SENATOR COCHRAN WARNS OF UNAUTHORIZED FUND-RAISING SCAM, ASKS FBI PROBE

U. S. Senator Thad Cochran (R-Miss.) says unauthorized individuals are soliciting "campaign contributions" in his name, and he has asked the Federal Bureau of Investigation to investigate the situation.

The Senator said he became aware of the fund-raising scam after several supporters contacted his office and said they have been approached and asked to make cash contributions. He said he asked the FBI to investigate and seek to apprehend those responsible for the unauthorized scam.

"We have been in contact with the FBI in Jackson and they are now investigating the situation," the Senator said.

The fund-raising scam follows this pattern: A caller will contact a friend or former contributor to Senator Cochran's 1984 campaign and ask for a cash contribution, saying the Senator is in Washington and personally unable to call or come by and seek the funds. However, the caller says, a member of the "Senator's staff" will come by and pick up the "contribution."

The Senator's office said this scam has occurred in several towns in Mississippi in recent weeks. "This is completely unauthorized and is a fraud being perpetrated by someone," the Senator said. "I have asked the FBI to investigate, and they are cooperating fully in seeking to apprehend those responsible for this scam."

The Senator says anyone approached or contacted for such purported contributions should contact local law enforcement authorities, the FBI in Jackson (601-948-5000) or the Senator's office in Jackson (601-960-4459).

Cochran's name used in scheme

By TOM OPPEL
Clarion-Ledger Staff Writer

Someone is trying to cash in on U.S. Sen. Thad Cochran's popularity by soliciting unauthorized "campaign contributions," and Cochran has called in the FBI to try to stop the swindle, a spokesman said Thursday.

Cochran press secretary John Perkins said the senator became aware of the situation after several supporters contacted his office in recent weeks about being approached by phone for a cash contribution.

"This is completely unauthorized and is a fraud being perpetrated by someone," Cochran said in a statement released by his office. "I have asked the FBI to investigate, and they are cooperating fully in seeking to apprehend those responsible for this scam."

Perkins said the swindle occurred in several towns around Mississippi, but could not say when the first complaint came in. Al Waits of the FBI in Jackson confirmed that Cochran's office had contacted that office, but declined to provide information on the investigation.

Perkins said the swindle follows a regular pattern: A caller contacts a Cochran friend or former contributor and asks for a cash contribution, saying the senator is in Washington and personally unable to call or come by to seek the funds. However, the caller says, a member of the senator's staff will come by to pick up the contribution.

"Right off the bat, that ought to be a signal that it's not legitimate, when they're asking for cash," Perkins said. "That's not the way you raise money. You don't go around asking for cash contributions."

He added that Cochran had engaged in no fund-raising effort this year.

While Cochran spent more than $2.7 million to defeat former Gov. William Winter and win a second Senate term last year, he reported ending the campaign with nearly $140,000 in cash.

"Somebody's going around using the senator's name, and we'd like to stop it and catch the folks," Perkins said.

Perkins said anyone approached for such a contribution should contact local authorities, the FBI in Jackson or the senator's office in Jackson.

[redacted] was telephonically contacted and after being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent, and the nature of the inquiry, provided the following information: b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that on June 7, 1985, at 11 a.m., he received a telephone call from an individual who identified himself as Senator THAD COCHRAN, who indicated he was placing the call from Washington, D. C. The caller advised [redacted] b6 b7C that he was in the process of contacting eighteen individuals in the Mississippi area and requesting a contribution of $3,500 apiece, in order that he could satisfy certain campaign obligations, most notably to a group of preachers. The caller indicated that he was aware that [redacted] had supported him in the past and therefore, he was once again calling him in order to solicit the cash contribution.

[redacted] advised the interviewing Agent that he had, in fact, contributed to the COCHRAN campaign in the amount of $500 during the last senatorial election. He further indicated that Senator COCHRAN had been very instrumental in providing economic development in the Columbia, Mississippi, area, most notably, the ORLEANS FURNITURE COMPANY (OFC), which employs a large number of workers in the Columbia area. b6 b7C

The caller indicated to [redacted] that he would send an individual by the name of [redacted] to pick up the money and specified that it should be in cash, and that [redacted] should keep the transaction very quiet. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised the caller that he would be leaving his office early that afternoon, at which time the caller advised that [redacted] would be at his office to pick up the cash contribution by 1:30 p.m. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that he was suspicious concerning this solicitation, and therefore, he decided to call [redacted] the local coordinator of the COCHRAN campaign in Columbia, concerning the transaction. b6 b7C

Upon placing this call to [redacted] he was advised by him that he was unaware of any fund raising campaigns going on in the southern Mississippi area by the COCHRAN campaign. [redacted] stated b6 b7C that this lack of knowledge concerning the solicitation by [redacted] increased his suspicion but due to the factthat the caller advised that these solicitations were being kept very quiet, he reasoned that the solicitation could still be legitimate.

At 1:30 p.m., an individual who identified himself as [redacted] showed up at [redacted] office and asked if the cash contribution was ready. [redacted] asked this individual for identification, but [redacted] indicated to him that he did not have any form of identification and everything had to be handled in a very quiet manner.

[redacted] asked this individual if anyone else in the Marion County area was being similarly solicited and [redacted] replied that this was his only stop in Marion County. The individual further stated that he had just been in McComb, Mississippi, and was later going to Hattiesburg, the Mississippi Gulf Coast, and from there on to Pensacola, Florida.

[redacted] asked the individual what vehicle he was utilizing and [redacted] replied that he had a rental from an unidentified Ford dealership in Tupelo, Mississippi. [redacted] glanced out his office window and observed a full-size black Ford LTD, which was most likely a 1984 or 1985 model. In the passenger side of the vehicle was seated a white female with black hair (no further description provided) and on the left rear window of the vehicle was a dealer price sticker.

[redacted] indicated that he could provide no further description of the vehicle and at the time he did not think to get the license tag number.

[redacted] handed this individual $3,500 in cash, all in $100 denominations, which the individual put into his pocket in a very nonchalant manner. They continued to engage in general conversation for an additional ten minutes, during which time [redacted] gave no sign of any nervousness or other actions which would arouse the suspicions of [redacted]

[redacted] indicated to [redacted] that he was a northern Mississippi coordinator for Senator COCHRAN, but he did not mention any other individuals in the COCHRAN organization. FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 7/2/85

[redacted] was telephonically contacted and after being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the inquiry, provided the following information: b6 b7C

At approximately 3 p.m. on June 5, 1985, a telephone call was placed to his office requesting to speak with the "Big Boss." [redacted] picked up the telephone and was advised that the caller was Senator THAD COCHRAN. Upon hearing this, [redacted] immediately thought that it was a practical joke and decided to go along with the conversation. The caller advised that he was attempting to raise money in order to retire debts for campaign television advertisements and also to pay monies owed to a group of preachers. b6 b7C

The caller further advised that he needed $2,500 in cash and that everything should be handled on a hush-hush basis. [redacted] asked "Where are you calling from THAD?" and the caller replied "I'm in Washington, D. C. at a pay phone." b6 b7C

[redacted] advised the interviewing Agent that there was a great deal of background noise during the conversation and he does believe that the call was being placed from a pay telephone. b6 b7C

Upon deciding to terminate this practical joke, [redacted] stated to the caller "I cannot do it and if I had $2,500 damned dollars, I'd put it in my pocket and go fishing." The caller replied "If you can't help us out now, perhaps you can help us out later and we'll be back in the fall." The caller further repeated two or three times "Please, just keep this quiet." b6 b7C

Upon terminating the telephone call, [redacted] contacted Senator COCHRAN's Jackson, Mississippi, office and advised officials there of the attempted telephone cash solicitation. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that the voice on the telephone did not sound at all like THAD COCHRAN, but he did possess a soft spoken southern accent, talked in a very smooth friendly manner. [redacted] further advised that at no time during the conversation did he ever contemplate complying with this cash request, nor was any offer made by the caller to help [redacted] business in return for the cash contribution. [redacted] advised that he may have contributed to THAD COCHRAN's campaign in prior years, but if he had, it would b6 b7C

There has been no investigative activity in this case since June, 1985. Senator COCHRAN's office issued a public statement at that time warning all citizens not to become involved in a solicitation scheme and there have been no further reports of illegal activity.

Additionally, all logical investigation has been completed, yet it has failed to result in the identification of the UNSUB responsible for this impersonation. Therefore, this matter is being closed pending the obtaining of new information or new developments.

Dear Good Persons & Senator Cochran:

[redacted] b6 b7C

Houston Chronicle in article published, May, 1993 about same time People Magazine ran front cover story about stalking of U.S. Senator Robert Krueger & Family....

FBI is standing up for lying for Senator Hutchison just as FBI is standing up for lying in Mississippi investigation of 47 deaths in jails during 6-year period. The 47 were hangings called "suicides" and "no violations" of civil rights in the deaths....

Your offices advised in letter dated 2 February, 1995, about this situation and has done nothing yet. The original letter of 2 Feb.,'95, went to Washington, D.C. and Louis Freeh, FBI Director, who made statement in late January, '95, in Jackson that FBI calling halt to investigations of deaths in jails.

Copy of article printed in The Atlanta Journal/Constitution accompanied letter....If you don't recall - maybe, you should call 1-800-846-6672 and get a copy of article....

Reason for this communication is the coming inaugural of new prexy of U. of Mississippi (Ole Miss) April 11th. Wouldn't want to see the Senator embarassed by lack of knowledge on jail deaths....Some voters would want their Senator knowing what is going on--if not, better get someone who does know what is going on in Mississippi....

Dear Members of the Government:
I am very sorry for my comments I made a few weeks ago threatening the government. I was referring to the legalization of marijuana when I wrote this. I have been contacted by the Federal Beureau of Investigation this morning, fingerprinted and photographed. I understand the seriousness of my actions, and I humbly ask for forgivness. I meant nothing by my threats, nor was I adressing any group or any one politician specifcally. I do not have any contacts or affiliations with Militia groups. It was just a stupid prank and I feel really bad about it. I was unaware of whom the e-mail was even being sent to. I just found out today. Once again, I am truly sorry, and I hope you can find it in your hearts to forgive my wrongdoings.

SUGGESTIONS

FROM THE SECRETARY

A Monthly Publication from Thad Cochran, Republican Conference Secretary

MAY 1990

BUSINESS IN EASTERN EUROPE

You may want to alert your constituents to the fact that the Department of Commerce has opened an Eastern Europe Business Information Center in Washington to respond to greatly increased demand for business information on trade and investment opportunities in Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Hungary, Poland, Romania, and Yugoslavia.

The Center has been handling about 700 calls a week, including inquiries from small companies interested in exporting or investment; firms with questions about financing, licensing, or trade promotion opportunities; and organizations and individuals interested in lending various types of assistance to the region. In response, the Center provides information on:

- The economic outlook in Eastern Europe;
- Lists of potential trade partners;
- Investment regulations and incentives;
- Priority industrial sectors in Eastern Europe;
- Upcoming seminars and conferences;
- Upcoming trade promotion events; and
- U.S. Government programs to support private enterprise, trade, and investment.

The Department is also establishing branch Business Information Centers in Warsaw and Budapest to identify and develop information on specific business opportunities for U. S. exporters and investors in the emerging markets of Poland and Hungary.

The Center will publish the Eastern Europe Business Bulletin, which each of us should receive in the future. Members of your staff wishing additional information should call 377-2645.

INTERN TOUR OF SENATE FLOOR

Once again this year, I am sponsoring tours of the Senate floor for summer interns. The tours will be led by George Cartagena, legislative assistant to Senator Warner and former member of the Republican cloakroom staff.

Tours will begin at noon on Monday, July 2, and Tuesday, July 3. Intern coordinators in each Republican office will be notified. Persons wishing to make reservations should telephone Margaret Khayat of the Conference Secretary's staff at 4-1326.

SENATE ATTENDANCE REPORTS

I recently gave each of you a letter showing the total number of votes you had cast in your Senate career through April 30.

In the near future, your career voting data will be shown on the Personal Attendance Report you receive from me each week.
