anyone involved in the Watergate Investigations.

Interviews of subjects in the Watergate case or any

As noted in the Watergate hearings and trial, GEORGE GORDON LIDDY proposed kidnaping political figures during the Re Baltimore report of SA WILLIAM J. CAMPBELL, dated 10/25/74.

Enclosed for WFO are two xerox copies of a letter received from Attorney KARL G. FRISSENER, 6401 New Hampshire Avenue, Hyattsville, Maryland.

As set out in the letter, a suggestion is made that in the course of the Watergate investigation, inquiry of the Watergate witnesses be made to determine whether a procedure, i.e., BRODY kidnapping, was contemplated, used or authorized by them.

Mr. NORMAN BRODY, victims father, Bethesda, Maryland, has raised this issue, due to the reported residence of E. HOWARD HUNT, a "Watergate" figure, at Potomac, Maryland, which is near the BRODY home.

Baltimore investigation, to date, in the BRODY case, has not developed any connection with the "Watergate" matter. Also there is not any information available to indicate that the BRODY family is in any way associated with those involved in "Watergate."

Re: William Brody

Dear Agent Campbell:

Mr. Brody has brought to my attention, and I trust by now yours, some rethinking in the matter of the kidnapping of his son within the posture of historical events which have been related within the last week at the so-called Watergate trial. Mr. Brody and William have reviewed this matter again and again and are impressed with the military precision by which the abduction was carried out and the apparent knowledge of the abductors of the plans of the Bureau so that the alleged homing device placed at or near the money was neutralized. Considering the recent referred to needs of money "just testified" and the apparent sophistication of these individuals, and further noting the dates and time sequences in which the entire matter unfolded, as well as the residential proximity of one individual to Mr. Brody, all have lead him to believe that perhaps additional inquiry might be appropriate.

While at first blush Mr. Brody's observations might seem astonishing, stranger things apparently have happened. Accordingly, it would be appreciated if in the course of your investigation of the so-called Watergate witnesses as to whether such a procedure was contemplated, used or authorized by them.

SUBJECT: JAMES WALTER MC CORD, aka,
et al;
BURGLARY DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS,
WASHINGTON, D. C., JUNE 17, 1972;
IOC, PERJURY, OOO

On November 21, 1974, SA Angelo Lano, Washington Field Office, advised that Carl Feldbaum, Assistant Watergate Special Prosecutor, requested that a Bureau document examiner be provided to perform examinations at the Executive Office Building at 9:30 a.m., November 22, 1974. Lano stated that it was his understanding that the examinations desired related to the dating of a document which could not be released for examination.

On November 22, 1974, SA James E. Lile, document examiner, met with Feldbaum at the office of William E. Casselman II, Assistant Counsel to the President, room 106, Executive Office Building. Feldbaum advised that it was desired that SA Lile examine a handwritten memorandum which was located in a vault in the Executive Office Building, copies of which had been previously obtained by the office of the special prosecutor. He specifically requested that the paper be examined to determine whether the document in question was possibly prepared subsequent to its purported date of preparation, April 14, 1973. Feldbaum was advised by SA Lile that under the existing circumstances, only preliminary examinations could be conducted and that in the absence of significant observable features such a determination might not be possible.

RE: JAMES WALTER MC CORD
139-4039

Feldbaum stated that he understood the limitations involved and added that there was no specific reason to suspect that the document was prepared other than as dated, but that the examination was merely for the purpose of thoroughness.

Casselman advised that since the document in question could not be removed from the vault in which it is located, a memorandum of authorization would have to be prepared by his office to allow entry into the vault for the purpose of examining that document. A copy of this memorandum of authorization is attached.

SA Lile, accompanied by Feldbaum and Stanley S. Shaw, Jr. of Casselman's office, proceeded to room 84 of the Executive Office Building and were allowed entry into the locked vault located therein. They were accompanied into the vault by two Secret Service personnel. Prior to entering the vault, SA Lile was advised that no photography nor other duplication of the questioned document was permitted. It was observed that an automatic motion picture camera was activated upon entering the vault and remained activated for the duration of the examinations which were conducted inside the vault.

The documents were contained in a manila envelope which was removed from a cardboard box containing additional items. Also observed in the cardboard box were several red file envelopes, the top-most one identified as being notes of conversations between John D. Ehrlichman and the President. The questioned documents consisted of four sheets of 8" X 10 1/2" White House letterhead stationery bearing handwriting in blue ink which had been prepared with a fiber-tipped pen, written on both sides of each sheet. Examination of those sheets of paper determined that they each bear an undated U. S. Government watermark which is used in paper of one-hundred percent rag content. Information available to the Laboratory, supplied by the Government Printing Office, is that since September, 1969, all bond paper purchased for use by the Federal Government bears a watermark which includes the year date and indicates the date of production of that paper. The absence of a year date in the watermark would merely indicate that the paper was purchased for distribution and use prior to September, 1969, and, therefore, would not preclude the questioned document from having been prepared on the date indicated. No additional significant features were noted which might assist in determining the actual date of preparation of the questioned documents. Feldbaum was orally advised of the results of the examination by SA Lile.

Under the existing circumstances, SA Lile had no opportunity to read the entire document. However, it was noted that the text appeared to be a summary prepared by Ehrlichman as the result of a March, 1973, request from President Nixon concerning what the prosecution's approach might be to the various Watergate-related trials. Ehrlichman's comments were divided into various short paragraphs, each apparently dealing with a particular person or topic involved. No additional details could be obtained.

Other than the restrictions placed upon the handling of the questioned documents all persons involved displayed a friendly and cooperative attitude.

RECOMMENDATION:

None. For information only.

SUBJECT: JAMES WALTER MC CORD, JR.; ET AL
BURGLARY OF DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE HEADQUARTERS, 6/17/72
INTERCEPTION OF COMMUNICATIONS

By letter dated 11/20/74 James Walter McCord, Jr., forwarded to the Director 107 pages of documentary material alleging, among other things, Gerald Alch, the attorney who first represented McCord in his Watergate troubles, and others, committed perjury, obstruction of justice and other alleged offenses. Attached for approval is a letter of acknowledgment to McCord and a letter, with a copy of McCord's material, for personal delivery to Special Prosecutor Henry S. Ruth, Jr.

Review of the lengthy material submitted by McCord shows the following principal allegations: Alch committed perjury before the Ervin Committee in May, 1973, and later before the Federal Grand Jury; William O. Bittman, who was Howard Hunt's first attorney, committed perjury before the Federal Grand Jury on the subject of executive clemency; Prosecutor Earl Silbert, principal Assistant U. S. Attorney who handled this case before establishment of the Special Prosecutor's Office, and later Assistant Special Prosecutors James Neal and Richard Ben Veniste engaged in prosecutorial misconduct involving alleged coverup of the role of Bittman, Alch, F. Lee Bailey, Alch's law partner, and Bernard Shankman, also one of McCord's lawyers, in the Watergate coverup conspiracy; that these same Prosecutors deliberately concealed evidence favorable to Gordon Liddy and McCord from the U. S. Court of Appeals; and that Neal and Ben Veniste concealed from the U. S. Court of Appeals sworn testimony relative to pressure on the four Miami defendants to plead guilty at the original Watergate trial in January, 1973.

McCord's letter states he sent the same material to Judge Sirica under date of 11/19/74 and that he, McCord, is available for interview by Bureau Agents. His 11/19/74 memorandum to Judge Sirica notes that "it hardly appears that the Special Prosecutor's Office is the proper body to" pursue his allegations.

Memorandum to Mr. Gebhardt
RE: JAMES WALTER MC CORD, JR.

OBSERVATIONS

It is of interest that McCord, a convicted Watergate burglar, is appealing his January, 1973, conviction. He alone among the seven original defendants has not served his original sentence and may possibly be endeavoring to have the FBI assist him in his appeal by his allegations against his first attorney Alch and other attorneys mentioned above. McCord was not particularly cooperative with us in connection with our conducting previous investigation of the Watergate affair and, in fact, has blasted us in magazine articles and in "A Piece of Tape," McCord's self-serving book about the Democratic National Committee (DNC) Headquarters break-in.

Despite McCord's reservations about the Special Prosecutor's Office and his allegations against Neal and Ben Veniste, it is the opinion of Assistant Director Mintz that we have little choice but to forward this material to Special Prosecutor Henry Ruth in view of the Attorney General's Order #551-73 dated 11/2/73, establishing the Office of Watergate Special Prosecution Force. That Order, and the appendix thereto, in part, states "The Special Prosecutor shall have full authority for investigating and prosecuting offenses against the United States arising out of the unauthorized entry into DNC Headquarters at the Watergate." In view of this, it is believed we should not interview McCord unless the Special Prosecutor requests us to.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the attached letter be approved for forwarding to McCord to acknowledge receipt of his letter and to advise that it and the enclosures he sent have been forwarded to Special Prosecutor Henry S. Ruth, Jr., for his consideration of action he deems necessary.

2. That the attached letter to Mr. Ruth be approved for personal delivery to him by the Watergate Special Matters Unit, which has established liaison.

SUBJECT: POLITICAL PRESSURE ON THE WRITER TO ACCEPT
EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY AND REMAIN SILENT

Political pressure from the White House was conveyed to me in January, 1973 by John Caulfield to remain silent, take executive clemency by going off to prison quietly and I was told that while there I would receive financial aid and later rehabilitation and a job. I was further told in a January meeting in 1973 with Caulfield that the President of the United States was aware of our meeting, that the results of the meeting would be conveyed to the President, and that at a future meeting there would likely be a personal message from the President himself. The dates of the telephone calls set forth below are the current dates to the best of my recollection.

On the afternoon of January 8, 1973, the first day of the Watergate trial, Gerald Alch, my attorney told me that William O. Bittman, attorney for E. Howard Hunt, wanted to meet with me at Bittman's office that afternoon. When I asked why, Alch said that Bittman wanted to talk with me about "whose word I would trust regarding a White House offer of executive clemency." Alch added that Bittman wanted to talk with both Bernard Barker and me that afternoon.

I had no intention of accepting executive clemency, but I did want to find out what was going on, and by whom, and exactly what the White House was doing now. A few days before, the White House had tried to lay the Watergate operation off on CIA, and now it was clear that I was going to have to find out what was up now. To do so involved some risks. To fail to do so was in my opinion to work in a vacuum regarding White House intentions and plans, which involved even greater risks, I felt.

Around 4:30 p.m. that afternoon, January 8th, while waiting for a taxi after the Court session, Bernard Barker asked my attorneys and me if he could ride in the cab with us to Bittman's office which we agreed to. There he got out of the cab and went up towards Bittman's office. I had been under the impression during the cab ride that Bittman was going to talk to both Barker and me jointly, and became angered at what seemed to me to be the arrogance and audacity of another man's lawyer calling in two other lawyer's clients and pitching them for the White House. Alch saw my anger and took me aside for about a half hour after the cab arrived in front of Bittman's office, and let Barker go up alone. About 5:00 p.m. we went up to Bittman's office. There Alch disappeared with Bittman, and I sat alone in Bittman's office for a period of time, became irritated, and went next door where Bernard Shankman and Austin Mittler, attorneys for me and Hunt respectively, were talking about legitimate legal matters. Alch finally came back, took me aside and said that Bittman told him I would be called that same night by a friend I had known from the White House. I assumed this would be John Caulfield who had originally recruited me for the Committee for the Re-Election of the President position.

About 12:30 p.m. that same evening, I received a call from an unidentified individual who said that Caulfield was out of town, and asked me to go to a pay phone booth near the Blue Fountain Inn on Route 355 near my residence, where he had a message for me from Caulfield. There the same individual called and read the following message:

"Plead guilty"

One year is a long time. You will get Executive Clemency.

Your family will be taken care of and when you get out you will be rehabilitated and a job will be found for you.

"Don't take immunity when called before the Grand Jury."

The same message was once again repeated, obviously read.

I told the caller I would not discuss such matters over the phone. He said that Caulfield was out of town.

On Wednesday evening, January 10, the same party called and told me by phone that Jack would want to talk with me by phone on Thursday night, January 11, when he got back into town, and requested that I go to the same phone booth on Route 355 near the Blue Fountain Inn. He also conveyed instructions regarding meeting Caulfield on Friday night, January 12.

On Thursday evening, January 11, the same party called me at home and told me that Caulfield's plane was late and that he wanted to meet with me personally the same evening after arrival. I told him that I would not do so but would meet with him Friday night if he desired. Later that evening about 9:30 p.m., Caulfield called me on my home phone and insisted on talking with me but my family refused to let him do so, since I was asleep.

On Friday night, January 12, from about 7:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. I met with Caulfield at the second overlook on George Washington Parkway in Virginia and talked with him in his car. Caulfield advised that he had been attending a law enforcement meeting in San Clemente, California, and had just returned. I advised him that I had no objection to meeting with him to tell him my frame of mind but that I had no intention of talking executive clemency or pleading guilty; that I had come to the meeting at his request and not of my own, and was glad to tell him my views.

He said that the offer of executive clemency which he was passing along and of support while in prison and rehabilitation and help toward a job later "was a sincere offer". He explained that he had been asked to convey this message to me and was only doing what he was told to do. He repeated the last statement several times.

My response was that I would not even discuss executive clemency or pleading guilty and remaining silent, but I was glad to talk with him, so that there was no misunderstanding on anyone's part about it.

Caulfield stated that he was carrying the message of executive clemency to me "from the very highest levels of the White House". He stated that the President of the United States was in Key Biscayne, Florida, that weekend, had been told of the forthcoming meeting with me, and would be immediately told of the results of the meeting." He further stated that "I may have a message to you at our next meeting from the President himself."

I advised Caulfield that I had seen the list of witnesses for the trial and had seen Jeb Magruder's name, appearing as a government witness. I advised him that it was clear then that Magruder was going to perjure himself and that we were not going to get a fair trial. Further I told him that it was clear that some of those involved in the Watergate case were going to trial, and others were going to be covered for (I was referring to John Mitchell, John Dean and Magruder) and that was not my idea of American justice. I further advised Caulfield that I believed that the government had lied in denying electronic interception of my phone calls from my residence since June 17, 1972, and that I believed that the administration had also tapped the phones of the other defendants during that time. I mentioned two specific calls of mine which I had made during September and early October 1972, which I was certain had been intercepted by the government, and yet the government had blithely denied any such tapping. I compared this denial to the denial the government had made in the Ellsberg Case, in which for months the government had denied any such impermissible interception of the calls and yet in the summer of 1972 had finally been forced to admit them when the Judge ordered, by court order, a search of about a dozen government agencies, and calls intercepted were then disclosed. I stated that if we were going to get a fiction of a fair trial, through perjured testimony to begin with, and then for the government to lie about illegal telephone interceptions, that the trial ought to be kicked out and we start all over again, this time with all of those involved as defendants. At least in this way, "some would not be more equal than others" before the bar of justice and we would get a fair trial.

The executive clemency offer was made two or three times during this meeting, as I recall, and I repeated each time that would not even discuss it, nor discuss pleading guilty, which I had been asked to do in the first telephone call received on the night of January 8, from Caulfield's friend, whose identity I do not know. I told him that I was going to renew the motion on disclosure of government wiretapping of our telephones.

Caulfield ended the conversation by stating that he would call me the next day about a meeting that same afternoon, Saturday, January 13, and that if I did not hear from him, he would want to talk with me by telephone on the evening of Monday, January 15, 1973.

I did not hear from Caulfield on Saturday but on Sunday afternoon he called and asked to meet me that afternoon about an hour later at the same location on George Washington Parkway. He stated that there was no objection to renewing the motion on discovery of government wiretapping, and that if that failed, that I would receive executive clemency after 10 to 11 months. I told him I had not asked anyone's permission to file the motion.

He went on to say that "the President's ability to govern is at stake. Another Teapot Dome Scandal is possible, and the government may fall. Everybody else is on track but you. You are not following the game plan. Get closer to your attorney. You seem to be pursuing your own course of action. Don't talk if called before the Grand Jury, keep silent, and do the same if called before a Congressional Committee."

My response was that I felt a massive injustice was being done, that I was different than the others, that I was going to fight the fixed case, and had no intention of either pleading guilty, taking executive clemency or agreeing to remain silent. He repeated the statement that the government would have difficulty in continuing to be able to stand. I responded that they do have a problem, but that I had a problem with the massive injustice of the whole trial being a sham, and that I would fight it every way I knew how. He asked for a commitment that I would remain silent and I responded that I would make none. I gave him a memorandum on the dates of the two calls of mine in September 1972 and October 1972 that I was sure had been intercepted, and said that I believed the government had lied about them. He said that he would check and see if in fact the government had done so.

On Monday night, January 15, 1973, Caulfield called me again at the phone booth on Route 355 near my residence. I informed him that I had no desire to talk further, that if the White House had any intention of playing the game straight and giving us the semblance of a fair trial they would check into the perjury charge of mine against Magruder, and into the existence of the two intercepted calls previously referred to, and hung up.

On Tuesday morning, about 7:30 a.m., Caulfield called my residence but I had already left for Court.

On Tuesday evening, Caulfield called and asked me again to meet with him and I said not until they had something to talk about on the perjured testimony and the intercepted calls. He said words to the effect "give us a week," and a meeting was subsequently arranged on January 25, 1973 when he said he would have something to talk about.

About 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, January 25, 1973, in a meeting lasting until about 12:30 a.m., we drove in his car toward Warrenton, Virginia, and returned, and a conversation ensued which repeated the offers of executive clemency and financial support while in prison, and rehabilitation later. I refused to discuss it. He stated that I was "fouling up the game plan." I made a few comments about the "game plan." He said that "they" had found no record of the interception of the two calls I referred to, and said that perhaps it could wait until the appeals. He asked what my plans were regarding talking publicly, and I said that I planned to do so when I was ready; that I had discussed it with my wife and she said that I should do what I felt I must and not to worry about the family. I advised Jack that my children were now grown and could understand what I had to do, when the disclosures came out. He responded by saying that "You know that if the Administration gets its back to the wall, it will have to take steps to defend itself." I took that as a personal threat and I told him in response that I had had a good life, that my will was made out and that I had thought through the risks and would take them when I was ready. He said that if I had to go off to jail that the administration would help with the bail premiums. I advised him that it was not a bail premium, but $100,000 straight cash and that that was a problem I would have to worry about, through family and friends. On the night before sentencing, Jack called me and said that the administration would provide the $100,000 in cash if I could tell him how to get it funded through an intermediary. I said that if we ever needed it I would let him know. I never contacted him thereafter; neither have I heard from him.

ALTHOUGH EHRLICHMAN HAD TOLD HIM THAT HE (COLSON) SHOULD NOT DISCUSS THIS MATTER WITH THE PRESIDENT, THAT HE, IN FACT, THOUGHT IT WAS SO IMPORTANT THAT HE HAD TAKEN IT UP WITH THE PRESIDENT HIMSELF. I ALSO LEARNED SHORTLY THEREAFTER, AS A RESULT OF A TELEPHONE CALL FROM O'BRIEN, THAT BITTMAN HAD INFORMED O'BRIEN THAT HUNT WAS SATISFIED WITH COLSON'S ASSURANCES.

AS I SHALL STATE LATER, THE PRESIDENT HIMSELF RAISED THIS SUBJECT ON TWO OCCASIONS WITH ME, AND TOLD ME THAT HE HAD DISCUSSED THE MATTER OF EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY FOR HUNT WITH BOTH EHRLICHMAN AND COLSON. THE PRESIDENT RAISED THIS WITH ME ON MARCH 13TH, 1973, AND APRIL 15TH, 1973.

CAULFIELD'S DEALINGS WITH McCORD (JANUARY 1973)

WHILE I WAS IN CALIFORNIA DURING LATE DECEMBER/EARLY JANUARY, 1973, I RECEIVED A CALL FROM MR. FIELDING, WHO TOLD ME THAT JACK CAULFIELD HAD RECEIVED A LETTER FROM McCORD. FIELDING WAS NOT EXPLICIT REGARDING THE CONTENTS OF THE LETTER, AND SAID THAT HE HAD TAKEN DOWN THE LETTER AND THAT I COULD READ IT WHEN I RETURNED IN THE NEXT DAY OR SO TO THE OFFICE. I HAVE SUBMITTED A COPY OF THE LETTER TO THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE (JANUARY 1973).

I BELIEVE I GAVE IT TO PAUL O'BRIEN. I KNOW THAT O'BRIEN AND I

OF TOWN.

IT WAS ON JANUARY 10TH, THAT I RECEIVED CALLS FROM BOTH
O'BRIEN AND MITCHELL INDICATING THAT SINCE HUNT HAD BEEN GIVEN ASSUR-ANCE OF CLEMENCY AND THAT THOSE ASSURANCES WERE BEING PASSED BY HUNT TO THE OTHERS, THAT CAULFIELD SHOULD GIVE THE SAME ASSURANCES TO MCCORD, WHO WAS BECOMING AN INCREASING PROBLEM AND AGAIN I WAS TOLD THAT MCCORD'S LAWYER WAS HAVING PROBLEMS WITH HIM. BOTH O'BRIEN AND MITCHELL FELT THAT MCCORD MIGHT NOT WANT THE ASSURANCE FROM CAULFIELD, BECAUSE HUNT, BITTMAN, AND HIS LAWYER-ALCH HAD LOST FAITH IN HIM. I TOLD MITCHELL I WOULD DO IT.

BASED ON THE EARLIER CONVERSATION I HAD WITH EHRLICHMAN ON THE 5TH OF JANUARY THAT THE CLEMENCY ASSURANCE THAT HAD BEEN GIVEN TO HUNT WOULD ALSO APPLY TO THE OTHERS, AND COLSON'S DESCRIPTION OF HOW HE HAD GIVEN BITTMAN A GENERAL ASSURANCE, WITHOUT BEING SPECIFIC AS TO THE COMMITMENT, I CALLED CAULFIELD LATER THAT DAY TO REQUEST THAT HE GET IN TOUCH WITH MCCORD. CAULFIELD TOLD ME THAT IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT, BECAUSE HE WAS GOING TO BE IN CALIFORNIA FOR SEVERAL MORE DAYS. CAULFIELD INDICATED THAT IT WOULD BE EASIER FOR MR. ULASEWICZ RATHER THAN HIMSELF TO TALK WITH MCCORD, BECAUSE HE WAS TIED UP WITH A LOT OF PEOPLE AT THE DRUG CONFERENCE. I SAID FINE AND THEN GAVE HIM THE CLEMENCY MESSAGE SIMILAR TO THE MESSAGE THAT COLSON HAD TRANSMITTED TO HUNT VIA BITTMAN. CAULFIELD WROTE DOWN THE GIST OF THE MESSAGE, HE REPEATED HIS NOTES BACK, I SAID THAT WAS FINE, AND TOLD HIM I THOUGHT THAT MCCORD WOULD BE EXPECTING TO HEAR FROM HIM AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. CAULFIELD SAID HE WOULD HAVE THE MESSAGE DELIVERED RIGHT AWAY.

ON JANUARY 11TH, I RECEIVED A CALL FROM O'BRIEN, WHO ASKED ME IF THE MESSAGE HAD BEEN DELIVERED BY CAULFIELD. I TOLD HIM THAT I HAD. O'BRIEN TOLD ME THAT HE WOULD TRY TO GET CAULFIELD PERSONALLY AND ASKED ME WHEN CAULFIELD COULD MEET WITH MCCORD. I TOLD HIM I WOULD TRY TO ARRANGE IT. O'BRIEN TOLD ME HE WAS GOING TO BE OUT OF TOWN, BUT I COULD REACH HIM IF THERE WERE ANY PROBLEMS.

HE TOLD ME HE WAS KEEPING MITCHELL POSTED AND REQUESTED I KEEP HIM
POSTED. O'BRIEN SAID THAT WE NEED A FIRST HAND READING ON MCCORD FROM SOMEONE HE WILL TALK WITH, BECAUSE HE IS NOT TALKING OPENLY WITH HIS LAWYER ABOUT WHAT HE PLANS TO DO. I TOLD O'BRIEN I WOULD CALL HIM (O'BRIEN) AS SOON AS I LEARNED ANYTHING.

I CALLED CAULFIELD ON JANUARY 11TH AND TOLD HIM THAT MCCORD
WANTED TO MEET WITH HIM AND ASKED HIM IF HE WOULD DO SO AND TAKE MCCORD'S PULSE AS TO WHAT HE PLANNED TO DO. HE TOLD ME HE WOULD MEET MCCORD AS SOON AS HE RETURNED TO WASHINGTON.

ON FRIDAY, JUNE 12TH, MITCHELL CALLED ME FOR A REPORT. I TOLD HIM I THOUGHT I WOULD HEAR FROM CAULFIELD AFTER HE TALKED TO MCCORD. CAULFIELD CALLED ME AT HOME FRIDAY NIGHT TO INFORM ME THAT HE HAD MET WITH MCCORD AND SUGGESTED WE MEET AT MY OFFICE IN THE MORNING SO HE COULD GIVE ME A REPORT. I SAID FINE, AND
ON SATURDAY MORNING WE MET AND HE GAVE ME A REPORT. THE SUBSTANCE
AND
SUBSTANCE OF THE REPORT WAS MCCORD HAD NOT DECIDED WHAT HE WAS GOING TO DO, BUT THAT HE WANTED HIS FREEDOM. CAULFIELD REPORTED THAT MCCORD WAS VERY ANNOYED AT MAGRUDER. HE HAD SEEN A PICTURE OF MAGRUDER IN THE PAPER WHICH HAD PECKED HIS ANNOYANCE. HE ALSO TOLD CAULFIELD THAT HE HAD A PLAN THAT WOULD ENABLE HIM TO GET HIS CASE DISMISSED, BUT HIS LAWYER HAD NOT HELPED HIM WITH THE MATTER
AND THE GOVERNMENT HAD LIED TO HIM. HE EXPLAINED THAT HE HAD MADE

CALLS TO CERTAIN FOREIGN EMBASSIES, AND THAT THESE CALLS HAD BEEN RECORDED, BUT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT ADMIT IT.

DURING THIS MEETING WITH CAULFIELD I RECEIVED A CALL FROM EITHER JOHN MITCHELL OR O'BRIEN REQUESTING A REPORT ON THE MEETING. I TOLD THE CALLER THAT I WAS GETTING A REPORT FROM CAULFIELD AND WOULD CALL BACK. CAULFIELD TOLD ME THAT MCCORD WAS VERY ADAMANT ABOUT HIS PLANS TO GAIN HIS FREEDOM THROUGH THE PHONE CALLS THAT HE HAD MADE TO THE FOREIGN EMBASSIES. I TOLD CAULFIELD I REALLY DID NOT UNDERSTAND WHY MCCORD THOUGHT HE COULD GET HIS CASE DISMISSED BY REASON OF THE WIRETAPS, BUT I WOULD GIVE IT SOME THOUGHT. CAULFIELD TOLD ME THAT IT WAS HIS ASSESSMENT THAT MCCORD WOULD ONLY RESPOND TO A DIRECT REQUEST FROM THE PRESIDENT. I TOLD CAULFIELD THAT HE COULDN'T MAKE SUCH A STATEMENT BECAUSE I HAD NO SUCH REQUEST FROM THE PRESIDENT, BUT SUGGESTED HE MEET AGAIN WITH MCCORD AND KEEP HIM HAPPY BY TELLING HIM WE WERE CHECKING OUT THE MATTER OF HIS CONVERSATIONS WITH THE EMBASSIES.

LATER THAT AFTERNOON, CAULFIELD REPORTED AGAIN TO ME THAT MCCORD WAS ONLY INTERESTED IN HIS THEORY ABOUT THE CALLS TO THE EMBASSIES. I TOLD CAULFIELD TO KEEP IN TOUCH WITH MCCORD, BUT I COULDN'T ADVISE ANYTHING ABOUT HIS CALLS TO THE EMBASSIES. I TOLD CAULFIELD TO HAVE MCCORD GIVE HIM A FEED ON WHY HE THOUGHT THAT HIS CALLS TO THE EMBASSIES WOULD RESULT IN DISMISSAL OF HIS CASE. I called O'Brien and told him what had transpired. On Monday morning, I reported to Mitchell what Caulfield had reported.

It was sometime during this period that as a result of my reports of Caulfield meetings with McCord, that O'Brien, Mitchell and Mr. Alch discussed having F. Lee Bailey, Alch's partner meet with McCord and inform him that he would personally handle his case on appeal. Mitchell was to talk with Mr. Bailey about this. I do not know what happened regarding this proposed plan.

On January 19th or 20th, Mr. Caulfield brought me copies of McCord's memo regarding his intercepted conversations to the embassies. I have submitted these documents to the committee (Exhibit No. 28). I never did anything with these documents, other than inform Mitchell I had received them and I showed them to Mr. O'Brien in my office. I do not recall ever talking with anyone at the Department of Justice, regarding McCord's proposal. At this time I concluded that McCord was going to do what he thought best for himself.

HANDLING LIDDY'S CALL TO KROGH (JANUARY, 1973)

On January 4th, Gordon Liddy called Mr. Krogh. Krogh's secretary received the call and left a message that he had received a letter from an investigator for the Senate Committee about his relationship with Krogh. The letter was part of an investigation

GOING TO CONTINUE. I RECALL THAT WHILE HALDEMAN, EHRLICHMAN AND I WERE SITTING AT A SMALL TABLE IN FRONT OF THE PRESIDENT IN HIS EXECUTIVE OFFICE BUILDING THAT I FOR THE FIRST TIME SAID IN FRONT OF THE PRESIDENT THAT I THOUGHT THAT HALDEMAN, EHRLICHMAN AND DEAN WERE ALL INDICTABLE FOR OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE AND THAT WAS THE REASON I DISAGREED WITH ALL THAT WAS BEING DISCUSSED AT THAT POINT IN TIME. I COULD TELL THAT BOTH HALDEMAN, AND PARTICULARLY EHRLICHMAN, WERE VERY UNHAPPY WITH MY COMMENTS. I HAD LET THEM VERY CLEARLY KNOW THAT I WAS NOT GOING TO PARTICIPATE IN THE MATTER ANY FURTHER AND THAT I THOUGHT IT WAS TIME THAT EVERYBODY START THINKING ABOUT TELLING THE TRUTH. I AGAIN REPEATED TO THEM I DID NOT THINK IT WAS POSSIBLE TO PERPETUATE FURTHER THE COVER-UP AND THE IMPORTANT THING NOW WAS TO GET THE PRESIDENT OUT IN FRONT OF IT.

MEETING OF MARCH 22ND:

THE ARRANGEMENTS HAD BEEN MADE TO HAVE A MEETING AFTER LUNCH WITH THE PRESIDENT WITH EHRLICHMAN, HALDEMAN, MITCHELL AND MYSELF. MR. MITCHELL CAME TO WASHINGTON THAT MORNING FOR A MEETING IN HALDEMAN'S OFFICE IN WHICH EHRLICHMAN, MITCHELL, HALDEMAN AND MYSELF WERE PRESENT. I RECALL THAT ONE OF THE FIRST THINGS THAT EHRLICHMAN ASKED OF MITCHELL WAS WHETHER HUNT'S MONEY PROBLEM HAD BEEN TAKEN CARE OF. MITCHELL SAID THAT HE DID NOT KNOW IF WAS A PROBLEM ANY LONGER. THERE THEN FOLLOWED A GENERAL DISCUSSION OF THE STATUS OF THE SENATE HEARINGS, AND THE DISCUSSION REVEALED THAT

IT HAD BEEN MY IMPRESSION THAT HALDEMAN AND EHRLICHMAN WERE GOING TO TRY TO GET MITCHELL TO COME FORWARD AND EXPLAIN HIS INVOLVEMENT IN THE MATTER. THIS DID NOT OCCUR. MITCHELL SAID THAT HE THOUGHT THAT EVERYTHING WAS GOING ALONG VERY WELL WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE POSTURE OF THE PRESIDENT ON EXECUTIVE PRIVILEGE. HE SAID THAT HE FELT THAT THE PRESIDENT WAS GOING TO HAVE TO BACK DOWN SOMEWHAT OR IT WOULD APPEAR HE WAS PREVENTING INFORMATION FROM COMING OUT OF THE WHITE HOUSE. I RECALL THAT EHRLICHMAN LEFT THE MEETING BEFORE IT HAD TERMINATED BECAUSE HE WAS GOING TO MEET SECRETARY SCHULTZ.

I WAS ALSO CALLED OUT OF THE MEETING ABOUT NOON TIME WHEN A MESSAGE WAS SENT TO ME BY ZIEGLER THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT HE SEE ME IMMEDIATELY. THIS HAD TO DO WITH THE STATEMENT THAT WAS RUNNING ON THE WIRES THAT GRAY HAD SAID THAT I HAD PROBABLY LIED AND ZIEGLER WANTED TO KNOW HOW TO HANDLE IT. ACCORDINGLY, I DEPARTED THE MEETING AND WENT INTO A MEETING WITH ZIEGLER AND MOORE TO DISCUSS GRAY'S COMMENT. I RETURNED TO HALDEMAN'S OFFICE WHERE MITCHELL AND HALDEMAN AND I HAD LUNCH. DURING LUNCH THERE WAS SOME CONTINUED CONVERSATION ABOUT THE GENERAL PROBLEMS. MR. MITCHELL RAISED THE FACT THAT F. LEE BAILLY, WHO HAD BEEN VERY HELPFUL IN DEALING WITH MCCORD, HAD A PROBLEM THAT HE WOULD LIKE TO BRING UP. HE THEN SAID THAT MR. BAILLY HAD A CLIENT WHO HAD A LONGER HISTORY OF DEALING WITH THE GOVERNMENT AND BAILLY WANTED TO MAKE AN ARRANGEMENT WITH THE GOVERNMENT WHEREBY THE GOLD COULD BE TURNED OVER TO THE GOVERNMENT WITHOUT THE INDIVIDUAL BEING

AFFIDAVIT OF JAMES W. MCCORD, JR.

I, James W. McCord, Jr., being duly sworn do state the following:

Having carefully monitored "Phase I" of the so-called Watergate hearings before the Senate Select Committee on Presidential Activities, affiant believes that the hearings, which were completed only on September 25, 1973, produced and clarified certain evidentiary points which directly bear upon affiant's pending Coram Nobis Motion (in this case) either for Acquittal or a new trial. References are made in this affidavit to pages in the hearings transcript of the Senate Select Committee (hereinafter "Committee"), and to A Report to the Special Prosecutor on Certain Aspects of the Watergate Affair, prepared by Mr. Charles Morgan of the American Civil Liberties Union (hereinafter "Special Report"), asserting abuse of the trial process by government prosecutors in the January 1973 Watergate trial. Special attention is drawn to the following pages of that Special Report in that regard: pp. ii, iv, v, vi, 1,2,3,45,6,7-30,33-58,60-97,100-105. Other pages of the Special Report are referred to elsewhere in this affidavit, especially in regard to failure of defense counsel to cross-examine during that trial. A copy of the Special Report is appended to this affidavit as attachment "A" and is made a part hereof by reference.

1. On or about October 25, 1972, Mr. John Albert Johnson (Gerald Alch's assistant) appeared in Washington for a hearing in affiant's criminal case. On completion of that hearing, Johnson called affiant and advised him that he had "something important" to tell him, but did not specify the nature of the message. Some days later, Alch telephoned and said that Johnson had been approached by the Assistant U.S. Attorneys enquiring whether affiant would take the stand at his trial and give evidence, i.e., turn state's evidence. Alch said that Johnson asked "would it mean to McCord?" Alch said that McCord was told only that they "would put in a good word for McCord with the Judge". Alch said this was meaningless, affiant agreed, and the subject was

2. In March, 1973, affiant read that the prosecutors claimed that, in October, 1972, they had communicated an offer to affiant's defense attorneys to "drop all but one charge" against affiant in exchange for his testimony at the trial. Such an offer was never conveyed to affiant by Gerald Alch, F. Lee Bailey, or any member of their law firm.

3. Further lack of fidelity on the part of Gerald Alch was evidenced in the sworn testimony of John Dean on June 25, 1973:

It was sometime during this period (January 1973, during trial) that as a result of my reports of Caulfield's meetings with McCord, that (Paul) O'Brien, (John) Mitchell, and Alch discussed having F. Lee Bailey, Alch's partner, meet with McCord and inform him that he would personally handle his case on appeal. Mitchell was to talk with Mr. Bailey about this.
(see Committee hearings, p. 2277)

4. Later in his testimony on June 25, 1973, Dean testified:

During lunch (between Robert Haldeman, John Erlichman, John Mitchell and Dean on March 21, 1973 at the White House) there were some continued conversations about the general problems. Mr. Mitchell raised the fact that F. Lee Bailey who had been very helpful in dealing with McCord, had a problem that he would like to bring up. He said that Mr. Bailey had a client who had an enormous amount of gold in his possession and would like to make an arrangement with the government, whereby the gold could be turned over to the government without the individual being prosecuted for holding the gold. Mitchell was addressing his request to Haldeman...
(see Committee hearings, p. 2330)

To affiant, it is clear from John Dean's testimony that his attorney Gerald Alch, prior to and during trial, was serving as a government informant for the White House, and for the Committee to Re-Elect the President, in regard to the substance of attorney-client discussions by Alch with McCord, including discussions about trial strategy and plans, and that Alch was performing many acts adverse to affiant's interest. He was dealing not only with Paul O'Brien, counsel to the Committee to Re-Elect the President, but also with the White House via ex-Attorney General John Mitchell, who affiant had advised Alch was a principal in the Watergate operation. Affiant had advised Alch of this on July 3, 1972.

5. The defense of duress, put forth by affiant's counsel at trial, was not one that affiant fully understood then or now. Affiant had no belief that it would succeed, and he believes that his attorney knew that it would fail.

6. The January 1973 trial transcript is replete with examples of Alch's failure to cross-examine government witnesses on the stand--Jeb Stuart Magruder, Herbert Porter, and Hugh Sloan particularly. And these were the ones that the prosecution used as the basis for its opening and closing statements of the case, making the case that G. Gordon Liddy was the overall "director" of the operation, and that it went no higher in CRP or into the White House, when in fact the contrary was true. (see sworn testimony of Jeb Magruder, John Dean, and James McCord, all before the Senate Watergate Committee). The trial judge himself criticized the defense attorneys as well as the prosecutors for failure to cross-examine key witnesses, particularly Sloan (see trial transcript pp. 1723, 1724, 1733, 1752-54, 1756, 1717-19).

7. Acting FBI Director L. Patrick Gray III has testified under oath before the Committee that he destroyed files of E. Howard Hunt's, from Hunt's White House office, at the instruction of John Erlichman and John Dean; and that he, Gray, did so in December 1972 around Christmas, a matter of days before the Watergate trial began on January 8, 1973. Gray claims that he did not read all of the files so destroyed, therefore he has no way of knowing, one way or another, whether the files contained material relevant to the defense of the two Watergate defendants, affiant and G. Gordon Liddy, who stood trial in January 1973 (Committee transcript pp 7075).

8. Peter Wolf, a Washington, D. C. lawyer, on April 19, 1973, filed in Judge John Sirica's Court a motion for a protective order and said therein:

late in the summer of 1972, I received a call from a client. I had represented in a previous matter. He inquired whether he was in danger of violating the law if he had in his possession approximately eight cardboard cartons, containing among other things, the contents of E. Howard Hunt's desk--at the White House, in the White House before the F.B.I. got there, including plans to "bug" the Watergate....Very shortly after the first conversation I telephoned Principal Assistant U.S. Attorney Earl Silbert and told him these facts and received an opinion from him that he did not think my client was committing any crime...my client worked for CRP...he had been asked to pick up the cartons at the Executive Office Building on the Sunday after the Watergate break-in (June 18, 1973) that a pass would be waiting for him at the guard entrance, that no questions would be asked when the cartons were removed from the building and none were.

My attempts to have my client disclose the documents he said were in his possession before the November 1972 elections were to no avail...(he subsequently told me) the materials had been turned over to CRP shortly before the election...I have been urging my client to cooperate with the Grand Jury or Congressional investigation but without avail.

Mr. Earl Silbert denied these statements by Mr. Wolf. Many questions are raised by the above. What happened to the "bugging plan" referred to above. Who did Wolf's client give it to, and who in turn did the individual give it to, or what happened to the plans thereafter? What was the role of CRP in all this? Who arranged for the pickup at the Executive Office Building on June 18, 1972? What do the records there show on this pickup of June 18, 1972? Why did Mr. Earl Silbert suppress evidence on this matter during the trial, if he did? Such suppression could well prejudice the defendants during the trial. Did the cartons contain the address book and list finder E. Howard Hunt referred to in his motion for disclosure of evidence in October, 1972, and in his September 24, and 25, 1973 Senate Watergate testimony. Why did Silbert turn down such vital evidence, if he did?

Either Mr. Wolf or Mr. Silbert is dissembling himself on this matter. Both should give testimony in a hearing on this matter, since it is so vital as it affects the rights of affiant and Mr. Liddy to a fair trial.

9. E. Howard Hunt, in sworn Senate testimony on September 24 and 25, 1973 has stated that he, after the Watergate arrests, visited his White House offices and stored certain Watergate materials there, and on June 19, 1972, advised Miss Joan Hall, Charles Colson's secretary that his safe in the Executive Office Building was "loaded". He went on to say that Miss Hall had the combination to Hunt's safe.

Yet John Dean, Counsel to the President has testified before the Senate Watergate Committee that he had Hunt's safe drilled open on June 19, 1972 (Committee transcript, not available). Why drill it open if Miss Hall had the combination?

Hunt went on to refer to his address book and list finder which he said was stored in his office and which he described in Committee testimony as a "guidebook" for an investigator to unravel the Gemstone matters, including the bugging and photography operations, because, among other things, the names of those involved in these operations were in these books.

What happened to this address book and list finder? They were not disclosed to Hunt as a result of his motion for discovery. This is evidence possibly exculpatory for both Hunt, and for the two men who stood trial, affiant and Liddy.

10. In regard to harassment of, and tampering with the affiant, a party to a Court proceeding (Title 18, Section 1503); bribery (Title 18, Section 201(d)); and conspiracy to deny affiant's civil rights (Title 18, Section 241 U.S. Code), affiant states:

A. Continual harassment, and tampering with the affiant occurred during the January 1973 trial itself, for the purposes of influencing affiant's actions during trial, and his testimony, and occurred on January 8,9,10,11,12, 14,15,16,25 and 29 1973, by agents of the White House; first by Anthony Ulasevich from January 8-11, 1973, and thereafter by John G. ... (See ... testimony, pp 133-134, Book 1) .

B. Acts of bribery were committed on January 8, 12, 14, and 25, 1973 by Ulasewicz and Caulfield, aided and abetted by affiant's defense counsel, Gerald Alch. (See McCord's Committee testimony Book I, pp 133-141; also Ulasewicz Committee testimony Book I, pp286-90; Caulfield Committee testimony pp 254, 258-61). Caulfield and Ulasewicz admit promises of executive clemency and payments to McCord while in prison, and do not deny that the request to plead guilty was made to McCord. (same citations)

Title 18 U. S. Code Section 201 (d) states that whoever directly or indirectly corruptly promises anything of value to any person with intent to influence testimony under oath or affirmation, as a witness upon a trial, commits bribery. It is not necessary that the promise be accepted.

The intended purpose of the bribery acts committed was to get affiant to plead guilty and go off to prison, remaining silent regarding White House and other CRP personnel involved in, or knowledgeable of the Watergate operation.

C. Gerald Alch was a party to, and aided and abetted this harassment, tampering, bribery, and conspiracy to deny affiant's civil rights. His actions therein include, but are not limited to the following. a) During mid-afternoon, January 8, 1973, the first day of the trial, Alch stated to the affiant " whose word would you accept regarding a White House promise of executive clemency ? "; b) the next words came from Alch on this subject later that same afternoon at another location in the District of Columbia, where Alch stated " you will be hearing from the White House tonight "; the next words on this subject came still later that evening when a White House agent, Anthony Ulasewicz's first words were: " Plead guilty. A year is a long time. You will get executive clemency. Your family will be taken care of, and when you get out, you will be rehabilitated and a job found for you. Don't take immunity when called before the grand jury "; d) thereafter, throughout the trial until January 25, 1973, Alch continued to inquire regarding affiant's intentions of whether or not affiant's plans to remain silent, or to testify; and e) Other statements referred to in the motion accompanying this affidavit, made by John Dean in sworn Senate Watergate testimony (Committee hearings Book 3 pp.974-76,) reflect that Alch kept the White House informed of affiant's answers and trial plans, via meetings with Paul O'Brien and John Mitchell, of the Committee to Re-Elect the President.

In recent responses to affiant's motions and affidavits, the Special Prosecutor has requested that specific citations be listed, where affiant lists actions of Alch which are improper or illegal. In addition to the citations listed above, the following are relevant and material: " Confidential communications are now held by the Supreme Court to be within the protection of the 4th amendment. Osborn vs. U. S., 385 U.S. 323, 1966. The scope of the right to counsel includes, without limitation, the right to consult with counsel in private, and free from official surveillance....official monitoring of conversations between an accused and his attorney...through a government informer...violates the accused rights to counsel. Black vs. U.S., 385 U.S. 26, 1966. " As the above sworn testimony reflects, Alch, affiant's attorney, was himself that " government informer " , breaching the confidentiality of communications between attorney and his client, the affiant McCord.

Affiant saith no further.

CRIMINAL NO. 1827-72

AFFIDAVIT OF JAMES W. McCORD, JR.

Comes now the defendant, James W. McCord, Jr., and upon his oath states unto the Court:

AFFIDAVIT

Re Ineffective Counsel

The following specific acts occurred involving Gerald Alch, from my own knowledge, and involving F. Lee Bailey, and Alch, according to sworn testimony of John W. Dean III, before the Senate Watergate Committee on June 25, 1973, which acts individually and collectively effectively denied the defendant McCord his constitutional rights, namely: his/amendment^{6th} right to counsel; his 5th and 14th amendment rights to due process; and his 4th amendment rights against unreasonable search and seizure in connection with actions of defendant McCord's attorney Gerald Alch and F. Lee Bailey.

The specific acts occurring prior to and during trial listed below in defendant McCord's opinion constitute conduct of Alch and Bailey which should be "shocking to the conscience of the Court," because it reflected infidelity as legal representation of defendant McCord; reflected bad faith and a pretense of legal representation, which was perfunctory in nature; was legal conduct which made a mockery and sham of the January 1973 Watergate trial, in that rather than assuring defendant McCord due process of law, did just the opposite -- it denied that due process. It is defendant McCord's understanding that it is the duty of every Court, State or Federal "to fearlessly see that the attorney is faithful to his trust," and "faithful to his client;" by the acts listed below Alch and Bailey while officers of the Court flagrantly and willfully violated that trust.

1. Defendant McCord engaged Gerald Alch, an attorney from Boston, Mass. on July 1, 1972. Alch was then a senior partner in the law firm of F. Lee Bailey, Alch and Gilles. It is defendant McCord's understanding that sometime around 1 January 1973 Alch became an employee in the firm of F. Lee Bailey, rather than a partner.

2. On July 1, 1972 defendant McCord informed Alch that upon information and belief John Mitchell was one of the principals who authorized and directed the Watergate operation.

Approximately one month later, Alch informed McCord that F. Lee Bailey initiated long distance telephonic contact from Chicago with Mitchell and discussed McCord's case with Mitchell. Alch stated that the Bailey contact with Mitchell was initiated "in McCord's best interests." It now appears to defendant McCord that that contact initiated at that time was not in McCord's interests but rather those of John Mitchell, F. Lee Bailey and Gerald Alch.

3. On or about the first week of October 1972, Gerald Alch at the Colonial Restaurant, 920 M Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., told McCord that he had just come from a meeting in William O. Bittman's office, and Alch told McCord "nobody is to get up on that stand" during the Watergate Trial, referring to any of the 7 defendants; that executive clemency, family support while in prison, and "rehabilitation" after prison was going to be promised the defendants. Alch repeated this statement today during the trial of William O. Bittman.

to Bittman's secretary pertaining to McCord's case.

7. John W. Dean III, in sworn testimony before the Senate Watergate Committee on June 25, 1973 (attachment "C") stated that Paul O'Brien, attorney for the Committee to Re-elect the President, told Dean in early 1973 that "McCord is not cooperating with his attorney, Gerald Alch," that O'Brien subsequently talked with John Mitchell about the matter; that Mitchell requested Dean to arrange to have John Caulfield talk with McCord "and find out what he is going to do"; that on January 10, 1973 both Paul O'Brien and John Mitchell called Dean and requested that Caulfield promise McCord executive clemency, and stated that McCord "was becoming an increasing problem" and that "again I (Dean) was told that McCord's lawyer was having problems with him" and that "Hunt, Bittman and his lawyer Alch had lost rapport with him."; that on January 11, 1973, Dean received a call from Paul O'Brien "who asked me if the message (to promise McCord executive clemency) had been delivered to Caulfield"; that O'Brien went on to tell Dean he (O'Brien) would be out of town but he "could be reached if there were any problems"; that he (O'Brien) was keeping John Mitchell posted, said that "we need a first-hand reading on McCord from someone he will talk to, because he is not talking openly with his lawyer about what he plans to do," and stated "we need a first hand reading on McCord because Alch is not getting it from McCord"; that on January 12, Mitchell called Dean for a report and Dean told Mitchell "I thought I would hear from Caulfield as to what he had to say"; that during a meeting between Dean and Caulfield that date, he, Dean, received a call from either John Mitchell or

Paul O'Brien requesting a report on Caulfield's meeting on January 12 with McCord and that Dean called both Mitchell and O'Brien and informed them of the details of the meeting; and that "it was sometime during this period that as a result of my reports of Caulfield's meeting with McCord that O'Brien, Mitchell and Alch discussed having F. Lee Bailey, Alch's partner, meet with McCord" and inform him that he would personally handle his case on appeal and "Mitchell was to talk to Mr. Bailey about this." (Emphasis Added)

Dean further testified that during lunch on March 22, 1973, "there was a continued conversation about general problems. Mr. Mitchell raised the fact that F. Lee Bailey who had been very helpful in dealing with McCord, had a problem he would like to bring up," that Bailey had a client with a large amount of gold . . . and would like to make an arrangement with the government. . . ." (Emphasis Added)

Further, affiant sayeth not.

I have read the foregoing and swear that to the best of knowledge and belief it is true and correct.

I. INTRODUCTION

The writer contends that:

- a. His former attorney in the first Watergate trial, Gerald Alch, committed perjury before the Senate Watergate Committee in connection with executive clemency discussions with McCord and William O. Bittman in early January 1973.
- b. That this perjury was relevant to the criminal involvement of Alch and William O. Bittman and of others in the Watergate cover up conspiracy in 1972 and 1973.
- c. That upon information and belief William O. Bittman also has committed perjury on the subject of the executive clemency chain of communications to McCord via Alch on January 8, 1973.
- d. That the Prosecutors Earl Silbert and the later prosecutors James Neal and Richard Ben Veniste engaged in prosecutorial misconduct and sought to cover up the role of William O. Bittman, Alch, F. Lee Bailey and Bernard Shankman in the Watergate cover up conspiracy.
- e. That the same prosecutors wrongfully, tortiously and deliberately concealed evidence favorable to defendants Gordon Liddy and James W. McCord, Jr. from the Court of Appeals, and that had such concealment not occurred the outcome of Liddy's appeal would have been different.
- f. That the Special Prosecutors wrongfully concealed from the Circuit Court of Appeals sworn testimony of McCord and Henry Rothblatt of pressure on the Miami defendants to plead guilty at the Watergate trial of January 1973.
- g. That the above allegations by McCord are verifiable by a Grand Jury.

II. Perjury by McCord's attorney Gerald Alch before the Senate Watergate Committee, May 23-24, 1973.

Among the multiple perjurious statements made by Gerald Alch before the Senate Watergate Committee on May 23-24, 1973, were the following regarding the promise of Executive clemency to McCord, and Alch's role in the conveyance of that promise:

ALCH: "Mr. McCord has alleged that I told him that the purpose of going to Mr. Bittman's office (on January 8, 1973) was that Mr. Bittman wanted to talk to him, Mr. McCord, about 'whose word he would trust regarding a White House offer of Executive clemency' and that Mr. Bittman wanted to talk to Mr. Barker as well. This is not true." (SSC Book I, page 302)

and,

ALCH: "Mr. McCord has alleged that the subject of Executive clemency was discussed on this day, January 8, 1973. This is not true." (SSC Book I, page 303)

Mr. Alch committed perjury in the above underlined statements.

Gerald Alch's initiation of discussions of "Executive clemency" with McCord.

1. Early October, 1972

On approximately October 4, 1972 at the Colonial Restaurant, 1820 M Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. at a luncheon meeting with Alch he told me that he had just come from a meeting with William O. Bittman, in Bittman's office. Alch went on to say that in connection with the forthcoming Watergate trial,

"Nobody gets up on that stand during trial. In return they will get Executive clemency, money while in prison and rehabilitation afterwards."

Alch repeated the above statement with emphasis on the word "nobody" for my benefit, "gets up on that stand." It was more an order than a statement.

The substance of the above conversation about Executive clemency has been furnished to the lower court and to the Court of Appeals in a Judicial Affidavit.

2. December 26, 1972

While at the F. Lee Bailey offices in Boston, Massachusetts, this date, Gerald Alch asked me the following question,

"Don't you believe them when they say you will get Executive clemency?"

"they" had reference to the White House. I had been discussing with him the role of the White House in the Alch-Bittman operation, along with the role of the FBI and the CIA.

3. January 7, 1973

In a conversation at the restaurant at the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel in Washington, D. C., at approximately 8:30 p.m. this date, at a table with Bernard Barker, Alch, Shankman and Henry Rothblatt, Barker's attorney, Barker stated that E. Howard Hunt had received "assurance" from the White House that he would receive Executive clemency. Barker stated that Hunt had "the clout" to see that the White House carried through on its promise of Executive clemency to Hunt, but that he, Barker, needed more specific assurance than some vague word through Hunt that he, Barker, would also receive Executive clemency. Rothblatt made the comment "Bittman has only confused things with his maneuvering. Better if he gets out of it."

4. First day of the trial, 1973

Within hours after Bernard Barker made the above statement that he would need a "specific assurance" about Executive clemency, my own lawyer, Gerald Alch broached the subject in the courtroom of Judge Sirica, telling me that William O. Bittman wanted to talk with me after court that day about,

"whose word I would trust regarding a White House offer of Executive clemency."

Alch added that Bittman also wanted to talk with Barker that afternoon about the same subject, Executive clemency. It turned out that Barker rode in the same cab to Bittman's office that afternoon and went up to Bittman's office ahead of Alch, Shankman and me.

On arrival at Bittman's office, Alch disappeared with Bittman, finally coming back telling me that,

"You are to get word tonight from Jack" (about Executive clemency).

About midnight I received a telephone call from an individual identifying himself as a friend of "Jack's" who told me Jack had requested him to pass a message to me to plead guilty, receive Executive clemency, that my family would be taken care of while I was in prison, that I would be "rehabilitated" after I left prison and a job found, and telling me not to take immunity when called before a grand jury.

III. Relevance and Materiality of Alch's perjury to the culpability of William O. Bittman and Gerald Alch as members of the Watergate cover up conspiracy.

Alch's perjury on May 23, 1973, in connection with whether or not he discussed Executive clemency with McCord relates directly to the issue of whether or not he was part of the Watergate cover up conspiracy.

One of the charges in the March 1, 1974 indictments is that John Mitchell requested, illegally, that a message be conveyed to McCord of a promise of Executive clemency, and that John Mitchell contacted John Dean to see that such a message was conveyed by John Caulfield. The date of this illegal act was early January 1973.

McCord contends that both Alch and Bittman were part of the chain of the conspiracy to see that that message was received from Mitchell, Dean and Caulfield, during early January 1973.

McCord contends that both Alch and Bittman have committed perjury, Alch before the Senate Watergate Committee on May 23, 1973, and later before a federal grand jury; and Bittman before a federal grand jury, in connection with whether Executive clemency was discussed by Alch with McCord on or about January 8, 1973, and between Alch and Bittman at that same time.

McCord contends that the chain of conveyance of this illegal message on or about January 8, 1973 was from John Mitchell to John Dean to Paul O'Brien to William O. Bittman to Gerald Alch to James W. McCord, Jr.--- with Alch telling McCord he was to receive a message of Executive clemency by telephone call from a person he had known by the name of "Jack"--- and that McCord the same evening received a message of Executive clemency from John (Jack) Caulfield via Anthony Ulasewicz, a friend of Caulfield's. Further that Alch illegally "steered" McCord to the office of William O. Bittman on or about January 8, 1973, to get the word that he would be called that evening by Caulfield, after Alch had earlier told McCord that Bittman wanted him to come to Bittman's office that day to discuss Executive clemency.

It is undisputed that McCord was taken by Alch to Bittman's office on or about January 8, 1973 and while there Alch gave a message to McCord that he would be contacted that evening by a friend. (McCord had only been to Bittman's office once before in the six months period after the arrests and that was also on an occasion when Alch had steered McCord there for an unusual meeting, in early October 1972, one week after Alch had been the original person raising the subject of Executive clemency to McCord).

The sworn testimony which tends to support McCord's version, versus that of Alch and Bittman, and to reflect that Alch and Bittman have committed perjury on this subject, is as follows:

1. JOHN DEAN

Before the Senate Watergate Committee in 1973 (SSC Book 3, pages 970-976) Dean testified to a series of discussions regarding the subject of Executive clemency for Hunt, which had been initiated by calls from William O. Bittman to Paul O'Brien of ORP. Thereafter, according to Dean, Charles Colson had a discussion with Bittman "about Hunt's potential for Executive clemency." This meeting allegedly occurred on or about January 3, 1973, which was in the week preceeding the date McCord alleges Gerald Alch told McCord that Bittman wanted to speak with him about Executive clemency, and the same time McCord alleges Alch told him Bittman also wanted to talk to Bernard Barker about Executive clemency.

John Dean testified,

"...between January 3 and 5 (1973)...he (Paul O'Brien) told me that McCord was not cooperating with his lawyer--- Mr. Alch. ...O'Brien subsequently talked with Mitchell about the matter, because Mitchell called me and informed me that he had discussed the matter with O'Brien, and Mitchell asked me to request that Jack Caulfield talk with McCord to find out what he was going to do." (SSC Book 3, pp. 970-975)

and,

"It was on January 10, that I received calls from both O'Brien and Mitchell indicating that since Hunt had been given assurance of clemency...that Caulfield should give the same assurances to McCord, who was becoming an increasing problem, and again I was told that McCord's lawyer was having problems with him."

"Both O'Brien and Mitchell felt that McCord might be responsive to an assurance from Caulfield because Hunt, Bittman, and his lawyer Alch, had lost rapport with him."

Dean testified that he called Caulfield in California who asked Dean to let Anthony Ulasewicz "give him (McCord) the clemency message similar to the message that Colson had transmitted to Hunt via Bittman." (Book 3, pp. 970-75, SSC). Dean agreed to that arrangement.

Subsequently, Dean testified that he received a call from Paul O'Brien who asked Dean if Caulfield had delivered a message of Executive clemency to McCord, and Dean replied that it had been. O'Brien then went on to make a most unusual statement,

"O'Brien told me that McCord wanted to speak with Caulfield personally and asked me when Caulfield could meet with McCord. I told him I would arrange it...he told me he was keeping Mitchell posted and requested that I keep him posted. O'Brien said that we need a firsthand report, a firsthand reading on McCord from someone he will talk with, because he is not talking openly with his lawyer about what he plans to do..."

What is most unusual about the above is that O'Brien told Dean that McCord wanted to speak with Caulfield--yet McCord was not in contact with O'Brien and had never met the man! Presumably Gerald Alch, McCord's attorney, was keeping William O. Bittman and Paul O'Brien informed of McCord's contacts with Caulfield, and thereby keeping the White House informed of every move of his client McCord.

McCord has testified before the Senate Watergate Committee that Anthony Ulasewicz transmitted the following message for Caulfield to McCord regarding Executive clemency,

"Plead guilty. One year is a long time. You will get Executive clemency. Your family will be taken care of and when you get out you will be rehabilitated and a job will be found for you. Don't take immunity when called before the grand jury." (SSC Book 1, page 135)

Dean has testified that in accordance with John Mitchell and Paul O'Brien's telephonic requests he requested Caulfield to meet personally with McCord to convey messages of Executive clemency. (SSC Book 3, pp. 970-975)

John Mitchell and Alch's partner, F. Lee Bailey

John Dean also testified that on March 22, 1973, at a luncheon with Mitchell,

"Mr. (John) Mitchell raised the fact that F. Lee Bailey, who had been 'very helpful' in dealing with McCord, had a problem he would like to bring up."

"He then said that Mr. Bailey had a client who had an enormous amount of gold in his possession and would like to make an arrangement with the government whereby the gold could be turned over to the government without the individual being prosecuted." (SSC Book 3, page 1001)

F. Lee Bailey, with whom and for whom Alch, McCord's lawyer works is also mentioned in three presidential tapes, wherein President Nixon is discussing with Richard Kleindienst, and John Dean the fact that Bailey was "very close" to John Mitchell and that Mitchell in April 1973 might use Bailey as a defense attorney, if indicted, however that the President was aware that there was "a slight problem" in that Bailey was an attorney for one of the other defendants, McCord. Mitchell did not thereafter formally engaged Bailey as a defense attorney. The three presidential tapes are those of 14 and 15 April 1973 and March 21, 1973.

John Dean also testified further about F. Lee Bailey before the Senate Watergate Committee as follows:

"It was sometime during this period that as a result of my reports of Caulfield meetings with McCord, that (Paul) O'Brien, (John) Mitchell and Mr. Alch discussed having F. Lee Bailey, Alch's partner, meet with McCord and inform him that he would personally handle his case on appeal. Mitchell was to talk with Mr. Bailey about this." (SSC Book 3, page 976)

The period that Dean is testifying about above is approximately one week after Alch took McCord to Bittman's office to get a message that he would be contacted by a White House agent about Executive clemency. McCord in fact was told by Alch at about this period that he, Alch, had Bailey on the telephone and that Bailey wanted to talk to McCord about "this thing" (Executive clemency). Dean's testimony on this point is corroborated by my own knowledge.

2. PAUL O'BRIEN, CRP ATTORNEY In 1972-73

O'Brien testified on July 3, 1974 before the House Judiciary Committee as follows regarding the January 8, 1973 period:

Ms. Holtzman: "Isn't it a fact also, Mr. O'Brien, that shortly after January 8, in response to a request by Mr. Dean, you advised Mr. McCord's attorney, or transmitted information to Mr. McCord's attorney that he would be, he, Mr. McCord would be contacted by a friend?"

Mr. O'Brien: "That is correct. Just so the record will be correct, it was Mr. Bittman because Mr. Alch was not available."

3. JOHN CAULFIELD

Caulfield testified before the Senate Watergate Committee that John Dean in discussing Caulfield's future visits with McCord should stress the grave concern the situation was to the White House and Caulfield stated,

"(Mr. Dean said) that many people in the White House were quite concerned over it. Mr. Dean said that none of the other then-defendants in the Watergate burglary 'were any problem' and that Mr. McCord was not cooperating with his attorney." (SSC Book I, page 257)

Caulfield also testified as follows:

Senator Ervin: "Did you infer from your conversation with Dean that under Dean's statements, McCord was expected to plead guilty, keep silent receive a short sentence, and receive Executive clemency?"

Caulfield: "If he accepted the offer, that would be the way I would interpret it, yes sir." (SSC Book I, page 283)

Caulfield further testified,

Senator Baker: "...you were motivated...by what assurance you had received from Dean that if Mr. McCord did not go along with the other defendants and cooperate with his lawyer that there might be a scandal against the President?"

Caulfield: "That is exactly right Senator." (SSC Book I, p. 282)

THE RECORD OF MCCORD'S FRUITLESS EFFORTS TO GET THE SPECIAL PROSECUTORS TO INVESTIGATE THE EVIDENCE OF PERJURY BY ALCH AND BITTMAN AND ALCH'S ROLES IN THE COVER UP.

1. On May 4, 1973 McCord transmitted a memorandum to the Senate Watergate Committee with a copy to Prosecutor Earl Silbert alleging that Mrs. E. Howard Hunt had told McCord on November 30, 1972 that E. Howard Hunt a few days before had dictated a memorandum which was taken by William O. Bittman to Kenneth Parkinson's office, and in which Hunt threatened to blow the White House out of the water.

The memorandum also contained allegations by McCord against his former attorney Gerald Alch, in that Alch told McCord on December 21, 1972 that he had just come from a meeting with William O. Bittman and Alch proceeded to try to get McCord to use a false defense, that allegedly the CIA was behind the Watergate operation. Alch tried this pitch again on December 26, 1972, for which I thereafter fired Alch on January 1, 1973.

Judge John Sirica on receiving a copy of the May 4, 1973 memorandum called Prosecutor Earl Silbert to his office and requested that Silbert call McCord before a federal grand jury on the above allegations within 48 hours. At no time did Silbert thereafter so so, neither have the Special Prosecutors done so in the 18 months since that time.

2. In the summer of 1973 Prosecutor James Neal of the Special Prosecutor Office told McCord during an interview that the above May 4, 1973 memorandum which McCord had read into the Senate Watergate Committee record on May 22, 1973, (SSC Book I, page 193-96)

"does not appear in the Senate Watergate Committee transcript."

The above appeared to be a highly unusual statement by Neal to McCord and McCord insisted that the May 4, 1973 did appear in the transcript and insisted on giving a copy of the memorandum to Neal.

Whether Neal ever entered the May 4, 1973 into the grand jury record, or whether he, like Silbert before him, concealed the memorandum is not known. It is a fact that neither Neal nor any other prosecutor thereafter ever called McCord before the grand jury for any purpose, and never to enter the May 4, 1973 memorandum into the record.

3. An October 9, 1973 memorandum of McCord's to the Massachusetts Bar Association alleging perjury by Alch and that Alch aided and abetted the tampering with a party to a Court proceeding, McCord, prior to and during the January 1973 trial; that Alch aided and abetted the promising of a thing of value (Executive clemency) which constituted the Federal offense of bribery; and that Gerald Alch and F. Lee Bailo were parties to a federal conspiracy. In that October 9, 1973 memorandum, a copy of which was personally given by McCord to a member of the Special Prosecutors office on or about that same date, McCord stated he was available for interview on these allegations at any time by federal officials. At no time did the Special Prosecutors office question McCord before a grand jury or outside of a grand jury about these allegations. To the contrary, the Special Prosecutors office has appeared to desire not to question McCord about Alch, Bailey and Bittman's role and the allegations McCord made in the October 9, 1973 memorandum referred to above. A copy of that memorandum is attached herewith.

4. In August 1974 McCord gave prosecutor Richard Ben Veniste a copy of McCord's book which contains 35 pages in which William O. Bittman's activities during the Watergate cover up are enumerated many of them in connection with Gerald Alch, McCord's attorney, and McCord spoke in unequivocal words to Ben Veniste about the role played in the promise of Executive clemency by Alch in early January 1973. Ben Veniste appeared to have no interest in such matters and tried to avoid them.
5. On August 14, 1974 McCord had filed a Federal Tort Claim with the White House and Department of Justice alleging at length illegal acts by Alch and F. Lee Bailey and others in the Watergate conspiracy.
6. On October 18, 1974, McCord had transmitted to Mr. Richard Ben Veniste once again a statement reflecting that both Alch and Bailey were part of the Watergate cover up conspiracy and that Alch committed perjury; and reflecting that Alch's role in the transmission of Executive clemency in early January 1973 was integral to any testimony I would give on that subject in court and could not be "carved out" and excluded as Ben Veniste indicated he desired McCord to do. McCord pointed out to Ben Veniste that he was bringing a legal malpractice suit against both Alch and Bailey and planned to charge these offenses of perjury by Alch and criminal conspiracy by Alch and Bailey in connection with the promise of Executive clemency and other matters.

It should be pointed out that at no time has Ben Veniste or any other member of his staff questioned McCord about McCord's allegations referred to above about perjury by Alch. There has been a complete silence by them on this charge. Neither have they ever questioned McCord on what he meant by the charges of criminal conspiracy by Alch and Bailey. There appeared to be a desire not to know what McCord meant by these charges. McCord believes that there was therein a desire to cover up for Alch, Bailey and Bittman by the prosecutors. Never at any time has McCord been called before a Grand Jury by the Special Prosecutors office on these charges or any other matter.

To the contrary to any objective seeking of investigative leads or facts about McCord's charges against Alch, the Special Prosecutors have defended Alch before the U.S. Court of Appeals in its written briefs and oral arguments. McCord believes this occurred as a further protective measure for William O. Bittman who would have been implicated in a criminal conspiracy had efforts been made to corroborate McCord's charges as they can be corroborated.

WHO CAN VERIFY THE ABOVE ALLEGATIONS BY MCCORD.

The following can verify the above allegations as they pertain to Bittman and Alch:

1. William O. Bittman, himself, if he does not further perjure himself before a grand jury and the Court.
2. Bernard Shankman - former local counsel for McCord, who has heretofore committed perjury in similar matters pertaining to Gerald Alch.
3. The law firm of Hogan and Hartson - can search its records for memoranda dictated by Gerald Alch to its secretarial personnel, especially William O. Bittman's former secretary in the latter part of 1972 and in January and February 1973. McCord has previously waived the attorney-client privilege between Alch, Bailey and McCord, so this is not a bar to such a search, and to interviews of its members under oath, especially Austin Mittler, one of their attorneys. The code of professional conduct reflects that an attorney is obligated to disclose evidence of a fraud perpetrated upon a tribunal. Alch, even though his local counsel had an office two blocks away, made his office during the trial in the firm of Hogan and Hartson during the January 1973 trial. McCord believes that the purpose of this was to keep Bittman CRP and the White House informed of McCord's trial plans and intentions regarding disclosure of his knowledge about the Watergate conspiracy.

Alch is known to have dictated a memorandum in the offices of Hogan and Hartson on or about January 22, 1973 regarding McCord and his trial plans.

Bernard Shankman told McCord on the morning before the testimony of Jeb Magruder and Herbert Porter in January 1972 that "calls were made last night to have Magruder put in a good word for you on the stand today." Whether such calls were made from the firm of Hogan and Hartson is not known.

4. Jeb Magruder can verify whether he was contacted prior to his testimony in January 1973 and by whom, to "put in a good word for McCord" on the witness stand during the trial, and who may have communicated this word to Bernard Shankman.
5. Pat (last name unknown) former secretary to William O. Bittman can testify regarding the relationship existing between Alch and Bittman, and between Shankman and Bittman, and regarding memoranda dictated by Alch to her on McCord's case. McCord has waived the attorney-client privilege regarding Alch, Bailey and Shankman.
6. Paul O'Brien can testify regarding evidence and indications of a conspiracy existing between Alch, Bailey, Shankman and CRP, Bittman, and the White House. Specifically he can testify regarding the events of January 8-10, 1973.

7. The managerial and accounting personnel of Hogan and Hartson and William O. Bittman can testify regarding whether any of the $156,000 paid to Bittman by CRP went to Alch, Bailey or Shankman.
8. John Dean has previously testified that William O. Bittman "planned a CIA defense" in 1972-73 for the first Watergate trial in January 1973. (SSC Book 3, p. 973-74). Alch on December 21, 1972 pitched McCord to use such a false CIA defense at the January 1973 trial, stating that such a defense had been discussed that day in Bittman's office. Dean and Bittman can be reinterviewed under oath on this, as can Shankman who has committed perjury before the Senate Watergate Committee regarding Alch's discussion with McCord on December 21, 1972 at the Monocle Restaurant trying to convince McCord to use such a defense.

Dean further testified that,

"...between January 3 and 5 (1973) he (Paul O'Brien) told me that McCord was not cooperating with his lawyer - Mr. Alch. O'Brien also told me that Bittman had planned a CIA defense to the case, but McCord --- refused." (SSC Book 3, p. 973-74)

Dean also testified that, on January 10, 1973,

"Mitchell felt that McCord might be responsive to an assurance (a promise of Executive clemency) from Caulfield, because...Bittman...had lost rapport with him (McCord)." (SSC Book 3, page 975)
[Dean contacted Caulfield and he agreed to contact McCord and pass such a message via Anthony Ulasewicz.]

Thus, Paul O'Brien can testify regarding the false CIA defense planned by Bittman and Alch, as well as John Dean.

John Dean can testify regarding the unusual phrase above,

" Bttman...had lost rapport with him (McCord) "

Bittman was Hunt's attorney. What rapport he was supposed to have had with McCord is unknown. Presumably it was for purposes of the White House and CRP since he was in no way representing McCord and McCord had only seen him a couple of times outside of the courtroom in a period of six months, both of those at Alch's instigation.

NOV 29 1974

Dear Judge Sirica,

UPON reading in a recent issue of "Time" magazine of your determination to reveal the "TRUTH" in the current trial, I think you should know some information that I have been aware of for some time now. Following the televised hearings of the Senate Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities former White House Chief of Staff, Henry Robb (Haldeman) called my house and requested that I never mention to anyone his involvement in the plot to obtain psychiatric record from Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist in California. In a telephone conversation in 1971 with Mr. Haldeman, he said that he was looking for someone to pose as a patient in order to find out how Dr. Fielding kept his patients records in his office. He asked me if I'd be interested in flying to California for a vacation and also for the purpose of seeing Dr. Fielding. Then, he cancelled out this idea for fear Dr. Fielding might somehow become suspicious and Mr.

Haldeman never brought it up again.

Last year, I volunteered as a witness to Senate Ervine Committee but I was never called to testify and I have not told anyone about Haldeman's involvement.

Ellsberg plan. I mean that I have no written proof of any of this testimony but I would be very willing to take a polygraph test or anything else you might desire to back up my word.

I also learned last year from Mr. Haldeman that he has some charges or something filed against me at the Justice Department but last fall, he had someone change the record to read "discontinued in 1971". He did this because he was disappointed when I refused to come to Washington, D.C. and work for him several years ago and perhaps to discredit my word. If I ever said anything about him.

I have not written to you or anybody else at an earlier time as I am totally confined to my apartment in Port Washington taking care of my 87 year old grandmother, Elizabeth Birrell who is an invalid. I have full responsibility for the apartment house and for my grandmother's welfare.

She was hospitalized recently and someone had to be with her all the time.

We have an unpublished
telephone number 516-944-9457.
We are here seven days a week.

I must also state to you that I first came to talk to Mr.
Paldeman via a letter that I mailed to President Nixon in 1971. A number of phone calls from the Chief of Staff followed & called from this office in the morning usually before 9 A.M.
Prior to his departure from the White House he gave my grandmother a phone number where he could be reached at his home in Los Angeles but my grandmother's hearing is failing and she could not remember it to repeat it to this whole relationship with Mr. Haldeman, he convinced us that my grandfather's family and his grandmother's family had known each other years ago in Europe. Due to the events recently in Washington, I don't know today if this story is really fact or fiction.

I do feel very strongly that you have done a really marvellous job for our country
Judge Sirica and I hope that you really find out the truth in the final days of this case.
My apologies for not having a typewriter for this letter. Best wishes to you and your family for a happy Thanksgiving.

Cordially yours
Miss Betty M. Wilce

On December 18, 1974, the Albany Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) received a telephone call from a female who refused to identify herself. The caller stated that her husband and E. HOWARD HUNT were extremely good friends, and that HUNT had stayed with her and her husband at their cabin at Lake George, New York. The caller advised that approximately one week ago, she overheard a conversation between her husband and an attorney concerning "getting E. HOWARD HUNT out of the country before sentencing". The caller stated that she did not wish to furnish her identity because she believed it would break up her marriage.

A United Press International dispatch of 11/27/74 (attached), quotes John N. Mitchell, testifying in his behalf at the current Watergate Break-in Cover-up Trial, as alleging that two FBI Agents came to his office "almost scared to death", asked him a couple questions, and left. This response by Mitchell was in connection with cross-examination by the Special Prosecutor to show that Mitchell had withheld information from the investigating Agents. Mr. Callahan asked if Mitchell's statement is right or wrong.

In the course of this investigation, Mr. Mitchell was contacted on several occasions; however, the interview of 7/5/72, conducted at Mitchell's Office, 1701 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., by Special Agents Daniel C. Mahan and Robert E. Lill, appears to be the interview in question. This interview, conducted 18 days after the burglary of the Democratic National Committee Headquarters, was in furtherance of our efforts at that time to identify McCord's associates and determine whether others at the Committee to Re-elect the President (CRP) were involved in the conspiracy to commit the burglary. The revelation of the conspiracy to cover up the burglary did not come until late March, 1973. The Agents conducting this interview had no reason at that time to suspect Mitchell of any culpable involvement and quite properly conducted the interview in an inquisitory rather than accusatory vein.

The interview of 7/5/72, solicited from Mr. Mitchell information concerning his association with the CRP, the circumstances of his learning of the break-in, when he first met McCord, his comments about other members of the CRP group, as well as efforts Mitchell was taking to plug leak of information from CRP. In response to direct question, Mr. Mitchell said he had no knowledge of the break-in other than what he has read in newspaper accounts of the incident. Reviewed in the context of the time frame in which this interview was conducted, it would appear that Mitchell's comments are totally without foundation. When viewed further in the light of the stiff cross-examination of Mitchell as to why he had not disclosed what he then knew to the two Agents, his attempt to show that the lack of disclosure was through inadequacy of other people is apparent. This blatant, transparent attempt by Mitchell to smear the Agents is further testimony to the depth to which he would go to conceal his culpability.

Mr. Mitchell was never interviewed by Bureau Agents concerning the cover-up as this was handled by the Special Prosecutor before the Federal grand jury.

"I HAVE AN URGE, MR. NEAL, TO GET TO THE TRUTH," MITCHELL SAID SARCASTICALLY AT ONE POINT.

"YOUR URGE TO GET TO THE TRUTH DID NOT INCLUDE TELLING THE AGENTS WHAT WE HAVE BEEN GOING OVER," NEAL SAID, REFERRING AN FBI INTERVIEW OF MITCHELL JUST TWO WEEKS AFTER THE JUNE 17, 1972, WATERGATE BREAK-IN.

MITCHELL SAID TWO FBI AGENTS CAME TO HIS OFFICE "ALMOST SCARED TO DEATH." ASKED HIM A COUPLE OF QUESTIONS AND LEFT. HE SAID HE DID NOT VOLUNTEER INFORMATION TO THEM "FOR OBVIOUS REASONS".

NEAL: "WHAT 'OBVIOUS' REASONS?"

MITCHELL: "THE RE-ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES."

NEAL: "SO YOU CONCEALED THE TRUTH?"

MITCHELL: "I DID NOT CONCEAL IT. I RESPONDED TO THEIR QUESTIONS."

MITCHELL SAID THAT A MEETING OF CAMPAIGN AIDES HELD IN HIS APARTMENT THREE DAYS AFTER THE BREAK-IN WAS "TOTALLY A MEETING TO COVER THE PUBLIC RELATIONS ASPECTS OF IT."

"COVER OR COVER UP?" NEAL ASKED.

"TO COVER VARIOUS ASPECTS OF IT," MITCHELL SAID, EMPHASIZING THE WORD "COVER".

MITCHELL DENIED THAT MAGRUDER TOLD HIM IN THE SUMMER OF 1972 THAT HE WAS GOING TO COMMIT PERJURY IN TESTIMONY TO A GRAND JURY INVESTIGATING WATERGATE. HE SAID MAGRUDER DID NOT USE THE TERM PERJURY, BUT INSTEAD "LAID OUT WHAT HIS TESTIMONY WAS GOING TO BE."

NEAL: "YOU KNEW IT TO BE FALSE?"

MITCHELL: "I HAD SOME SUSPICIONS THAT IT WAS FALSE."

NEAL: "THIS BOY MAGRUDER, THIS NON-LAWYER, 30 TO 33 YEARS OF AGE, AID YOU, A WALL STREET LAWYER AND FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL..."

with the known fingerprints of ROBERT CHARLES MARDIAN, FBI Number 769220G. Mrs. DENNY advised that the results of the requested examination are needed for rebuttal questioning of MARDIAN who is currently testifying in the Watergate cover up trial.

It is anticipated that the rebuttal testimony will be taken commencing Monday, 12/16/74.

Mrs. DENNY further advised that JOHN WESLEY DEAN, III, former Council to the President, has advised the WSPF that he might be able to identify various pages of the enclosed documents which MARDIAN most likely handled. She offered to have DEAN come to WFO to review the enclosed materials.

Subsequently, on this date, JOHN WESLEY DEAN, III, accompanied by U.S. Marshals, reviewed the enclosed documents at WFO. After viewing the enclosures, DEAN identified the following pages, which have been marked by paperclips, as most likely having been handled by ROBERT C. MARDIAN:

Enclosure One.

1) A two page FD-302 of POWELL A. MOORE, serialized as 139-166-1164.

2) A three page teletype to the Bureau and WFO from Houston serialized as 139-166-1160.

Enclosure Two

1) A five page FD-302 of Mr. MAURICE STANS (pages 041-045 of report).

NIGRO, General Manager, Del Webb's Newporter Inn, 1107 Jamboree Road, Newport Beach, California," in the case entitled "United States of America v. JOHN N. MITCHELL, et al, Case Number 74-110." It commanded Mr. NIGRO to appear in the United States District Court, District of Columbia, Courtroom 20, Third and Constitution Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D.C., on September 30, 1974, at 10:00 AM, and to bring with him all records pertaining to JOHN D. Mr. NIGRO advised that all records for EHRLICHMAN and HALDEMAN have previously been furnished and that he has caused hotel records to be searched for DEAN and has discovered there are no records for DEAN for this period. He stated that he would confer with the corporation's legal counsel in Phoenix, Arizona, concerning how this subpoena could be satisfied and that he would furnish the response to SA JOHN M. O'NEILL, JR. during the latter part of the week of September 16, 1974 through September 20, 1974.

Special Agents WILLIAM C. CARROLL and JOHNIE L. JOYCE, JR., in the company of Deputy United States Marshal JOHN WHITMORE, were driven on a golf cart from the United States Secret Service Compound, which is located on the property of the United States Coast Guard adjacent to the residence of RICHARD M. NIXON, by RONALD ZIEGLER, former Press Secretary to the President and present staff member of RICHARD M. NIXON at San Clemente, California. ZIEGLER drove to the driveway of the residence of RICHARD M. NIXON and indicated to the Agents and Deputy WHITMORE that they should wait in the driveway. He then entered what appeared to be the side entrance of the residence, which is a distance of approximately 20 feet from where the golf cart was parked.

Shortly thereafter, RICHARD M. NIXON and ZIEGLER exited the front door of the residence and walked briskly towards the waiting Agents and Deputy United States Marshal. Mr. NIXON was smiling as he approached and stated, "Good evening, gentlemen. They're keeping you busy these days." It is noted Mr. NIXON had walked approximately 25 feet from the front entrance prior to stopping and shaking hands with Special Agent CARROLL. At this time, which was 5:50 PM (Pacific Daylight Time), he was handed a subpoena by Special Agent CARROLL commanding him to appear in the United States District Court, District of Columbia, on October 1, 1974, at 10:00 AM, in the case of "United States of America v. JOHN N. MITCHELL, et al."

Mr. NIXON accepted the subpoena with his right hand and immediately reached across his body and handed it to RONALD ZIEGLER, who was standing to his left and slightly behind. He then was handed two subpoenas by Deputy United States Marshal WHITMORE which he also handed to ZIEGLER in the same manner.

At this point, Mr. NIXON again shook hands with Special Agent CARROLL, stepped back, indicating he was leaving, and stated something to the effect, "Did you have a good drive down?" As he turned to return to his residence, he thanked the Agents and the Deputy United States Marshal, waved his right hand and returned to the residence through the same door from which he had exited.

Dear Mr. Kelly,

As a citizen and fellow Missourian, I think I have a right to ask you directly: What is the F.B.I. and the Justice Department doing about an investigation of the obvious counter-case of Watergate? The case has been tried and defended as a crime committed for and by the Nixon administration. It has never, to my knowledge, been stated or investigated as a crime deliberately planted on the Nixon administration by ~~the~~ enemies of the administration.

EX-105
RECEIVED

The counter-case is by no means unrealistic.

The facts are these: Gordon Liddy planned the acts and persisted until he got - or could claim to have got - the approval of John Mitchell, the friend

CORRESPONDENCE

Closest To the President in the Administration. The crime failed spectacularly and was easily - too easily for expectation, considering it was planned and executed by professional under-cover men - tracked back to the President's Committee to Reelect. Gordon Liddy had been placed at the Committee by John Dean, the President's own counsel.

From these basic facts the two alternatives - case and counter-case - unwind. The chain of principals goes from the President to Dean to Liddy and from there, with a side implication of Mitchell and the Committee, to M. S. Cord-Hunt and the Cebans. In this chain, Dean is the swivel; on his integrity the integrity of the connection between the President and the act of Watergate depends. If he acted for the President, the case is as it has been stated and tried. If he acted against the President, the Administration was framed from the moment Liddy was placed at the Committee to Reelect, and maybe from the moment Liddy joined the plumbers.

Let's look at two major events immediately following the break-in. 1.) Liddy accosts Kleindienst on the golf course with a "message" from Mitchell that the burglars should be released. 2.) Haldeman approaches the President with an "idea" attributed to Mitchell (obviously through Dean) that the President should get the C. I. A. to call off the investigation by the F. B. I., which is going "in direction we don't want to go." These two events mark the beginning of the "Cover-up" phase of Watergate — ^{the appearance of} Clemency, blackmail, and pay-off by the President to the burglars; and ^{the appearance of an} obstruction of justice by the President to prevent the investigation from uncovering the crimes of his administration.

Kleindienst testified that he did not believe that Mitchell had sent him the message to release the burglars. Why, then, had Liddy lied?

The burglars were in jail. They have all testified that they were given to understand that their mission had come from "the very highest levels" — presumably the President himself, or Haldeman, Ehrlichman or Mitchell.

on the President's behalf. On that understanding, they had every reason to expect immediate rescue from that same highest level. If the expected rescue failed to come, they might well have begun to suspect that they had been deceived, that their mission never had come from the highest levels, that Watergate had not been in the service of the President. And, since they were men practised in intelligence and counter-intelligence, their next thought might well have been that they had been deceived into taking part in an act designed against the President, with their arrest and imprisonment a pre-planned necessity to that frame-up. If they reached that suspicion, they would be sure to talk, and if that suspicion was the literal truth, their talking would have wrecked the carefully planned frame-up of a President of the United States. Therefore Liddy appeared on the golf course to try to extract, by ruse, the rescue from "the highest levels" that would keep the prisoners from ~~suspecting~~ suspecting the truth of Watergate - that they had been used in a plot against the President - and to keep them from talking about that.

When Kleindienst refused to fall for the ruse, it became necessary to extract from "the highest levels" the next most convincing token of responsibility and concern for the prisoners' plight coming from highest levels — the payment of money. And so the Administration was next framed, ^{pigeon-dropped, I think is the accurate description —} into paying money the real purpose of which was to keep the burglars from revealing that the Administration had been framed. Fantastic? Let's go to the second major event, pinning obstruction of justice on the President.

The burglars are arrested and the F. B. I. has gone to Florida to check into the background of the Cubans. Immediately they discover the famous "Mexican checks" deposited in the Barker Bank account. The checks, on their face, point directly back to the President's Committee to Reelect as the employer of record in the Watergate affair. On the face, the case appears closed: the Committee has been, fortunately, incredibly careless in paying off its crime by easily traceable checks, or else the Committee is pathetically amateur.

But on the back of the checks is the mark of Gordon Liddy - either by an act of real carelessness he endorsed his real name or, back at the Finance Committee, the young man left in charge in the absence of Maurice Stone told the F.B.I. about how Mr. Liddy had volunteered to take the difficult checks off his hands. Either way, the mark of Liddy on those checks turned the case upside down. For Liddy was no amateur, he was C.I.A. If he had left those incriminating checks lying in the direct path of the investigation, it was at least a seventy per cent chance that he had meant them to be discovered and had meant them to incriminate.

How would Gordon Liddy, the man who was himself up to his neck in Watergate, have deliberately fingered the Committee to Reelect? Unless he had meant to frame the Committee from the beginning? Well, how had he happened to be connected with the Committee in the first place? It must have been no time at all that the F.B.I. came across the general knowledge at the Committee that Liddy had been introduced there by John Dean, the President's Counsel. There were now two ways to go:

The President, through his counsel, had placed Liddy at the Committee to effect Watergate which, in effect, destroyed the Committee and its head, John Mitchell. Which would mean, in effect, that the President had meant to destroy himself, since any major scandal at his reelection Committee would predictably abort his reelection. Or, the President's counsel had placed Liddy at the Committee to effect Watergate which, discovered and traced back to the Committee, would predictably abort the President's reelection: in short, the President had been deliberately framed by his own counsel.

It is at this point that Haldeman, three days after the burglary, walks into the President's office with the idea of getting the C.I.A. to call off the F.B.I. The F.B.I. was at the point of going "in the direction" of branding the case of Watergate as a plot against the President by Liddy and Dean and possibly others yet unknown. The successful obstruction of justice was the entrapment of the President, by ruse, in the derivation of the F.B.I. from the discovery of a conspiracy against an elected President of this Country. The President's crime was that he forgot to ask, and Haldeman forgot to tell him, whether Haldeman knew for a fact that Mitchell had suggested such an idea — or had ever heard of it — or whether they were only taking Dean's word for it. on the assumption that the idea came from the former Attorney General of the United States, a respected friend who (probably again on Dean's word solely) might well be himself somehow implicated in Watergate, the President consented to the obstruction. Not knowing what had happened at the Committee but giving blind loyalty to Mitchell ("we're not going to try to second-guess Mitchell on this") the President fell into the trap that Klaindinst had sidestepped by sheer sound instinct.

Why dont you, Mr. Kelly, on the mere possibility that the Counters Case is the truth, go back to where the F.B.I. must have been when it got so ironically and tragically interrupted and start again, from there?

Once the Liddy-Dean business of the C. I. A. - F. B. I. hassle got under way, it is a sure bet that both of these agencies began to be more suspicious of the President and whatever in the hell he was up to than they had, before his intervention, been of the Liddy-Dean connection. In a way, the pigeon drop worked as well to entrap ^{the F.B.I.-C.I.A.} ~~them~~ as it did to entrap the President. Each agency became suspicious of each other ~~of~~ and of the President, and jealous of its own independence and sensitive of its reputation. And all of this tangle of injured feeling and suspicion conspired to further the double aim that Dean must have had in mind when he pigeon-dropped Haldeman into telling the President that Mitchell had had the idea of getting the C. I. A. to call off the F. B. I. (an idea in which ~~Dean~~ ^{it} only happened that Dean "now concurs"). The ^{first} aim was to divert the attention of the F. B. I. from the direction it was going in - the direction of focussing on the Liddy-Dean connection and a conspiracy against the President. The second aim was to let the blame, if any, for the obstruction fall on Mitchell and the President, not on Dean.

(Notice how he learned from Liddy's experience with Kleindienst. Liddy got kicked off the golf course.

Dean stayed safely at a remove from the oval office.

If the President had been as skeptical as Kleindienst — if he had picked up the telephone and asked Mitchell if obstructing the F.B.I. was his idea, Dean could have dealt with Holdeman outside the door with,

"Oh, well, see, I didn't say that Mitchell had said this to me. I was over at the Committee and the people over there were saying that Mitchell had been talking about it." ~~And~~ And Mr. Dean could have smiled without a ripple, to try again another way.)

It is easy to see how and why the pigeon drop ~~worked~~ worked so well against an unsuspecting President, an honest F.B.I., and an honest C.I.A. But now we have the tapes, with the Dean mark clearly on the swindle. It is this clear finger print of of John Dean on the obstructions of the investigation of Watergate that ties together the counter case. It is Dean and Liddy who have the motives for bribing the ~~innocence~~ innocence and the silence of the burglars. And it is Dean and Liddy - not the President or Mitchell - who had the urgent motive to get the F. B. I. off the track in its investigation. The Tape that brought ~~not brought~~ the President finally down on the charge of obstruction is in fact the proof that what Dean had the real and urgent motive to do, he did do. Alderman could not have held that fatal conversation with the President except on the instruction of Dean.

So, unless we are willing to let it go, and let every defendant, and every Agency, escape blame as best they can by putting the guilt on the President, it seems to me it is up to the F. B. I. - for its own honor if for nothing else - to go back to where it was when it got so brutally, and so successfully, diverted from its investigation, and pick up the track from there.

If the counter case is real, as I think the evidence indicates it is, then Watergate has been the swindle of the century if not of the whole history of this country. And it is not only an administration and an F.B.I. who have been the victims. The press, the Congress, the Courts, and the people have all been used and swindled. If it can be done to one administration, it can be done to any; and Government of the people, by the people, and for the people is dead. Self-government is done in without bloodshed, without overt take-over, without the people's even knowing that they have been swindled of their right to the services of the Government they have elected. If this is not a case lesson that is being studied with intense concentration in back alleys, and in some Capitols, around the globe, I don't know what is.

So I guess I am on my knees begging you, Mr. Kelly, to keep this case open, to keep the investigation going, until we are sure we have got to the bottom of Watergate.

Yours

Margaret Healy

W. MARK FELT, 3216 Wynford Drive, Fairfax, Virginia, was interviewed at his home by SAs ANGELO J. LANO and HUGH B. MC GAHEY. FELT was advised that the interview was being conducted at the request of the Watergate Special Prosecutor and primarily concerned FELT's recall of a conversation he had with L. PATRICK GRAY and/or JOHN WESLEY DEAN, III on June 29, 1972.

FELT was shown a copy of "BATES" memo to "C. BOLZ" dated June 22, 1972. His attention was drawn to pages six and seven wherein authority was granted to conduct interviews of MANUAL OGLESBY and KENNETH DALHBERG and then having the authority rescinded on June 29, 1974.

FELT advised he does not recall ever discussing with JOHN DEAN, the FBI's interest in interviewing people in Mexico City and KENNETH DALHBERG. He stated the CIA aspect of this case, to the best recollection, was handled strictly between GRAY and the CIA and not JOHN DEAN.

FELT said his primary talks with DEAN concerned investigation by Washington Field Office at the White House level and of certain persons at the RE-Election Committee. FELT recalled one conversation dealt with the interview of KATHLEEN CHENOW, former secretary to E. HOWARD HUNT in the Executive Office Building. FELT recalled that CHENOW was out of the country and DEAN said he would arrange to have her brought back and he would also set up the interview.

Another conversation dealt with making DAVID YOUNG available for interview, and asking DEAN to locate long distance toll call records for HUNT's Executive Office Building (EOB), office.

With respect to the CHENOW lead, FELT said it was possible that DEAN told him CHENOW was part of the CIA package, but again he is not positive of this.

In conclusion, FELT again reiterated that he did not speak to DEAN about CIA leads. He did not speak to DEAN about [REDACTED] and has no recollection of a call from DEAN ordering the FBI not to interview OGARRIO and DALHBERG. B'

FELT said in discussions with GRAY about Watergate matters, other persons present were the Assistant Director CHARLES BATES and Special Agent in Charge of Washington Field Office, ROBERT KUNKLE. In some instances, he may have met with GRAY alone, and passed on information by telephone to either BATES or KUNKLE.

FELT said that in connection with instructions received from GRAY on June 29, 1972, GRAY did not tell him who requested the delay.

CHARLES W. BATES, Special Agent in Charge (SAC) of the San Francisco Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), was interviewed at FBI Headquarters to determine if he had recollection of a conversation which took place on June 29, 1972, between himself and former Assistant to the Director, W. MARK FELT. The conversation concerned the "holding in abeyance" of interviews to be conducted by the FBI in Mexico City and at Minneapolis, Minnesota. BATES was referred to pages six and seven of his memorandum dated June 22, 1972.

After examining his copy of the memorandum, BATES advised his best recollection of the events of early June, 1972 are his reported notes as reflected in the memorandum. Specifically, BATES advised that if FELT was told to hold up on the interviews, it was because then Acting Director, L. PATRICK GRAY ordered it. If FELT had received his instructions from anyone else, BATES is certain FELT would have told him. He stated he does not recall FELT telling him of a telephone call from JOHN DEAN on the morning of June 29, 1972 ordering the FBI not to conduct interviews of MANUEL OGARRIO and/or KENNETH DALIBERG.

He concluded his statement by saying that it would not be inconsistent with FELT's statement, that is, that FELT had no recollection of a DEAN call on June 29, 1972. BATES added that unless he, BATES, was present during each and every telephone call, he would have no idea as to who GRAY and FELT were speaking to.

PATRICIA PRESOCK, Secretary, Office of the Press Secretary to the President, turned over to Special Agent GEORGE E. SAUNDERS, a 1972 desk calendar with the following explanation:

PRESOCK advised that the calendar originally belonged to JEB S. MAGRUDER, and that the notations which appear on it were made by VICKIE CHERN, a former secretary to MAGRUDER.

PRESOCK further explained that the previous day, August 5, 1974, she found the calendar in her son's toy chest. She stated the reason it was at her home, as she recalls, is that MAGRUDER's original appointments calendar was turned over to the Court during the original Watergate Investigation, and CHERN began keeping record of MAGRUDER's appointments on this desk calendar. While MAGRUDER's office was being prepared at the Inaugural Committee Headquarters, someone at the Committee for the Re-Election of the President, mentioned that all 'office supplies', were to be removed and could be taken home. Those items consisted mainly of pencils, papers and miscellaneous writing materials.

PRESOCK advised that to the best of her knowledge, she took nothing else that belonged to MAGRUDER.

BETTY M. WILCOX, 10 Second Avenue, Port Washington, New York (NY), was interviewed and she furnished the following information:

She advised that all of the information that she had furnished in her letter of November 29, 1974 to United States District Court Judge JOHN J. SIRICA, Washington, D.C., was accurate and that she did not feel that it was necessary to correct any part of her narrative contained in this letter. At the outset of the interview she orally furnished her personal knowledge of Watergate related matters at the request of the interviewing agent. This narration conformed to the content set forth in her letter to Judge SIRICA.

WILCOX advised that during the Summer months of 1971 former White House Chief of Staff H. R. HALDEMAN telephoned her from Washington, D.C. under the pretext that he was tracing his family tree. WILCOX stated that HALDEMAN explained to her that her great grandfather, HENRY BIRKEL, had helped the HALDEMAN family escape from Germany during a period of oppression. HALDEMAN told her that he felt that he would not be alive today if it were not for the assistance provided to his family by her great grandfather. HALDEMAN expressed his gratitude to her on behalf of his family.

WILCOX advised that subsequent to the above telephone conversation there followed a series of telephone calls from HALDEMAN to her. She stated that these telephone calls generally lasted for approximately 20 minutes. She advised that she could not estimate the entire number of telephone conversations she had with HALDEMAN and could only say that they were many in number.

She advised that during one of these telephone conversations HALDEMAN told her that the White House was concerned about leaks of classified information pertaining to the national security. He told her that he had set up an investigating unit at the White House which was known as the "plumbers" and that the prime function of the "plumbers" was to determine the origin of these breaches of security. She advised that HALDEMAN told her that G. GORDON LIDDY and HOWARD HUNT worked within the "plumbers" unit. HALDEMAN further related to her that there was a doctor in California by the name of FIELDING who was of special interest to the "plumbers". She advised that HALDEMAN asked her if she would like to come to Virginia and work for him in connection with the "plumbers". She advised that HALDEMAN also asked her if she would be interested in taking a trip to California for the purpose of entering Dr. FIELDING's office as a prospective patient. HALDEMAN explained to her that the "plumbers" wanted to learn the manner in which FIELDING kept records concerning his patients. She advised that she told HALDEMAN that she would think about his proposal to her and would let him know in due course. She stated that HALDEMAN repeatedly brought this subject up during a series of telephone calls. Finally she decided to reject HALDEMAN's offer and informed him of her decision.

HALDEMAN had also asked her to come to work for him in Washington, D.C. as an administrative assistant. He advised her that he had rented an apartment for her in Virginia and that he was looking forward to the day that she would come to Washington. She advised that she decided not to accept his offer and so informed him during one of her telephone conversations with him.

She advised that she had heard that HALDEMAN became so depressed upon being informed of her refusal to come to Washington that he had to take three days off from work.

However, in spite of his disappointment over her refusal, the telephone calls from HALDEMAN to her continued.

Chris Herlihy, a reporter for NBC Evening News, New York City, phone 212-247-8300, contacted my office at 5 p.m. on 1/14/75 and advised that she would like a comment concerning the following information by 6 p.m. that evening. She stated that Carl Stern had interviewed John Dean at his home in California on that date and that Dean had furnished the following information:

That Charles Colson had told Dean while they were both in prison that he had read a number of CIA reports and that the CIA was up tight while Dean was testifying before the Watergate Committee as the CIA had listening devices in the Chilean Embassy in Washington, D. C., and they felt that Dean might know about these devices. Colson told Dean that the CIA had the FBI remove these devices from the Chilean Embassy.

Miss Herlihy also requested to know if the FBI had investigated a burglary in the Chilean Embassy in Washington, D. C., in 1973 and burglaries of three residences in New York City of Chilean Embassy employees.

The Intelligence Division advised that at the request of the Special Prosecutor's Office the Bureau investigated these burglaries and furnished a report to the Special Prosecutor's Office.
