reiter about a conversation Bayer and her staff had about discussing draft legislation on tear gas, it was unaware of "Reiter's job before coming to her home to question her." While "Bayer suggested the FBI may have eavesdropped on the call," Special Agent Mara Schneider, a spokeswoman for the FBI in Detroit, wrote in an email that the agency "received a complaint from a concerned citizen who overheard comments about the use of tear gas during the upcoming election." She added, "At no time prior to that interview did the citizen or the FBI know the reported comments were made in the context of proposed legislation."

Officials, Law Enforcement Prepare For Possible Violence As Trump Supporters Flock To DC For Protests. The AP (1/5, Khalil, Balsamo) reports hundreds of supporters of President Trump gather in Washington, DC, "to cheer his baseless claims of election fraud a day before a congressional vote to affirm Joe Biden's victory." Local officials and law enforcement have been "bracing for potential violent street clashes" and many businesses boarded up their windows in case the protest devolves "into the unrest seen in May and June when dozens of businesses were vandalized." Both the National Guard and federal agents "were on standby, in case they were quickly needed in the city this week." Meanwhile, Trump expressed support on Twitter for the protesters and "president was expected to personally address his supporters in Washington on Wednesday during a rally on the Ellipse."

The New York Times (1/5, 20.6M) reports, "Local authorities have enhanced security and warned residents in and around the city to steer clear of potentially violent agitators." The Times says that protestors' "vitriol had already begun on a rainy Tuesday," and, "after dark, groups of men wearing body armor and helmets began showing up," some armed.

Additional coverage includes the Wall Street Journal (1/5, Levy, Subscription Publication, 8.41M) and the Washington Post (1/5, 10.52M).

Proud Boys Leader Tarrío Barred From DC. The AP (1/5, Balsamo, Long) reports, "A judge has banned the leader of the Proud Boys, a far-right extremist group, from the nation's capital after he was accused of vandalizing a Black Lives Matter banner at a historic Black church and found with high-capacity firearm magazines when he was arrested." Enrique Tarrío is barred "from entering the District of Columbia, with very limited exceptions to meet with his attorney or appear in court." He was arrested in Washington a the day before as he was arriving ahead of protests. He is "accused of burning a Black Lives Matter banner that was torn down from a historic Black church in downtown Washington last month." Police say he "posted a confession on the right-wing site Parler that he had set fire to the sign."

The Washington Post (1/5, 10.52M) reports that in charging Tarrío "police relied on his statement to the news media and videos that show him crouched with others near the banner as it was being set on fire." The Post adds, "The FBI's Washington Field Office enhanced some of the videos to obtain a clearer look." District police "said they also charged Tarrío with two felony counts of possessing high-capacity ammunition feeding devices, which is a legal term for a magazine that allows guns to hold additional bullets."

Additional coverage includes WTOP-FM Washington (1/5, Moore, 164K).

Far-Right Forums Urge Violence During Protests. The Washington Post (1/5, Harwell, 10.52M) reports, "Far-right online forums are seething with references to potential violence and urging supporters of President Trump to bring guns to Wednesday's protests in Washington." Trump's tweet promoting his baseless electoral fraud claims and promoting the January 6 protest "has become a central rallying cry," and "talk of guns and potential violence is rife on the encrypted messaging app Telegram, the conservative social media site Parler and on thedonald.win, an online forum that previously operated on Reddit before the company banned it in June after years of racism, misogyny, anti-Semitism and calls for violence."

Pentagon Seeks To Avoid Political Entanglements. The Washington Post (1/5, Ryan, 10.52M) reports, "Pentagon leaders are bracing for any renewed presidential attempts to employ the military for political ends." President Trump's effort "to use expansive military force to put down widespread protests over police violence against Black citizens" in June "served as a wake-up call to many top officials at the Pentagon and in Congress about Trump's willingness to reach for the military to advance his personal and political interests." As part of the careful posture and "the Pentagon's wariness in the final days of" Trump's presidency, it emphasized that National Guard units deployed at DC Mayor Muriel Bowser's request "wouldn't carry firearms, use armored vehicles or helicopters, or receive backup from units in other states."

David Ignatius, in a column in the Washington Post (1/5, 10.52M), writes that "senior government officials appear confident that the chaotic situation can be handled by the D.C. police, federal law-enforcement agencies and the National Guard – without requiring any use of regular-duty military troops." Police officers, joined by the guard, will establish control points near the main march sites. Officials' assessment is "based partly on experience," but officials also anticipate that left-wing counterprotesters will mostly not attend, lessening "the likelihood of confrontations that could escalate into bloodshed and serious disorder." While there are concerns that after dark on Wednesday "small bands of Proud Boys and other extremists" may "go looking for trouble," but "officials expect that the planned force would be adequate."

DC Mayor Urges Against Deployment Of "Unidentifiable Personnel." The Washington Times (1/5, Zantow, 626K) reports that in a letter to federal officials, DC Mayor Muriel Bowser urged against deploying "unidentifiable personnel" at pro-Trump rallies, writing, "Unidentifiable personnel – in many cases, armed – caused confusion among residents and visitors and could become a national security threat with no way for [D.C. police] and federal law enforcement to decipher armed groups."

Legislators Advised To Use Tunnels Amid Protests. The AP (1/5) reports the House sergeant-at-arm, in a memo to members of Congress, advised that, with "potential violence in Washington tied to protests," they should "use underground tunnels while traveling between chambers in the Capitol and to nearby office buildings during the day."

Kenosha DA Will Not Bring Charges In Police Shooting Of Jacob Blake. In the lead story, NBC Nightly News (1/5, lead story, 2:25, Holt, 6.11M) reported, "There's breaking news tonight from Wisconsin, where a prosecutor has announced there will be no charges filed against" Rusten Sheskey, "a white Kenosha police officer who shot" Jacob Blake "in the back as he leaned into a car last August." Blake "was left paralyzed after the shooting that was captured on video and led to angry protests and even deadly violence on the streets." NBC's Gabe Gutierrez added that Kenosha County District Attorney Michael Graveley "says Blake was armed with a knife, and the officer could have successfully argued self-defense." Graveley said the officers were "called to the scene on a designated domestic abuse call" with the knowledge that there was an arrest warrant for Blake at the time.

On ABC World News Tonight (1/5, story 3, 2:00, Muir, 7.66M), Alex Perez reported that Kenosha is "bracing for more protests after" Graveley's decision. The August 23 shooting took place "after police responded to a call about a domestic dispute,” and cell phone footage of the incident “shows 29-year-old Blake struggling with Officer Rusten Sheskey and another officer,” who “both deployed their tasers, but...were unsuccessful.” Perez reported that Blake then “appears to lean into the driver’s side of the car,” and Sheskey “opens fire” with “Blake’s three young boys in the backseat.” Graveley said, “We say with confidence, based on Blake’s admission, based on all the officers saying it, and this video evidence, he clearly is armed with a knife.”

The CBS Evening News (1/5, story 6, 1:50, O’Donnell, 4.65M) reported, “Tonight Kenosha, Wisconsin is on edge after prosecutors announced the police officer who shot Jacob Blake will not face criminal charges, nor will any other officers.” The August shooting “sparked unrest in Kenosha, and the National Guard is on patrol tonight.” Graveley said, “This case is really all about self-defense and can it be proven that it does not exist. It is really evidence about the perspective of Officer Sheskey.” Blake’s father, Jacob Blake, Sr., said, “We’ll find federal ways that justice will find for my son. We’re not done yet.”

The AP (1/5, Richmond) reports that Graveley “announced Tuesday that he will not file criminal charges against” Sheskey, the white police officer who shot Blake “in the back in Kenosha last summer, leaving him paralyzed and setting off sometimes violent protests in the city.” The August 23 shooting, “captured on bystander video, turned the nation’s spotlight on Wisconsin during a summer marked by protests over police brutality and racism.” Over 250 arrests were made “in the days that followed, including 17-year-old Kyle Rittenhouse.”

Reuters (1/5) reports that Graveley “found police officer Rusten Sheskey acted in self-defense while shooting Blake seven times at close range, saying Blake was armed with a knife and had resisted arrest, withstanding multiple Taser shots.” The decision, which also clears two other officers, “could incite more demonstrations, which have frequently broken out in the United States in recent years after police have been cleared of wrongdoing in shootings of African Americans.” Ben Crump, an attorney for Blake, tweeted, “We are immensely disappointed and feel this decision failed not only Jacob and his family but the community that protested and demanded justice.”

The Washington Post (1/5, Guarino, Berman, Bellware, 10.52M) reports that witness accounts differ from Graveley’s depiction, describing Blake “trying to break up an argument between two women” and unarmed when he was shot while walking “back toward his vehicle.”

The Wall Street Journal (1/5, Ailworth, Subscription Publication, 8.41M) reports that Graveley also said that no charges will be brought against Blake following a review of the incident. Civil Rights Division Assistant Attorney General Eric Dreiband said that a separate investigation being carried out by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in cooperation with the Wisconsin Division of Criminal Investigation is ongoing. Bloomberg (1/5, Joyce, 3.57M) reports that Wisconsin Gov. Tony Evers (D) “activated about 500 National Guard soldiers and airmen in an effort to ensure public safety” on Monday, ahead of the announcement.

The New York Times (1/5, A1, Chiarito, Bosman, Eligon, 20.6M) reports, Evers said after the announcement, “Today’s decision is further evidence that our work is not done — we must work each day in earnest toward a more just, more fair, and more equitable state and country, and to combat the racism experienced by Black Wisconsinites.” The Kenosha City Council had “unanimously passed an emergency declaration Monday that would allow the mayor to implement a curfew” after the announcement, while the Kenosha County sheriff “declared a state of emergency” ahead of expected protests.

The Milwaukee Journal Sentinel (1/5, Barton, Spicuzza, Linnane, 844K) reports that Graveley “said he relied both on an investigation by the Wisconsin Department of Justice and on an outside assessment of that investigation, conducted by former Madison Police Chief Noble Wray,” who “served as a federal police reform specialist during the Obama administration after his retirement in 2013.” The Daily Caller (1/5, Dima, 375K) reports that Graveley said he made the decision “independent of political forces or outside winds that swirl about.” Breitbart (1/5, Pollak, 1.26M) has more on the decision.

Rittenhouse Pleads Not Guilty To All Charges. The Milwaukee Journal Sentinel (1/5, Vielmetti, 844K) reports, “More than four months after he was charged with killing two protesters and wounding a third during civil unrest in Kenosha, Kyle Rittenhouse formally entered not guilty pleas Tuesday, triggering the next phases of what is still expected to be a very drawn-out case.” The Sentinel says, “Rittenhouse has become a symbol to both sides in the national debate over race and justice, law and order, and guns.” Rittenhouse “is charged with five felonies: first-degree intentional homicide in the death of Joseph Rosenbaum, 36; first-degree reckless homicide of Anthony Huber, 26; attempted first-degree intentional homicide of Gaige Grosskreutz, 26; and two counts of recklessly endangering safety, for shots fired at others.”

Fox News (1/5, Ruiz, 23.99M) reports that Rittenhouse “and his legal team have argued self-defense, maintaining that he only fired his rifle after being attacked from behind.” Prosecutors allege that Rittenhouse traveled “from his home in Antioch, Ill., across state lines to nearby Kenosha, after learning of a call for militia to protect businesses during protests on Aug. 25.” The case is set to go to trial “on March 29, but the start date could be delayed. A pretrial hearing was scheduled for March 10.”

Attorneys For Woman On Death Row Ask Trump To Commute Sentence. USA Today (1/5, Timms, 12.7M) reports that lawyers for Lisa Montgomery, “the only woman on federal death row,” filed a clemency petition on Tuesday asking the President to commute her sentence to life without parole. Montgomery “was convicted of killing 23-year-old Bobbie Jo Stinnett in the northwest Missouri town of Skidmore in December 2004.” Her attorneys, Kelley Henry and Amy Harwell, have argued that congenital brain damage and multiple traumatic brain injuries “have resulted in incurable and significant psychiatric disabilities.” Montgomery, who is set to be executed on January 12, “would be the ninth federal inmate put to death since the Justice Department resumed executions in July after a nearly 20-year hiatus,” and the first woman since 1953.

Islamic State Support Trial Pushed Back. The AP (1/5, Selsky) reports Judge Marco Hernandez moved back the trial of Hawazen Sameer Mothafar, whose trial on allegedly producing and disseminating “Islamic State propaganda and recruiting material through social media platforms” had been scheduled to begin Tuesday, to November 1. Mothafar’s attorney, Mark Ahlemeyer, “, told the judge he needed time to determine what evidence will be presented, what pretrial motions he would file and how much investigating his team needs to do, adding that he assumed it would involve international travel.” Judge Hernandez “noted the case is complicated because of its international aspects, the requirements of classified discovery and other issues.”

Pro-Trump Website Targeting “Enemies,” Attributed To Iran, Reappears. The Washington Times (1/5, Blake, 626K) reports the pro-Trump website “Enemies of the People” reappeared, listing the addresses of purported “traitors” along with images of their faces in crosshairs. “The FBI and the U.S. Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency, CISA, ultimately determined Iranian were responsible for the original ‘Enemies’ site and related web addresses and accounts.”

Sharpton: Firing Not Enough For Officer Who Killed Andre Hill. The AP (1/5, Amiri, Welsh) reports, “Dozens gathered at the First Church of God” in Columbus, Ohio to commemorate Andre Hill, “as family and lawmakers called for justice to be brought against the white Columbus police officer who fatally shot” Hill. The Rev. Al Sharpton said, when delivering Hill’s eulogy, “We don’t want your sympathy. We want justice.” He added that firing the officer, Adam Coy, was not enough, saying, “We cannot have a precedent that if you kill us, you just lose your job and keep living your life as you were.” Meanwhile, “Ohio’s attorney general, the U.S. attorney for central Ohio and the FBI have begun their own probes into the shooting.”

Appeals Court Upholds Corruption Conviction Of Former Texas State Judge. KRGV-TV Harlingen, TX (1/5) reports, “The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals upheld the conviction of former” Texas state District Judge Rudy Delgado. The court rejected Delgado’s arguments that his conviction wasn’t supported by the evidence. The FBI recorded conversations between attorney Noe Perez, a federal informant, and Delgado, “who accepted cash during conversations about pending cases.”

(U) Protective Intelligence Open Source Brief

(U) Inauguration week demonstrations

(U) Background

(U//LES) On November 7, 2020, major news outlets began to project Joe Biden as the next President of the United States. Following the projection, many supporters of President Donald Trump began doubting the results and claiming the election was stolen. Supporters of President Trump have participated in multiple demonstrations nationwide calling for inquiries into the results of the election. Law enforcement estimates for participant numbers during recent demonstrations within Washington, DC are 11,000 (November 2020), 3,000 (December 2020), and 25,000 (January 2021).

(U) Verbal and physical altercations occurred between pro- and anti-Trump demonstrators in November 2020 and December 2020. The January 6, 2021, protest resulted in the breach at the U.S. Capitol. During each event, there were numerous arrests including charges for assault, assault on a police officer, possession of a weapon, disorderly conduct, inciting violence, riotous acts, and crossing a police line. Law enforcement officers were victims of attacks during each protest.

(U) As the inauguration of President-elect Biden approaches, many groups including some supporters of President Donald Trump have called for and are planning demonstrations January 16-20, 2021, as a final attempt to try and stop the change of command. Posts and promotional materials found online for these demonstrations include encouragement to come armed, calls for the use of violence, and civil disobedience.

(U) Daily calls to protest

(U) January 16, 2021

(U//LES) OSB is currently tracking five demonstrations on January 16, 2021:

(U) On January 16, 2021, at 6:00 AM, Newstimerlive will host a demonstration at the Sylvan Theatre Monument Grounds called "StandbyTrump Protest." The purpose of the demonstration is to stand against the impeachment of President Donald Trump. There was no indication of civil disobedience. Facebook currently indicates 1 is going and 7 are interested.

(U) On January 16, 2021, at 12:00 PM, the group The Patriot Action for America will host a demonstration at the U.S. Capitol called "American Patriots Nationwide" (also known as PAFA 2021). The purpose of the demonstration is to prevent President-elect Biden from being inaugurated "by any means necessary." Numbers of planned participants are currently unavailable.

- (U//LES) An alleged right-wing extremist group, The Patriot Actions for America, is organizing and encouraging a violent demonstration. The group plans to gather at the U.S. Capitol for two hours on January 16th and January 17th to assess their level of support. Prior to their site being removed by GoDaddy, the group alleged if participant numbers reached at least 15,000, they would prevent President-elect Joe Biden from being inaugurated by sending 4,000 participants each to the U.S. Capitol, the Supreme Court Building, and the White House. The group then plans to encircle the buildings and only allow those designated by President Trump into the buildings. The group plans to then detain all Democratic politicians who "played a role in planning, or executing, or supporting the attempted coup of the President of the United States of America from 2016 to 2020" until war is declared or a cease fire occurs.
- (U) Further details were supposed to be released on January 15, 2021; however, GoDaddy took the site down due to the violent nature of the demonstration, and it is no longer accessible. A new website has not been located [redacted] who is believed to be a leader/promoter for the event, has been inactive since January 6, 2021. b6 -per USSS

- (U//LES) Open source searches on January 14, 2021, located a Twitter user, [redacted] claiming to be the creator of the PAFA 2021 website. The user claimed it was a mistake and posted, "please do not commit any violence this weekend or during President Biden's inauguration. The pafa2021 site was a mistake, has been deleted and taken down never to return."

(U) Daily from January 16-21, 2021, the group ANSWER Coalition will host demonstrations at John Marshall Park, Trump Hotel, Lafayette Park, Navy Memorial, Freedom Plaza, the Ellipse, and Washington Monument grounds. The purpose is to take "urgent action to save the environment, end war and prioritize people's needs." There is no indication of civil disobedience. Current number of planned participants are currently unavailable.

(U) Daily from January 15-24, 2021, at an unknown time, the group DC Action Lab will host demonstrations at Columbus Circle, Freedom Plaza, Farragut Square, McPherson Square, Lincoln Memorial, National Mall, between 3rd and 14th streets, Washington Monument grounds, JFK Hockey Fields, Constitution Gardens, Hains Point, MLK Memorial, Franklin Square, Lafayette Park, White House, and Meridian Hill. The purpose is "freedom of speech against the inauguration." There is no indication of civil disobedience. The permit application listed 5,000 participants.

(U) Daily from January 16, 2021, at 10:00 AM, to January 20, 2021, at 10:00 PM, the individual [redacted] will host an event called "Occupy Washington / President Trump Inauguration" at the White House. The purpose of this event is to defend the Constitution and secure the inauguration for President Trump. There is no mention of civil disobedience. Facebook currently indicates 1 is going and 0 are interested.

(U) January 17, 2021

(U//LES) OSB is currently tracking four demonstrations for January 17, 2021:

(U) On January 17, 2021, at 12:00 PM, an unknown group associated with the Boogaloo movement will host a demonstration called, "Refuse to be silenced." According to the flyer the demonstration will be an armed march from the Washington Monument to the White House, with some factions such as Big Iqloo Bois indicating plans to demonstrate at the U.S. Capitol. The purpose of the demonstration is to "demand freedom, end the corruption, and stand up for liberty." Current numbers of planned participants are currently unavailable. #J17, #boogaloo Bois, and #thehibiscussociety are being used to promote the event online.

(U//LES) Although no civil disobedience has been confirmed, organizers have encouraged attendees to bring weapons to the event.

(U//LES) Previously reported as three separate events, additional open source research indicates the same location and purpose, in addition to the same promotional materials for the event.

- (U) The unknown group associated with the Boogaloo movement plans to march from the Washington Monument to the White House. Originally, the demonstration was planned and advertised in late December 2020. At that time, they encouraged those who could legally carry firearms, to carry firearms in support of Second Amendment rights. However, following the siege on the U.S. Capitol, misinformation spread surrounding this event, with many news outlets reporting "Refuse to be silenced" is a Pro-Trump demonstration. As a result, there is

(U) now chatter on social media that many Trump supporters will arrive and participate in the event.

- (U) According to the website Treeofliberty.me, providing updates on the event, the group plans to be peaceful. It states they will respect barriers and listen to commands from law enforcement. They further state, "contingencies in place will prevent an infiltration of the event and there will be absolutely no resemblance to events on January 6th." The organizers additionally state they will be looking for activities that threaten the original message of the event. Attendees who carry are encouraged to point weapons in a safe direction, and be unchambered or unloaded with the safety engaged.
- (U) As of January 10, 2021, TreeofLiberty.me indicated their plans within Washington, DC were cancelled, though they continued to encourage gatherings at state capitals "according to state gun laws."
- (U) On January 13, 2021, the cloud service hosting the website removed Treeofliberty.me.

(U) Daily from January 16-21, 2021, the group ANSWER Coalition will host demonstrations at John Marshall Park, Trump Hotel, Lafayette Park, Navy Memorial, Freedom Plaza, the Ellipse, and Washington Monument grounds. The purpose is to take "urgent action to save the environment, end war and prioritize people's needs." There is no indication of civil disobedience. Current number of planned participants are currently unavailable.

(U) Daily from January 15-24, 2021, at an unknown time, the group DC Action Lab will host demonstrations at Columbus Circle, Freedom Plaza, Farragut Square, McPherson Square, Lincoln Memorial, National Mall, between 3rd and 14th streets, Washington Monument grounds, JFK Hockey Fields, Constitution Gardens, Hains Point, MLK Memorial, Franklin Square, Lafayette Park, White House, and Meridian Hill. The purpose is "freedom of speech against the inauguration." There is no indication of civil disobedience. The permit application listed 5,000 participants.

(U) Daily from January 16, 2021, at 10:00 AM, to January 20, 2021, at 10:00 PM, the individual [redacted] [redacted] will host an event called "Occupy Washington / President Trump Inauguration" at the White House. The purpose of this event is to defend the Constitution and secure the inauguration for President Trump. There is no mention of civil disobedience. Facebook currently indicates 1 is going and 0 are interested.

(U//LES) Following the breach at the U.S. Capitol Building on January 6, 2021, there was an increase in chatter regarding demonstrations for the 2021 Presidential Inauguration. However, due to the unlawfulness, and the postings about inaugural demonstrations including calls for civil disobedience and violence being mostly spread and promoted on social media, major social media platforms, website hosting companies, and app store providers, have taken precautions to limit the accessibility to information on these upcoming demonstrations. [REDACTED]

(U//LES) Facebook and Twitter have additionally removed multiple groups, flyers, and event pages [REDACTED]

(U) Parler saw a surge in popularity over the past several months as many conservatives switched to the platform feeling Twitter and Facebook exercised too much censorship over conservative views. Even more users moved to Parler following President Trump's suspension from Facebook and Twitter. However, in the days since the events at the U.S. Capitol, Apple, Google, and Amazon have worked toward the removal of Parler from their services. On January 11, 2021, Amazon Web Service took Parler offline. Parler CEO claims it will take approximately one week to build a new site with a new web provider. Wimkin, another app that promotes free speech, will be removed from the Apple app store on January 11, 2021. As of now, it will still be available on Android-based phones and desktops.

(U//LES) Parler users are upset at technology companies for this additional censorship and many users are encouraging each other to switch to alternative platforms like Telegram and Signal until Parler can rebuild. Both of these apps are advertised as 'messaging apps' that traditionally employ encryption technology or have more sophisticated means of requiring user authentication. [REDACTED]

Here are some highlights from today's coordination call regarding the 6 January events:

Overall Highlights:

- There is anticipated for large numbers at the 6th January event, especially as POTUS has discussed and promoted it.
- POTUS is expected to arrive in DC on 1 January and then a trip to Atlanta on 4 Jan; it does not appear at this time that he or the family was invited to these events or will attend.
- Anticipated WMATA stations to see increase in ridership are Metro Center, Gallery Place, and Union Station; this is based on similar events from 12 December.

Health/temperature screenings will be required upon entry into the JOCC. Additionally, face masks are required while inside of MPD facilities. While MPD will have some spare personal protective equipment (PPE) and cleaning materials on site, it is highly recommended that representatives bring their own.

There will not be meals provided during the activation, so please ensure you bring all the personal food and beverage you require for your tour of duty. There are some vending machines in the building as well.

Unfortunately, there will be no available refrigerators, so if needed please bring a small cooler if needed.

There are some local restaurants that deliver to [Redacted] as well.

There is wireless connectivity in the JOCC and it is an UNCLASSIFIED//~~FOUO~~/LES operating environment, so laptops, cell phones, and agency radios are authorized. If you do not have a laptop with a wireless connection, there are a limited number of DC government computers at some of the work stations that we can facilitate access through. Please let us know if this is the case ahead of time.

As always, thank you for your continued support.

We have a collection emphasis message (CEM) going out next week for Inauguration. I'll have the collection team prepare something for the 6th. This would canvass all intel components in the field for the information.

Law enforcement and partner agencies continue to mobilize necessary resources to address the dynamic situation at the Capitol and throughout the larger DC-area. Efforts to safely evacuate all individuals at the US Capitol and clear the grounds continue to evolve rapidly precluding exact estimates pertaining to crowd size and movement.

IOC INTELLIGENCE:

(U//~~FOUO~~) Law enforcement identified a suspicious vehicle parked in the 300 block of First St SE at approximately 0915. The owner of the vehicle was identified as Alabama-resident Lonnie Coffman. USCP recovered two firearms on Coffman's person and arrested him on weapons violations. A safety search of the vehicle by USCP revealed a cooler with 11 mason jars filled with an unknown liquid; a pistol, rifle, M4, machetes, crossbow, and various types of ammunition; and rags. USCP bomb techs on the scene believed the mason jars and rags were components for Molotov cocktails. Coffman later informed FBI personnel on scene that the mason jars were filled with a mixture of melted Styrofoam and gasoline. FBI ERT and HERT remain on scene processing the truck and weapons. A cursory review of FBI reporting reveals FBI [Redacted]

The owner of the vehicle was identified as Alabama-resident Lonnie Coffman. USCP recovered two firearms on Coffman's person and arrested him on weapons violations. A safety search of the vehicle by USCP revealed a cooler with 11 mason jars filled with an unknown liquid; a pistol, rifle, M4, machetes, crossbow, and various types of ammunition; and rags. USCP bomb techs on the scene believed the mason jars and rags were components for Molotov cocktails. Coffman later informed FBI personnel on scene that the mason jars were filled with a mixture of melted Styrofoam and gasoline. FBI ERT and HERT remain on scene processing the truck and weapons. A cursory review of FBI reporting reveals FBI [REDACTED]

Subject: FBI WFO Update for January 6th Events

(U//FOUO) The following list of events is being maintained per request of WFO Executive Management. The items on this list are compiled by FBI partner agencies. FBI WFO does not have any information to suggest these events will involve anything other than first amendment protected activity and is being distributed for situational awareness. Their inclusion here is not intended to associate the protected activity with criminality or a threat to national security, or to infer that such protected activity itself violates federal law. However, based on known intelligence and/or specific, historical observations, it is possible the protected activity could invite a violent reaction towards the subject individual or others in retaliation or with the goal of stopping the protected activity from occurring in the first instance. In the event no violent reaction occurs, FBI policy and federal law dictates that no further record be made of the protected activity.

The following information is current as of 3 January 2021 at 0800. This is for FBI internal use only.

Hello,

I saw the following in the Washington Post and was hoping you could confirm these estimates:

"The FBI estimates that the protesters who assemble at the Ellipse and other march sites Wednesday will total 10,000 to 20,000 — well below the 50,000 to 100,000 touted on some pro-Trump websites."

I am on deadline, so a quick response would be greatly appreciated. Thank you!

Morning Jen and Matt,

[REDACTED] and I were talking this morning and hoping you can give us some direction for the sit reps. As you are both aware during the last event we were inundated with requests from both external partners and internal FBI entities asking to be included on the sit rep distro, seeing as this event is gaining alot of attention from the USIC, what is our posture for including outside WFO entities in the sit rep distro?

Also FY [REDACTED] hopefully everyone is aware [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] this is a great roll-up and offers a host of good info from which the ADIC may select to help give FBI EM a good optic into the Jan 6 landscape. Please extend my thanks to the JTTF and Intel folks who worked on this last night and this morning.

Adding the other SACs for visibility.

Boss [REDACTED] let us know if you have follow-up questions or need anything additional.

Hello,

I saw the following in the Washington Post and was hoping you could confirm these estimates:

"The FBI estimates that the protesters who assemble at the Ellipse and other march sites Wednesday will total 10,000 to 20,000 — well below the 50,000 to 100,000 touted on some pro-Trump websites."

I am on deadline, so a quick response would be greatly appreciated. Thank you!

Digital Media Tips

Overview

- Digital Media Tips (DMT) is a service you can use to collect photos and videos from the public in high-profile cases.
- Many citizens have proactively contacted law enforcement to provide information and images of possible criminal activities and suspects. The FBI can establish a tip line and web page for those who wish to voluntarily submit any photos, videos, or information for large or high-profile investigations.
- To help with the volume of information that is being shared, the system allows administrators to flag and process incoming data and coordinate covering the leads.

First Deployment

- Activated in 2013 in support of the Boston Marathon bombing investigation
- 5,694 files (16 TB) submitted

Additional High Profile Use

- 2016, Orlando FL, Pulse Night Club Shooting
- 2017, Las Vegas NV, Concert Shooting
- 2017, Charlottesville VA, Rally Violence
- 2019, El Paso TX, Walmart Shooting

The screenshot shows the FBI's Digital Media Tips web form. At the top, it features the FBI logo and the text "FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION". Below this is a navigation bar with links for "CONTACT US", "ABOUT US", "NEWS RELEASES", "SERVICES", "STATES & SERVICES", "CAREERS & SAFETY", "FOIA", and "FOR A STATE". The main content area is titled "Reporting Information in Orlando, Florida Mass Shooting" and includes a sub-header "The FBI is seeking information regarding the recent mass shooting at a nightclub in Orlando." The form contains several input fields: "Your First Name", "Your Middle Name", "Your Last Name", "Your Phone Number", and "Your E-Mail Address". At the bottom, there is a "Submit" button and a small disclaimer: "Information will be shared with the FBI and other law enforcement agencies. Your information will be kept confidential." The page number "4" is visible in the bottom right corner.

As you are both aware during the last event we were inundated with requests from both external partners and internal FBI entities asking to be included on the sit rep distro, seeing as this event is gaining alot of attention from the USIC, what is our posture for including outside WFO entities in the sit rep distro?

Subject: [EXTERNAL EMAIL] - Re: [EXTERNAL] First Amendment Coordination Call for First Amendment Preparations for January 6, 2021
Attachments: 21-0278 Women for America First.pdf

All,

I wanted to provide all with a few updates USPP has received this afternoon.

-The PIC has verbally relinquished Freedom Plaza and the area of Sylvan Theater for Jan 6. They are still discussing whether they want to relinquish the Mall, but are hesitant to do so as they want to start setting up their event on January 7th for Inauguration. The PIC will have further conversations and get back to NPS regarding the Mall. Also, NPS does require that the PIC put all of this in writing, which they have not done yet. Until it is in writing, it is not technically relinquished.

-NPS has a meeting with [REDACTED] at 0900 tomorrow regarding the use of Sylvan Theater for her permit. Hopefully we will have a better understanding of her plans.

-Women for America First [REDACTED] filed another application this afternoon for Jan 6th thru NPS. The application is for 5,000 people on the Ellipse. I have attached that application. As the application was just received no meeting has been scheduled yet. So, as of now, NPS is tracking possible groups at Freedom Plaza, the Washington Monument Grounds, the Ellipse, the National Mall, John Marshall Park, and Columbus Circle.

Quick question for USSS for the good of the all. With the possibility of a large group being on the Ellipse, will USSS be [REDACTED]?

Good morning partners –

I would like to have the final, key Law Enforcement partners join in for a coordination call on, Monday, January 4, 2020, a 1330 hours to discuss the First Amendment permits filed for January 6, 2021. I'm respectfully asking that this call be strictly held to LE/FEMS members only. Hopefully we will all have a pretty good grasp on the size/scope of what the various organizers are attempting to do so that we may all keep our planning moving forward.

I'm pulling all the POCs onto this email to facilitate that coordination.

Go forth and do what you do best!

Good morning. The A/AG has requested several pieces of data about FBI's response to the Capitol. He is looking for the following: (1) total number of FBI personnel who were dispatched to the Capitol grounds; (2) specific types and groups of the personnel that were dispatched; (3) the dispatch and/or arrival times for each group; (4) the duties that each group were covering; and (5) any duties or actions that should be highlighted (ex. FBI cleared the Senate Chamber, FBI bomb techs rendered devices safe, etc.). He wants these numbers for press and other information requests. The round-up below is what my people were able to cobble together overnight, but it is missing a lot of detail. Is this something you can get or have one of the other EADs (or whoever you think is the best person) get for us? The A/AG would like something this morning.

Thank you,

I've discussed this with most of you over the phone during the last 12 hours, but i thought it would be helpful to put this in writing for you in advance of this evening's briefing.

Let me start by thanking you for your responsiveness and professionalism, notwithstanding the last minute nature of some of these requests.

Thank you, Steve, for the sit rep you sent to me on the green side, and for the JTTF sit rep that you are making available to me on the red side.

The senior national security leadership on the transition team is asking for a daily unclass security briefing punctuated by classified briefings today, Friday and Monday. If today's briefing goes well, i think they may be open to canceling some of these briefings.

The senior national security leadership on the transition team is asking for a daily unclass security briefing punctuated by classified briefings today, Friday and Monday. If today's briefing goes well, i think they may be open to canceling some of these briefings.

Sounds good. Yeah, I was on the S&L call. I thought it went well and your comments were good.

So if you can make it tomorrow, you can go first and say what you want and then I can follow up with my messages and then we'll go into Q&A.

Thanks for the support and don't worry if something else comes up and you have to beg off.....Mike

Thanks Bridgette. I didn't see the DSAC EWG on the invitation list. My expectation is that they would be invited. Tammy should be able to help with that.

I will be in attendance and my leader EAD Steve Laycock, Intelligence Branch may attend as well if his schedule permits. Other OPS staff/leaders may be present but will not have a speaking role. If EAD Laycock is available, he will likely address the group and then I would follow him with any follow up items. If I can arrange a CTD leader to join us I will do so. That is TBD.

As for your agenda, I think the title is appropriate. You can say that the FBI will be present on the brief. I don't know that we will need 15 minutes because we will not be briefing but reinforcing some of the material that we have already distributed and will provide support for the CISA Director's comments.

Please call with any questions.....Mike

(U) Scope

(U//~~FOUO~~) This Joint Intelligence Bulletin (JIB) is intended to highlight the threat of violence from domestic violent extremists (DVEs) in the wake of the 6 January violent breach by some DVEs of the US Capitol

Building in Washington, DC, following lawful protest activity related to the results of the General Election. [U]
Anti-government or anti-authority violent extremists (AGAAVE), specifically militia violent extremists

(MVEs);^{[2][3]} racially or ethnically motivated violent extremists (RMVEs);^[4] and DVEs citing partisan political grievances will very likely pose the greatest domestic terrorism threats in 2021. In 2021, threats and plotting of illegal activity, including destruction of property and violence targeting officials at all levels of the government, law enforcement, journalists, and infrastructure, as well as sporadic violence surrounding lawful protests, rallies, demonstrations, and other gatherings by DVEs will very likely increase due to renewed measures to mitigate the spread of COVID-19, socio-political conditions, and perceived government overreach. The FBI, DHS, and NCTC advise federal, state, local, tribal, and territorial government counterterrorism and law enforcement officials, and private sector security partners to remain vigilant in light of the persistent threat posed by DVEs and their unpredictable target selection in order to effectively detect, prevent, preempt, or respond to incidents and terrorist attacks in the United States.

(U//FOUO) The 6 January 2021 Violent Breach by DVEs of the US Capitol Building Very Likely Will Serve as an Enduring Driver for Violence by a Range of DVEs

(U//FOUO) The 6 January 2021 violent breach by suspected DVEs into the US Capitol Building very likely will serve as a significant driver of violence for a diverse set of DVEs. Attendance at the lawful protest by ideologically diverse DVEs and others, the subsequent engagement of a sizeable group from that protest in the breach, and the death of an individual directly engaged in the breach very likely will serve to galvanize DVEs and increase collaboration primarily between MVEs and RMVEs, as well as DVEs who adhere to QAnon conspiracy theories.^{[5][6]} These DVEs and others may also perceive the event as a step toward achieving their initiatives, and consider the death of a perceived like-minded individual as an act of martyrdom.^[7] Some DVEs' view the 6 January event as a success, in conjunction with the potential to exploit follow-on lawful gatherings and ideological drivers—including conspiracy theories, such as QAnon—likely will also inspire some DVEs and others to engage in more sporadic, lone actor or small cell violence against common DVE targets, including racial, ethnic, or religious minorities and institutions, law enforcement, and government officials and buildings. Criminal activity by rioters targeting members of the media at the breach is also indicative of an increased and prolonged DVE threat of targeted violence against members of the press due to perceived complicity in a system hostile to their beliefs.

- » (U//FOUO) Shortly after 2:00PM on 6 January, multiple rioters broke windows, scaled walls, and forced entry into the US Capitol Complex. Rioters assaulted law enforcement, illegally entered congressional offices and chambers, and vandalized and stole property. Separately, two suspected improvised explosive devices (IEDs) were found on the US Capitol grounds and were rendered safe.
- » (U//FOUO) During the riot, an alleged QAnon-supporter who traveled to Washington, DC, engaged in lawful protests, entered the US Capitol illegally, and was shot by law enforcement as she attempted to gain access to a restricted area, subsequently succumbing to her injuries, according to open source reporting.
- » (U//FOUO) Some participants active at the Capitol displayed insignias used or adopted by multiple DVEs, including three percenters (III%) and other MVE symbols—the Confederate flag and symbols associated with neo-Nazis—popular with RMVEs.^[8] Nooses and plastic restraints were carried or stationed at or near the Capitol by some rioters, possibly to demonstrate their intent to cause harm to government officials. Symbols associated with QAnon conspiracy theories were also displayed by some rioters.
- » (U) During rioting on the Capitol grounds, individuals pursued and threatened journalists, according to open source reporting. Rioters destroyed or stole cameras and other media equipment outside the Capitol, and the phrase, "Murder the media," was found scratched into a door within the Capitol.

(U//FOUO) Diverse Range of DVEs Very Likely to Mobilize in an Effort to Target Elected Officials and

Government Buildings with Violence Following Perceived Political Shifts

(U//FOUO) Amplified perceptions of fraud surrounding the outcome of the General Election and the change in control of the Presidency and Senate—when combined with long-standing DVE drivers such as perceived government or law enforcement overreach, and the anticipation of legislation perceived by some DVEs to oppose or threaten their beliefs—very likely will lead to an increase in DVE violence. Additionally, narratives surrounding the perceived success of the 6 January breach of the US Capitol, and the proliferation of conspiracy theories will likely lead to an increased DVE threat towards representatives of federal, state, and local governments across the United States, particularly in the lead-in to the 20 January Presidential Inauguration. The targeting of government buildings and officials is consistent with observed activity in 2020, when armed individuals, including DVEs, threatened elected officials and occupied state government buildings.

- » (U//FOUO) In October 2020, FBI investigations resulted in the arrests of 14 MVEs on charges related to an alleged conspiracy to kidnap the Governor of Michigan before the November elections due to perceived abuses of power pertaining to her response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Over several months, the MVEs conducted surveillance, tactical training, and recruitment activities, and made efforts to procure and test IEDs in support of this conspiracy. The MVEs also considered attacks on the Michigan State Capitol and law enforcement.
- » (U//FOUO) On 10 November 2020, a New York-based MVE was arrested for alleged threats to kill politicians, law enforcement, and lawful protesters. Two days after the November elections, the MVE allegedly posted to social media, “The carnage needs to come in the form of extermination of anyone that claims to be democrat.” He subsequently posted “nothing is off the table” regarding a Democratic Senator and wrote, “The Turner Diaries must come to life.” The MVE also indicated wanting to attack the FBI building and unspecified federal agencies.^[9]
- » (U//FOUO) Since the 6 January event, violent online rhetoric regarding the 20 January Presidential Inauguration has increased, with some calling for unspecified “justice” for the 6 January fatal shooting by law enforcement of a participant who had illegally entered the Capitol Building, and another posting that “many” armed individuals would return on 19 January, according to open source reporting. The recent removal efforts by social media platforms used by DVEs may push some to revert back to other platforms they perceive as more secure, further challenging our ability to identify and warn of specific threats.
- » (U//FOUO) The increasing prevalence and influence of conspiracy theories based on a belief in the existence of global or “deep state” actors who work to manipulate various social, political, and/or economic conditions of the United States very likely serves as a driver of some DVE violence. Some rioters at the 6 January breach were alleged supporters of QAnon conspiracy theories, according to open source reporting. Other DVEs may be motivated to target government officials and buildings because of similar theories, including the “Great Reset.”^[10]

(U//FOUO) Range of DVE Actors Very Likely to Pose Increasing Threat of Violence at Lawful Protests, Rallies, Demonstrations, and Other Gatherings in 2021

(U//FOUO) The violent breach of the US Capitol Building is very likely part of an ongoing trend in which DVEs exploit lawful protests, rallies, demonstrations, and other gatherings to carry out ideologically-motivated violence and criminal activity. Throughout 2020, DVEs with differing ideological goals and perspectives exploited such events to promote, organize, conspire, and plot lethal violence against ideological opponents and other targets of their grievances. DVEs’ capability and intent to engage in violence at lawful gatherings very likely will increase throughout 2021, as some DVEs perceive increased socio-political pressures following the Presidential Inauguration. Under these conditions, and with the perception among some DVEs that the breach of the US Capitol Building was a significant advance toward achieving their ideological goals, DVEs may be inspired to carry out more violence, including violence against racial, ethnic, and religious minorities and associated institutions, journalists, members of the LGBTQ+ community, and other targets common among some DVEs. Such perceived pressures may stem from, but not be limited to, one or more of the following factors:

- » (U//~~FOUO~~) The potential for shifts in various policies many DVEs may perceive to oppose or threaten their ideological goals and agendas, or feed into existing narratives or conspiracy theories many DVEs subscribe to regarding the US government's exercise of power, influence, and initiatives: possibly including gun control legislation, the easing of immigration restrictions, and new limits on the use of public land.
- » (U//~~FOUO~~) Ongoing false narratives by DVEs that the 2020 General Election was illegitimate, or fraudulent, and the subsequent belief its results should be contested or unrecognized.
- » (U//~~FOUO~~) Some DVEs' discontent, or general concerns, with renewed measures to mitigate the spread of COVID-19, the ordered dissemination of COVID-19 vaccinations, and the efficacy and/or safety of COVID-19 vaccinations.

(U) Outlook

(U//~~FOUO~~) The FBI, DHS, and NCTC remain concerned about the potential for a loosely organized, sustained, and significant DVE population mobilizing to violence based on social media calls to target government infrastructure or officials. The shared false narrative of a "stolen" election and opposition to the change in control of the executive and legislative branches of the federal government may lead some individuals to adopt the belief that there is no political solution to address their grievances and violent action is necessary. Additionally, in-person engagement between DVEs of differing ideological goals during the Capitol breach likely served to foster connections, which may increase DVEs' willingness, capability, and motivation to attack and undermine a government they view as illegitimate. ^[11]

(U//~~FOUO~~) In the near term, DVEs could exploit upcoming events to engage in or justify violence, including events attended by MVEs and "boogaloo"^[12] adherents scheduled nationally from 16 to 20 January; the 20 January Presidential Inauguration and associated events in Washington, DC; and any departure of the 45th President from office prior to the end of his term. The "boogaloo" is a concept most commonly used by DVEs, particularly MVEs, to reference an impending second civil war or insurgency against the US Government. Calls for revolution may especially resonate with MVEs, who often justify violence based on their belief that they are guardians of the Constitution and the legacies of the American Revolution. While they may not necessarily share the partisan views of those who engaged in the 6 January breach, MVEs and other DVEs who adhere to the "boogaloo" concept and seek a politically motivated civil war, and RMVEs who seek a race war may exploit the aftermath of the Capitol breach by conducting attacks to destabilize and force a climactic conflict in the United States. These factors, and the broad perception among DVEs that the violent breach was successful, may contribute to DVEs' willingness to carry out sporadic, lone actor or small cell violence. Such DVE violence may be targeted against racial, ethnic, and/or religious minorities and associated institutions, journalists, members of the LGBTQ+ community, and other targets common among some DVEs.

(U//~~FOUO~~) Ongoing law enforcement efforts to arrest individuals who participated in the 6 January Capitol breach could deter some DVEs, and lead others to adjust their tactics and to lessen law enforcement scrutiny. Existing trends in some DVEs' transition to what they perceive as more secure online communication platforms to discuss threat activity following increased law enforcement scrutiny very likely will continue. Law enforcement may seek to disrupt DVEs prior to any potential violence based on their pre-mobilization illegal activities, including charges related to explosives; illegal or illegally modified weapons; unlawful use of restricted firearm components; and unlawful possession of firearms, ammunition, or body armor by prohibited possessors. Law enforcement may also leverage state and local laws and ordinances that limit or restrict paramilitary activities of private militias. The FBI, DHS, and NCTC urge state and local authorities, to promptly report suspicious activities related to potential domestic violent extremism. The FBI, DHS, and NCTC note that, due to the highly personal nature of radicalization to violence, it is difficult to assess specific indicators that are indicative of US-based violent extremists attempting to support violence at home or abroad.

END TEXT

[1] (U//~~FOUO~~) The FBI, DHS, and NCTC define a domestic violent extremist as an individual based and operating primarily within the United States or its territories without direction or inspiration from a foreign terrorist group or other foreign power who seeks to further political or social goals wholly or in part through unlawful acts of force or violence. The mere advocacy of political or social positions, political activism, use of strong rhetoric, or generalized philosophic embrace of violent tactics may not constitute extremism, and may be constitutionally protected.

[2] (U//~~FOUO~~) Anti-government or anti-authority violent extremism encompasses the potentially unlawful use or threat of force or violence, in furtherance of political and/or social agendas, which are deemed to derive from anti-government or anti-authority sentiment, including opposition to perceived economic, social, or racial hierarchies; or perceived government overreach, negligence, or illegitimacy.

[3] (U//~~FOUO~~) Militia violent extremism falls within the overarching domestic terrorism threat category of anti-government or anti-authority violent extremism. The FBI and DHS defines militia violent extremists (MVEs) as individuals who seek, wholly or in part through unlawful acts of force or violence, to further their belief that the US Government is purposely exceeding its Constitutional authority and is attempting to establish a totalitarian regime. Consequently, these individuals oppose many federal and state laws and regulations, particularly those related to firearms ownership. MVEs take overt steps to violently resist or facilitate the overthrow of the US Government. The mere advocacy of political or social positions, political activism, use of strong rhetoric, or generalized philosophic embrace of violent tactics may not constitute extremism and may be constitutionally protected.

[4] (U//~~FOUO~~) Racially or ethnically motivated violent extremism encompasses the potentially unlawful use or threat of force or violence, in furtherance of political and/or social agendas, which are deemed to derive from bias, often related to race or ethnicity, held by the actor against others, including a given population group.

[5] (U) According to open source research, the QAnon conspiracy theory refers to a complex primarily online community consisting of a persona known as "Q" whom disseminates information regarding multiple, related conspiracies in a web forum. The conspiracies revolve around a belief that corrupt "global elites" and "deep state" actors are engaged in ongoing plots in an attempt to conduct a coup against the 45th President of the United States. These elites are frequently alleged to have committed several crimes, including but not limited to large-scale election fraud and child sexual abuse.

[6] (U//~~FOUO~~) The information in this JIB is provided to inform law enforcement of the role any referenced conspiracy theories may play in mobilizing criminal actors and DVEs to violence. Generating, accessing, discussing, or otherwise interacting with content related to the conspiracy theories mentioned in this product without engaging in violence or other criminal activity may be legal and protected by the First Amendment. The FBI does not investigate, collect, or maintain information on US persons solely for the purpose of monitoring First Amendment-protected activities.

[7] (U) The perception that deaths of like-minded individuals at the hands of law enforcement were unjust has historically been a significant driver for DVEs. DVEs have seized on the deaths of two US persons Vicki and Samuel Weaver at Ruby Ridge, Idaho in 1992; US persons at the Branch Davidians compound at Waco, Texas in 1993; and US person Duncan Lemp in 2020 to justify threats against law enforcement and government officials.

[8] (U//~~FOUO~~) Militia violent extremists sometimes call themselves three percenters (III%) based on the myth that only three percent of American colonists took up arms against the British during the Revolutionary War. Some III%ers regard the present-day US Government as analogous to British authorities during the Revolution in terms of infringements on civil liberties. The term generally represents the perception that a small force with a just cause can overthrow a tyrannical government if armed and prepared.

[9] (U) Turner Diaries is a 1978 novel by William Luther Pierce that depicts a violent white revolution in the United States that leads to the overthrow of the federal government, a nuclear war, and, ultimately, a race war which leads to the systematic extermination of non-whites. All groups opposed by the novel's protagonist, Earl Turner, including Jews, non-whites, "liberal actors" and politicians, are exterminated. The novel includes the bombing of the FBI Headquarters building.

[10] (U) According to open source research, the Great Reset conspiracy theory is based upon the World Economic Forum's May 2020 plan to rebuild the global economy following the ongoing global pandemic. Adherents believe "global financial elites" and world leaders intentionally disseminated the COVID-19 virus to warrant a large-scale restructuring of the global-political economy. This restructuring is believed by some to be for the purpose of creating a totalitarian regime, or New World Order.

[11] (U) Targeted attacks on identified elected and party officials based upon their political opinions would be similar to attacks observed in the last five years including the 2017 attempted assassination of Republican members of Congress on a baseball field in Virginia, or two assassinations by violent extremists espousing a belief in white supremacy targeting a British member of Parliament, and a German political party official.

[12] (U) According to open source research, the original boogaloo meme references the 1984 film, Breakin' 2: Electric Boogaloo. Mainstream culture adopted the phrase "electric boogaloo" to comment on follow-on or repeat events in pop- and political-culture, such as re-elections. MVEs use the boogaloo derivative of the phrase to refer to a second Civil War, i.e. American Civil War 2: Electric Boogaloo. Proponents cultivated the meme by sharing images, videos, and rhetoric. "Big igloo," "Big luau," "Boog Bois," "Boojahideen," and other associated word-play in addition to imagery such as igloos, Hawaiian shirts, and leis, are used as coded references to the larger boogaloo phenomenon on-and offline.

(U) Scope

(U//FOUO) This Joint Intelligence Bulletin (JIB) is intended to highlight the threat of violence from domestic violent extremists (DVEs) in the wake of the 6 January violent breach by some DVEs of the US Capitol Building in Washington, DC, following lawful protest activity related to the results of the General Election.^a Anti-government or anti-authority violent extremists (AGAAVE), specifically militia violent extremists (MVEs);^{b,c} racially or ethnically motivated violent extremists (RMVEs);^d and DVEs citing partisan political grievances will very likely pose the greatest domestic terrorism threats in 2021. In 2021, threats and plotting of illegal activity, including destruction of property and violence targeting officials at all levels of the government, law enforcement, journalists, and infrastructure, as well as sporadic violence surrounding lawful protests, rallies, demonstrations, and other gatherings by DVEs will very likely increase due to renewed measures to mitigate the spread of COVID-19, socio-political conditions, and perceived government overreach. The FBI, DHS, and NCTC advise federal, state, local, tribal, and territorial government counterterrorism and law enforcement officials, and private sector security partners to remain vigilant in light of the persistent threat posed by DVEs and their unpredictable target selection in order to effectively detect, prevent, preempt, or respond to incidents and terrorist attacks in the United States.

^a (U//FOUO) The FBI, DHS, and NCTC define a domestic violent extremist as an individual based and operating primarily within the United States or its territories without direction or inspiration from a foreign terrorist group or other foreign power who seeks to further political or social goals wholly or in part through unlawful acts of force or violence. The mere advocacy of political or social positions, political activism, use of strong rhetoric, or generalized philosophic embrace of violent tactics may not constitute extremism, and may be constitutionally protected.

^b (U//FOUO) Anti-government or anti-authority violent extremism encompasses the potentially unlawful use or threat of force or violence, in furtherance of political and/or social agendas, which are deemed to derive from anti-government or anti-authority sentiment, including opposition to perceived economic, social, or racial hierarchies; or perceived government overreach, negligence, or illegitimacy.

^c (U//FOUO) Militia violent extremism falls within the overarching domestic terrorism threat category of anti-government or anti-authority violent extremism. The FBI and DHS defines militia violent extremists (MVEs) as individuals who seek, wholly or in part through unlawful acts of force or violence, to further their belief that the US Government is purposely exceeding its Constitutional authority and is attempting to establish a totalitarian regime. Consequently, these individuals oppose many federal and state laws and regulations, particularly those related to firearms ownership. MVEs take overt steps to violently resist or facilitate the overthrow of the US Government. The mere advocacy of political or social positions, political activism, use of strong rhetoric, or generalized philosophic embrace of violent tactics may not constitute extremism and may be constitutionally protected.

^d (U//FOUO) Racially or ethnically motivated violent extremism encompasses the potentially unlawful use or threat of force or violence, in furtherance of political and/or social agendas, which are deemed to derive from bias, often related to race or ethnicity, held by the actor against others, including a given population group.

(U//FOUO) The 6 January 2021 Violent Breach by DVEs of the US Capitol Building Very Likely Will Serve as an Enduring Driver for Violence by a Range of DVEs

(U//FOUO) The 6 January 2021 violent breach by suspected DVEs into the US Capitol Building very likely will serve as a significant driver of violence for a diverse set of DVEs. Attendance at the lawful protest by ideologically diverse DVEs and others, the subsequent engagement of a sizeable group from that protest in the breach, and the death of an individual directly engaged in the breach very likely will serve to galvanize DVEs and increase collaboration primarily between MVEs and RMVEs, as well as DVEs who adhere to QAnon conspiracy theories.^{6f} These DVEs and others may also perceive the event as a step toward achieving their initiatives, and consider the death of a perceived like-minded individual as an act of martyrdom.⁸ Some DVEs' view the 6 January event as a success, in conjunction with the potential to exploit follow-on lawful gatherings and ideological drivers—including conspiracy theories, such as QAnon—likely will also inspire some DVEs and others to engage in more sporadic, lone actor or small cell violence against common DVE targets, including racial, ethnic, or religious minorities and institutions, law enforcement, and government officials and buildings. Criminal activity by rioters targeting members of the media at the breach is also indicative of an increased and prolonged DVE threat of targeted violence against members of the press due to perceived complicity in a system hostile to their beliefs.

- » (U//FOUO) Shortly after 2:00PM on 6 January, multiple rioters broke windows, scaled walls, and forced entry into the US Capitol Complex. Rioters assaulted law enforcement, illegally entered congressional offices and chambers, and vandalized and stole property. Separately, two suspected improvised explosive devices (IEDs) were found on the US Capitol grounds and were rendered safe.
- » (U//FOUO) During the riot, an alleged QAnon-supporter who traveled to Washington, DC, engaged in lawful protests, entered the US Capitol illegally, and was shot by law enforcement as she attempted to gain access to a restricted area, subsequently succumbing to her injuries, according to open source reporting.

^f (U//FOUO) The information in this JIB is provided to inform law enforcement of the role any referenced conspiracy theories may play in mobilizing criminal actors and DVEs to violence. Generating, accessing, discussing, or otherwise interacting with content related to the conspiracy theories mentioned in this product without engaging in violence or other criminal activity may be legal and protected by the First Amendment. The FBI does not investigate, collect, or maintain information on US persons solely for the purpose of monitoring First Amendment-protected activities.

⁸ (U) The perception that deaths of like-minded individuals at the hands of law enforcement were unjust has historically been a significant driver for DVEs. DVEs have seized on the deaths of two US persons Vicki and Samuel Weaver at Ruby Ridge, Idaho in 1992; US persons at the Branch Davidians compound at Waco, Texas in 1993; and US person Duncan Lemp in 2020 to justify threats against law enforcement and government officials.

- » (U//~~FOUO~~) Some participants active at the Capitol displayed insignias used or adopted by multiple DVEs, including three percenters (III%) and other MVE symbols—the Confederate flag and symbols associated with neo-Nazis—popular with RMVEs.^h Nooses and plastic restraints were carried or stationed at or near the Capitol by some rioters, possibly to demonstrate their intent to cause harm to government officials. Symbols associated with QAnon conspiracy theories were also displayed by some rioters.
- » (U) During rioting on the Capitol grounds, individuals pursued and threatened journalists, according to open source reporting. Rioters destroyed or stole cameras and other media equipment outside the Capitol, and the phrase, “Murder the media,” was found scratched into a door within the Capitol.

(U//~~FOUO~~) Diverse Range of DVEs Very Likely to Mobilize in an Effort to Target Elected Officials and Government Buildings with Violence Following Perceived Political Shifts

(U//~~FOUO~~) Amplified perceptions of fraud surrounding the outcome of the General Election and the change in control of the Presidency and Senate—when combined with long-standing DVE drivers such as perceived government or law enforcement overreach, and the anticipation of legislation perceived by some DVEs to oppose or threaten their beliefs—very likely will lead to an increase in DVE violence. Additionally, narratives surrounding the perceived success of the 6 January breach of the US Capitol, and the proliferation of conspiracy theories will likely lead to an increased DVE threat towards representatives of federal, state, and local governments across the United States, particularly in the lead-in to the 20 January Presidential Inauguration. The targeting of government buildings and officials is consistent with observed activity in 2020, when armed individuals, including DVEs, threatened elected officials and occupied state government buildings.

- » (U//~~FOUO~~) In October 2020, FBI investigations resulted in the arrests of 14 MVEs on charges related to an alleged conspiracy to kidnap the Governor of Michigan before the November elections due to perceived abuses of power pertaining to her response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Over several months, the MVEs conducted surveillance, tactical training, and recruitment activities, and made efforts to procure and test IEDs in support of this conspiracy. The MVEs also considered attacks on the Michigan State Capitol and law enforcement.
- » (U//~~FOUO~~) On 10 November 2020, a New York-based MVE was arrested for alleged threats to kill politicians, law enforcement, and lawful protesters. Two days after the November elections, the MVE allegedly posted to social media, “The carnage needs to come in the form of extermination of anyone that claims to be democrat.” He subsequently posted “nothing is off the table” regarding a Democratic Senator and wrote, “The Turner Diaries must come to life.” The MVE also indicated wanting to attack the FBI building and unspecified federal agencies.ⁱ

^h (U//~~FOUO~~) Militia violent extremists sometimes call themselves three percenters (III%) based on the myth that only three percent of American colonists took up arms against the British during the Revolutionary War. Some III%ers regard the present-day US Government as analogous to British authorities during the Revolution in terms of infringements on civil liberties. The term generally represents the perception that a small force with a just cause can overthrow a tyrannical government if armed and prepared.

ⁱ (U) Turner Diaries is a 1978 novel by William Luther Pierce that depicts a violent white revolution in the United States that leads to the overthrow of the federal government, a nuclear war, and, ultimately, a race war which leads to the systematic extermination of non-whites. All groups opposed by the novel's protagonist, Earl Turner, including Jews, non-whites, “liberal actors” and politicians, are exterminated. The novel includes the bombing of the FBI Headquarters building.

- » (U//~~FOUO~~) Since the 6 January event, violent online rhetoric regarding the 20 January Presidential Inauguration has increased, with some calling for unspecified “justice” for the 6 January fatal shooting by law enforcement of a participant who had illegally entered the Capitol Building, and another posting that “many” armed individuals would return on 19 January, according to open source reporting. The recent removal efforts by social media platforms used by DVEs may push some to revert back to other platforms they perceive as more secure, further challenging our ability to identify and warn of specific threats.
- » (U//~~FOUO~~) The increasing prevalence and influence of conspiracy theories based on a belief in the existence of global or “deep state” actors who work to manipulate various social, political, and/or economic conditions of the United States very likely serves as a driver of some DVE violence. Some rioters at the 6 January breach were alleged supporters of QAnon conspiracy theories, according to open source reporting. Other DVEs may be motivated to target government officials and buildings because of similar theories, including the “Great Reset.”¹

(U//~~FOUO~~) Range of DVE Actors Very Likely to Pose Increasing Threat of Violence at Lawful Protests, Rallies, Demonstrations, and Other Gatherings in 2021

(U//~~FOUO~~) The violent breach of the US Capitol Building is very likely part of an ongoing trend in which DVEs exploit lawful protests, rallies, demonstrations, and other gatherings to carry out ideologically-motivated violence and criminal activity. Throughout 2020, DVEs with differing ideological goals and perspectives exploited such events to promote, organize, conspire, and plot lethal violence against ideological opponents and other targets of their grievances. DVEs’ capability and intent to engage in violence at lawful gatherings very likely will increase throughout 2021, as some DVEs perceive increased socio-political pressures following the Presidential Inauguration. Under these conditions, and with the perception among some DVEs that the breach of the US Capitol Building was a significant advance toward achieving their ideological goals, DVEs may be inspired to carry out more violence, including violence against racial, ethnic, and religious minorities and associated institutions, journalists, members of the LGBTQ+ community, and other targets common among some DVEs. Such perceived pressures may stem from, but not be limited to, one or more of the following factors:

- » (U//~~FOUO~~) The potential for shifts in various policies many DVEs may perceive to oppose or threaten their ideological goals and agendas, or feed into existing narratives or conspiracy theories many DVEs subscribe to regarding the US government’s exercise of power, influence, and initiatives: possibly including gun control legislation, the easing of immigration restrictions, and new limits on the use of public land.
- » (U//~~FOUO~~) Ongoing false narratives by DVEs that the 2020 General Election was illegitimate, or fraudulent, and the subsequent belief its results should be contested or unrecognized.
- » (U//~~FOUO~~) Some DVEs’ discontent, or general concerns, with renewed measures to mitigate the spread of COVID-19, the ordered dissemination of COVID-19 vaccinations, and the efficacy and/or safety of COVID-19 vaccinations.

¹ (U) According to open source research, the Great Reset conspiracy theory is based upon the World Economic Forum’s May 2020 plan to rebuild the global economy following the ongoing global pandemic. Adherents believe “global financial elites” and world leaders intentionally disseminated the COVID-19 virus to warrant a large-scale restructuring of the global-political economy. This restructuring is believed by some to be for the purpose of creating a totalitarian regime, or New World Order.

(U) Outlook

(U//~~FOUO~~) The FBI, DHS, and NCTC remain concerned about the potential for a loosely organized, sustained, and significant DVE population mobilizing to violence based on social media calls to target government infrastructure or officials. The shared false narrative of a “stolen” election and opposition to the change in control of the executive and legislative branches of the federal government may lead some individuals to adopt the belief that there is no political solution to address their grievances and violent action is necessary. Additionally, in-person engagement between DVEs of differing ideological goals during the Capitol breach likely served to foster connections, which may increase DVEs’ willingness, capability, and motivation to attack and undermine a government they view as illegitimate.^k

(U//~~FOUO~~) In the near term, DVEs could exploit upcoming events to engage in or justify violence, including events attended by MVEs and “boogaloo”^l adherents scheduled nationally from 16 to 20 January; the 20 January Presidential Inauguration and associated events in Washington, DC; and any departure of the 45th President from office prior to the end of his term. The “boogaloo” is a concept most commonly used by DVEs, particularly MVEs, to reference an impending second civil war or insurgency against the US Government. Calls for revolution may especially resonate with MVEs, who often justify violence based on their belief that they are guardians of the Constitution and the legacies of the American Revolution. While they may not necessarily share the partisan views of those who engaged in the 6 January breach, MVEs and other DVEs who adhere to the “boogaloo” concept and seek a politically motivated civil war, and RMVEs who seek a race war may exploit the aftermath of the Capitol breach by conducting attacks to destabilize and force a climactic conflict in the United States. These factors, and the broad perception among DVEs that the violent breach was successful, may contribute to DVEs’ willingness to carry out sporadic, lone actor or small cell violence. Such DVE violence may be targeted against racial, ethnic, and/or religious minorities and associated institutions, journalists, members of the LGBTQ+ community, and other targets common among some DVEs.

(U//~~FOUO~~) Ongoing law enforcement efforts to arrest individuals who participated in the 6 January Capitol breach could deter some DVEs, and lead others to adjust their tactics and to lessen law enforcement scrutiny. Existing trends in some DVEs’ transition to what they perceive as more secure online communication platforms to discuss threat activity following increased law enforcement scrutiny very likely will continue. Law enforcement may seek to disrupt DVEs prior to any potential violence based on their pre-mobilization illegal activities, including charges related to explosives; illegal or illegally modified weapons; unlawful use of restricted firearm components; and unlawful possession of firearms, ammunition, or body armor by prohibited possessors. Law enforcement may also leverage state and local laws and ordinances that limit or restrict paramilitary activities of private militias. The FBI, DHS, and NCTC urge state and local authorities, to promptly report suspicious activities related to potential domestic violent extremism. The FBI, DHS, and NCTC note that, due to the highly personal nature of radicalization to violence, it is difficult to assess specific indicators that are indicative of US-based violent extremists attempting to support violence at home or abroad.

^k (U) Targeted attacks on identified elected and party officials based upon their political opinions would be similar to attacks observed in the last five years including the 2017 attempted assassination of Republican members of Congress on a baseball field in Virginia, or two assassinations by violent extremists espousing a belief in white supremacy targeting a British member of Parliament, and a German political party official.

^l (U) According to open source research, the original boogaloo meme references the 1984 film, Breakin’ 2: Electric Boogaloo. Mainstream culture adopted the phrase “electric boogaloo” to comment on follow-on or repeat events in pop- and political-culture, such as re-elections. MVEs use the boogaloo derivative of the phrase to refer to a second Civil War, i.e. American Civil War 2: Electric Boogaloo. Proponents cultivated the meme by sharing images, videos, and rhetoric. “Big igloo,” “Big luau,” “Boog Bois,” “Boojahideen,” and other associated word-play in addition to imagery such as igloos, Hawaiian shirts, and leis, are used as coded references to the larger boogaloo phenomenon on-and offline.
